A T the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Kingston Marine Railway, held at their office this day, the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year, viz: HENRY GILDERSLEEVE, JOHN S. CARTWRIGHT,

DougLAS PRENTISS, JOHN COUNTER, and

C. W. JENKINS.

A statement of the past years business having been submitted to the Stockholders, it was found very satisfactory, and showed a steady and profitable increase of business from the commencement; and it appearing evident that the amount of capital hitherto deemed sufficient was no longer adequate to carry out the views of the company on so extended a scale as the present flourishing condition of the works would warrant, it was unanimously resolved, that in order to give greater facility to their operations, and to enable them to place the establishment in a state to meet every exigency, the capital stock of the Combe extended to the full amount limited by the charter, and that stock books be open-ed in the office after the sixth day of May next; for the purpose of subscribing the names of those wishing to become purchasers, where every information can be obtained.

At a meeting of the Directors held immediately after the above, H. GILDERSLEEVE, Esq. was re-elected President, and Mr. C. W. Jenkins elected Secretary & Treasurer. C. W. JENKINS.

The Proprietor has long regretted the impossibility of giving his readers all the information and literary matter that he desired, and had generally prepared for them more than his present sheet would hold. It is by their generous support that he is at once compelled and empowered to make the alteration now contemplated, and to supply the number of copies required.

DOES OUT!!—" Caution is the Parent of Safety." An attack of the Piles may be positively prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT. There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most perfect proof.

PROPOSALS

OR PUBLISHING A PAPER, TO BE ENTITLED, THE CANADIAN FARMER.

MUCH of the wealth, greatness and prosperity of a nation, depends on the successful culture of the soil. Few countries have been known to flourish, during a long time, in which the agrito flourish, during a long time, in which the agri-cultural interests have been neglected. It may be true, that the commercial interests of some na-tions are so great, as for a time to overshade the interests of agriculture, yet, as an occupation for men in general, it can bear no comparison with agriculture. Indeed, among all the occupations of agriculture. Indeed, among all the occupations of life, however polite or necessary, none can stand in competition with agriculture. And, it is right that it should be so; for, it is the farmer who upholds the hands of community, and strengthens the pillars of the state; notwithstanding the "polite professions," and "delicate employments," in which men are engaged. Where agriculture flourishes, the country grows rich; but where it is neglected, the country grows rich; but where it is neglected, the country sprosperity declines.

Agriculture has been viewed, bitherto, in an unfavourable light, and thought, by many, to be rather a second rate employment; but, it is now be-ther a second rate employment; but, it is now being regarded as one of the first, and most honourable of employments. This last view of it, is sanctioned by the wealthy of the land, who are contributing their influence to facilitate its pro-

Parliamentary and Legislative Acts have been and are being passed, in aid of it; -Chemists, Geologists, Naturalists, and Botanists, are adding much to the scientific departments of agriculture Farming, in theory, is not to be recommended, unless it is connected with experience. To become successful, therefore, in the business of farming, it is requisite that science and practice should co-operate with it, and aid each other.

There are hundreds of practical farmers in the Province, who have no theoretic knowledge of the business. There are many who are scientific far-mers, but who have no practical experience. The benefit of all, requires, that there be some "me-dium" through which the various knowledge possessed by each and all, may be communicated to the farmer. In this way, not only the experito the farmer. In this way, not only the experiments that are now going on, but the experience and knowledge of all time past, of things appertaining to the culture of the soil and the farmer's interest, may be possessed by him at a trifling ex-

Such a medium is now proposed to the Canadian public, viz.—the Canadian Farmer; which, should it receive patronage to warrant the undertaking, will be published on the first of June next, at Kingston. It will be devoted entirely to the farmer's interest;—to scientifical and practical agriculture;—to the different offices of husbandry. It will contain articles on horticulture, and the culture of fruit trees, by the best authors in Europe. On the best mode of managing and improving stock, viz: cattle, horses, sheep and swine,—the various diseases to which they are liable, and the best mode of treatment—by the most experienced growers. Essays on the various soils, and their adaptation to the different kinds of grain, grass or seeds. On the most approved methods of Such a medium is now proposed to the Canadian their adaptation to the different kinds of grain, grass or seeds. On the most approved methods of managing dairies; as practised in England and the United States. On the plan of laying out gardens and farms. On the raising of bees, and the management of poultry. It will contain accounts of all the Cattle Shows and Fairs in the Province, the United States and England. The Market raises will be corrected mentally and particular. prices will be corrected monthly; and particular pains will be taken to give the earliest accounts of the improvements of the implements of Agri-culture, domestic and foreign. CONDITIONS.

The CANADIAN FARMER will be published on the 1st of each month,—in Double Quarto form; on good paper and with fair type, at the low price of five shillings per year. Payable in all cases on the receipt of the first No.

All Post Masters are requested to act as Agents for the Canadian Farmer. Any person obtaining ten subscribers and sending pay for the same, in advance, free of postage, shall be entitled to receive eleven copies of the Farmer.

We wish all our Canadian Farmers, in particular, to favour us with communications on any of all, of the subjects mentioned above; and give us the results of their experience.
