If aught of pleasure yet is mine— A pleasure mixed with pain— This pond ring on the days gone by, Which ne'er can come again! When she, all lovely as she's still, Blushed when I call'd her fair, And, if she never bade me hope, She ne'er bade me dispair.

Since he er oac me dispart.

For thee, dear maid, I fondly sigh'd,
For the I now repine,
Since Fate has sworn in solemn words,
Thou never canst be mine!
Yet fondly do I love thee still.
Though hope ne'er mingles there;
A wilder passion sways me now—
"I'is love join'd to dispair.

Farewell, a world whose gayest scenes
No pleasure bring to me;
I'd hate it's smile did I not think
It may give joy to thee.
But, if thou ever lov'dst like me,
No joy will light thine eye,
Save transient gleams, like wintry suns,
Short glancing in the sky.
Gilvillan.

MARY'S BOWER. The mavis sings on Mary's bower,
The lav'rock in the sky;
An'a' is fair round Mary's bower,
An'a' aboon is joy!
But sad's the gloom in Mary's bower,
Though a' without be gay;
Nae music comes to greet the morn,
Nae smile to glad the day.

Her lover left young Mary's hower,
His ship has cross'd the main;
There's waefu'news in Mary's bower
He ne'er returns again.
A breaking heart in Mary's bower,
A wasting form is there;
The glance has left that c'e sae blue,
The rose that cheek sae fair.

BREATH, ASTHMAS, &c.

THIS invaluable Medicine has the extraordinary property of immediately relieving Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, difficulty of Breathing, and Huskiness in the Throat.—
It operates by dissolving the congealed
Phlegm, consequently causing a free expectoration.

Those who are troubled with that unpleasant tickling in the Throat, which deprives by taking two or three bottles, have been entirely cured.

In Asthmas, Chronic Coughs, difficulty of Breathing, &c. no pen can describe the wonders that have been performed by this invaluable Medicine: many, who for years have been unable to lay down in their beds without a danger of being choked by the accumulation of Phlegm, (which invariably causes a dreadful Cough) others, who with difficulty could breathe at all in a recumbent posture, have, by taking one dose of this excellent Balsam, been enabled to lay down comfortably in their beds. But the testimonials of those who have experienced its wonderful effects, will do more to recommend and ensure it the support of the Public than any thing the Proprietor can say in its favour, and by particular request he has published the following extraordinary cases.
