WANTED-ADAM SHAND, son of James V Shand, Miller at Mill of Brux, in the par-ish of Leochel-Cushnie, and County of Aberdeen, North Britain. Adam Shand was born on or North Britain. Adam Shand was born on or about 7th August, 1790, and was bred a watch-maker to a person of that occupation in Aberdeen; and, after leaving his apprenticeship in Aberdeen, he resided a short time with his parents at Mill of Britx, which he left in or about the year 1820. He appears afterwards to have been in Leith, from which it is supposed he sailed for America, or some part abroad. If the said Adam Shand, (properly identified) will apply to Francis James Cochran, Advocate, 187, Uhion, Street, Aberdeen, North Britain, he will hear of something to his advantage.
