

GREAT BRITAIN.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM ENGLAND. The packet ship New York, Captain...

The most important item of intelligence brought by this arrival is the DEPART of the ENGLISH MINISTRY, on a question...

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT. LONDON, April 29. Half past 7 o'clock, Evening.

THE MINISTRY.—The funds have rallied in some respects this morning, under the persuasion, which has been very general in the city, that measures will be...

PORTUGAL.—The London Merchant steam vessel anchored in the river this afternoon from Oporto, having sailed from there on the morning of the 23d, and brings intelligence on the whole favourable to the constitutional cause.

Intelligence is understood to have reached the government of Oporto, of a rising at Figueras in favour of the Constitution...

A meeting was held at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, on the 26th of April, to petition Parliament for the repeal of the House and Window Tax.

House of Commons, April 28. The gallery was crowded to excess long before the time appointed for business.

ENGLAND. DEFEAT OF THE MINISTERS. We have mentioned above that the Ministry had found themselves in the minority...

Albion Office, Monday, June 3, 1833. DEFEAT AND RESIGNATION OF THE MINISTERS. From the extracts below it will be seen that Sir William Ingley in the House of Commons...

important. Our accounts are only to the morning of the 30th, and we must wait the next arrival to learn if the vote of the 26th was rescinded.

Funds fell one per cent in consequence of this vote, and the popularity of Ministers is at an end.

THE BALLOT.—On the 25th of April, Mr. Grote, one of the members for London, moved that it was expedient that all the elections of members to serve in Parliament should be taken by way of Ballot.

A meeting was held at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, on the 26th of April, to petition Parliament for the repeal of the House and Window Tax.

House of Commons, April 28. The gallery was crowded to excess long before the time appointed for business.

ENGLAND. DEFEAT OF THE MINISTERS. We have mentioned above that the Ministry had found themselves in the minority...

Albion Office, Monday, June 3, 1833. DEFEAT AND RESIGNATION OF THE MINISTERS. From the extracts below it will be seen that Sir William Ingley in the House of Commons...

that circumstance, and again divide the House on the same evening. [Hear, hear, hear.] It was known by the Hon. Member that he might have taken the chance of gentlemen coming in, and again divide the House on the main question before it.

Mr. TENNYSON said the Noble Lord distinctly stated that he should feel it his duty to carry the resolution of Friday night into effect.

Mr. ROBINSON said he did not desire to place the Noble Lord (Althorp) in an embarrassing position, but he did not desire to see the House divided on the subject of the malt tax.

FROM JAMAICA.—We have received from our attentive correspondent at Kingston, a file of the Jamaica Courant, with dates to the 14th of May.

THE HERALD. Kingston, Wednesday, June 13, 1833. The last arrival from England has furnished us with intelligence of a rather important character.

THE INFLUENZA.—The influenza continued; it had however, somewhat abated. Mr. Secretary Stanley had not recovered from his indisposition on the 26th.

ARRIVALS.—During the last week, the Rev. Mr. Cartwright and lady, Captain Dobbs, The Attorney General of Upper Canada, Dr. Dunlop, Captain Dunlop, R. N. and Lieutenant Harper, R. N. arrived in Kingston from England.

By the following extract from the London Observer, it seems that Ministers were determined to try their strength on a motion to rescind Sir William Ingley's amendment, and in the event of a failure, a property and income tax would be proposed.

EARL GREY'S YOUTH.—His early years afforded a signal proof of the impetuosity and strength of his temperament. It is known that, led astray by the privileged seductions to which the youth of every titled man of fortune is exposed, he gained and lost an immense amount.

FRANCE. The London papers contain Paris dates to the 29th of April. They announce the prorogation of the French Chambers on the morning of the 26th, by the King in person.

FROM JAMAICA.—We have received from our attentive correspondent at Kingston, a file of the Jamaica Courant, with dates to the 14th of May.

THE HERALD. Kingston, Wednesday, June 13, 1833. The last arrival from England has furnished us with intelligence of a rather important character.

THE INFLUENZA.—The influenza continued; it had however, somewhat abated. Mr. Secretary Stanley had not recovered from his indisposition on the 26th.

ARRIVALS.—During the last week, the Rev. Mr. Cartwright and lady, Captain Dobbs, The Attorney General of Upper Canada, Dr. Dunlop, Captain Dunlop, R. N. and Lieutenant Harper, R. N. arrived in Kingston from England.

By the following extract from the London Observer, it seems that Ministers were determined to try their strength on a motion to rescind Sir William Ingley's amendment, and in the event of a failure, a property and income tax would be proposed.

EARL GREY'S YOUTH.—His early years afforded a signal proof of the impetuosity and strength of his temperament. It is known that, led astray by the privileged seductions to which the youth of every titled man of fortune is exposed, he gained and lost an immense amount.

FRANCE. The London papers contain Paris dates to the 29th of April. They announce the prorogation of the French Chambers on the morning of the 26th, by the King in person.

FROM JAMAICA.—We have received from our attentive correspondent at Kingston, a file of the Jamaica Courant, with dates to the 14th of May.

THE HERALD. Kingston, Wednesday, June 13, 1833. The last arrival from England has furnished us with intelligence of a rather important character.

THE INFLUENZA.—The influenza continued; it had however, somewhat abated. Mr. Secretary Stanley had not recovered from his indisposition on the 26th.

ARRIVALS.—During the last week, the Rev. Mr. Cartwright and lady, Captain Dobbs, The Attorney General of Upper Canada, Dr. Dunlop, Captain Dunlop, R. N. and Lieutenant Harper, R. N. arrived in Kingston from England.

Canada, Dr. Dunlop, Captain Dunlop, R. N. and Lieutenant Harper, R. N. arrived in Kingston from England. The latter gentleman is to command the new Steamer St. George.

We publish, under the head of "Shipping intelligence," a few mournful particulars respecting the loss of the Lady of the Lake, by which event more than two hundred persons were consigned to a watery grave.

On Sunday morning the fine vessel intended for a Tender to the Schooner Cockburn, which was launched from the Dock Yard about three weeks ago, sailed for Port Dalhousie, having on board Commodore and Mrs. BARRIE.

ADVANTAGE OF STEAM, & RAIL ROADS. The distance from New York to Saratoga, about two hundred miles, can now be travelled in less than twenty hours.

RIDEAU CANAL.—It is confidently asserted, by those who have a good opportunity of knowing, that the Rideau Canal will be opened in about ten days—a prediction which we shall be extremely happy to find verified.

WELLAND CANAL.—By a gentleman just arrived from St. Catharines we are assured that every impediment to the free navigation of the Welland Canal is removed.

COMPLIMENT.—The story of the London Duxman, who requested the beautiful Duchess of Devonshire to permit him to "light his pipe at her eyes," is familiar to every one, and not unlike the following anecdote, the scene of which was at the late Boston Fair for the benefit of the Institution for the blind of that city.

EARLY POTATOES.—On Saturday last, remarkably fine potatoes, some of which exceeded in size a hens egg, were sold by Mrs. Hunter in the Market-square.

The circumstance of the non-arrival of the new Attorney General at the time he was expected, has afforded the Colonial Address an opportunity of heaping upon Sir John Colborne a few more of those abusive epithets in which that print so largely deals.

most and public see every per Government they not gate the des to acc Most as honest fo realize the merited ac their ma

SPORTS. York race course, First and second dollars won by match. h. Ch... Club p... ven's... old, a... very i... entered... nutes... sport w... change ly pap... in the... which... etor is... the de... defend... the co... We w...

Ch... ceived... is pub... copies... GREEN... We h... of this... be fou... prom... ly is... sued fr... sious... edical

The... cupped... the Ame... day the... after h... ed into... "Nor... five d... twenty

The... der of... of Borde... on the... publishe... ton's r... reason... tion of

By the... Verds, w... pears th... prevailed... pled sev... daily fro...

Chole... the Queb... Cholera... founded... THE... ly launc... on Thurs... Great Br... ceive her... To the... Sir, I... rank yo... printed... found in... to troubl... my last... (of what... world.)... my mind... painful... seems to... all I m... der my... doctor... Instanc... tor, &c... from the... of sendi...