

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

We are compelled to omit for the present an abstract of the debate on the Secret Society bill.

On Tuesday last Mr. Sherwood moved for the appointment of a Committee on Emigration.

He desired to adopt some means by which a steady emigration to this country might be encouraged and made beneficial to the province.

He did not contemplate any appropriation of money to pay the passages of emigrants, but to provide for completing the internal improvement of the country, in order to offer advantages of employment to emigrants, and better communications to the farmers of the interior.

He proposed to enquire whether a loan of two or three millions could not be obtained for this purpose from the Imperial Government, the Provincial Legislature offering as security the waste lands.

Every one knew that the roads were at some seasons in such a state that farmers could not pass over, and that some new leading roads were wanted.

Mr. WAKEFIELD said that the embarrassment that he always felt in addressing the House, was increased on the present occasion, in consequence of his having to follow the able speeches of the honorable member and of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

He alluded to the French Canadian people during nearly the whole of that long period, and he alluded to the French Canadian people during nearly the whole of that long period.

He alluded to the French Canadian people during nearly the whole of that long period, and he alluded to the French Canadian people during nearly the whole of that long period.

He alluded to the French Canadian people during nearly the whole of that long period, and he alluded to the French Canadian people during nearly the whole of that long period.

men in England whose means of observations were far superior to his own) that the seat of the British Empire would not pass over without the adoption of such a measure of colonization.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

depreciated all mention of this difference of opinion. He could not help mentioning it; the fact stated them in the face; and he believed that it was a fact which it was inadvisable that the Legislature should overlook in its mind in order to prevent the greatest injustice and the greatest wrong of disregard of that principle, the hon. member for the Town of Niagara had proposed that the House should, by a sudden vote or mere stroke of a pen, extend the assessment law of Upper Canada to the other portion of the Province.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

proposed Canada, and difficulties that he feared could hardly be overcome. Many schemes had already been suggested. For several years, it was the fashion to try out for immigration the expense of the Colony; and Agents had been sent to England as missionaries in the cause.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

by the hon. and learned member, but to show to the House that the Government had not failed to give due consideration to this very important subject, and that they had taken every means within their power to remedy the evils, the existence of which was universally acknowledged.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

He stated that the motto of the honorable and learned member for Toronto would lead to the proposal of some scheme of colonization for Canada which the Imperial Government might consider so sound and practicable as to deserve pecuniary aid from the treasury of the Mother Country.

DEBATE ON SEAT OF GOVERNMENT. (THURSDAY, NOV. 2.) After the routine business was gone through, the Clerk read the order of the day, and his Excellency's message on the seat of government.

Resolved—That it is the opinion of this House, it is expedient that the Seat of Her Majesty Provincial Government for the Province, should be at the City of Montreal.

Resolved—That upon Her Majesty, in the gracious exercise of Her Royal prerogative, giving directions for the location of the Seat of the Provincial Government of this Province in the City of Montreal, this House pledges itself to provide the necessary supply for the expenditure which may be expected to attend upon the establishment of the Seat of Government in that City.

Resolved—That a humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, embodying the foregoing Resolutions.

It is stated that Montreal is not central. If it is not central, it is very near it; and when a capital is in the middle of a country, it is a disadvantage.

It is stated that Montreal is not central. If it is not central, it is very near it; and when a capital is in the middle of a country, it is a disadvantage.

It is stated that Montreal is not central. If it is not central, it is very near it; and when a capital is in the middle of a country, it is a disadvantage.

It is stated that Montreal is not central. If it is not central, it is very near it; and when a capital is in the middle of a country, it is a disadvantage.