£116,200 0 9,013 13 1 £125,213 13 1 £125,213 13 is e in his place, as hat he had been a hat he had been a Messengers dum lise, and whilst hat a Mr. Philip hat a Mr. De Gaspe to Harring had a not having had a not having had a not having had a fr. De Gaspe asket or of a certain external certain.

tr. De Garpe ask oor of a certain pan aper; he denying a something like threatened him win he came outside the aspe at the same that him, calling hims such epithets, where he of the Messengers ere. Mr.

ere. Mr. De Gas ith personal violen

i meet him outside rtin, Resolved, That said declaration con-ne priveleges of the aid Philip Aubert De as been guilty; and ken into the custody Arms attending the the judgment of the Speaker do issue his

Hunt, an address was arrears due, and te-entingent expenses of sent session.

SOVEREIGNS

rning Herald, Oct.9. At the close of my mentioned the arrival usia. He came in, as any retinue, having tary manner by the

the two sources of two sourc t must omit the cernt fact. The Empe always playing a part popularity, while in as not half an hour in went into the streets one attendant, and wn, the gardens and citizen who came to s certainly a very face x feet in height, fair, nd Roman nose which and bold expression. ness to the Emperor he so well remembered nages were in a bustle e palace rung for the a bustle of complimes high she was received to her, and most pleas by a stranger as indi ity which accompanies upperor of Austria and of her arrival, left the led the grand staircase, ng open corridor, and stle gate just as the ed by all the royal and omposing their society, f Austria leading the and the emperor of Ruse courtesy to the courtesy orms and full-dressed d them to the aparteen magnificently fit.

The empress of Rusking of Prussia, is a dsome woman. She ssed, and her manner ssed, and her maner it than the other lides on this occasion, and exception, fall short e which distinguishes sia arrived about the he was expected, and ted battle ground witness what was go f the road, and two prosed of muskets, pistoli, the action, and em-hemian, Austrian, and hemian, Austria, as re constructed at the roads from Dresden, it which he might come, ros connected with the to do him honor, be the here—but the good all the slip, and step-line carriage into a live infantry and currassiers to the gaudy blue and gold of the Lancers and Hossars. The genius of Mr. Stulutz alone could do justice to such a variety of coats, jackets and pelese, with gold lace, silver lace braidings, saulettes, cocked hats, round hats, shakoes, idease, sashes, swords; sabres, and heaven knows what besides—I shrink even from the attempt, and turn with pleasure to the line of female charmers who move in all the hues of the best Parisian and Vienna milliners. Women full dressed are exposed to a severe trial in the noon day, and very few in England can with stand it. The ladies of the court here have good homely complexions and fine skins, both a sound defence against the sunshine, but few of them were neatly turned, and the figure was clumsy and the foot ill shaped with the greater number. Their costume was also heavy for a beautiful warm them the mighty elements of intellectual achievements and them the mighty elements of intellectual achievements and repet the attacks of truth and good government against numerous as sailants, with more than knightly gallantry and the figure was clumsy and the foot ill shaped with the greater number. Their costume was also heavy for a beautiful warm them the mighty elements of intellectual contained 2 of 3 weeks ago, has been found in Green Bay, Long Island.

Yesterday was the twenty-third anniversary of the Battle of Kingston, when the American Squadron, consisting of a Brig treatment of the Marchael and six smaller armed vessels entered the Harbor with the intention of cutting out the Royal George, a twenty-two gun Brig, but were heat off by the batteries which were manned by the Provincial Artillerry, aided by an Officer and half a dozen of the non commissioned Officers and gunners of the Royal Artillery. The Militia of the District generally, were on the ground, ready to meet the enemy had they effected a landing. We think a day so glorious to kingston, ought in future to be commended a landing. On the following day the Schooner Simulation of the public import

The dinner took place at two, and ended at The battle field of Culm is an interresting scene, and I intend going over it in detail on the day when a grand manœuvre in im-itation of the action will take place, all the Prussians to the memory of the dead, and bearing the brief inscription of "a grateful country to its brave defenders," and the other a large square column, erected by the Austrian Army to the Prince Call. Austrian Army to the Prince Collorodo Mansfield, who commanded the first day, and was killed in the second fight.

It bears a variety of inscriptions commem-rative of the event, and it is shown by a hale veteran who was wounded in defend-ing the general, and got this place and pen-

The Address of the Lower Canada Assembly to Lord Gosford has appeared, and is better in its tone than we expected. It ompliments the Governor, and returns anks for the concessions that are made to hem; but still insists on all their previous demands, especially an elective council. At the same time the Address makes no men-

For an Act to encorporate a Company for the purpose of cutting a Canal through the same time the Address makes no mention of a civil list, nor of paying the money. Whether the captain and crew hall been the order of the purpose of cutting a Canal through the Bruce dismasted and no one aboard—whether of these measures will be agreed to by the Assembly. The Government will find that they have only strengthened the hands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the hands of a faction who will soon stop the hands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will soon stop the bands of a faction who will so a stop the soon of the strength of the soon of the soon of the strength of the soon of the soon of the strength of the soon of the soon of the strength of the soon of the weeks after the other sovereigns leave. His which are of permanent interest and importance in the queen, but the princess Lignification of the countess Hanach, the mark, formerly the countess Hanach, the mark, formerly the countess Hanach, the mark, formerly the countess Hanach, the mark portance. If we saw a man tearing up a valuable book, we should think him to be very foolish and censurable. Yet newspared women in Germany, and is still handsome; women in Germany, and is still handsome; women in Germany, and is still handsome; women in Germany, and prefers passing his hours ached to her, and prefers passing his hours and reasonings of public menmen who have time, ability and inclination to think, and publish their thoughts on various exciting questions of national or gently to day at the prefers of the termination to think, and publish their thoughts on various exciting questions of national or gently to day at the prefers of the termination to think, and publish their thoughts on various exciting questions of national or gently to day at the prefers of the termination to think, and publish their thoughts on various exciting questions of national or gently the counters. The was a man tearing up a the Rev. E. Ryerson, the former preaching the Rev. E. in, to spending the court.

There was a grand dinner party to-day at the chateau, composed of the great personages now here; among others, the Duke of Cumberlard and the Marquis of Douro.—
The hour was the very early one of two, and the brilliancy of the scene loat much of his force by its taking place by daylight.—
Still it was a splendid sight, and the eye was completely distracted by the variety of milityr costumes, from the plain white of the completely distracted by the variety of mil-tory costumes, from the plain white of the infantry and coirassiers to the gaudy blue infantry and coirassiers to the gaudy blue infantry and coirassiers to the gaudy blue infantry and coirassiers and Hossars. The public importance. Such Editors are mere the figure was come tofty mental elevation, and call around tume was also heavy for a beautiful warm day; the head dress was ill ananged, and I saw among all not half a dozen who had that air of high blood and high breeding high sloop one's breath in witness. which almost stops one's breath in witnessing the near approach of a Peeress, bound for the drawing room, at St. James's. But we must do the German ladies justice; and, if none were lovely, all were good looking, with an expression of true g odness, worth more to man than less amiable beauty.—

The dinner took place at two, and ended at understand.

troops in the neighbourhood being ordered to assist. There are two monuments on the ground, one a simple obelisk, raised by the wise to cut out and meserve such articles.

ing the general, and the scottage, close by sion for his services. His cottage, close by the monument, is the picture of comfort as he is of military neatness. His hair and pers are yet, and will be for years to come,

We have copied from the Chronicle an account of some damage caused by the gale of Wednesday last, & we regret to find that the loss of property and life is still more extensive. The schooner Robert Bruce of this Port, is lost with the captain and three men. The American schooner Detroit fell in with the Ruse dismasted and no one aboard.

boundaries in the townships of Clinton and Rye, do. Potatoes, do. Beef, per lb, Mutton, do. Well, with the western boundaries in the townships of Clinton and Rye, do. Potatoes, do. Beef, per lb, Mutton, do. Pork, do Hams, per lb. Butter, do. Candles, moulds, Ditto, dips. Soap per lb. Eggs, per dozen. The inhabitants of the town of Belleville.

o destroy a newspaper because some parts larged in order to accommodate the congreit can be of no farther use, is to betray gation of the south Chapel, so that the two cat ignorance of the worth of other parts congregations may henceforth assemble in

On the following day the Schooner Sim-coe, Merchant Vessel, Capt. Richardson, the father of our respected fellow lownsman Robert Richardson, Esq. was chased by the American Brig and four other armed vessels, but escaped through the Captain's su-perior knowledge of the navigation of the Lake, who ran his vessel between the main land, and a shoal off Wartman's point, the Americans were nearly getting on the shoal, but hauled off and left her. The some gentle writers can neither relish nor understand.

But though for original, majestic thought, some public journals are but little distinguished, yet even from them extracts worthly of preservation may be made. For seamen were Canadasa, This interesting chase was witnessed by thousands. chase was witnessed by thousands.
[Chronicle of the 11th.

wise to cut out and preserve such articles as are interesting and important.

To preserve papers, or the best part of them, is especially needful in this country where there are but fe w books, and the paper forms the chief part of the reading in many whole families. In such cases a good paper by careful preservation, may partly supply the want of a library. In this view of the case therefore it is important to preserve papers. But this is not all: newspare to come. DISASTERS ON LAKE ONTARIO. of the case therefore it is important to present find this process. His cottage, close by the measurement, is the picture of comfort as the in offilling and he word attention, he is the base ideal of the Austran soldier, and no large presents after the head which thus horsonical most process. The cottage is also and the standard head of the propose of the control of this process. The country of the measurement in memory of the port of the process of the country of the process of th

Sunday. Yesterday we had a gale from the south, and the temperature was mild and warm for the season.

For an Act to appoint Commissioners to examine and adjust the disputed lines and boundaries in the townships of Clinton and at the Colors of September, 1895

For the Upper Canada Herald.

Mr. Editor,
Adolphustown, though last, not least a The body of Mathew Burnet, who with others was drowned when fishing, as we mentioned 2 or 3 weeks ago, has been found in Green Bay, Long Island.

Yesterday was the twenty-third anni
Yesterday was the twenty-third anni
Yesterday was the twenty-third anni
Yesterday was the twenty-third annivicinity the Farms are very good, of which three have gained the premium at the last Agricultural examination; and I think I do not overate the Township in saying it will vie with any other in the Province of its size for excellency of soil &c. Its extent falls short of many other Townships, but the generality of the Farmers are good substantial ones, have comfortable houses, barns, orchards of various descriptions of fruit; cattle of every description which ex ry effort is making to improve in breed, and are in every way in a comfortable line of living. There is also a good commendement of a town: a Court House, Post Office, ment of a town: a Court House, Post Office, Steam Boat Wharf and Store House: a very respectable Episcopal Church, Methodist & Quaker meeting Houses: two Merchants' Shops, two Inns, two foundries &c. &c. all of which, with a prospect of increase must in a short time draw the attention of capitalists wishing to obtain desirable situations.

talists wishing to obtain desirable situations. Its improvement has been relarded nouth from not being on the direct route to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title title title title title title to Toronto, or at least the one in general title tit

N payment for the Upper Canada Her-ald, COUNTRY PRODUCE & FIRE-

CASH.

WILL pay five dollars per Hundred, for Hides and the highest price in Cash for Calf and Sheep Skins, Tallow and Flax Seed, at his cheap Boor, Shoe and Leather Store, opposite the Market Square. & Also just received a large snopely of India Rubber BOOTS AND SHOES.

Kingston, 17th Nov., 1835

Kingston, 17th Nov., 1835. CAUTION.

Deeds for the same from the late Joseph Da-ly to the late WilliamUsher, as I have a legal claim upon the same.

C. M. RAYNES.

Kingston Nov. 16, 1835. ADVERTISEMENT.

IN THE PRESS

At the Office of the Upper Canada Herald. A voice of warning and instruction concerning the signs of the times, and the coming of the Son of Man, to judge the nations and restore all

BY THE REV. ADAM HOOD BURWELL Missionary of Bytown.

Shall a trumpet be blown in the City, and the people not be afraid 1. Shall there be evil in the city, and the Lord hath not done it? Surely the Lord God will do nothing but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The Liox hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy? Amos iii. 67, 98.

Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord. Jeremiah wiii. 7.

stands are finished great stone plater from which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For on which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the true one is to be laid.

For one which the

EVENING WRITING AND READ-

ING CLASSES. ING CLASSES.

M. JENNINGS is forming winter classes for instruction in the above branches. As not more than eight pupils will be received in a class, they will receive all the benefit of private instruction.

Hours; for Ladies, from 5 till 6: for gentlemen from 7 till 9: Application may be made at his Academy, next to the Lancasterian School or at his residence, Point Street. Kingston, Nov. 10, 1835. 3w

JUST RECEIVED,

FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBER, 1000 PIECES Factory Cottons, 500 pieces Assorted Prints, 100. Broad Cloths, (in Superfine, fine, and common,) Pilot Cloths and Petershams, very stont.

500 pairs Blankets, (in Rose and Points,) 300 pieces Flannels and Serges, (in Red, White, and Green).
200 "Merines, in 3-4 & 6-4 widths,
100 "Shirting prints,
100 "Moleskins and Beaverteens.

An excellent Assortment of Worsted Goods,

And a well asserted stock of every descrip-tion of GOODS in his line, suitable to the season, which will be sold by the piece or retail, at such prices as will be suitable to

Wm. WILSON. Kingston, Nov. 7, 1835. TO LET.

WANTED

N payment for the Upper Canada Herald, COUNTRY PRODUCE & FIRE-WOOD.

Herald Office. Kingston, Oct. 20th, 1835.

NEW GOODS

THE SUBSCRIBER having just return-among which are the following viz—Superfine and common Broad Cloths, Pilot & Forest do. Cassimeres, Buckskins, Kerseys—superfine Welch Flannels, Salsbury ditto, Royal Ribbed Lamb's Wool Shirts and A LL persons are hereby forbidden to purchase that part of Lot number two hundred and sixty three in the Town of Kingston, as mentioned and described in the Deeds for the same from the late Joseph Dadies, and Children's and Childre of Ladies' and Children's SHOES AND BOOTS. Merino, Mohair, and Lamb's Wool Hesiery, and Gloves, FUR CAPS. MUFFS, TIPPETS AND BOAS, PERFUMERY.

Brushes, and a variety of other articles too numerous to mention.

The whole of the above articles having been selected by Mrs. B. herself, she begs leave to recommend them to the notice of the Public, as she is satisfied they form as cheap, if not a cheaper collection than has been heretofore offered in the Kingston market.

E. C. BINLEY. market. E. C. BIN Brock Street, Kingston, } 10th Nov. 1535.

FOR SALE,
THE CANADA STEAM PACKET, WELL found in all materials, her en-gine in good order, her bull has un-dergone a most thorough repair, within a short period to the amount of some hundred to the Lancasterian School, or at his residence Point Street.

Kingston, Oct. 26th 1835.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

THE Copartnership beretofore existing between the undersigned has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. All debts due to the late firm are hereby directed to be paid to James Thomson, who will also pay all just demands.

JAMES THOMSON.

JOHN RIDDELL.

Kingston, Sep. 18, 1835. NOTICE

THE SUBSCRIBER returns his thanks to bis friends and the public, for the support that his late partner and himself have received since their commencement in business; begs leave to acquaint them that he intends to continue the BAKERY BUSINDS in all its branches at the old stand in Charge Street. in Quarry Street. JAMES THOMSON. Kingston, Sep 18, 1835.

THE widow of a clergyman residing in the town of Bolleville, on the Bay of Quinte, is desirous of taking into her house six young ladies to educate with her own children.

Children.

Apply, if by letter, post paid, to

MRS CAMPBELL.

Be'leville, Nov. 7, 1835.

TO LET.

THE Stone Dwelling House in Barriefield, formerly occupied by Mr. Glover, and lately by Dr. Crawford, 24th Regt.

Apply to

Apply to THOS. KIRKPATRICK.
October 6, 1835. MORRISON'S PILLS. A FRESH supply of this justly celebra-brated Medicine, in Boxes, of various sizes, has now been received by E. H. HARDY, Agent.

COPYRIGHT OF PHOTOGRAPH RESERVED TO PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE FOR PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE, APPLY TO PUBLIC ARCHIVES, OTTAWA.

all the slip, and stepling carriage into a liint to a Brighten fly.
Ancillon, drove into the person, and, avoiding
the person, and, avoiding
to his usual apartments, ordered previously the oved. The good old his ease, without state and he will resume his ow, mixing among the the to be noticed by re and stour, with a dicative of the vicind he appears to suffer a severe wound in the red some years sgo, and een fatal if the water een successfully appliason, and the necessity use them, that he has ce; and I am tolk that on say that the change co; and I am talkthat co; and I am talkthat on say that the change his manner on crossing lier is truly wondrindier is truly wondrindier in the exigencies of the tip to the exigencies of the tip to the exigencies of the tip to the exigencies of t