THE GRATTAN PARLIAMENT. or with the establishment of a Legislative Council such as the speaker had suggested, and which had ere now received the support of the Nationalists. (Cries from | for him. (Cheers.) Of one thing he was the Parnellites of " Names, names.") The Government proposal, however, had a strong ir meaning than that of a mere | ened. (Cheers and ories of "Oh! oh!") abstract resolution, as it pledged the House to the support of the principle of the Home Rule Bill, from which Mr. Gladstone said he would never depart. The speaker and those who thought with him had hoped, since Mr. Gladstone's speech at the Foreign Office, that the Home Rule had a passionate Bill might be so remodelled that they sould support it, but they had been disappointed. Mr. Gladatone bad since practically stated in the House of Commons that if the Bill passed its second reading it would be suspended until Ostober, and then be reinsroduced unaltered, except in minor details concerning the feature of Irish representation at Westminster. Those who agreed with the speaker did not wish to reduce Ireland to the condition of lative autonomy for Ireland he (Mr. Chamberlain) could have voted for it, because it the creation of a Chamber like impossible to make the House of Commons of "Hear, hear," from the members of the United Kingdom? In de- | (Loud and prolonged cheering by Conservafending Uster he was governed by no reli- tives and Radicals.) gious bisterness. There could, however, be | The House was crowded, and there was again. no doubt that the Protestants of Ulster | much excitement while Mr. Chamberlain were peaceful from their religious inter- | was speaking. ests. He belonged to a family that always was the opposer of anything like religious ascendancy. He was convinced that the | the Parnellites. He said "that Mr. Chamfear attempts by the Irish Catholics to | he was going to the country to masquerade secure predomination. The Catholic as a Unionist Liberal relying on Tory AIM OF CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION.

while to destroy them and to re-establish resistless domineering action as a central power is the aim of the Roman policy.' while to carry the argument further, he consign Ireland to a Government that special committee was deputed to visit the This is very different from the common In ten minutes return the fruit to it, and could give statements which Catholic bishops recently made to the same effect. (Cries of "Quote, quote," from the Irish when Nationalist papers were describing the Belfast linen industry as one the curses of the country? (Cries of principle of Home Rule. Lord Hartington "No," no," from Parnellite members) He had seen a series of articles in the Irish press in which the linen manufacquestion was not whether these fears were well founded or the reverse, they existed. The practical question was, would Parliament give effect to them. (Opposition There were two policies contained in the most disastrously, laid down his pen and Church of Ireland opened on the 4th of have the pan covered while they are cook. hold he kicked the panel out the Government should give them more information than that conveyed in Mr. Gladstone's recent references to Ulster. a portion of Uister-(hear, hear) -such a predominating sentiment as DESERVES SEPARATE CONSIDERATION, and whether they will devise a system to give the position of Uister such consideration. (Cheers ) If there had been any real elemens of tinality in the Bill he should have voted for its second reading, but he failed to see any such element. The Irish people would not regard it as final. Had such a Bill been offered to Scotland the people would indignantly have rejected it. Scotland would be content with concessions session of local autonomy, with the preservation of the supremacy and integrity to the Empire. Was there any man in the House who could maintain that the Bill did not weaken the supremacy to attempt by any prescription to give the least throw doubt upon it? (Ministerial exact measure—the exact details of any eries of " No, no.") He challenged the Irish | measure-that should supporters of the Bill to get up in Ireland and say that they favored the continued existence of the real supremacy of the Imperial Parliament-(Parnellite cheers)as it exists at present. (Parnellite ories of " No. no.") Ab, now the House sees the view of its Nationalist members. They want to weaken that anpremacy. (Opposition cheers.) They only support the Bill because they believe it throws doubt upon it, and it leaves the supremacy a mere consususional figment. We want a

REAL AND REFECTIVE SUPREMACY. and will not lower the power of the British final settlement, and that if they pretended to so accept it they could not bind was a natural conclusion from what hanpened in Lower Canada, after the reforms f 1838, that reforms like these would have to be granted to Ireland if the Bill were carried, and, furthermore, concessio after concession would have to be made to ad, until there came the ultimate demand for separation. (Hear, hear.) Demands had been made upon bim to state loud howls and cried out "Names, names," an alternative to Mr. Gladstone's propo-and the Conservatives and Whigs cheered sals. He had suggested certain lines upon Mr. Chamberlain. The denunciation and which the measure might have proceeded. cheering quickly became an uproar, which His plan had been described as a "Popkins" plan," and those approving it were called puny whipsters by Mr. Healy, whose magnificent physique enabled him to look refused to mention the names called down upon men not gifted by Providence for. Resuming, Mr Chamberlain at great with his great personal gifts. It was hard length explained why he thought Mr. upon them to be accused of arrogance and presumption when they were trying hondid not, he continued, propose to reply to estly to meet the demand for an alternative scheme. Members would find the sowards himself during the course of the lines of his alternative scheme in the

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PROVINCES

o Capada and the Dominion Parliament

we e those he would establish between at to have a Parliament of her own. | was the fact that the judges in Canada were appointed by the Governor-General resolution affirming the principle of legis. and paid by the Dominion Parliament. They were, therefore, independent, and were not likely to be inflaenced by local would have been consistent either with bodies. (Hear, hear.) On these lines would be regislate for Ireland. Nothing he had heard from Mr. Gladstone altered his determination to vote against the second reading of the Bill. They were threatened with dissolution. (Cheers and counter cheers ) Dissolution had no terror confident, namely, that the Unionist majority in Parliament would be strength-He rejoiced that this great issue would soon be submitted to the only tribunal whose decision they could accept. (Parnellite cheers.) He trusted in the ultimate good sense and patriotism of the British democracy. No doubt the British democracy

DEVOTION TO MR. GLADSTONE (cheers), who had earned and deserved it by tifty years of public service. (Cheers ) The democracy was practically unanimous in favor of giving the Irish people greater control of their own affairs, but it was not only by his recently acquired and youngest ery, and it looks like a portion of an agriunanimous upon the method of carrying out the principle of the Bill. It was upon Mr. Gladstone's method, and not upon the principles of the Bill, that they were now | by the teamsters engaged in transport in going to the country. (Cheers) He hoped | connection with the Alberta Field Force. the election contests would be marked by a and the changes promised by Mr. Glad- fairer temper than that lately displayed stone would not meet the views of those | He had been accused of showing animated who maintained this position. It would be | personal spite and spleen (cries a fluctuating body, as it would be under the | pellites). especially by Irish mem. Gladstone proposals. It would be equally | et., who had formerly assailed unwise to create an Irish Parliament as a | n the same style Earl Spencer and Mr. subordinate and not a co-ordinate body. Guadstone, whom they were now landing (Cheers) What they wanted was to pre- with fulsome adulation. These charges | novels, but he proposes to read in public.

vent the Irish members from becoming against him were as unjust as they were omnipotent either at Westminster or Dab- | untrue. "There is not a man here," said lin. (Cheers and counter cheers.) As to he, " who does not know that every per-Unlater, that was a very important matter | sonal and political interest would have led (Parnellite laughter.) The speaker would me to cast my lot with Mr. Gladstone. Not | panied the Prince of Wales during his tour not go into the question of armed resis- | a day passes that I don't receive scores of sance, although he resented as absurd the | letters urging me for my own sake to vote | Parnellite charge that he had said any- for the Bill and dish the Whige. The temp- | Ga., artisan, has fallen heires to $150 000 bing inciting to assassination or outrage. | tation is no doubt great-(laughter)-but I (Cheers) But if the resistance of Uister am not base enough to gratify my personal | good to have a sister go to New Zealand | country. Every School Board official and of lavender. Dublin Government were expressed in | ambition by betraying my country. (Lond | a constitutional way would the British cheers) I am convinced that when this House of Commons override or disregard | discussion is over Liberals will not judge that resistance? (Hear, hear.) Why had harshly those who have pursued honestly the resistance of the Protestants of Uister | the path of duty, even though it leads to been stigmatized as unpatriotic? Was it | the disruption of party and the loss of paroccause they were proud of belonging to the sonal influence and power, which it is the great Empire, and opposed to being out | legitimate ambition of every man to seek, adrift from long familiar associations as among his political friends and associates.'

Bexton's Reply.

Mr. Sexton followed, and was cheered by Protestants of Ulster bad just cause to berlain had no fear of dissolution, because Church, by its tenets and by its faith, was | votes." The speech which Mr. Chamberbound not to be content with equality. | lain had just made would enable Ireland to (Cries of "Oh, oh.") Members from Ire- discern between her true and false friends. land say "No." Here is a pamphlet writ. He assured Mr. Chamberlain that so long ten by the Prime Minister on " Vati- as this generation lested the people of Irecanism "- (laughter)-in which he says | land would not forget his speech. Until that " to secure civil rights has been the | now the honorable member had been fighting under cover; at last they had him in the open, and knew him as a deserter, and as an ally of a party that was seeking to give over the working classes of England to the champions of class privileges, and to in the fall by Rev. Sam Jones, yesterday, a | the county, and lastly one of the country. | cool. Meanwhile let the syrup boil rapidly. advocated twenty years' coercion. Unlike Mr. Chamberlain, Lord Hartington deserved, and would receive the respect ing a temporary structure to hold 8,000 by drawing a map of Europe or America, done. Put strawberries always into small of those opposing him. Lord Harting. | people, the opinion of the meeting being or some other great territory, at a time jars, cover with brandted papers, and seal and had throughout refused to enter the hall centrally situated. Cabinet, because he could not solerate the had offered Ireland some mouldy orumbs, such as had been given to Lazarus, but fearful nuisance to his friends with his war Ireland was not a beggar for aims, but de- | yarns. The other day this excellent genmanded what it asked for as a right. He | tieman sauntered into a newspaper office. (Sexton) had never heard that the meagre | took a chair beside a journalistic friend, charity bestowed upon the beggar at the | pulled out a " Century " and opened to the gate had in any way affected the ultimate | map of a celebrated engagement. With a destination of the rich man. (Laughter.) sigh the editor, who, by the way, stutters throw out Mr. Gladstone, and a positive, to | veteran

> meant going back to THE CRUM WELLIAN METHOD, there was nothing in the Bill to hinder by a bullet." federation, if it was found desirable in the future. Regarding the retention of the as impassive as a wall, "w-w-won's you Isteh members, they all felt that for a long show the b.b boys, please, where your time they would have enough to do to put show own affairs in order, though they had | Records no objection to considering a proposal to assist the British Logislature in the consideration of Imperial adairs for the British Empire. " I do not forget, however," said

SETTLE THIS LONG DISPUTE between Great Britain and Ireland, but I say that I am in favor of any Bill that of them. shall take the first step toward righting the wrong and handing over the government of Ireland to Ireland. Whatever should be "Yellow Hammer," and "Sutch McCoy," the Bill the Irish people would cherish

Sir Vernon Harcourt and others also The arrests were made on the strength of Mr. Gladstone announced that the debate now incarcerated in the Michigan City might be terminated Friday. The Whig Gathering.

A meeting of Whige opposed to Parliament to the level of the suzerainty of Gladstone's Irish policy, called by Lor the Porte over Cyprus." (Opposition Eartington, was held this afternoon and cheers.) They all knew that the Irish | was largely attended. A number of the mbers did not accept the measure as a | Radicals, adherents of Mr. Chamberlain, were present. The meeting quantime resolved so vote against the second reading the Irish people not to take the earliest of the Home Rule Bill. The division on chance to repudiate it. Alluding to refer- the second reading of the Bill will not take ences during the debate to the case of place, it is believed, until next Friday mid Canada, Mr. Chamberlain contended that it | night. Several of the supporters of Lord Hartington desire to speak against the

Latest Northwest Notes. Mr. Norquey leaves for Ottawa on V

The Liberals will hold a Provincial Con vention in this city, commencing on Wedconverted into a convent. It cost $70,000 in the boom times. Captain Clark leaves for O'tawa next week. He will represent the Province at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, under a joint arrangement between the Dominion

A Winnipeg despetch says: Another work of an incendiary, but no damage was done. Two small fires of a mysterious baracter occurred yesterday and are believed to be due to the same cause. Mr. Conklin (Opposition) has a motio and the Manitoba Governments.

on the order paper that this Legislature regards with unmingled satisfaction noble efforts of Mr. Gladstone to peacefully solve Home Rule without disintegrating It comprehends everything from ploughs the Empire, and that the Speaker cable ( to telephones. There are wheat, flax, the same to Mr. Gladstone. In the House to-day Mr. Martin, in order to get a slap at the Royal Commissioner and his report on the Norquay charges, moved a vote of want of confidence in the Government. He charged Judge Wall- ham, bacon, salmon, lobsters and medibridge with political partiality and unfair cines. Cocoa, chocolate, sugar, ginger findings, and said the report was the most tobacco, sauces, pickles, honey, hair-dye biassed and untruthful production, in view and perfumes. The collection of timber of the evidence, he ever saw. The motion | is large, as is also that of stones. Nearly was lost.

Three hundred men and 150 teams are Household exemptions

$2,500 to $1,500. The name of the second C. P. R. crossing of the Columbia River has been changed from Farwell to Augus. The municipalty of Woodworth proposes to construct bridges across the Assiniboine at Virden, Oak Lake, and Griswold. Senator Schultz, who has been ill at Ottawa for a long time, has now recovered | silver-plate, pottery, glass, violins, pianos, and is removing back to Winnipeg.

completed. It cost the city $1,000. A monument in honor of the volunteers and police who lost their lives during the rebellion will be erected at Edmonton.

farmers to go to the market to sell their visit to the Blackfest. He is accompanied

Bill to prevent cities and towns compelling

Major-General Strange has been presented with a handsome silver tea-service

Personal. Mistress Mary Benemen lives at Russiaville, Ind., and owns up to 117 years. The Harriet Martineau statue in the Old | system of the Dominion. A very elaborate South Meeting-house, Boston, is to be presented to Wellesley College.

Young Charles Dickens does not wr If young Charles had been wise he would have tried rather to make a hit in stocks. grandfather was the nobleman who accomin 1860, and a very fine gentleman he was. Mrs. William Shearer, wife of an Atlanta, left her by a sister in New Zealand. It is

Mme. Modjeska is a highly accomplished linguist, and it is said there is not a European living who could cheat her on the price of a bonnet. She could also volume contains needlework done by the order a sealskin sacque in Greek or Latin. Carrie Dodge, of Stoneham, Mass., has shown a disposition to wander off and be a A third volume contains the maps drawn by gypsy, but one must be born a gypsy to the pupils of a third school, and so on. Two make a good, first-class one. They didn' simple facts will make plain how practical

Late Church Notes.

lage has decided unanimously to invite the three other selected places, nothing so Rev. H. S. Matthews, of Bracebridge, to practical is ever attempted in Britain. accept the pastorate of their church for the | but only useless landscapes and drawings The Presbyterian congregation at Port | far as designs for manufacturers are con- use the best sugar only, a pound of sugar to

New York City.

Arthur has resolved that a call to that corned. That is one fact, and the other is each pound of fruit. Let the berries and church be extended to Rev. John Pringle, of | that the pupils in elementary schools are | sugar stand together from evening until Kildonan, Man., and that the salary be not asked to draw maps until they fully morning in a cool place. Then sup the $1 000 per year, with manse. At a meeting of the Executive Committee | map they draw is a map of the school. | and as soon as the berries are heated appointed to make arrangements for the room. Afterwards comes a map of the through, lift them off the fire with a perevapgelistic services to be held in Toronto rinks and report upon their capacity, and Scotch system, which compels young, let them simmer slowly again until the beralso to obtain estimates of the cost of buildton had no injured vanity to resent; that the services should be held in a large when they have no adequate conception of sightly. Unless the fruit was in a fer-

Centre Shot at a Great Bore.

One elderly hyperbolator has become

" G. General," said the editor, his face | as flourishing. b-b-brains were blown ous?"-Boston

A Gravenhurst constable arrested a man the other day, but instead of putting him in the look-up took him to a Salvation Army meeting, and then home to his own house, where he lodged him for the night Mrs. Norwich, of Paradale, the wife of Mr. Joseph Norwich, butcher, died suddenly yesterday morning. She was subject to spaces of coughing, and died during one

The Rock Island Railway Company has effected the arrest of John Connars, alias well known in Peorie for the murder of with lasting gratitude the memory of Mr. Kellogg N chols and the express robber near Morris, Ill., on the 13th of March. a confession of a convict named Plankett, Penitentiary. Another pal, named "Jeff," surname unknown, is also implicated by Mr. Plunkett, but sannot be traced.

CANADIAN EXHIBIT.

eteristics are made manifest at this Exhibition. If India is the home of deftness and art and Australia of luxury, then lanada is the home of industry. Imme diately on entering the Canadian ceivable product, both in its raw and its manufactured state, but the exhibits are all displayed with the artfulness of a cute n. The Canadian section is a great warehouse where the contents are made to bulk largely before the eye. Everything seems to be brought to the front. Not a single thing is allowed to be pessed without notice being taken of it. Publicity, obtru siveness is here the order of the day. Canada not only desires to be known that she makes all these things, but likewise that she has them on sale. India, on the other hand, is content to have it known that she has produced her wonderful decora-tive wares, and Australia is sontent if the world knows that she possesses her great store of wealth.

The Canadian section is of itself a complete exhibition of contemporary industry.

rice, cats, rye, and rye whiskey. Apples pears, peaches, grapes and wines, in ports, sherries, clarets, Sauternes, Vermonth and Sacramental wine. Ale, porter, cider and vinegar. Flour, biscuite, beef obtained in British Columbia during the are as varied as the natural products. cities in Manitoba have been reduced from | The collection of woollen and cotton cloth, hats and bonnets, silk ribbons, furs and hosiery is such that Messrs. warehouse with the greatest facility from Canada should British manu. factures be altogether annihilated. Books. paper, paper pulp, beds, skates, toys, bricks, picture frames, blinds, billiard tables, ous by its absence, but probably this has | basket-to be taken with suspicion. The Manitoba Legislature has passed a forthwith exhibited. Some of these things bulk most largely are timber, agricultural cultural show. Farmers will be interested in seeing the style of apparatus in use on the farms at the other side of the Atlantic. The American organs and pianos cannos be judged by appearances, but if they be udged by quantity the trade is evidently a thriving and money-making one.

One portion of the Canadian section specially deserves to be closely studied.

i.e., that illustrative of the educational range of diagrams and school records has been sent across, and any one may learn with great facility not only the quantity of school work now being performed in schoolmaster in the land ought to be sent to study these records. Nothing so illustrative and graphic is to be found in Britain in connection with school work. One pupils in one school. Another volume contains the essays written in another school School include designs for wall papers, for Chicago and accept the $10 000 offer from | the hands of the artisan for execution, the Madison Avenue Reformed Church, of | whereas, except at the Bradford Technical School, at the reformed Mechanics The Methodist Church in Pickering Vil. | Institute at Manchester, and at two or from plaster casts, perfectly worthless so parish, much less of their own kingdom. | be apt to have any trouble from its apo Perhaps the lesson taught by Canada at | ing, if put up as here directed. this exhibition will help to remove a practice as cruel as it is useless. It is to the oredit of Canada that she has anticipated the mother country in abolishing the treadmill style of tuition.

The Irish Episcopal Church.

opposition to the Bill-a negative policy to prepared to be bored for an hour. Said the | May, in the Hall, Christ Church place, ing. if you would preserve their fresh, as promised and then preached an arrived in New York at 10 35 c'clock last take his place. But the country would find | "Oh, this was a famous battle, and how Plunkett, in the chair. Reference was | gless jars, and no fruit will keep better or | had a panel to bick! (Laughter.) I have that the question was really between Mr. | well I remember the day and recall the | made by the Chair to the deaths of Arch. | make a more desirable preserve. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury; between scene. How plainly this man recalls to bishop Beresford and Trench, and there the present Bill and the policy of enforced my mind the green fields and the dusty was some discussion as to whether certain emigration backed up by twenty years of roads! Here, where my finger points, is dignities should be continued or dropped as coercion. To renew the Coercion Act where the enemy tried to turn our left | vacapoies arose. The question was not flank. Here is where we charged, driving settled, but the debate showed that the the town trying to trace the bride elect of them back in disorder. At this point our sentiment is prevailing in Ireland that a the President on Friday morning, but only (Laughter and applause.) I shall continue which would be no nearer success than the gallant Major fell, penetrated by a score of non-endowed Church has no place for one of them succeeded in locating her. He to get three square means a day and tolercoercive measures of recent centuries. As Minie bullets. And here, right beside this salaried idlers. Many of the old cathedral discovered a trunk with a big "F" on it in ably good clothes, and that's about all you'll to Mr. Chamberlain's federation scheme | clump of trees, is where I had my leg broken | officials will be allowed to die out. The | the G leey House corridor, and in that way Sunday schools of the Church are reported | managed to get on the track of the sensa-

The population of Seaforth is 2,532. Brampton has a ladies' walking club. The thrifty town of Galt is to be lighted with electricity.

Thurlow, was kicked to death by a cols in a field on his father's farm on Saturday. In happy ignorance of civic by laws an in supreme contempt of civilized methoded party of Siwashes recently camped in true gipsy style, and turned their four | She was too great in her way to inspire horses loose on the main streets of Victoria,

-Counsel (on cross-examination) -- What | was told that a very stout lady is your age, madam? Witness-Forty- to be married. "Impose seven, sir. Counsel-Married or single? Sydney Smith, " a man mis Witness-Single. I never had an offer of section of her." marriage in my life; and, if it is any On Saturday morning that I've worn false teeth for nearly thirty Inspectors and Weights years. Counsel- H'm. That is all, madsome. There is no use trying to shake the | the extent of $1 200. direct testimony of as truthful a woman as owned by P. R. Hen-

SCRAPS.

But he is not put out a bit
He revels still in rhyme.
And dresses up his lines to fit
The golden summer time. The winter, summer, autumn, spring. To him are all alike. Whenever he's inspired to sing The lyre he's bound to strike

-To the henpecked husband life -The person who cannot an rd to or he ocean this summer can always get up kind of sea sick feeling by having the

-The email boy learning the alphabet is very much like the postage stamp-he often gets stuck on a letter. -" Tois is a whale of tears" is what boy said when he was getting a threshing -" Here's to you," said a hibulous individual, addressing his thermometer. He explained to an astorished friend that they always took a drop together.

-Every bachelor who purchases a $50 suit of clothes of a particular clothing ho at Hemmingford, Nabraska, will be prowided with a wife. -A young man who was admitted to the Philadelphia bar three years ago has just secured his first case. He has sued his washerwoman, who won't return his lines because he owes an old bill. -Lime cartridges are coming into use for blasting purposes. A hole is bored, the limed cartridge inseried and water poured over it. The increase in volume of slaked lime splits and cracks the substance which it is desired to blast. very seriously to him about the sinfulness | to and the day returning from camp. all the metals are shown, and a huge gilt "Now, you just count them cherries over engineers, of garrison batteries of artillery, obelisk represents £10,000,000 of gold again and see if there is one of them miss. selected for annual drill of 1886 87, may be ing before you insinuate that I took it."

-" Sam " Jones, reported in the Balumore Sun: Love is the basis of all God. approved marriage. Love is not simply a little effervescence of sweet-heartism, but Spence & Company might stock their it is as deep as nature, and high as the shoulders of God. I don't know how I came to marry my wife. It is said that God gives a man a good wife, and I reckon the devil gives the other kind.

-There are three kisses in a world of miscellaneous kisses which may be counted organs, cooking ranges, egg-beaters, um- true-the kiss the mother lightly lays upon The new riding school and drill hall for brellas, sewing machines, washing ma- her baby's dewy lips, the kiss the mother the Mounted Police at Regina has been | chines, spectacles and every concervable | gives her boy as he goes forth into the | "What is that?" asked the professor. commodity is apparently to be found world, and the kiss we press upon the still, placing his finger on the map. within the Dominion except one-viz., jute | pale lips of the dead. All the rest are like | sacks. Sacking is the one thing conspicu. | the strawberries in the bottom of the

-A flire is the most parmiess person in the world. A genuine flirtation is the fairare, of course, not so plentiful as others, est bargain possible-nothing for nothing and the articles of Canadian produce which | nihil ex nihilo. If one gets hurt he recovers immediately-for flirts are ethereal crea-Poundmaker is away on a diplomatic implements and musical instruments. One tures ; you can walk through them and not large hall is filled with agricultural machin- know there is anything there. It is all a master of sennous reciprocity .- Miss Cleve-

> -Photography, it is claimed, is to still further advanced by the use of the air brush. In this device a little holder is charged with India ink, and, by a bellows ner of a sewing machine, the fluid is blown upon a faintly outlined portrait, the result | boats and junks, thousands of which fregiving a picture superior in many respects

-In painting on china fat oil should be used when a thin coating of color is required. Canada, but also the nature of that work and spirits of surpensine alone where the and the appearance of the schools in which color is required thickly, says Art and The Duke of Newcastle is only 21. His it is being carried on. A series of photo. Decoration. If powder colors are used, it is a overboard until they become expert swing. "Fountein graphs exhibit the principal and character. | necessary to put some fat oil with all the | mers. in the harbors children seem to the | be bid in one istic school buildings, and a series of school | colors, as they then work more casily, more | perpetually tumbling overboard, but the | the haven of me records exhibit the manner in which for a thin wash and less when the colors education is conducted in them. It is are to be used thickly. A small cup should | water, and cuffing them a little, go on with flowers. The consumptive fur. manifestly of a very much more practical be at hand containing fas oil, and another their work. It is really astonishing at character than anything known in this containing a mixture of tas oil and spirits | what age these boys and girls will learn

Some Good Bruit Preserves.

STRAWBERRY JAM. one pound of best white sugar; place the ever goes to another's aid, nor will any strawberries in a china bowl, cover with boatman save another from drowning, the sugar, and let them stand for several because, as he says, it is all fate, and he recourse to the Powers. The agreement hours, that the juice may draw. Then put | who interferes with fate will be severely | stipulates for the withdrawal of both them on the fire in a preserving kettle, and punished in some way. Besides this, the armies from the frontier and a mutual stir frequently while they cook, until a saving of a boatman's life only keeps a exchange of prisoners. Premier Tricoupis have pie to dinner, so Carrie came home and business-like is Canadian school teach thick jelly forms. You will find this excel- chafing soul so much longer in purgatory, will not officially inform the Powers of this ing. The exhibits from the Ottawa Art lent for mixing with creams, for blanc- when it ought to be released by the same mange, ices, puffs, etc., for which purposes death of the sailor which the gods, by fate, the continuance of the blockade he now carpets and for plaster moulding. These de- it should be mashed, and strained through Rev. Dr. Kittredge has decided to leave signs are all ready to be put forthwith into a fine sieve. A few drops of poke-berry jelly improves the color, making it resemble that of fresh strawberries. Preserving strawberries should not be delayed too late in the season, as the first pickings are generally the finest. Salect the largest berries before they are too ripe : comprehend what a map is. The first | whole gently into a kettle over a slow fire, adjoining streets or roads. Next one of | forated ladie and spread them on dishes to the bearings, size or area of their own | mented state when gathered, you will no

Do not let the gooseberries get mashed, nor in the church as the building would navy. Dublin, the Archbishop of Dublin, Dr. green color. Put away in small, self-scaling excuest sermon. Thank God, the good man night.

> How the Whereabouts of the President Bride were Discovered.

A little band of reporters was scouring tion of the day. All the others roshed about town from morning till night before they succeeded in obtaining the information they were looking for. The energy of the average metropolitan reporter would asion.

" Talleyrand asked," says Greville, ' i Fox had not been tres occupé de Madane Siddons." "Ob no," said Broughau, " that's impossible ; one might as well se interested in the sea as in Mrs. Siddons love. The East India Company might sapire to her, nothing less." This reminds us of some story of Sydney Smith's,

MILITANY CAMPS.

Regulations for the Annual Dr Active Billita Corps.

The Canadian militia general orders ublished this week contain the following regulations for the annual drill this year Corps of Infantry and Garrison Artillery are not to exceed 42 non-commissioned officers and men per company and battery, including regimental staff serges to and

Field Batteries-One major. tain, one lieutenant, one second lieutenant. one surgeon, one veterinary surgeon, one sergeant-major, one quartermaster ser geant, four sergeat te, four corporals, four combardiers, one trumpeter, one farrier, 58 gunners and drivers and 29 horses, including the officers' and non-commissioned 1885, and held in barracks in Ontario and Quabec for duty, are not to be included in nov list for drill. The maximum number of officers, nor pay for drill will be 20.255. City corps (excepting field batteries of artillery, and such companies as belong to rural battalions of infantry) may be permitted to perform twelve days of annual drill at their local headquarters at such times, prior to 1st December, 1886, as may be most convenient. Selections to be made from rural corps of the different arms in each district in proportion as their strength bears towards each other. Those not drawn for drill last year to be first taken.

The corps so selected in each of the dis tricts, numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 (excluding isolated companies of infantry and engineers and garrison batteries of Lyceum Theatre in New York on Oot. 18th artillery, but including all field batteries of | W. S. Gilbert is writing a new play for par -A small boy was detected by a stingy artillery not otherwise excepted), are to be American season. She has always be farmer in one of his cherry trees. The concentrated for twelve days' drill in a favorite with both Gilbert and Sull farmer made the boy come down and talked | camp of exercise, including the day going | The latter engaged her for " Iolanthe " of stealing. The boy answered indignantly : I solated rural companies of infantry and | especially for her.

permitted to perform the same at their respective headquarters on the same conditions as apply to city corps.

The 1st Provisional Brigade at Guelph and Winnipeg, Montreal and Woodstock Field Batteries, are to drill in camp near their local headquarters. The places and dates for the several encampments will be notified hereafter.

About Little Teddlers.

NO DOUBT OF IT. Tot was receiving his first lesson in geo Tot-" That is a dirty finger-nail, sir?

IN THE PROPER PLACE. Small Boy-" Mother, please give me another lump of sugar for my of fice. I've | the snow-clad peaks of Caucasus -Sir R. dropped the one you gave me." Mother-" Where have you dropped it? Small Boy-" In the coffee."

HE TOOK THE CAKE. " Johnny, you must not eat so much offer to gend their Celebrated Voltage BELTS cake. Eas more byead; it's the staff of "I will by and by, mother; I'm not old enough yet to need a staff.'

operated with a foot pedal after the man- | Japanese life to me," says a recent traveller | them at once. there, " was the manner of living in the quent every bay along the coast. The to the best crayon drawing-the whole awkward junks always belong to the mem- from Edmonton to a operation involving also only a few hours' bers of one family, and usually every bedside. She was branch of the family, old and young, live | band in the Ca

"A child 3 years old can swim like s fish. Often children who will not learn of their own accord are repeatedly thrown is a paradi mothers deliberately pick them out of the benefit in ber gen to scull a boat. "I bave seen a boat twenty feet long most | Medical Discovery" will restore to perfe adroitly managed by three children, all health. For all chronic throat, bronchis under 7 years of age. I am told that not- and lung diseases it is a most reliable withstanding their aptness at swimming specific. By druggists. To one quart of ripe strawberries take | many boatmen get drowned, for no boat seem to have selected for the purpose."

THE ENICKERBO KER BOY. 'm a bedokerbockerb y Bere my coat and oreeches! One's and collar, rocket too— Made with mary stitches! must have a patch and chain A silk umbrelle and a cane-No more kiltsand skirts for me I'm a big boy-don't you see ? Knickerbockers! Knickerbockers Give away my other clothes! I want one that wally goes. But two n'te live goals will do;

And I wan a waggon, 900. No more chairs hitched by for me! I'm a big oy-don't you see? C roline S. King, in St. Nichola. Rev. Sum Jones' Recentricities.

Now, don't bother yourselves about my coentricities. They are not natural. ignorant, untravelled children to commence ries are clear, when they will be sufficiently They are all artificial. I put 'em on this item may be intel igent to our readers, around and see what a crowd you make. | cyclone district. (Laughter) A good but tedious preacher. who could not draw large congregations was advised that if he would appounce that there would be earthen dogs in the pews next Sunday thousands of curious Select young gooseberries while they are people would come to see the poodles still green. Make a syrup with one pound (Laughter.) Another preacher advertised of sugar to each pound of fruit, adding, in shat he would kick the panel out of the the beginning, a half-pint of clear spring pulpit. (Laughter) The church was water. Stew the berries apul they are shronged and there were 5 000 ontside quite clear and the syrup becomes thick. trying to get in. After he had got as many neard that some peop'e say that tuey won't come to hear me because they don't like my style and methods, and do not wish to encourage me. Now, my friends, I don's want encouragement. I have. A preacher said to me, " Mr. Jones, I prayed God to change your methods, and a voice seemed to say to me that if you were changed you would be as dull as I am." (Laughter.) May the Lord help every man to preach the cospel as he shinks heat. I am reads to chapge my methods just as ish a jig saw .- New York Cor. Brock yn sous as somebody shows me a style by which I can eateb more fish. (Laughter.) Bet before I swap my book and line for

> Lis not necessary to buy corn oures. Men NERVOUS women should remember that Puta Painless Corn Extractor is the only sure and painless corn remover extant. des its work quickly and with certainty. that the signature, N. C. Polson & Co., ars on each bottle. Beware of poison-soruebody eleu's, let me see how many fish be has on his string. (Laughter.) - From a Sermon at Ba'timore.

pnatable on Saturday levied upon a of Martin Irons' goods at Sedatio. eatiefy a debt of $7 due Patrick e for several months past for house Busical Notes A Scotch society beauty has gene the stage. She is Mrs. Mackinton, of Edinburgh, and she essays the role (f Pauline in " Delicate Ground.

William Davidge, whose life on and off the stage has been a drama in itself, will selebrate the fiftieth autiversary of his lebut on the 20th of the coming mouth. Dr. Davies will retire from the position f organist of St. James' Cathedral Toronto, about the beginting of July. He will be succeeded by Mr J bn Carter, jun., and Mr. W. E Haslam will become choi mas ser.

Mms. Valleria, Miss Marion Burton, Mr. Orossy, Mr. Barringson Foote and Mr. Barton M Guckin are the soloiate who will appear to Mr. Mackenzie's new opera, William the Troubadour," to be given by Corps ordered for service since 1st July, the Carl Rosa Company at Drury Lane Theatre, London, next month.

A new form of double bassoon has been perfected by Herr Adolf Brauenlich, of Dresden, who has succeeded in carrying the instrument effectively down to B flat of the 32 feet octave The double bassoon, invented about 1620 by Hans Sobreibe" has undergone many cha: ge- and improve

Mesare. Monroe H., Rosenfeid, of Now York City, and Kenneh Lee, an English playwriter, have written for Miss Adah Richmond a topical bu-lesque, entitled " Through Fire and Fisch," which she will star in next season. It contains several new songs by Mr. Ruserfeld, who is the author of " Climbing up the Galden Ktairs'and " Hush, Little Baby, Don's You Or

Miss Forterque, the Euglish setress, will leave England in September, to open at th the former wrote the drams of " Gretch

The Mocky Mountains.

The approach to the Rocky Mountain from the prairie is, perhaps, the m remarkable in the world. I do not wish to give exaggerated ideas . . . The are scarcely more than a third as high at the Rimalaya. Nevertheless, the approach so them from the prairie is sruly wonder. ful; for they rise as masses of rock right? out of the prairie. During the greater part of the year they are covered with snow. . As we approached the mountains, we actually saw about 150 miles of continuons snow-clad hills, which, rising straight " out of the prairie, constitute a sight that is almost, if not quite unique. There is only one parallel to it, namely, the approach to the Caucasus from the steppes of Russia : and even this is not so fine, as there is first a range of low bills, then another a little higher, and again above all the summits of Temple: Cosmopolitan Essays.

A MOST LIBERAL OFFER!

THE VOLTAIC BELT CO. Marshall Mich. and Electric Appliances on thirty days trial to any man affi cted with Nervous Debility, Loss of Vitality, Manhood, etc. Illustrated pamphlet in sealed envelope "One of the most interesting features of | with full particulars, mailed free. Write before ber father, who necessarily go so far from home and fries to get relief. For if not in the last star of the disease, Dr. R. Pierce's " Gold Greece has arranged directly with Turdeclares that the Powers can do whatever they consider expedient.

Mother's Smiles are the Sunlight of Mome There would be fewer clouds and brighter sunshine in many households if every despirited suffering woman realized what boon Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is for all weakness and maladies to which her sex is liable. No lady who gives this wonderful remedy a trial will be disappointed by the result. It not only acts promptly upon all functional derangements, but by its rare pervice and tonic properties strengthens and repairs the whole feminine system. Price reduced to dollar. By druggists.

-" The air is it!! of expessant bride grooms," says an exchange. In order that merely to attract you here. Just look | we will explain that it is dated from the

> It outrivals all -- Dr. Bage's Catarrh Remedy.

It is reported that at the instance of France the allied Powers have ordered their fleets to raise the blockade against

The Spanish Minister of Marine is about to present to the Cortes a scheme of credit of $45 000,000 with which to enlarge the President Cleveland and his party

DUNN'S was doing well before I came here, and I reckon I'll get along when I leave.

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the ba Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltage Belt with Electric So pensory Appliances, for the specity relief and pen-manent cure of Nervous Induity, loss of Vitality ar-Minhose, and all kindred troubles. Also for man-other discusses. Complete restoration to Health, Viand Manuscol guaranteed. No risk is incurred. trated to muchlet in scaled entelope malled free, it ireasing VOLTAIC BELTCO., Marshall, M

A SAMPLE FREE Worth 80 Cent Something for young men only. Send 15 cents in eliver to pay postage and packing daisy sample. Donaldson & Oo London, Out.