NEW-YORK FARMER AND AMERICAN GARDENER'S MAGAZINE.

Whole number, Vol. 6. New Series, Volume First, No. 1, for January 1833, is just published. This is an AGRICULTURAL periodical, published monthly, containing 32 large quarto pages of three columns each, devoted particularly to Agriculture, Horticulture, &c. It will also contain such interesting matter upon other subjects, such for instance as road making and repairing, together with steam carriages for common roads, with other modes of improving internal communication. Its main object, however, is to collect from those who cultivate the soil scientifically, and observingly, and to disseminate such information as may tend to improve the mode of cultivation throughout our widely extended country. No person will deny the utility of such a publication properly conducted; nor will any one doubt me when I say that such a paper can not be properly conducted and handsomely executed, without an extensive circulation and prompt payment to meet its expenses.

TERMS, THREE Dollars per annum, in advance, and will not be sent without, as at present prices, it will not pay a commission for collecting, nor bear the loss arising from want of punctuality on the part of subscribers.

THE AMERICAN PLOUGH-BUY, This is a small agricultural paper, designed more particularly for those who do not possess the means to take a more expensive work, and yet are desirous to understand how others manage agricultural affairs. It will in a measure be confined to giving details of the practical operations of practical farmers, rather than the speculations of the more scientific. It will draw considerably upon the columns of the New-York Farmer and American Gardener's Magazine, as well as other agricultural publications. It will also give many interesting items of news and occurrences of the day, and devote one page out of four to advertisements, is required.

TERMS, THREE Dollars per annum, in advance, and will not be sent without, as at present prices, it will not pay a commission for collecting, nor bear the loss arising from want of punctuality on the part of subscribers.
