

MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

With the current month we shall have completed Vol. I. of the Transcript; and on the first of October next we shall enter upon Vol. II. with that determined spirit of exertion which the remarkable patronage bestowed upon our efforts, has been calculated to inspire.

With the second volume we propose to commence the publication of the novel, entitled "The Three Eras in the Life of Woman," which has recently been published by Elizabeth E. Smith, an authoress of very uncommon promise.

The numerous characters which figure in this work have been sketched by a masterly mind; and the moral which it is calculated to impress on the reader's mind, is such as, while it is philosophical in its theory, will practically increase the medium of happiness permitted to our earthly pilgrimage.

It cannot, then, be too widely disseminated; and we feel satisfied that our friends when they have read it will admit we have entered both for their advantage and entertainment. As it is impossible to possess a new work by any other means equally cheap, and as a broken-down miser, it is recommended an early intimation to those who propose to subscribe, in order that they may strike off a sufficient number of copies to prevent disappointment.

Montreal September 16, 1837.

TO EMIGRANTS. GENTLEMEN,—I wrote a few remarks some months ago, respecting Emigration to the western parts of this Province. I have seen a number of instances in which emigrants have passed Kingston, wearied themselves and families, and expended their money, and then returned back to this part of the Province. I have sold several of them better Lands for almost half the price they had to give in the western Districts, and I have now a large quantity of cultivated and uncultivated Lands for sale; therefore, I recommend them to sell and see for themselves, and not spend their money for nothing. Any information wanted respecting locations can be had at my office in Stone Street, Kingston, Upper Canada. D. RUTTAN, Land Agent.

THE VILLAGE OF THOROLD occupies both sides of the mountain ridge, or summit level of the Welland Canal, 350 feet above the level of Lake Ontario, and is known to be peculiarly healthy. There are neither swamps nor marshes in its vicinity; and it stands in the centre of a fertile and well-cultivated wheat country, in a direct line between the City of the Falls and St. Catharines, in the Niagara District. But 5 years can be dated from its origin, and so rapidly has it progressed, that it now contains more than 400 souls; two Churches, a School-House, Post office, several good Shops, and a Medical Establishment; an extensive Flour mill, a Brewery, and four Sawmills, with Blacksmiths, Carpenters, Shoemakers, Cartmakers, Tailors, and several other Tradesmen's establishments, are at full work. A new Carding and Fulling mill, and Grist mill, are nearly ready for work, and a great number of additional houses are nearly completed. There is a direct communication to Lake Ontario, and Lake Erie, by a constant succession of Schooners and Boats, affording great advantages for the conveyance of merchandise and agricultural produce to different markets. The water has a fall of forty feet, and power to an extent equal to propelling machinery for any manufacturing purpose, for which excellent sites can be had. A good Tannery could be worked to great advantage, bark being so easily obtained from the forests of Chippewa and the Grand River. The Subscriber, in calling the attention of Manufacturers and Mechanics to this rising Village, offers to sell some very advantageous Lots, on moderate terms, and long credit, to actual settlers only. Thorold, October, 1835. GEORGE KEEFER. 873

PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE. BENJAMIN OLCOTT having taken that spacious and pleasantly situated house at the upper end of Grove Street, lately occupied by Col. Wright, R. E. is prepared to receive a few genteel Boarders on reasonable terms. Kingston, 18th July, 1837.

THE SUBSCRIBER begs to notify the Trade that he has received by the last Packet ship, via New York, invoices of Thirty Bales and Cases, Manchester and Glasgow. JOHN H. GREER. Kingston, May 25th, 1837.
