CHEAP, VALUABLE, AND INTERESTING WORKS.

THE FAMILY PHYSICIAN, AND GAZETTE OF HUMAN LIFE.
 Being a Library of Health and Hygiene, and of Popular and General Medical knowledge, rendered familiar to every individual: embracing every subject connected with the prevention, treatment, and cure of disease—the qualities of medicines—their good and ill effects on health—the ingredients of secret or patent medicines—the true principles of eating and drinking, or eating and drinking to the detriment of health—chemistry—and a great variety of curious, valuable, and interesting knowledge, of the highest importance to all, and hitherto hidden to the mass of mankind.
 Contributed to by a number of practising Physicians.
 THE object of this work is to present every subject connected with disease and its treatment, which, by its simplicity and the perspicuity of its details, shall enable all who wish, to be thoroughly formed in this most interesting and important of sciences. The advantages of such a publication to all ranks of society need not be insisted upon, since they must suggest themselves to every reflecting mind. Under the influence of the diffusion of general knowledge among all classes, empiricism must be discarded, and the dangerous weapons with which it was so successfully against the life of man; the abusive employment of medicines so baneful to health, will give place to the rational administration of remedial agents, and the scientific and experienced physician will be aided in his efforts to alleviate the sufferings of humanity. Nothing that can add to the interest and utility of the work shall be neglected. The principles of diet and regimen shall be explained, and their application enforced. The ingredients of secret remedies shall be given, and the whole subject of materia medica shall be explained, and explained in a lucid and simple style.
 A premium of $100 will be awarded to the writer of the best Essay (not exceeding 20 pages octavo) on the advantages to the community of general diffusion of medical knowledge. The essays are to be directed, post paid, to the Editor, in all of June next.
 The award of the premium will depend upon the decision of several eminent physicians.
 Editors, postmasters, and others, are respectfully invited to act as agents. Any person who remits ten dollars will have ten copies forwarded him. Persons remitting one dollar will have eight numbers sent. All distant communications to be addressed to the Editor, No. 6 Cortlandt-street, New-York (and must be post paid). Yearly subscribers to commence with No. 1.
 The Editor has great pleasure in being able to announce the approbation of many eminent medical gentlemen to the plan of this publication.

THE JOURNAL OF WOMEN, AND GAZETTE OF HAPPINESS.
 Embracing a History of Women, from Eve down to the present time—their Condition and Treatment in different Countries—Female Capacity—Female Education—Love—Marriage—Courtship—Matrimony—Art of Pleasing—Fashions—Art of Deceit—Anecdotes of Females—Interesting Biographies of eminent Ladies—with Curious and Varieties of an extremely interesting nature.
 It will be the aim of the conductor of this Journal, to furnish a work that shall please, instruct, and elevate the female character. The aid of several literary ladies and gentlemen, eminently qualified for the object, is secured.
 All articles admitted into this Gazette, will be subject to the criticisms of a committee of Ladies and Gentlemen, and will be sent to the printer, at the expense of the author. A premium of $50 will be given for the best Essay on Women, not exceeding 10 common octavo pages.
 All communications must be addressed to the Editor, post paid, at No. 6 Cortlandt-street, New-York. Essays for the premium must be forwarded in all June next. The first number will be issued in May next.
 Editors generally, Postmasters, and others, are desired to act as Agents, and forward subscriptions on the above terms.—The Journal will not be sent to a distance without the money forwarded.
 The above works will each be published, monthly, and simultaneously, in New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington City, Albany, Hartford, New-Haven, Providence, and Boston, at twelve and a half cents per number payable on delivery, or at one dollar monthly, or one annum, payable on subscription. Distant subscribers will be invariably required to pay in advance. Any person remitting $10, post paid, shall be entitled to ten copies of their publication ordered, or $20 enclosed will ensure the forwarding of both. Any person remitting one dollar will have eight numbers sent.

PORTER'S HEALTH ALMANAC, New Series, For 1833; Greatly Improved.
PORTER'S Family Almanac of Health, Hygiene—Medicine—Eating and Drinking to Live—Law—Family Instruction—Wealth, or Art of Money-Getting—Embracing Calculations for all parts of the United States—the most important Rules of Health—Rules for the Prevention of Disease—Rules for the Cure of Diseases—Rules for the Use of Medicines—Rules for Dressing and Curing Wounds—Law relative to Matrimony—Parent and Child—Property—Slander, &c. &c., and Family Instruction: With a great variety of curious, valuable, and entertaining knowledge, of the highest importance to all and hitherto hidden from the mass of mankind.
 This publication will present every year, a large amount of matter, of inestimable value to both sexes—old and young, so familiarized, that families, for the trifling cost of 121 cent, once in twelve months, may be put in possession of truths, facts, and laws, relative to the management and government of the body and mind, and an understanding of civil rights, enabling them to grow up with an intimate knowledge of the things, which, if duly pursued, will ensure the GOOD HEALTH, (nearly nine of a hundred earthly blessings, and without which no one can truly enjoy life,) happiness—A COMPETENT FORTUNE—AND A LONG LIFE TO EVERY ONE.
 Published yearly by subscription, at 131 cents, simultaneously in the same places as the two preceding publications. To appear in July next. Persons wishing the work will be well to leave their names with postmasters and merchants, who will have the opportunity, in going or sending to the above places, to procure it.
 Letters enclosing money, and addressed to the Editor in New-York, will meet with due attention. The Almanac will be carefully put up and sent to any part of the United States, by mail or otherwise.

 Agents will be allowed a liberal commission.

NEW-YORK AMERICAN.
 Daily, Volume 13—An evening paper which gives the latest news of the day, both foreign and domestic, up to the hour of departure of the mails, south and north. It also contains Literary and Miscellaneous Selections, from the best Foreign and American journals, together with a Review or Notice on Saturdays of most of the new Publications that have issued from the Press during the week; it has also a liberal patronage as an advertising paper, and therefore unites the advantages of Business, Instruction, and Amusement. Those who advertise in the daily paper, have the privilege of advertising also in the Tri-Weekly American, if they desire it, and at an additional expense.
 Terms, TEN dollars per annum, in advance.

NEW-YORK AMERICAN.
 Semi-Weekly, Volume 13, is printed on a large imperishable sheet of superior paper, and will contain the latest news, both foreign and domestic; with copious selections from literary and scientific journals, both European and American; also, reviews or notices of most of the new publications of the day. A column or more will also be devoted in each paper to Internal Improvements, Mechanics, Agriculture, or Horticulture, which will serve to give variety, without interfering with those subjects to which it has been heretofore devoted. The Semi-weekly New York American will also contain a Price Current and Bank Note List, together with sales of Stock, Real Estate, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, &c. &c. all carefully prepared for the establishment.
 Terms, four dollars per annum, in advance—or five dollars if not paid in advance.

NEW-YORK AMERICAN.
 The Tri-Weekly American contains the same that is given in the DAILY paper, and differs from it only in being published every other, instead of every day. This is the only Tri-Weekly paper published in New-York. It is a very convenient medium of intelligence, at a very cheap rate, for Gentlemen in the country, who wish not only to read the news of the day, but also to learn what is doing in the business community. In the Daily paper, as well as in the Daily New-York American, will be found, in addition to the news and advertisements of the day, an extensive Marine List, Sales of Stocks and of Real Estate, Prices Current, and Bank Note Table, and all for the moderate price of five dollars a year in advance, or just one half the price of a daily paper, as well as of the postage. Although it contains as much reading and advertising as the Daily paper, the advertisements are not so often published in it as in the daily, which enables us to give all the reading matter of the Daily.
 Terms, FIVE dollars per year, in advance.

AMERICAN RAILROAD JOURNAL AND ADVOCATE OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.
 Volume 2d.—This Journal was commenced on the 1st of January, 1833, with a single subscriber. It has now just commenced its second volume, with near one thousand subscribers, scattered in every state in the Union. It was at first devoted to the subject of Rail-roads & Internal Improvements, news of the day; but it now embraces in addition to the above, a department for Agriculture, and another for the Mechanic Arts, wherein will be found an account of most new inventions. Such, indeed, has been the encouragement held out, that the publisher is induced to extend its usefulness, by making it, not only a journal of the progress of Internal Improvements by means of Railroads, Canals, and Steam Carriages, in our own country and in Europe, but also a journal of mechanical improvements and inventions, and thereby collecting a greater variety of useful information, relating to such subjects, into a smaller compass, and at a less cost than the Daily paper. It will also contain many interesting and useful literary and news residing, with such public documents as may be deemed worth recording for future reference, and all at an moderate price. It will also contain many interesting and useful literary and news residing, with such public documents as may be deemed worth recording for future reference, and all at an moderate price. THE MIDLAND DISTRICT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.
 TO announce to their friends and the public in Kingston, and throughout the Midland District, that they have this day commenced a CIRCULATING LIBRARY under the above name, which they intend shall be composed of the works of the best authors, and of the new publications as they may emanate from the press.
 Subscribers to the Library in this County will be carefully furnished with such Books as they may order; but in every instance, they will provide means for their conveyance, and be responsible for their safe carriage and good order. Catalogues of the Books and Regulations of the Library will soon be published and furnished to subscribers.
 TERMS.
 Town subscribers, for one year, $1.50; for six months, 10s. 9d.; for three months, 7s. 6d. Country subscribers, on the same terms as those residing in Kingston; but their subscriptions must be paid in advance. They will have the privilege also of drawing two works at one time.
 Any person, (not a subscriber,) may draw books from the library by paying $1 a volume.
 In commencing the "Midland District Circulating Library," the proprietors would observe that they view it principally in the light of an experiment, which an intelligent public are left to sanction or condemn. If successful, it is their intention to give the library such a character as will enable it to compete with the best institutions of the kind in the country.

 First.—To construct a Lock at the Bobcaygeon Falls, on the outlet between Sugcon and Pigeon Lakes, of about 25 feet in width, by 120 feet in length.
 Second.—To construct a Lock of same dimensions at Purdy's Mill, on the Sturgeon River, in the Township of Opa.
 Third.—To clear the Channel of the Otsego River, at Danterfield Robinson's Island, and Yankey Bonnet Shallows, not less than 60 feet in width, and of sufficient depth to admit Steamers drawing 4 feet water to pass at the lowest water.
 Fourth.—To deepen the principal entrance to the Otsego River, from Rice Lake, 60 feet in width, and of sufficient depth to admit Steamers drawing 4 feet water to pass at the lowest water.
 Fifth.—To clear out and make navigable for Boats, Canoes, Creek from Rice Lake, from the Otsego to Taggart's Mill, in Canada.
 Further information may be obtained by applying to J. G. Bellows, Cobourg, or Thomas Need, Peterborough, after the 10th day of May next, by which time the Commissioners will have had the whole intended improvements surveyed and reported upon by a practical Engineer.
 Persons tendering to erect the two Locks above mentioned, must produce satisfactory references, that they have knowledge of that kind of work, otherwise their tenders will not be noticed.
 No contract will be entered into without two sufficient Sureties for the due performance of the work.
