To the Editor of the Upper Canada Herald

To the Editor of the Upper Canada Henki. MR DITOR, Having accidentally taken up to paper of the 17th ult., I noticed in your Edinor tenders of that day on the subject of the celested Report on the Public Departments, the foliation words, which without any flattery to you about repetition. "We think great care should taken in allowing irresponsible magistrates to rates and expend money at their pleasure, thave had sufficient proof in this District of waste of public money by magistrates, though the people have now to pay double used to make up the deficiency." The above result were applied to that part of the report which make up the deficiency. The above resulting the summer applied to that part of the report which maked to the subject of Gaols, and little did you that Mr. Editor, when penning them, how street they smacked of prophecy, for hardly was ink dry from your pen when, lo! it was the two perfects of the prophecy of the and of grumbling as you do about "double s" you may bless your stars if you are not ed upon next year to pay tieble the amount of former assessment. These little trifles will former assessment. These little trifles will nue to happen so long as we submit to be ned by the Court House Solomons, and surere deserve to suffer if we tamely permit them longer to rule our destinies.
