THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

General News.

A western lady is the widow of 11 husbands.

There were 17 deaths from yellow fever in Havana during the past week.

A man in Mohawk, N. Y., committed suicide on account of the elopement of his daughter.

Lieut. Greeley has been invited to attend the meeting of the British association at Montreal.

There was a cold snap in Canada and the northern states. There was frost in some sections.

The latest Parisian agony in ladies' hats is called "Henry the Second on a Journey." It resembles an inverted flower pot.

An old resident of the Lime-tone City is busily engaged in the endeavor to invent a machine for securing perpetual motion.

The remains of McGaham, the famous war correspondent who died in Constantinople in 1878, have arrived in New York.

A Winfield, L. I., butcher intentionally locked himself in an ice box and was frozen to death. The thermometer outside was 88°.

A Liverpool bicyclist who was riding down a steep hill near the city was shot through a cottage window by the breaking of the machine.

A number of religious women in Paris go daily to the washing boats on the Seine and sing and read and talk to the laundresses while they are at work.

According to the crop bullitans a big crop is anticipated generally throughout the province of Manitoba, the wheat, barley, and oat crop being particularly large. The recent heavy rain did very little damage to the crops.

A very active trade in shipping sawed lumber from Montreal to South America is in progress at present. Some ten ships are loading at the wharves. It is said there is every prospect of a continuance of the traffic during the remainder of the season.

From a bedroom in Windsor castle were recently stolen a valuable gold watch and a silver chain and medal. Suspicion fell upon two privates of the Goldstream guards, who had been mounted upon the terrace near the room. Nothing was found upon the men, but near the tower where they were stationed the watch was discovered concealed in the ivy.

At Wrenham, in Wales, a few weeks ago, one of the attendants at a menagerie, while cleaning out the cage of the lions, placed his right arm inside the bars, when one of the animals suddenly tore it off at the elbow. During the panic which ensued a number of persons were more or less seriously injured, a report having been started that the lion had escaped from its cage.

A revolution in the match-making industry may be expected. The Russian department of commerce and manufacturers has recently awarded a patent to the inventor of a means for so impregnating wood with a liquid that, when dried, it lights with a slight friction and can be used several times over, thus securing, according to the inventor, an economy of 75 per cent.

A terrible plague of locusts has visited Central Spain. The damage to crops about Ciudad Real amount to ten million dollars.

The Frontenac brewery, Kingston, was set on fire by a half-witted lad who was amusing himself making a blaze in rear of the stable.

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness," but this does not mean that you should go to church in the forenoon and go swimming in the afternoon.

A Toronto man has driven the cats out of his neighborhood. He coaxed an animal of that description into his hall bedroom one day recently and fed it on sweetened dynamite. He then waited until the concert had begun when he dropped the loaded beast out of the window. Next morning the back of the house looked as if a hash foundry had exploded, but the cats were gone forever.

The following is a sample of the many letters we receive for our Lamb's Lubricating Liniment, and shows to the public its fame is fast becoming known abroad as well as home. One bottle will convince the most incredulous of its wonderful curative powers:

LANCASTER, June 20th 1884.
Mr. J. P. Lamb,

DEAR SIR:—Please send me one dozen of your L. L. Liniment as soon as possible, as I intend going away soon and I want to take some with me. It is such a good medicine to keep in the house for almost every complaint or accident. We think it will cure almost anything, and have, as you know, used it a long time, always giving the best satisfaction.

Mother is troubled with the rheumatism and it always helps her and the only thing she ever got to give her relief. We would not be without it for a good deal and hope it may become widely known that it may give relief to many sufferers.

Yours truly,
ANNIE J. NICHOLSON.
