J. LINTON, Q.A. Kingston, June 26, 1841.

TO THE INHABITANTS OF KINGSTON.

THE BAPTIST SOCIETY recently organized in Kingston, propose to erect, upon land which has been purchased for the purpose, a place of Divine Worship, for their own use, and the use of any of their fellow-townsmen who may prefer or may find it convenient to worship with them.

It is presumed that the rising importance of this Town, in connection with the claims of an increasing population, will secure a share of public sympathy, as well as pecuniary assistance, to those who thus seek to furnish it with another Christian Sanctuary.

To erect a substantial edifice, such as is contemplated, with suitable accommodation for the instruction of the young, will involve a large expense; towards defraying which, in addition to what they can themselves provide, no other resources as available than such as public and Christian liberality may supply. Sanctioned in the undertaking by their fellow-townsmen & immediate neighbors, the help of friends at a distance will be more readily be gained.

Parties connected with the undertaking will very cheerfully wait upon the inhabitants and residents of the Town to solicit contributions.

The following Donations, &c., are hereby acknowledged.

CARD.

The undersigned having entered into Partnership, respectfully inform their friends and the public, that their joint attention will be directed to the furtherance of the interests of those who may be pleased to confide in their care.

As Auctioneers or Agents, whether at Public Sale or by Private Contract, it is their determination at all times to obtain the value of all properties, Real or Personal, which may be committed to their charge; and immediately upon sale being effected, to hand over the proceeds arising therefrom.

As Commission Merchants they beg to remind persons living at a distance, that their interests will never suffer by their being absent, and that they are now prepared to receive consignments to any extent of any description.

The weekly sale of Horses will be continued as usual, in which they are encouraged. Gentlemen purchasing or disposing of Stock will do well to inspect their lists.

Office, King Street, next door to the Bank of the People.

THOMAS JONES, JOHN SHERRWOOD DOYLE. Kingston, June 28, 1841.

SPLENDID INVESTMENT.

Messrs. JONES & DOYLE, have the honor to participate to the Members of the Provincial Parliament, Government Officers, Merchants, and Capitalists generally, that they have received instructions to offer for Sale by PUBLIC AUCTION, on the 2nd of July next,

EIGHT SPLENDID BUILDING LOTS, most eligibly situated at the West End of the Metropolis of Canada, possessing two frontages: The one on the lawn of the Parliament Buildings, and which must ever command a beautiful view of the noble, picturesque, and animated Harbour;—the other forming an entrance from the rear. In a salubrious and pleasant situation, they will be found to be admirably adapted for Villa Residences, as they are within a few minutes walk of the Public Offices, and business part of the Town, yet entirely removed from the thoroughfare.

These valuable Lots are in the immediate neighborhood of the property of the Ven. Archdeacon Stuart, and of that lately purchased by Government from the Rev. Mr. Herchmer.

An indisputable title will be given, and plans of the ground may be seen at the principal Hotel, & at the Office of JONES & DOYLE, Auctioneers.

Sale precisely at 3 o'clock. Auctioneers. Kingston, June 26, 1841.
