By favour of the Hon. P. Vankoughnet, we have received a copy of the amendment made by the Legislative Council to the Assembly's Bill for disposing of the Clergy Reserves. This amendment recites the louring an auction at Brockville last week, the auctioneer, S. Smith, and the story to dispose of some articles, and the story to dispose of some articles. s relate to the endowment of parsonages rectories, and that the Reserves shall be rested in the King, to be employed by him At a Meeting of Englishmen and the de-scendants of Englishmen held at Mr. for the maintenance of public worship and the support of religion. This amendment presents a much wiser view of the true interests of the Province than is shewn in the Assembly's Bill; for however important education may be, religion is a thousand times more so, and without some such general and permanent assistance as is pro-

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly, The advanced season of the year and the want of a sufficient number of Members in both Houses for the Dispatch of Public Business, render it expedient that I should protogue this Parliament.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

It is to me a matter of sincere regret, that ne offers of peace and conciliation, of which I was the bearer to this country, have not led to the result which I had hoped for. The consequences of their rejection and of the demands which have been made to his Majesty I will not venture to predict. In the Speech with which I opened the Session, I announced that should you con-sent to discharge the arrears due to the public officers, and provide for their monte-nance, pending the enquiries which his Ma-jesty had commended to be made in the prowe should be touched during those enquiries, without your assent. As no provis-ion has been made for the purposes contem-plated in that proposal, I shall be under the necessity of applying the revenues at the disposal of the crown, as far as they will extend, to the payment of the public servants and towards the and towards the current expenses of the

A voice of warning and instruction concerning the signs of the times, and the coming of the Son of Man, to judge the nations and restore all things.

BY THE REV. ADAM HOOD BURWELL. Missionary of Bytown.

Shall a trumpet be blown in the City, and the people not be afraid? Shall there be evil in the city, and the Lord hath not done it? Surely the Lord God will do nothing but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The Ltow hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy? Ames iii. 6, 7, 8.
Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the erane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord. Jeremah viii. 7.
