THE ELECTIONS .- Mr. Hincks is returned for Oxford, Mr. Armstrong having resigned on Wednesday, being then 171 behind. This result was expected, for the election was so nanaged as to give no one time to prepare an opposition.

The election for Rouville closed on Fri-lay, and Col. DeSalaberry, the Government candidate, has lost his seat, Mr. Walker beng returned by a majority of 100.

The election for St. Maurice had not close ed at the last accounts. There had been se vere fighting, and it is reported that one man s killed. Mr. Turcotte and Mr. Malhiot the candidates, are both Canadians.

Accidents.—An elderly man named Mor Higgins, a waiter at Mr. Phillips' National Ho-tel, was unfortunately killed last Friday by the kick of a horse. The horse had been just taken out of a waggon, and given some grass to eat The waiter wanted to put a little boy on the horse, and struck him with a towel to make him change his position, when the animal immediate-ly kicked Higgins in the lower part of the abdo-men. At first he thought nothing of it, and laughed at the matter. But in about an hour he began to feel great pain, and called in medica assistance. Every thing was done for him pos-sible, but he died nour foreagen, he is in the ble, but he died next forenoon, having endure great agony.

A man named Atkinson was killed in Ernes A man named Atkinson was kined in Ernest Town last week. He and other two men were felling trees, when a limb lodged in the top of a tree, and then fell on Atkinson, breaking one of his legs and an arm, and bruising his body. He lived a day or two, but was insensible.

A woman, whose name we have not learned, was so much injured by falling from a cart near Wilton, that she died soon afterwards.

We had a passing visit from Judge Lynch last week at Kingston. The house of George Bradley, on lot 21, was attacked last Wednesday night by a number of men disguised, who razed the house to the foundations, and beat severely both Bradley and his wife. The reason for this attack, as it is stated to us, is, that Bradley was keeping a house of ill-fame, and had just imported a bevy of nine frail girls from Rechester. Some of the parties supposed to have chester. Some of the parties supposed to have been concerned in the attack on the house have Accounts have been received here stating that the steamer Shamrock, belonging to Ross, Matthie & Co., burst her boiler near Lachine, and sunk almost immediately. Several lives were lost.

A Fire broke out yesterday morning on the premises of Mr. Robert James, Builder, in Richmond Street, which did much damages to four brick houses belonging to hum, one to Messrs. Humphrews, another belonging to Mr. Vance, Watchmaker, and another to Mr. Cuthbert, Bookbinder; destroyed two or three dwellings in the rear, and a long range of buildings running on the back of the whole, including the yard premises of Mr. Bell, the Attorney, containing property owned by all, more particularly by Mr. James. The families deprived of homes are the Rev. J. C. Davidson, (Wesleyan Missionary) Dr. Nichol, and Messrs. Whale, Merckell, Lyness, Humphrey, and Short, whose furniture we saw piled in the street, and a heavy rain pouring upon it. Most of the buildings were insured. All the Fire Companies merit the warmest thanks for their prompt exertions. How uncertain are earthly comforts!—[Christian Guardian.
