THE NEW FEATURE.

We have made arrangements to receive early copies of all the English Annuals, and shall immediately spread before our readers all the best articles, which are not dependant upon the accompanying engraving for illustration, or of an exclusively local character. In this way we shall have the gratification of furnishing our readers, in a few months to come, with matter, which, if purchased in the form in which it appears, would alone cost between fifty and sixty dollars. ENGLISH ANNUALS.

AMERICAN ANNUALS. AMERICAN ANNUALS.

We have already given several articles from these splendid books, and shall continue to furnish some of the choicest gems from their pages.

The correspondents of the Courier embrace many of the best writers of the country. We have had the pleasure of presenting stories, sketches or poems from the pens of Miss Sedwick, John Neal, Mr. Sigourney, Willis Gaylord Clark, Mrs. C. L. Hentz, Miss Leslie, Miss Seymour, Dr. M'Henry, Professor Ingraham, J. J. Pease, O. W. Holmes, Grenville Mellen, and Win. E. Burton, and numerous others, whose pens will continue to add interest to our columns.
