SIXTH VOLUME OF THE LADIES COM-PANION.

PANION.

COMMENCES with the November Number,
Terms—Three dollars a year!
The Ladics Companion contains original and selected tales, sketches, essays, postry, biography, &c. &c.—together with a choice collection of fashionable Music, and splendid en gravings, drawings, embroidery, &c. &c. with an accurate description of each plate. In addition to which, the April and Outober numbers are accompanied with handsome engraved title pages, and a general index for each volume, alphabetically arranged, which is intended to perfect two volumes a year of nearly 600 pages.

The steel engravings which have appeared in the Ladies Companion, are beyond comparison, with those of any similar publication in America, and the price of the work is only three dollars per annum. The following are the engravings, and those of the succeeding year, will be equal if noe superior, to any that have as yet embellished that work.

Steel Engravings.—The Last Supper.—Mount Joliet.—Rock Fort.—Weehawken and view of New York.—Catskill Mountains.—Port Putman.— Sawkill Falls.—View of the Delaware.—Mountain House, Catskill.—Interior of the late New York Exchange.—Blackwell's Island and Penitentiary.—Lunatic Assylum.—City Hall.—Elysian Falk.—Lord Byre.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

ROM the great inconvenience that passengers labor under by not having a daily boat, and the delays that are so often caused by steamboats, to the great annoyance of travellers; and for the better accommodation of Emigrants desirous of purchasing lands, who, for the want of a regular and daily land conveyance, have hitherto been obliged to travel by steam-boats during the Summer seasons:—the proprietor of the Mail Stages has determined to run a regular conveyance during the Summer season from the Trent to Kingston. He is fully confident that a liberal share of patronage will be afforded him, from the facilities it will afford to individuals in search of lands between this and Kingston, as it will at once be a saving of time and extra land carriage. As by travelling on the water they are deprived of all possibility of examining the country, and nature of the soil while travelling.

The fare will be the same as that charged on FROM TORONTO TO KINGSTON.
