The steamer Telegraph arrived to-day, with Lieut. Col. Forno, after six days passage, with five companies of the Washington regiment, commanded by Captains Glenn, Breedlove, Bryel, R. Stockton and Somat. Four companies of U. S. infantry, together with Capt. J. F. Stockton's company of Louisiana volunteers, and the Mobile volunteers, left here this merning for Bareta, 16 miles from this place, (Point Isabel) where they are ordered to remain until reinforced by the Washington Regiment, Col. Walton and the Andrew Jackson Regiment, Col. Marks. However, there is a rumor in camp this evening, that all the volunteers here and those to arrive, will be landed by vessels of war on the West side of the mouth of the Rio Grande, and marched immediately to Matamoras—this we are led to believe, is beyond doubt, from the active preparations in camp, the extra and constant drill of all the companies here, and the heavy amount of ammunition with which they are all supplied. The whole force here to night, including teamsters, etc., amounts to about 1000, all well armed and equipped, under the command of Mai. Monroe. This place, under to command of Mai. Monroe. The steamer Alabama arrived at Mew Orleans on the 22d instant, in forty-five hours from Brasos de Santiago. She sailed thence on Tuesday, the 19th inst, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

Official intelligence had reached Point Isable, of the capture of the Mexican town Barrita, without opposition, by Col. Wilson, with four companies of regulars and three companies of Alabama volunteers.

Two thousand Mexican treops had been seen to march out of that city, and as no cannonading had been heard at Point Isabel, it was supposed that the Mexicans had evacuated the place, and allowed General Taylor to take quiet possession

It is said that Gen. Smith and his troops had commenced their march to the Island of Boca Chica, to cross the Rio Grande at its mouth, and thence advance up the river, on the Mexi-can side, to form a junction probably with Gen. Taylor's forces as they cross opposite Matamor-

Lord Ashburton moved for a return of the quantity of wheat in bond up to the latest period it could be made up, and also for an account of the amount payable upon every £100 of tithe, paid under the tithe commutation act down to 1845. His object in moving for these returns was to show the immense quantity of wheat there was in bond, and to prove to their Lordships the real state of facts, when they came to the consideration of a bill in progress elsewhere, so deeply affecting the agricultural portion of the community.

Earl Grey complained that the farmers suffered by delay. From the bad quality of the wheat crop of last year, which required mixing with that of foreign growth, it would have been a politic measure to let out a portion of the latter by degrees rather than allow it to accumulate in bond. The motion was then agreed to.

THE UNIVERSITY BILL LOST The following, from the Pilot of Saturday, announces the loss of the University Bill, that latest humbug of the thimblerigging ministry.

WINISTERIAL DEFEATS.

Yesterday was a day of tribulation for Mr. Draper. First of all, at the morning sitting, Mr. Cayley moved a resolution to exempt from duty cattle, and various other agricultural products imported for the use of the Commissariat. Mr. Watts moved an amendment, which was carried, the Ministers being loft in a minority of 8. Mr. Tachereau voted against them, and Mr. Sherwood skulked. Draper, Daly, Papineau, Viger, Smith, and three others! And the best of all was that one of the three, Mr. Petrie, had substituted a resolution of his own for the ministerial one, which would not have had a single supporter. More of this in our next. In the evening, after a powerful speech from
Mr. Baldwin, in which he fully exposed all the dodges and tricks of "the artful," the "Univerdodges and tricks of "the artful," the "University Bill" was kicked out by a majority of 39 to 19. In the majority was the consistent Mr. Henry Sherwood, who a few days ago declared emphatically his approbation of the principle of the bill. In the misority were to be found Draper, Viger, Papineau, Daly, and Smith! Mr. Henry Sherwood has taken the initiative of another scheme, a commission of 5 to be appointed by the "artful dodger" to make a report to enlighten the jugorant as to the best mode of settling the question.

In order to reward the political services of the notorious Gowan, the Government put one of his sone as Clerk in this Custom House, although he is wholly incompetent to perform the duties. And this is the Government which pretended that all appointments should be made on the ground of merit, irrespective of political considerations! The thimbleriggers have violated all their promises, mocked all their fair professions, and publicly proclaimed themselves to be impudent imposters, who assumed a mask of seeming impartiality, only to betray the simpletons who took them to be what they seemed to be, and established the most profligate partizanship while professing to denounce it in others.
