The Dublin Post states that the Royal William steam ship, which is expected shortly to arrive at this port from Liverpool, is one of the fastest boats in the British waters. On her last trip from London she was only fifty-seven hours steaming until she arrived in Kingston harbor, having touched at Falmouth and Plymouth on her voyage. The run from Plymouth to Falmouth (45 miles) was performed in three hours; and from Falmouth to Kingstown harbor, a distance of 260 miles, in the short space of 23 hours.
