THE LADIES' COMPANION,

(Established in 1834.) a popular and highly esteemed Magazine of general Literature and the Fine Arts, embellished with Gorgeous and Costly Engravings, on Steel, Copper and Wood; and also with fashionable and popular music, arranged for the Piano-Fort, Guitar and Harp. Editors Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, William W. Snowden Assisted by many of the most popular writers.

SINCE the publication of the May number, the demand for the LADIES' COMPANION has SINCE the publication of the May number, the demand for the LADIES' COMPANION has been unprecedented and beyond the most sanguine anticipations. At the commencement of the volume an additional number of copies were printed, which was considered at the time adequate to satisfy all the orders which might be received, and leave a considerable number on hand for subsequent calls. The publisher is more than gratified in stating that the whole edition was nearly exhausted before the issuing of the seventh number of the volume; and at this time but very few complete sets remain on hand, to supply the numerous orders which are daily received from every section of the United States.

In consequence of this great unforseen increase of new subscribers, he has determined to double the number of impressions for the subsequent year; while he most gratefully appreciates the unprecedented encouragement extended to the Ladie's Companion, and at the same time he begs to assure the readers of the magazine and the public in general, that it is his ardent resolution to meet it with a corresponding liberality on his part to merit its continuance.

tity of reading than any other magazine issued in this country, and its subscription is only three doldars a year, while the great combination of talen secured for the coming year will render it unequaled by any other periodical. ITS LITERARY CHARACTER!

Will undergo considerable change, as the publisher of the Ladies' Companion, in order to show his appreciation of the public favor already extended to him so liberally, has secured the aid of MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, late Editor of the "Port-ANN S. STEPHENS, late Editor of the "Portland Magazine," and author of a series of the most beautiful and popular tales ever presented to an American public. No lady possessing greater variety of talent, or better calculated to aid in conducting a ladies' magazine, could have been selected from the galaxy of female genius which is the glory of our country. In addition to the powerful talents of Mrs. Stephe is, the proprietor has secured a list of contributors, which combined will render the Ladies' Companion one of the most interesting and talented magazines of the day.

Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Mrs. Jane E. Locke, Mrs Woodhull, Mrs. Emma C, Embury, Miss A. D. Woodbridge, Miss H. L. Beasley, Miss Charlotte Cushman, Miss Mary Emily Jackson, Robert Hamilton, J. N. With many others who will occasionally contribute to the reages of the work, and every exertion.

With many others who will occasionally contri-bute to the pages of the work, and every exertion will be made to render the Ladies' Companion, what a work devoted to the female portion of the community should be, interesting, useful and in THE MUSICAL DEPARTMENT

THE MUSICAL DEPARTMENT

Is under the supervision of MR. J. WATSON, whose qualifications for the task are too well known to need our testimony.

This department of the Ladies' Companion has ever commanded a large share of attention, and has been looked upon with no little interest by its readers and more especially the Ladies, whom the publisher is in the highest degree anxious to please. It will continue to be a subject of more than usual care to him, and to the Professor, under whose supervision it is placed, to make that portion of the magazine allotted to Music, more than ever deserving of the countenance of every lover of music. It has ever been and will continue to be the desire to have all pieces of Music ue to be the desire to have all pieces of Music printed correctly and free from errors.

THE WORK IN GENERAL. Over every department an equally careful survision will be strictly exercised by and all appropriate expenditures will be liberally bestowed, as it is the design of the publisher, with the aid of his contributors and the advice of his friends to make the Ludies' Companion distinguished for the beauty and accuracy of its typography—the variety and high tone of its literary articles—the quality and value of its music—and the unequalled splendor of its PICTORIAL EMBELLISHMENTS. It is the determination of the publisher to use every means to maintain the superiority which the Ladies' Companion has obtained. For four years he has steadily pursued a course of improvement, and he flatters himself that his present facilities are such as to give the Ladies' Companion eminent advantages over all other publications of its character. character.

From the foregoing it will be perceived that the LADIES' COMPANION embraces every department within the range of Beiles-Lettres and the Fine Aris; and no exertions or expense will be deemed too great to render the work equal to any other extant. The flattering and general testimonials of nearly every contemporary journal in the United States, and in fact, many on the other side of the Atlantic, have strongly asserted the undeniable claims of the Ladies' Companion to the support of the public generally. THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COU-RIER is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in the United States—and he unparalleled patronage which has been awar-ded to it is the best evidence of its approval. Its increase, during the last two years, has been more than double that of any other paper, embracing at present a list over ent a list over 28,000 SUBSCRIBERS!

This popular journal contains articles upon every topic usually introduced in a public paper: embracing Literature, Science and the Arts, Education, Medicinc, Agriculture, Internal Improvements, Narratives, Tales, Sketches, Biographies, Poems, Songs, Foreign and Domestic News of the latest dates, and full accounts of the sales, markets, and money matters generally.

The new feature which we introduced of presenting the best books of the present literature of the day, has been eminently successful.

We shall draw from the whole range of the current literature, our arrangements supplying us the earliest moment they can be received in the courtry, with all the best periodicals of Europe, the choicest gems of which will be always given to the readers of the Courier the first moment they can be disseminated on this side the Atlantic.

We have made arrangements to receive early copies of all the English Annuals, and shall immediately spread before our readers all the best articles, which are not dependant upon the accompanying engraving for illustration, or of an exclusively local character. In this way we shall have the gratification of furnishing our readers, in a few months to come, with matter, which, if purchased in the form in which it appears, would alone cost between fifty and sixty dollars.

JOHN COUNTER. Kingston, Sept. 4th, 1837. WATER-PROOF CLOTH CAPS.

THE Subscriber with much labour and expense, has succeeded in the manufacture of WATER-PROOF CLOTH CAPS, which in connection with his FUR CAP FACTORY, he will continue make from the West of England Cloths;—Water-t oof ClothCaps of different patterns, qualities and colours, which for elegance, durability; comfort and poonomy, rival every description of Caps heretofore manufactured in this country, having fur bands, for the winter, that render them equally warm as the fur cap, without the disagreeable scent, and by removing the band the cap is perfectly agreeable and comely for the milder season, thereby possessing both the advantages of a summer and a winter Cap—always retaining its flexibility and being perfectly Water-Proof, will doubtless diminish the use of both Hats and Fur Caps, or at least supercede the necessity of either.

P. S.—Samples of the above Caps will be sent into all the principal towns of Upper and Lower Canada, at the opening of the navigation.

TO EMIGRANTS.

TO EMIGRANTS.

CENTLEMEN,—I wrote a few remarks some months ago, respecting Emigration to the western parts of this Province. I have seen a number of instances in which emigrants have passed Kingston, wearied themselves and families, and expended their money, and then returned lack to this part of the Province. I have sold several of them better Lands for almost half of the price they had to give in the western Districts, and I they had to give in the western Districts, and I have now a large quantity of cultivated and uncultivated Lands for sale; therefore, I recommed-them to call and see for themselves, and not spend their money for nothing.

Any information wanted respecting locations can be had at my office in Store Street, Kingston, Upper Canada.
