REPORTER

VOL. II.

Farmersville, Wednesday, February 25, 1885.

NO 8.

THE REPORTER

Is issued every Wednesday at the office, Victoria street, Farmersville. Terms, 75 cents per year in advance or $1.00 if not paid within six months. No papers discontinued until all arrears are paid.

Professional and business cards of one inch space and under, per year three dollars.

BETHUEL LOVERIN, Publisher and Proprietor.

THE EGYPTIAN WAR.

each day involved in greater obscur- 5,000 strong and killed 500 of the no, which answer the delegation boasted the public school act, the appointing ity, as fresh complications arise. The enemy, including the Mahdi's grand erement. Did they were going to wring from the Gov- of the township treasurer to be treaswar may be said to have commenced vizier. In Sept. Hicks Pasha murched on the 11th of July, 1882, when the out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters of the high school boards, are measures whose utility cannot be intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced out of Khartoum with 7,000 fighting Report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced by the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced by the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters intended to have commenced by the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters in the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters in the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters in the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters in the fighting report says that Wm. Kyle, whose letters in the fighting report says that Wm. British iron clads stormed Alexandria men, encountered the Mahdi's army to the Globe in opposition to the Scott Act questioned. It is also intended to and defeated Arabi Pasha. For years near El Obeid, engaged in a three gained for him considerable notoriety, have the legislative grant paid direcprior to the rebellion of Arabi, disaf- days flight, lost his own life, and he presented the memorial of grievances. thy to the treasurer of the sehool fection had been brewing among the and his force has never since teen They asked for a commission of enquiry board, and not to the county treasur-Egyptians. The Sultan of Turkey- heard from. Meanwhile, Osman and a suspension of the Act while the er as heretofore. greedy, avaricious, licentious, cruel, Digna rose into prominence as the and ever bankrupt, had each succeed | Mahdi's chief ally in the region of ing year called upon his representational suskim, on the coast clear majority of the electors in the county scheme, whereby aid can be given to tive in Egypt, the Khedive, to exact of the Sea, where the English should be necessary to the carrying of the those high schools situated in towns in order that his last might be grat- various successes and defeats. A the work to an irresponsible body of hopeless for the garrison and European the Scott Act. men of the bum-bailiff order, who ex-acted the last farthing that the fellah- selected as a folorn hope and started fashion. He spoke in a manner that apin were able to pay, and there was alone for the fatal city. His mission parently tickled the whole delegation, and ted alike. The inspector is now paid, dire distress in all the land. The dis- was one of peace. He believed simply yet he told them absolutely nothing. He but the head master of the high school affection was great, and Arabi, a that the Mahdi was disaffected toward said the Government fully recognized the is not. It is also intended to have the sympathies of the rebellious people, and placing himself at their head captured the Khedive and kept him a prisoner in his palace. The Sultan was asked to quell the rebellion and protect foreign interests in Egypt, which were seriously menaced by the increasing power and popularity of Arabi. But the Sultan was unable or unwilling to establish order in Egypt. Britain interfered to protect her subjects, and Italian, French, and American war vessels, anchored in the Mediterranean and watched the British storm and capture Alexandria. As all the world knows, England put down the rebellion, captured Arabi. and established order within one month from the firing of the first shot, and has ever since made her presence felt in the administration of the affairs of Egypt.

During this engagement, rumors of the rising in the Soudan occasionally appeared in print, but as yet the

as follows:-Early in July, 1881, whole Crimean war. the Mahdi gave the first signs of military revolt, and the authorities of Khartoum having ordered him to come to that city he treated the order with black troops were sent to enforce the soldier of fortune who had risen to a the Egyptian Government, and that high position in the service of the liberal English proposals would satisfy Khedive, saw in the condition of the him. He soon found that the Mahdi peasantry an opportunity for gaining represented a larger rising than was for himself notoriety-possibly place supposed, and then was bent on and power. He accordingly enlisted smashing him. This plan the Gladstone Government never yielded to, and a plan to 1 heve Gordon was formed. And in August of last year, General Wolseley left England in charge of what has been known as the from Khartoum General Gordon and Col. Stewart.

Nothing of any serious moment happened to this force until the 17th and 19th of this month, when Gen. Stewart with the advance army of the expedition fought two battles and thus turned the whole design of the force from a relief party to that of an invading army. The result was that long delayed, and fell on Khartoum with such overwheming numbers as lead to its overthrow.

His career may be briefly described and amunition than were used in the if at all wisely ordered, must prove

Scott Act Notes.

Well, the great Anti-Scott pow-wow contempt. When a battallion of delegation have been to Ottawa and inper line for first insertion and three cents per order he railied his forces and cut the cool reception. It has been customary purpler of advertisements insertion. A limited black traces to pieces. The part year black troops to pieces. The next year, when any important delegation went to of voting twice on any question obce rates. Advertisements inserted at special rates. Advertisements unaccompanied by written instructions will be inserted until forbid and charged accordingly. The Reporter office is supplied with a good equipment of poster as well as fine job type.

On an instruction went to lay their grievance of 6,000 Egyptians were the seat of Government to lay their grievance before our august legislators to accordingly. The Reporter tured or annihilated, them. In January, 1883, the Mahdi captured El committe rooms at the disposal of the to limit his voting power to the captured Obeid, about 200 miles south of Khartoum, and has ever mince made it his headquarters. In March, 1888, Col. headquarters. In March, 1888, Col. Hicks, a British cofficer, arrived at to rent the opera house, instead Sir school trustees power to suspend or school trustees power to suspend or Khartoum and undertook to organize John, Langevin, Bowell, Carling and Cos- school trustees power to suspend or The question of the final ending of a force for the recapture of El Obeid. tigan assembled to receive the delegation expel a pupil for sause, and also, as in the Sudanese campaign becomes In April he defeated a rebel force and give them the decided answer, yes or the case of the proposed change in fore a properly constituted officer; that a still greater tribute from the fellahin, landed small forces and met with act, that a longer time should be given that do not receive a county grant. tax-gatherers, and they in turn gave the situation at Khartoum looked less to dealers incorred by the passage of legislation, the Government could not speak finally. He could not, of course, say what action parliament would take, for compensation "

Sir John evidently tried to say nothing, and he succeeded admirably.

The High School Law.

The amendments proposed by the Minister of Education in connection with the consolidation of the High the Mahdi seized upon the opportunity School law, though not of pressing importance, are yet calculated to redress existing grievances, and to render the working of high schools and collegi-England is now apparently bent on ate institutes more thorough and effec-"smashing the Mahdi," and troops tive. As in the consolidation of the Mahdi, as a prophet, was a mythical and supplies are departing every day laws relating to the public schools, with.

personage, and the importance of his for the seat of war, while orders at the any legislation that has for its ob-movements was greatly underrated. British arsenals provide for more arms ject condensation and simplification,

The amendment of note gives a statutory standing to collegiate institutes, and defines their standing, fixing the average rate of attendance for each half year.

At present the chairman of the high school board possesses the power

Hon. Mr. Ross frankly admits that of the petitions for the Act should be be- he has been unable to device a after the passage of the Act to enable He believes they should have some dealers to dispose of their business, and additional assistance, but fails to hit

Hereafter the examiners for the enthe memorial, but as with one exception | the same date as the public schools, they were all matters for parliamentary thus removing a fruitful source of annoyance. Finally, it is the intention to have but said that their representations would the distribution of the high school be fully discussed during the present ses- grant made on a wider basis. At sion. As to appointment of a commission, present the money is distributed on which comes within the power of the Ex- the basis of average attendance. But ecutive, he said he thought it would be it is found that some schools are very well to consult parliament before making liberal in the salaries they allow their Nile relief expedition, consisting of pensation, he said "For myself I voted teachers, thus securing the very best 9,000 picked soldiers of the British for the Scott Act, though in opposition, and teachers, while other schools expend army, and a detachment of Canadians. it was carried by the Liberal Government large amounts in the equipment of the His instructions were to bring away of Mr. Mackenzie. But as to the question buildings and grounds, and in the of compensation, if total prohibition were purchase of appendages for facilitating introduced, I certainly as one would vote instruction. It is thought desirable to encourage both of these classes of expenditures, and, therefore it is proposed to take them into consideration in apportioning the legislative grant. In England, even in the public schools payment on the basis of results pre vails, and the adoption of a similar system in connection with our high schools, it is hoped will be found to work beneficially. The only apparent objection is that greater power over the schools will be placed in the hands of the education department, but as the legislation seems judicious, the objection will have to be borne