PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME OF THE ALBION.

on will commence on the first Saturday of the using year, 1834.

This Journal, which embodies the News, Politics, a Liberature of Europe, more particularly of Great stain, has been established men'y Twelve Years, and obtained a reputation and circulation far surpassing is most sanguine expectations of its founders. This stering encouragement has enabled the Proprietor, adding separate occasions, to improve, enlarge, and shellish the work, and to throw into its pages such a increased quantity of political, literary, and scientism matter, as to render it, in the estimation of its friends and of the most efficient weekly journals in the English Laguage.

ms of the most efficient weekly journals in the English Baguage.

In its details, the Albrox will be found to embrace—Notices and copious extracts from all the new publishess of value, issuing from the British Press;—the Bedates in both Houses of Parliament, with the most remarkable Spiceches at length—and the general intelligence of the British Expoires, the Continent of Europe and officer parts of the globe. In its lighter portions will be found the most annesing and agreeable Tales of the British Periodicals, which are so remarkable for their lively and sparkling tulent, selected with a diligence under care that has drawn forth the most unqualified approbation. Any thing that tends in the remotest degree to chock female delicacy, or to offend national affection, is carefully excluded, by which course the paper, has become an inmate of the most respectable and intellectual families, and may be found in the Drawing Rooms and on the tables of the most literary persons on the North American Continent.

Poetry, History, Biography, Music, and the Drawing Rooms and on the tables of the most literary persons on the North American Continent.

Poetry, History, Biography, Music, and the Drawing Rooms and on the European world,—the London and Parisian Pachicus, and a weekly summary of the Biacellandons intelligence of the day, complete the Balance.

Tach yearly volume contains about five-and-twenty pieces of acy and fashionable English, French, Spanish and Italian Music, togetter with frequent Maps, plans, Stretches, and Diagrams, illustrative of subjects treated in the general scope of the work. At the end of each volume, a bandsome Title Page, and a copious and well-arranged Index are presented to each subscriber. The Armors is published every Saturday morning in the Quarto form, on a large imperial sheet of exceedingly fine paper, printed with beautiful type, at Six Bollars Per Annum, payable in advance.

Prospectus of the Second Volume of the Prospectits of the Seconds rotatine of the Emigrant.

This Journal is devoted to the Domestic and Local intelligence of England, Treland, Scotland, and Wales. It was established at the commencement of the present year, and its second volume will begin with the year 1834. Its success so far has been highly flattering, and fully satisfies the expectation of the Proprietor.

ing, and fully satisfies the expectation of the Proprietor.

The Emigrant is intended for the use of the numerous-British residents upon this continent—its details consisting of all the local news of the three Kingdoms; the numerous occurrences in the Maining, Agricultural, and Manufacturing districts, as well as the mighty Metropolis of England. The Internal Improvements, the Corporation proceedings of the different towns and eities, remarkable Trials, &c., are faithfully recorded; also the Sporting Intelligence, state of the Markets, List of Bankrupts and Insolvents, &c. &c., all arranged under distinct heads, and adapted to such British maidence in this country as cannot obtain access to the English pagers.

The polities of the Emigrant are liberal and impartial dust wraped by any feeling of party spirit whatever it is published every Wednesday at No. 76 Cedarcet, New York, at Three Dollars per amum, payabladeance.
