While mercry and bleeding, and other deleteriuos remidies are becoming more and more unpopular, Libby's Pills are extending the sphere of their usefulness by the appreciation of a decerning

It is now well understood now much disorders of the mind depend for their cure upon a due attention to the body. It is now understood how infinite is that medicine which will remove morbid accumulations without weakening the bodily powers. It is now understood that there is a reciptor al influence between the mind and the body. It is now understood that purging with Libby's Pills will remove melancholy, and that ven insanity is cured by perseveringly using them. It is now understood how much domestic happiness nepends upon the healthy state of the digestive organs. It is now well understood now much disorders

It is now well known that Libby's Pills have fured thousands of hopeless and helpless persons even when the first physicians had pronounced them beyond all human means of relief. It is now not only well known that Libby's Pills do cure, but it is also understood how they cure; and that it is by their purifying effect on the blood that they restore the body to health. Party of Dyspepsy and Nervous Aff-ctions; they are peculiarly adapted to remove these distressing to applaints, not by constantly physicing, but by strengthening the system. No greater mistake and he made than to suppose that Dyspepsy, or any other disease arising from debility, can be cured gy frequent forced action on the bowels with purtative medicines. Where these complaints exist, he system is already too weak, and every additional dise to not not make it more so. The Bitters, on the contrary, acting as a tonic, strengthen the digestive organs and assist them to perform their functions as nature designed. Hence it is found to be efficacious also in those diseases peculiar to females, which arise more frequently from weakness than from any other cause. DOCTOR ALLEN'S BALSAM OF HOAR-HOUND, LIVERWORT & PLEURISY ROOT, for coughs, colds, consumption & liver complaint. Consumption is a disease often secretly lurking in the system for years before there is the least complaint of the lungs; and in this is the least complaint of the lungs; and in this stage it can be cured as effectually and as certainly as any other disease. Let not persons delay the ase of medicine, until their lungs are sensibly affected, but in due season resort to Dr. Allen's Balsam of Liverwort. This medicine has proved even the "Conquerer of Physicians," for which all mankful will have abundant cause to bless the hand of unwidence.

all mankind will have abundant cause to bless the hand of providence.

Liver Complaint Cured.—Dr. Allen—Dear Sir;—I have used your Balsam of Hoathound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root, in 11 y practice for some months past, and from the wonderful effects it has had. I am fully satisfied that it possess yery superior virtues in the cure of Liver Complaint and Consumption. I do strongly recommend it to the public and the Localty.
