

MRS. CAUDLE'S CURTAIN LECTURES.

Caudle purchases and sends home a "pet monkey." The consequences thereof.

"Now Caudle—in the name of all that's hideous, what do you intend to do with that ugly spe you sent me today? Isn't it enough, Caudle, that we should have the mouth we have to feed already, but you must squander money upon zoological quadrupeds!"

"What is it then? There, Caudle—now you needn't them—you haven't got a cough—it's all done with that beast! 'Beautiful specimen!'—It's a nasty, flat-nosed, ugly brute—it is; and I'm not to be annoyed with foreign apes—I'm not!"

"I tell you I care neither for his head or tail. He shall never have a moment's peace in this house! 'You never knew any thing that did!'—I'll fix your 'beauty'—now, depend on't."

"Then—Mary!—I'll—no, I won't; I'll not be hasty Caudle—I can't endure this treatment, long—I can't—Caudle! Are you deaf? There it goes again! Caudle! Don't you hear that crash? 'You hear nothing but my noise!' I tell you Caudle: well Mary—what now?—'wound his tail around the astral, and is dragging it up the back stairs!'"

"The last sound I heard that night," continues the MSS, "was a heavy blow upon the pavement. My pet monkey had jumped from the window and we found him in the morning lying near the portico, with a broken neck!"

"Then—Mary!—I'll—no, I won't; I'll not be hasty Caudle—I can't endure this treatment, long—I can't—Caudle! Are you deaf? There it goes again! Caudle! Don't you hear that crash? 'You hear nothing but my noise!' I tell you Caudle: well Mary—what now?—'wound his tail around the astral, and is dragging it up the back stairs!'"

"The last sound I heard that night," continues the MSS, "was a heavy blow upon the pavement. My pet monkey had jumped from the window and we found him in the morning lying near the portico, with a broken neck!"

"Then—Mary!—I'll—no, I won't; I'll not be hasty Caudle—I can't endure this treatment, long—I can't—Caudle! Are you deaf? There it goes again! Caudle! Don't you hear that crash? 'You hear nothing but my noise!' I tell you Caudle: well Mary—what now?—'wound his tail around the astral, and is dragging it up the back stairs!'"

"The last sound I heard that night," continues the MSS, "was a heavy blow upon the pavement. My pet monkey had jumped from the window and we found him in the morning lying near the portico, with a broken neck!"

NOTICE.

HAVING resigned the Crown Lands Agency for the Midland District, in anticipation of my election for Kingston, I beg to inform my friends and the public that I will continue to act as a private Land Agent until all my transactions with the Crown Lands Department are finally closed, and I respectfully offer my services in this capacity, assuring those who may employ me that I will be diligent in the discharge of my duty, and moderate in my charges. As Government Agent here for several years, I have acquired a thorough knowledge of land affairs; and I correspond with the most respectable Agents at Head Quarters, for whose account I have at present a large sum of Land Script for Sale.

My Office will be for the future at my residence, within half a mile of Kingston.

A. MANAHAN. Kingston, 30th September, 1844.

NOTICE.

AS Isaac Simpson is retiring from the business, all persons indebted to the Subscriber are requested to call and pay their accounts immediately. And all persons having accounts against the Subscriber are requested to present them for settlement.

WILLIAM SIMPSON. N. B. All Notes and Mortgages past due if not settled within a Month from this date will be put in Suit. W. S. Kingston, 20th July, 1844.

For Sale by the Subscriber.

A FEW sets of Silver plated, and Britannia Metal Communion Services.

ALSO, Britannia Metal hot-water Venison dishes and plates. CHARLES W. JENKINS. Kingston, Feb. 1845.

PLAYING, VISITING, AND BLANK CARDS.

GEORGE COOK.

Of the late Firm of Ely, Smith and Cook, for the past six years, manufacturers of the CELEBRATED BARTLETT CARDS.

WOULD inform the public and the patrons of the old Establishment, No. 71, Fulton Street, where he has always been employed, that he continues the manufacture of all the varieties of Playing, Visiting, and Blank Cards, heretofore furnished by the Establishment—and that orders for various kinds will be faithfully and promptly executed on application to his sole agents, Messrs. ELY and LAYMAN, No. 71, Fulton Street, at the following prices, usual discount off, for cash, or to those who buy to sell again, viz:—

Table with 2 columns: Item description and Price. Includes Marble and white backs, Harry 8, Decatur 8, Ellsler 8, Merry Andrews, 11 Enamelled, 10 do, 9 do, 8 do, 7 do, 6 do.

Embossed Enamelled Cards, tinted and plain, beautifully polished with elegant designs as borders.

Printer's blank cards. Small blanks (playing card size) No. 1. $15 per gross. Large do do 2. - 12. Enamelled sheets cap size and 20 by 24 inches. Ivory surface do do 2. - 24. Pearl do do do 2. - 24. Blank sheets do do 2. - 62.

Also, Railroad and Steamboat Tickets made to order of any colour, or of different colours, as may be desired.

The Subscriber invites all editors of the United States and Canada, who are disposed to take their pay in cards, and who will send him a copy of their papers, containing the advertisement to insert it for three months.

INFORMATION WANTED.

OF HENRY BOTTING, from the parish of Horsham, county of Sussex, England, if living, now about 60 years of age, who emigrated from England in 1816, having sailed for Quebec, and was last heard from a few miles above that place. Any information respecting him will be thankfully received by his nephew, the undersigned, (son of Elizabeth Botting) now living at Picton, District of Prince Edward, Canada West.

JOHN GREENFIELD. Picton, 8th April 1845.

Editors of Canadian newspapers will confer a favour by giving the above an insertion or two.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PERIODICAL.

TO BE ENTITLED THE BRITISH NORTH AMERICAN MEDICAL & THIRDSOPICAL QUARTERLY REVIEW. It is proposed that a Quarterly Periodical with the above title, be forthwith attempted in British North America.

This Work, as its name indicates, will be exclusively devoted to Science; and will embrace the physical features of British North America, in all their known varieties—also the Medical Statistics of its Towns, Hospitals, Asylums, Prisons, &c. And lastly, an outline, or a succinct account, so far as its limits will permit, of all that is valuable as regards facts and doctrines in other and similar works, and periodicals of repute.

The Periodical will be Edited by DR. SPEAR, assisted by other Literary and Scientific Gentlemen, in various parts of the Province. It is proposed that the first Number be published in April, 1844, or as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers are obtained, to warrant the expense of the undertaking.

The Terms of Subscription, will be £1 5s. per annum, payable in advance. Persons desirous of subscribing, are requested to send notice (postage free) to the proposed Publishers.

H. & W. ROWSELL. 163 King Street, Toronto. The Editors of papers in Toronto, Kingston, Montreal and Quebec, are requested to give the above Prospectus a few insertions, for which they will be entitled to a copy of the publication, for the first twelve months.

W. M. SIMPSON BEGS to call the attention of the trade to his extensive stock of Groceries, Wines, Liquors, &c., which he will sell wholesale and retail.

34 Bbls. Muscovado and Leaf Sugars, 200 Packages black and green Teas, Plug, Cavendish and Nairrod Tobacco, 40 boxes London sperm and patent wax candles.

A lot of imitation Cheshire Cheese from the well known dairy of Joseph Platt, 40 bags fine Lagura, Java and real Hocho Coffee, 500 bbls Liverpool and Onondaga Sdt, 250 " American superfine flour, 250 " No. 1 North-shore Herrings a few bbls. Mackerel, 40 bundles Talc Codfish, Fine old brown & pale Cognac Brandy in wood and bottles, Fine old Irish Whisky, real Holland and Scheidam Gin, Very superior Old Port and Sherry in bottles, 65s. to 20s. per doz.

16s. 3d. to 3s. 9d. per gallon, 40 qr. casks Bordeaux Brandy, and ordinary Holland Gin, 6s. 6d. per galon, Old Ration Rum and fine French Cherry Brandy in cases of 1 doz. each, Teneffs Wine 5s. to 7s. 6d. per gallon, Blackburn's Madeira, Chagnac, Claret, and Hermitage, various brands, Barten and Guesquier's Claret Vintage of 1832, West India Shrub, Peppermint &c, Bridge's London Porter and Leith Ale in pints and quarts, 40 bbls. Pictou and Port Hope whisky, 9 hbls. Molasses, 100 cases Lemon Syrup, Sperm, Olive, Seal, Tanners', and boiled Linseed Oil, 40 Crates C. C. Crown glass, 20 bags Wine corks, Fancy Fruits, Hazel, Brazil, Wall, Pican, Pea, and Cocoa Nuts, Raisins, Prunes, Figs, Winter Lenons, sweet and bitter Almonds in boxes 25 lbs. each, West India preserves, By appointment, Everett's premier Hacking from 51 Fetter Lane, London, which will form a brilliancy equal to patent Leather. N. B. Fine Sydenham table Ale 6s 3d. per doz., bottles returned. Ontario Street, Kingston, Jan. 1844.

AGENCY AND COMMISSION BUSINESS.

The Subscriber respectfully tenders his sincere thanks to his friends and the public generally, for the very liberal support he has received since he commenced business in Kingston, and begs to acquaint them that he is now prepared to receive consignments of any description of Property, at his old stand on the Commercial Wharf, foot of Princess Street, when every effort will be made to give satisfaction to those who may favour him with their patronage.

From his extensive acquaintance with the Trade generally, he is confident that he can dispose of property with as much dispatch, and to as good advantage as any other in the same line of business.

HUGH CALDER. Commercial Wharf, Kingston, 2nd April, 1844.

HARDWARE.

JAMES POWELL in returning thanks to his numerous Town and Country customers for their past favours, begs to inform them and the public generally, that he has recently removed into his New Stone Building, adjoining his old stand in Prince Street, where he has on hand, and now open for examination, an extensive assortment of HEAVY HARDWARE, SHELF AND FANCY GOODS, Paints and Paint Stuffs, PLAIN, JAPANED & BLOCK TIN WARE, AND STOVES of all descriptions, at prices heretofore unprecedented in this Market.

A FEW DOZEN CASES WOOD AND BRASS CLOCKS Thirty hours and eight days, together with a large assortment of PLOUGHS and PLOUGH POINTS of various patterns. The highest price paid, either in exchange or cash, for old Brass, Copper, Pewter, and Lead.

J. P. solicits the public patronage, trusting that his prices will sustain him more fully than his lengthy elaboration on his part. Kingston, March 18, 1845.

TO BE LET.

THE STONE COTTAGE, in Johnson Street, next to the Baptist Chapel, at present occupied by Mr. Gillespie. Possession given on the 1st July.

ALSO—Several houses & dwellings, near the Marine Railway. Possession given immediately. Apply to CHAS. W. JENKINS. Kingston, 8th May, 1845.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

OBSEVE CHARLES WILLMER has NO CONNECTION whatever with Messrs. WILLMER & SMITH, and all orders or communications for CHARLES WILLMER must be addressed in full to the TRANSATLANTIC NEWSPAPER OFFICE, 5, South John Street, LIVERPOOL.

NEWS! NEWS! NEWS!!! TRANSATLANTIC NEWSPAPER OFFICE, 5, SOUTH JOHN STREET, LIVERPOOL.

CHARLES WILLMER, Newspaper Forwarding & General Agent, CONTINUES to supply to order, with great promptitude and regularity than any other house, and on the most reasonable terms, (a London Daily Paper for £6 10s. Sterling per annum.) NEWSPAPERS, PRICES CURRENTS, SHIPPING LISTS, MAGAZINES, BOOKS, and STATIONARY, TYPE, PRINTERS' and BINDERS' MATERIALS, and Merchandise of every description.

Nothing gains admission into the pages of this Magazine, which is not excellent in itself. The source from which an article comes is secondary, its merits always primary. Such a rule, strictly carried out, must give character to any work.

It has given "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" a character already acknowledged in all respectable quarters where it has been received. Among the inexhaustible sources that open up to the hands of a literary caterer, GERMAN and FRENCH LITERATURE offer a wide field for selection.

Into this region, with the admirable Corps of Translators, we are steadily penetrating, established at every step by the riches we meet. Especially is this the case in Literature. Already we have given some splendid articles from the German, brim full of pure truths, and forcible illustrations of the power of goodness.

"The Unknown Patient," "The Russian Prince," "The Privy Councillor," &c., &c., all who have read will remember with delight. From the French we have also given many first-rate articles. "The Perplexed Lover," from Madame de Genlis, also, the "Lesson of Misfortune," and "The Error of a Good Father," from Marmontel, with fine tales from DUMAS, LACROIX, NODDIE, BALZAC, and other authors of celebrity.

In selecting from the French, our Translators are guided by a strict regard to Purity and Excellence; none know better than they do, how much that is objectionable abounds in the light literature of this people. But, flowing along by the side of this impure current, is another, as lucid and clear as crystal. From this they dip up the waters and present them to our lips.

At this fountain, we shall continue to let our readers drink. But, in doing so, we shall not neglect the excellencies of our own native Literature. This would be the worst of folly. Yet in doing this, we shall make no parade of names. The public are getting to understand pretty clearly how much this is worth, and to discover that excellence is not always to be found in the fugitive productions of writers who are doing well in looks. Our country is teeming with young genius, too often overshadowed and hidden by the successful, who possess not half their intrinsic worth, and whose writings exert not half so healthy an influence. They are crowded from the path in which they are fitted to walk, and their merits kept out of sight by a few who have gained the public ear and eye, and are kept before the public, not so much on account of the superior excellence of what they are giving forth, as on account of what they have done.

To merit, wherever we find it, we will give the right hand of fellowship. We would not accept a poor article from the most celebrated writer in the country; but a good one, let it come from where it will, shall find a welcome. In all sources, at home and abroad, we shall seek the Good, the True and the Beautiful. For some time, and with too much justice in the opinion of our Magazine, have been charged with being too light and trashy. This we have from the first steadily avoided. "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" will continue to sustain a high character for Excellence in all its Departments.

Something more than mere love tales will be sought for; and, sparkling with wit and happy feeling, will have in them a soul—a living soul of goodness and truth. Reviews, essays and sketches, with poetry that shall be truly called such, will be blended with them in just proportion.

This much in regard to the literary department of our Magazine. Another matter claims our attention—that of PICTORIAL EMBELLISHMENTS. Custom and taste have rendered them indispensable in a literary work like ours. We shall not stand to argue the matter with Custom and Taste, but proceed to open up our intentions on this head. First, then, we have determined to present the subscribers to "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" during the year, with

A Novelty, of a highly attractive character. No less than a series of SIX FEMALE CHARACTERS FROM SHAKESPEARE! Engraved on steel in a highly finished style. This Shakspeare Gallery of Beauty will present embodied to the eye, some of the noblest and most beautiful creations of the mind, as well as one or two celebrated characters in history, around his magic pen has thrown a new charm. What lover of the Poet's immortal creations, will not be eager to secure this splendid series of Engravings! Not one, surely. Every possessor of a copy of Shakspeare, and whose library does not contain his works! will have, at a mere nominal cost, six exquisite illustrations, not to be obtained any other way. This is certainly a great desideratum. But, besides these beauties from Shakspeare, we are making arrangements to procure a series of female figures, far surpassing in loveliness and form and face, and exquisite finish, any thing that has yet appeared in any American magazine.

CELEBRATED VIEWS. In this and other countries, will also be a leading feature in our work. For the January number we shall give a highly wrought view of THE BRIDGE OF DOON, over which Tam O'Shanter fled in such hot haste from the kirk and the witches. This splendid steel plate will accompany the first of our Shakspeare beauties, and will make that number of our work a highly attractive one. No less so will be that for February. Nor shall there be any falling off in the style of embellishment, or in the character of the literary contents of the work. From the first we have aimed at a gradual improvement. We do not issue one or two good numbers, and then afterwards list of subscribers is filled up, fall off. But we endeavor to make every number better than the one that preceded it. Excellence, as we have before said, is our aim. But, besides our Shakspeare Gallery, our Gallery of Female Beauty, Our Celebrated Views, we shall introduce, from time to time, other attractions, in the way of embellishments. In addition to the foregoing, there is yet another feature, no less a desideratum, which we have commenced in the January number, and continued until completed. This will be within the year, so that all who subscribe for the Magazine during 1845, will receive this new work. These who have read "Bell Martin," "Fanny Dale," "Leuchford's first insertion, and 10d. each subsequent insertion. Over ten lines, 4d. per line subsequent insertion, and 1d. per line each subsequent insertion. All transitory advertisements must be paid for by irregular customers, must be paid for by regular subscribers, must be paid for by regular subscribers, must be paid for by regular subscribers.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

Cheapness, Elegance & Excellence COMBINED!

Before Subscribing to a Periodical for 1845, read the following PROSPECTUS OF THE THIRD VOLUME OF ARTHUR'S LADIES' MAGAZINE.

PRICE ONLY 2 DOLLARS PER ANNUM, Forty-Eight Pages Reading matter, besides two Elegant Steel Plates, in Each Number!

The Publishers, in sending forth their Prospectus for the third volume of their Magazine, which is exclusively and permanently under the editorial control of T. S. ARTHUR.

Believe that they can offer to the public most substantial claims to patronage. The first and second volumes have been acknowledged on all characters and in many respects, superlatively, in character, strength, interest and attractiveness, to any of the magazines issued. The aim of the Editor is a high one. He repudiates the long prevalent system of basing his work upon the reputation of contributors, whose articles, no matter what they have done, are, in too many instances, below mediocrity.

Nothing gains admission into the pages of this Magazine, which is not excellent in itself. The source from which an article comes is secondary, its merits always primary. Such a rule, strictly carried out, must give character to any work.

It has given "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" a character already acknowledged in all respectable quarters where it has been received. Among the inexhaustible sources that open up to the hands of a literary caterer, GERMAN and FRENCH LITERATURE offer a wide field for selection.

Into this region, with the admirable Corps of Translators, we are steadily penetrating, established at every step by the riches we meet. Especially is this the case in Literature. Already we have given some splendid articles from the German, brim full of pure truths, and forcible illustrations of the power of goodness.

"The Unknown Patient," "The Russian Prince," "The Privy Councillor," &c., &c., all who have read will remember with delight. From the French we have also given many first-rate articles. "The Perplexed Lover," from Madame de Genlis, also, the "Lesson of Misfortune," and "The Error of a Good Father," from Marmontel, with fine tales from DUMAS, LACROIX, NODDIE, BALZAC, and other authors of celebrity.

In selecting from the French, our Translators are guided by a strict regard to Purity and Excellence; none know better than they do, how much that is objectionable abounds in the light literature of this people. But, flowing along by the side of this impure current, is another, as lucid and clear as crystal. From this they dip up the waters and present them to our lips.

At this fountain, we shall continue to let our readers drink. But, in doing so, we shall not neglect the excellencies of our own native Literature. This would be the worst of folly. Yet in doing this, we shall make no parade of names. The public are getting to understand pretty clearly how much this is worth, and to discover that excellence is not always to be found in the fugitive productions of writers who are doing well in looks. Our country is teeming with young genius, too often overshadowed and hidden by the successful, who possess not half their intrinsic worth, and whose writings exert not half so healthy an influence. They are crowded from the path in which they are fitted to walk, and their merits kept out of sight by a few who have gained the public ear and eye, and are kept before the public, not so much on account of the superior excellence of what they are giving forth, as on account of what they have done.

To merit, wherever we find it, we will give the right hand of fellowship. We would not accept a poor article from the most celebrated writer in the country; but a good one, let it come from where it will, shall find a welcome. In all sources, at home and abroad, we shall seek the Good, the True and the Beautiful. For some time, and with too much justice in the opinion of our Magazine, have been charged with being too light and trashy. This we have from the first steadily avoided. "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" will continue to sustain a high character for Excellence in all its Departments.

Something more than mere love tales will be sought for; and, sparkling with wit and happy feeling, will have in them a soul—a living soul of goodness and truth. Reviews, essays and sketches, with poetry that shall be truly called such, will be blended with them in just proportion.

This much in regard to the literary department of our Magazine. Another matter claims our attention—that of PICTORIAL EMBELLISHMENTS. Custom and taste have rendered them indispensable in a literary work like ours. We shall not stand to argue the matter with Custom and Taste, but proceed to open up our intentions on this head. First, then, we have determined to present the subscribers to "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" during the year, with

A Novelty, of a highly attractive character. No less than a series of SIX FEMALE CHARACTERS FROM SHAKESPEARE! Engraved on steel in a highly finished style. This Shakspeare Gallery of Beauty will present embodied to the eye, some of the noblest and most beautiful creations of the mind, as well as one or two celebrated characters in history, around his magic pen has thrown a new charm. What lover of the Poet's immortal creations, will not be eager to secure this splendid series of Engravings! Not one, surely. Every possessor of a copy of Shakspeare, and whose library does not contain his works! will have, at a mere nominal cost, six exquisite illustrations, not to be obtained any other way. This is certainly a great desideratum. But, besides these beauties from Shakspeare, we are making arrangements to procure a series of female figures, far surpassing in loveliness and form and face, and exquisite finish, any thing that has yet appeared in any American magazine.

CELEBRATED VIEWS. In this and other countries, will also be a leading feature in our work. For the January number we shall give a highly wrought view of THE BRIDGE OF DOON, over which Tam O'Shanter fled in such hot haste from the kirk and the witches. This splendid steel plate will accompany the first of our Shakspeare beauties, and will make that number of our work a highly attractive one. No less so will be that for February. Nor shall there be any falling off in the style of embellishment, or in the character of the literary contents of the work. From the first we have aimed at a gradual improvement. We do not issue one or two good numbers, and then afterwards list of subscribers is filled up, fall off. But we endeavor to make every number better than the one that preceded it. Excellence, as we have before said, is our aim. But, besides our Shakspeare Gallery, our Gallery of Female Beauty, Our Celebrated Views, we shall introduce, from time to time, other attractions, in the way of embellishments. In addition to the foregoing, there is yet another feature, no less a desideratum, which we have commenced in the January number, and continued until completed. This will be within the year, so that all who subscribe for the Magazine during 1845, will receive this new work. These who have read "Bell Martin," "Fanny Dale," "Leuchford's first insertion, and 10d. each subsequent insertion. Over ten lines, 4d. per line subsequent insertion, and 1d. per line each subsequent insertion. All transitory advertisements must be paid for by irregular customers, must be paid for by regular subscribers, must be paid for by regular subscribers.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

ADDITION to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories.

those pointed moral essays, told with so much skill, beauty, and power.

The Attractions of the Editor's own pen, our work, which is no other magazine, furnishes a story occasionally, each number of our magazine will contain many papers, inimitable writings, and the whole will impress of his pure taste, and sound judgment.

SIZE OF THE WORK. "Arthur's Magazine" will consist of 48 pages of reading matter, the same quantity as the three dollar magazines, and given in Engravings in each number, while the whole will only cost 2 DOLLARS PER ANNUM, PATENT ADVANCE.

TERMS. 1 Copy $2 per annum, 11 Copies $18 00 3 Copies 5 " 17 " 00 4 " 6 " 17 " 00

It will particularly call the attention of our friends, the Post Masters, to the character and quality of the work. The January number will follow early in the month.

Specimen numbers will be sent gratuitously to any who will write to us free of charge. A specimen of the January number can be had by the last of December, and previous thereto.

Before subscribing to any other work, send for, and get a specimen of our number. Depend upon it, all who read a magazine that, while it combines elegance and excellence, is yet furnished at a very low price, find "Arthur's Ladies Magazine" the most desirable.

Address, post-paid, J. W. FERRETT & CO. PUBLISHERS, 101 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SALE. WITH positive orders to clear the following: 75 Packages of Tea, consisting of Young Hyson, Gunpowder, Imperial, &c. 20 kegs Plug Tobacco, 10 boxes Cavendish, do. 10 lb. boxes Ladies' Twist, 16s. & 4 " do Honeydew, 10 do English Candles, 10 do Star Brand, 2 casks Rice Oil, 4 qr. casks White Wine Vinegar, 50 bbls. Canada Whisky, 25 do North Shore Herrings, No. 1, 100 quintals Table Coffee, 100 lbs. packed Butter, 200 bbls. Fine and Superior Flour, &c. &c. All of which will be disposed of low for or approved Credit.

HUGH CALDER. Commercial Wharf, Kingston, 21st January, 1845.

CLARK WRIGHT, Hat & Cap Manufacturer, WELLINGTON STREET, KINGSTON. A large assortment of HATS and CAPS, LADIES' FUR BONNETS, made by himself from the best materials, and at the latest fashions, kept constantly on hand, and sold very low for cash. November, 1844.

Port Wines. JUST received, a supply of the best known Wines of HUNT & Co. in hbls, qr. casks and cases of all kinds. Wm. SIMPSON. Ontario Street Kingston, 11th November 1844.

Laud Scrip for Sale. APPLY (if by letter post paid) to HENDERSON, Land and General Agent, No. 33, Little St. James Street, Montreal, to A. MANAHAN, Land Agent, Kingston.

FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBER. ENGLISH PATENT STRAINING NETS. CHARLES W. JENKINS. Kingston, Feb. 1845.

FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBER. SYKES'S Hydrometers (by Druggist & Chemist) with tables, &c. CHARLES W. JENKINS. Kingston, Feb. 1845.

NOTICE. IS hereby given, that the Corporation of Kingston, in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature, passed in the year 1841, and in pursuance of a resolution of the Council, passed on the 10th day of March, 1845, do hereby give notice, that they will receive applications for the office of Town Clerk, on the 1st day of April, 1845, at the office of the Town Clerk, in the City of Kingston, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

BLANKS FOR SALE. REQUESTS and other B. A. N. & S. variety for sale at the Herald Office. SAMUEL MORLEY, CHARLES W. JENKINS. Kingston, 27th Nov. 1844.

MESSRS. HARRISON & PARTNERS, Barristers, Attorneys, Solicitors in Chancery, 11 WELLINGTON BUILDINGS, Corner of King and Church Streets, TORONTO.

BLANKS FOR SALE. REQUESTS and other B. A. N. & S. variety for sale at the Herald Office. SAMUEL MORLEY, CHARLES W. JENKINS. Kingston, 27th Nov. 1844.