Bover hollo till you're hurt, then loudly you may And never whistle, comrade, until you're through Then you can chirrup bravely, if it will do you Be careful how you tread on other people's toes For none can feel another's rain, as everybody

The lane that has no turning is wearisome and Life running in a groove is like a doleful song. Ill weeds grow thick and fast, as any child may While e'en the simplest flower needs care make it grow. Never stir a puddle where only filth is seen ; Do not watch your neighbor's, but keep your own Be careful how you play with any sharp-edged

Don t part with money easily, like the proverbial We're told, a lady fair, faintheart has never won But we've no faint heart now-the race is dead A drowning man will try at a weak straw to catch they'll hatch.

if you drive a nail, just hit it on the head,

Or you may make a miss, and hit your thumb If possible, be humble, or pride may have a fail, And look before you leap, or do not leap at all. New brooms sweep nice and clean-a truth we're rose But who will prize a broom when it is worn and A child once badly burned, the fire will dread, 'tis

Pray, who will pay the piper when his account The earliest bird that flies will surely catch the The meanest thing that lives if trodden on, will A man who will not hear, is very deaf, indeed; Suoques is always sure to him who does succeed

A NOVEL.

for is his face, they had found it, and, to | with a succession of sharp reports. Then all appearance, it pleased them very little. | she threw it down and set her heel upon it Dorothy turned pale and leaned back with | and ground it into the path. There was m faint smile of resignation; she had ex- | something inexpressibly cruel about the ence's haughty features -- there was no resig | unconscious outcome of some mental pronation there. And meanwhile Ernest was | cess, and it is an odd proof of the excitestaring down the room, quite unaware of | ment under which they were both laboring. the little comedy that was going on round | that at the same time the gentle-minded | su'kily. ether man who was there to stare.

And this was what they were staring at | other than they had ever been before or Up the centre of the long room walked, or lever would be again; the common stroke of buther swept, Miss Conwick, for even at her a misfortune for a moment welded their his arm through his friends'. advanced age she moved like a queen, and opposite natures into one. At that moment, at any other time her appearance would too, they knew that they both loved the in itself have been sufficient to excite re- | same man; before, they had guessed it and Coswick, but rather at the radiant creature | but now that was forgotten. rose. The dress was cut low, and her splen. | stand against her. He has fallen in love | did neck and arms were entirely without | with her." room; but, in truth, it sprang from the | tent." and she laughed again. almost perfect beauty of the woman who | "Perhaps," suggested Dorothy, "she only wors it. Any dress would have looked beautiful upon that noble form that tow. | Jeremy--room with the grace of a swan and sway like a willow in the wind. But her loveli look upon and forget, and yet there was | yourself. Flirt with him! She will love him | groter que.

On she came, her lips half parted, seemingly unconscious of the admiration she was attracting, eclipsing all other women as she passed and making their beauty, that before had seemed bright enough, look poor and mean beside her own. It took but a few seconds, ten perhaps, for her to walk up the room, and yet to Erness it seemed long before her eyes met his own, and something passed from them into his heart that remained there all his life. His gaze made her blush a little, it was so unmistakable. She guessed who he was and passed him with a little inclination of her head. 1 "Well, here we are at last," she said addressing her sister in her musical, pure we had to stop to get it mended." "Indeed?" said Florence. "I thought that perhaps you came late in order to make a more effective entry."

"Florence," said her sunt reprovingly, "you should not say such things." Florence did not answer, but put her lace handkerchief to her lip. She had bitten it till the blood ran. By this time Ernest had recovered him seif. He saw several young fellows bearing down upon them and knew what they were

" Miss Ceswick," he said, " will you introsooner said than done, and at that seems she band began to play a waltz. In five seconds more she was floating down the room upon his arm, and the advancing young gentlemen were left lamenting, and, if the truth must be told, anathematizing "that puppy Kershaw" beneath their

There was a spirit in her feet. She danced magnificently. Lightly leaning on his arm they swept round the room, the incarnation of youthful strength and beauty, and, as they passed, even sour old Lady Asteigh gratify her vanity—she, who can have any- that I see that there is much good in either lowered her ancient nose an inch or more and deigned to ask who that handsome young man dancing with the "tail girl" Presently they halted and Ernest observed a more than usually intrepid man coming toward them, with the design. no doubt, of obtaining an introduction and the promise of dances. But again he was equal to the occasion. " Have you a card?" he saked.

" On, yes.' "Will you allow me to put my name down for another dance? I think that our

"Yes, we get on nicely. Here it is." Ernest took it. The young man had arrived now and was hovering around and glowering. Ernest nodded to him cheerfully and "put his name" very much down, indeed for no less than three dances and an

Eva opened her eyes a little but said nothing; their steps suited so very well. "May I ask you, Kershaw-" began his

"Oh, certainly," answered Ernest benignly, " I will be with you presently, and they floated off again on the rising

When the dance ended they stopped just by the spot where Mirs Ceswick was sitting. Fiorence and Dorothy were both dancing, but Jeremy, who did not dance, was standing by her, looking as sulky as a bear with a sore head. Eva stretched out her hand to him with a smile.

"I hope that you are going to dance with me, Mr. Jones," she said. "I don't dance," he answered curtly, and walked away.

She gazed after him wonderingly; his manuer was decidedly rude. "I do not think that Mr. Jones is in a good temper," she said to Ernest with a

"Oh, he is a queer fellow; going out always makes him cross," he answered Then the gathering phalanx of would be a partners marched in and took possession your cot quest," and again the kitsed her and Ecnest had to retire. The ball was drawing to iss clove. The dancing room, notwithstanding its ope windows, was intensely hot, and many of the dancers were strolling in the gardens, er than ever.

Florence, Dorothy and her brother were also walking, all three together. It is ourious how people in misfortune cling to one another. They walked in silence; they had nothing to say. Presently they caugh sight of two tall figures standing by a bush. on which was fixed a dying Chinese lan tern. It is somesimes unfortunate to tall, it betrays one's identity ; there was no mistaking the two figures though it was so tark. Instinctively the three halted. An ast then the expiring Chinese lantern did an unkind thing ; it caught fire and threw a lurid light upon a very pretty little scene. Ernest was beuding forward toward Eva wi helt bis soul in his expressive eyes and begging for something. She was blushing sweetly and looking down at the rose her bo om ; one hard, too, was raised. though to unfasten it. The light was for a moment so atrong that Dorothy afterward remembered noticing how long Eva's curl-Never count your chickens until you're sure ing black eyelashes looked against her cheek. In another moment it had flared out and the darkness hid the sequel; but it may here be stated that when Eva resp-

> Charming and idyllio as this tableous tres vivant of youth and beauty obeying the primary law of nature and making love to it better." one another in a garden of E ten illumined with Chinese lanterns undoubtedly was, it did not seem to please any of the three | have answered that she had " such a hears."

Jeremy actually forgot the presence ladies and went so far as to use unparitamentary language aloud. Nor did they re. | the dance. prove him; probably it gave their feelings some vicarious relief. "I think that we had better be going home; 'it is late," said Dorothy after a pause. "Jeremy, will you go and order the carriage ?"

Jeremy went. Florence said nothing, but she took her fan in both her hands and bent is slowly, so Whatever those two women were looking | that the ivory sticks snapped one by one | pected is, that smile seemed so say; but the | way in which she crushed the pretty toy, blood flamed like a danger flag into Flor. | the action seemed to be the appropriate and was Jeremy and so was every | Dorothy saw nothing strange about it. At that moment the two girls were nearer each mark. But people were not looking at Miss | had not liked each other the better for it, who accompanied her and whose stature | " I think, Florence," said D rothy, with dwarfed her, tall as she was. Eva Ceswick, a little tremor in her voice, " that we are for it was she, was dressed in white soic de | 'out of the running,' as Jeremy says Your Chine, in the bosom of which was fixed a single | sister is too beautiful for any woman to ornament. In the masses of dark hair, "Yes," said Florence with a bitter laugh which was coiled like a coronet round her | and a flash of her brown eyes, "his highhead, there glistened a diamond star. | ness has thrown a handkerchief to a new Simple as was her costume, there was a | favorite and she has lost no time in picking grandeur about it that struck the whole it up. We always used to call her' the sui-

means to firt with him a little; I hoped

ered so high and yet seemed to first up the | "Jeremy! What chance has Jaremy against him? Ernest would make more way with a woman in two hours than ness did not end there. From those dark | Jeremy would in two years. We all love to syss there shone a light that few men sould | be taken by storm, my dear. Do not deceive | nothing bold about it. It was like the light | wildly in a week. Who could help loving him?" she added with a thrill of her rich

> Dorothy said nothing. She knew that it was true, and they walked for a few steps "Dorothy, do you know what generally > happens to favorites and sultanas?" "They come to a bad end. The other ladies of the harem murder them, you

"What do you mean?" "Don't be frightened. I don't mean that | the point a little more and tell me who the we should murder my dear sister. What I do mean is, that I think we might manage to depose her. Will you help me if I flud a There is only one gitl-"

Dorothy's better self had had time to

"No, certainly not," she answered, "Ernest has a right to choose for himself and if your sister gets the better of us, it is the fortune of war, that is all-though certainly the fight is not quite fair," she added, as she thought of Eva's radiant loveliness.

Fiorence glanced at her companion contemptuously. "You have no spirit," she said.

"What do you mean to do?" " Mean to do?" she answered, swinging round and facing her, "I mean to have my

"Oh, Florence, it is wicked to talk so! Ernest? It is not his fault if -if you are

"Yes, it is his fault. But whether it is his fault or not, he shall suffer. Remember | " what is to be done? You should have told what I say, for it will come true, he shall suf- | me, but you didn't, you see. It you had I fer. Why should I bear it all alone? But he | would have kept clear. Fact is, she bowled shall not suffer so much as she. I told her me over altogether—bowled me clean."
that I was fond of him and she promised to "So she did me." leave him alone-do you hear that? And yet she is taking him away from me to and leave you to make the running. Not

" Hush, Florence! Don't give way to | nothing to marry on, and no more has she." your temper so, or you will be overheard. | "And we are only swenty of a. One can't Besides, I dare say that we are making a | marry at twenty-one," put in Jeremy, "or only gave him a rose." "I don't care it we are overheard, and it one always do." is not nothing. I guessed that it would be so, I keew that it would be so, and I know | what is coming now. Mark my words, mined to show that Ecnest was not the only within a month Ernest and my sweet sis- | person favored with this exciting fact. ter will be sitting about on the cliff with their arms round each other's necks. I have | it forever. only to shut my eyes and I can see it. Oo, here is Jeremy! Is the carriage there, that showed that it cost him an effort to will drop me at the cottage, wou's you? Half an hour later the fly that had No, you shan't go, and we won't get to logbrought M ss Ceswick and Eva came round, gerheads over it, either. I'll tell you what and with it Ernest's dog-cart. But, as Miss | we will do -we will to s up." Coswick was rather auxious about the iujured whee', Ecuest, as in duty bound, offered to see them safe home, and, order og the cart to follow, got into the fly with out waiting for an auswer Of course, Miss Ceswick went to sleep, but it is not probable that either E-nest or Eva followed her example. Perhaps they were to tired to talk ; perhaps they were like the fellows in Homer. We haven's cap beginning to find out what a delightful companionship is to be found in silence perhaps his gantle pressure of the little white gloved hand, that lay unresisting

Din's be shocked, my reader; you or I have anything to say to him after a month, would have done the same and thought our- then the loser to have his fling. If she will, selves very lucky fellows. At any rate, that drive was over all to and was gone. " It is not like Florence to be so kind, Well, shake bands, Erness. We won't quarreflected her younger sister. "I can't re rel about the girl, please God." member when she kissed me last," Eva did not know that as there are some among them Ernest and Eva. They had kisses that declare peace and set the seal day there was an invisible something be just denced their third wal z, in which they on love, there are others that announce war and discovered that their steps suited bet and proclaim the hour of vengeance and

Florence opened the door for them; she had told the servant to go to bed. When Eva reached the door of her room she turned round to say good night to her colling under a box full of choice specimens sister ; but the latter, instead of contenting of the petrified bones of antedeluvian aniherself wish a nod, as was her custom, cam and kissed her on the face.

CHAPTER IX.

EVA FINDS S METHING When Ernest woke on the morning after followed reflections, those confounded re- | uing to feel the succes awkward when fictions that always dog the beels of every. thing pleasant in life, and he cented to in the end he yawned and got up. When he reached the state of room, which looked a woman's voice ostring for help. The sound cool and pleasant in contrast to the hot ! July sunshine that beat upon the little ! the glittering sea beyond, he found that the others had done their breakfast. Jeremy had gone out, but his sister was there, lock ing a little pale, no doubt from the late hours of the previous night.

"Hulloa, Doll! Good-morning." "Good-morning, Eeness," she answered rather coldly. "I have been keeping your peared in the ball-room she had lost her tes as warm as I can, but I'm afraid it is gesting cold."

> got such a head! Perhaps the tea will make She smiled as she gave it to him. Had she spoken what was in her mind she would ter for it, for presently he asked her, in comparatively cheerful tones, how she liked

"Oh, vary well, thank you, Erness. How did you like it?" 'Oh, awfully. I say, Doli!" " Yes, Ernest."

" Isn's she lovely ?" " Who, Ernest?"

"Who? Why, Eva Ceswick, of course ! "Yes, E nest, she is very lovely There was something about her tone that was not encouraging. At any rate, he did not pursue the subject.

"Where is Jeremy?" he asked next. " He has gone out." Presently, Ernest, having finished bis second cup of tea, went out, too, and oams across Jeremy mooning about the yard. "Huiloa, my hearty, and how are

"All right, thank you," answered Jeremy Ecnest glanced up quickly. The voice was the voice of Jeremy, but the tones were "What is up, old chap?" he said, slipping | she is getting exhausted.

after your dissipations?"

"Ob, yes, there is, though. What is it?

the look softened the other. prepared to move on. " As though you didn't know !"

"Upon my honor I don't."

and kept his gun and collection of eggs and or so their lives were not worth a farthing's the superintendence of a trustwor by melancholy leg in the air in a way meant to | go," she said in a quiet voice be imposing, but only succeeding in being "Well, what is it?' he interregated of the glassy eye of the decaying bittern. Jeremy turned his broad back upon him. He felt that he could speak better on such a subj cr with his back turned, and address. ing empty space before him, said : "I think it was precious unkind of you." "What was precious unkind?"

" To go and out me out of the only girl-

" I ever loved," suggested Ernest, for he was besitating. "I ever loved," chimed in Jaremy. The phrase expressed his sentiments exactly. "Well, old chap, if you would come to deuce you are talking about-" "Why, who should I be talking about? "You ever loved?" "I ever loved."

"Why, Eva Ceswick." Ernest whistled. "I say, old chap," he which once had been the water supp'y of depth of winter.

said after a pause, "why didn't you tell | the old Abbev. me? I didn't even know that you knew her. Are you engaged to her, then?" "Engaged! No."

"Well, then, have you an understanding with her?' " No, of course not." "Look here, old fellow, if you would just slew round a bit and tell me how the matter stands, we might get on a little." "It doesn't stand at all, but-I worship the ground she treads on, there!" "Ab," said Ecnest, "that's awk ward, for so do I-at least, I think I do."

Jeremy groated and Eruest groaned too, by way of company. "Look here, old chap," said the latter,

"I'll tell you what, Jeremy; I'll go away great deal out of nothing. A'ter al, she one would have a large family by the time one's thirty. Fallows who marry at twenty

"She's twenty one; she told me so." "She told me, too." said Jeremy, deter "Well, shall I clear? We can't jaw abou

"No," said Jeremy slowly, and in a way Jeremy? That's right. Come on, Dorothy, | say it, " that would not be fair; besides, I let us go and say good night and be off. You expect that the mischief is done; everybody gets fond of you, old chap, men or women

Tais struck Ernest as a brilliant sugges "Right you are," he said at once produc ng a shilli g. "Singles or threes?"

'Singles, of course; is's sconer over." Ernest poised the coin on his thum Y u call. But, I say, what are we tose ing for? We can't draw lots for the girl tured her yet." This was obviously a point that required consideration. Jeremy scratched his head.

"How will this do?" he said. "The winhis own, was more elequent than any ner to have a month to make the running in, the loser not to interfers. If she won't | She sighe! "Ah, me!" lover to keep clear." "That will do. Brand clear; up you go.

The shilling spun into the air. "Tails!" howled Jeremy. It lit on the beak of the astonished bittern and bounded off on to the floor, finally male that had been washed out of the cliffs. The b x was lugged out of the way with "I congratulate you on your dress and on" difficulty and the shilling disclosed " Heads it is !" said Ernest exultingly.

"I expected as much; just my luck.

They shook hands heartily enough and tween them tout had not been tuere before

Birong indeed muss be the friendship which the bonds do not shoken when the -nadow of a woman's love fel a upon it. That afternoon Dorotby said that she wanted to go into Kesterwick to make some parch ses, and Ecu st affered to see mean he ball it was ten o'clock and he had a luer. They walked in silence as for as severe headache. This-the headache-was I linkeburgh Abbey. Indeed, they toth sufhis first impression, but presently his eye | fered from a curious constraint that seemed fell upon a withering red rose that lay upon | to effectually check their usual brother-and the dressing table, and be smiled. Then I stater-like relations. Ethest was just be gin-

"What was that?' she aid. "I thought heard somebody ery out." They listened, and presently both heard seemed to come from the coff on their left. They stepped to the edge and looked over. patch of bare turf in front of the house and | As the reader may remember, some twenty test from the top of the ciff and fifty more from the pottom, there was at this spot a saudy ledge, on which were deposited many of the remains washed out of the there is no stop, my it, and sup by ster cunreb) and by the sea. Now abis particu- the owner discovers and realizes, our after far spot was simost inaccessible without another, grievous errors which are difficult ladders, because, although it was east to remedy. And when the building is enough to get down so its level, the life bulged out on either side of it and mive,

Dorothy stopped.

he space of some yards, linke or to hold "You are a good Samaritan, Doll. I've for the nands or feet of the climber. The first thing that caught Ernest's eye | regrets for his error hount him day and when he looked over was a lady a foot and anale, which appeared to be resting ou a tiny piece of rook that projected from the enclace of the cliff; the Dixs was the im-He drank the tea and apparently felt bet- pioring fees of Eva Conwick, who was eprawing to a most undignified position on the bulge of sandstone, with nothing more between her and eterni y than that very unsatisfactory and insufficient kuch rock. It was evident that the could move idea of what constitutes a really go d i b, says the Liustrated London News. Her pen tight cellar floors, coating for rain water peither one way nor the other without being | not to may first diase. Nor world the payprecipitated to the battom of the cliff to tion like a fly.

on, I will come to you.

"I can't hold much tonger." come, and another to do it. The saud gave | con inte : oefects show themselves in at scarcely any footbold. How was he to get | connecting. Pipes, under the old free enough purchase to pull Eva round the and easy rule, were put in of the fit in bulge? He looked at D to my in despute. | capacity, wastes entirely too sman, and Her quick mind had taken in the situation | e me inter-corresped in m king b de as B BIBDOP.

"You must get down there above her, "Ti ger" instead of "wiped" i inta Ernest, and lie fl.t and a ratch que your | loaks as various point, and place; wetting hand to her " "But there is nothing to hold to. When | quently ourpets have to be tiru up to both go together." "No, I will hold your lega. Be quiet, the health and live of the occupants, v z It took Ergest but two seconds to reach | 11011, b.d a werage, etc, resulting to the the spot that Dorothy had pointed to, and | distribution of the victous and patternous so lay himself flat, or rather slanting, for | sewer ga-es through the building, and, as s Out with it. I am a splendid father con- his heals were a great deal higher than his comerquence, the ill-be like and sometimes head. Fortunately, he discovered a hard premaiure death of loved once. The in Jeremy freed his arm and remained knob of sandstone sgaines which he could | tended pleasant home is thus tran forme sulkier than ever. Ernest looked burt, and rest his left hand. Manwhile, Dorothy, into a more fume castle, a disease-breeding seating herself as securely as she could | charnel house, not fi for human habita-"Well, of course, if you won't tell me, shove, seized him by the ankler. Then tion.

there is nothing more to be said," and he Ecnest stre ched his hand downward, and, | All this is followed by continual repair gripping Eva by the wrist, began to put out | icg. tearing up fines, removing finishes his streng b. Had the three had any time | get at conceal d place-, etc., and for all to indulge their sense of humor, they might | this the owner has been made to pay a "Then if you'll come in here I will tell | have found the appearance they presented | good round price, amounting to more, as a you," and Jeremy opened the door of the intensely ludic out. But they had not, for rule, than it would have cost him to have little outbouse where he stoffed his birds | the very good reason that for thirty are mis | stoared a good building, errored units butte flies, and motioned Eccest majesti | purchase. Eccest strained and strained, | archiecet. But bad plumbing work is not but Eva was a large woman atthough she the only serious defect which so often He entered and scated himself upon the | danced so lightly, and the bulge over which | occurs in such cases. The foundation is stuffing table, gazing abstractedly at a bit. he had to pull her was almost perpendicu often wholly insufficient, and set ling tern that Jeremy had shot about the time | lar. Presently he felt that Dorothy was | occurs, with any quantity of ugly cracks that this story opened and which was now beginning to slip ab ve him.

> "Drive your knees into the saud and | And when the rains fail, leaks are found throw yourself forward, it is your only at every exposed window and opening and chance! gasped Echest to the exhausted | the roof itself yields its proportion of woman beneath him.

and gave a desperate struggle. "Pail, Doll, for Gol's sake, pail; she's | spece. Such cares are known to al l gaimon

Then followed a second of despairing | right " is indulged in, upon the principle effort and she was beside him on the spot | that a competent physician laughs as the where he lay. Another stroggle and the | sofferings of a patient whose pains and three sank xbausted on the top of the cliff, agonies result from self-trea mont or rescued from a most imminent death.

a near thing' Dirothy nodded, she was too exhausted I pett forger, or who tries to work out the to rpeak Eva amiled and fainted. He turned to her wi ha little cry and be- own self-conceived leg I logenus, -- Trad s gan to chafe her cold bands.

"Os, she's dead, Doli !" he said. " No, she has fainted. Give me your bat." voice. "What do you think? Something assert itself by now; the influence of the Holy Roman and was running as quickly as her exhaust shooty clothes. When Edison, the inventor people on earth. Our increase is fully sketching. The Princess Beatrice is also tion would allow toward a spring that of the telephone, first entered Boston he 10 000 000 stops the last celephone as an artist, and it is stated at at

(To be continued.) About Pavements. Ex Mayor Manning, of Toronto, has been | ignorance of his parents. Shakepeare, travelling in Europe during the summer. | the world's poet, was the son of a man who On his return she other day he was inter. | was unable to write his own name. variety of topics. His remarks upon the humble trade. The author of the "Pil- | hose of the females. subject of paving may be of interest here. | grim's Progress" was a ticker. Mr. Maining is thus reported: "The paving system at present practiced in diestility. Milton was blind. Toronto came in for Mr. Mar ning's censure. Block pavements were good in their way, ois lessons. Hogarth, the celebrated and when properly laid down were as last. | painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at | tured forms are bru be-, combs, mistors | tish vica its, who died at Strawford on ing as any other kind of payement, but as his books. long as scamp work was allowed to go unpunished Toronto's street- would be D mosthenes, the greatest crater of Greece, lery, card cases, susp cases, London, was pastor, and it was by Dr. sloventy kep). In England, I stand and evercam a hareh and stammering voice Bootland block paving was used, but it was ! laid on a corcrete foundation, and after some day they may far cutatrip you to the kin rings, mouth pieces for pipes, parasol, being laid was covered with tar and fine | race of hife, but because it is neither kind, sand, making it impervious to the rate. | nor right, nor Christian. The work is closely watched, and wos to the contractor who is found to scamp his work. A re the case is different. Fine sand is used as a foundation, and holes are left between the b ocks, with the re-ul that the rain gets under them and carries away the foundation. The rest it is need less to describe. Again, the msc sdamiz d roads in Britain and the excluent are as lucer at was evinced by these visions in go d as any of their block-paved roads, but there also good Judgment is u ed and good work is the consequence. These roads are male with a gentle crown, to that the rate Northwestern boust. The Northamp on and suffice water rule to the sides or gutters. The stone is broken much fiver | o much seurs would not for some time ban in this country, and when a hole arpears in the ro.dw.y, instead of following the practice here by dempting five or six shovelfule of stone into it, and then levelling it, the road around the hole is picked ! up for the dis at ce of several feet, fine evel, and as night the surface rolled so new. Mr. Manut go u d not see why this sind of mac damiz d read should not te me," he said, " I did not see a dirty place a wreath of white dablias of roadway from the moment I left Toronte until I returned." AT THE BALL. She sighed .. "Ah, met" with old-time grace, She sat bede ked in silken lace, And c yly wifed with her fan. As thought and conversation ran

To simpler times passed on apace, And, gazing arch y in my f.ce. Sue biffsped, recalled that trysting place Where in the delt a brook et ranbhe sighed: "Ah me!" But ab, what in a decade's space

The changes wranged in time and place!

And en ed I in snother man.

And since the sarty what hecan.

So when I said: "I'm married, Grace!" She sighest: "An ME!" parted but from that time for many a long board affair."

MISTAKES IN BUILDING.

ss in Civing Cu. Con rucis Leads to Great Troub'e. Owners are often sadiy disappointed and grieved at their mintakes to the means adopted by them to avoid the expen e of au archice , and obtain plans for their being ings S metroies they know or become acquatated with some "honess mechanic," to whom they are induced to entrust t whole matter of plaus, specification and thetrac.tor, only to repeat when it is to late. The party to whom the proposition is made, elasad with the plendid of partunity opened to him, and full of amount in his own abilitie, thes al possible mean to scoure and consummate the arraa d place are made-and such place !and the work progresses. Once nucler way, completed he stu p y feels dieguered for perfect arrangement, pour coustruction, homely design and incurable defects clowd upon bim as the reward of his fully; and night, but it is too late-the bailding is recoted, and he must endure its defects. But the first geteral disastisfiction is primary and bearable compared with of or ex, ecieques in their various detail. The plumbing work has, parhage, been done by some touch ta e man-roms of other o' good materials, weo calls nunself a "pract cal dumber." but who has not the shehtes ment of ton times the value of the work which she was apparently of nging by auc. | done stone akuful workspan big at the hands of such men, for the supple reason ! "Great God!" exclaimed Ecnest. "Hold that they do not possess, and therefore symptometre of women, with a knew, kind about two thirds fill it, care being taken ties. And owners who emplo, this class of It was one thing to say that he would | plumbers are unfortunate indeed. But to to diminish their practical rize the haif.

and spanned compare and walls, and fre she puts her weight on to my hand we shall become the deluge. All this is followed by a still more sections defect—one affect in la perfect or insuffi tient traps, pepe ventia.

in the plastering. The structure is per very much moth eaten, and waved one . See must make an effect or we shall all haps so poorly braced that the ed fic trembles with every wind that blows. internal westings. But we will not con-She realized the meaning of his words | move our enumeration of "bad things, as to do so would consume columns architects, and many a "served big quek practice, and the educated lawyer "By Jave !" exclaimed Erness, "that was | smiles when his client gets himself into a terrible fix by intrusting his case to at me intricacies and problems of law by hi

Journal. Why Boys should Not be Snubbed.

Din't enub a boy because his bome is whites. Among the latter it is 28 71, plains and u pretending. Abraham Lin- while for the colored ivi 35 8 A'though coln's early home was a log cable. Du't soub a boy because of the viewed by a Telegram reporter upon a Dan't saub a boy because he choses a | together the births of the mains exceed | Soff rors should address, with 10 cents in

> Digit soub a boy been e of physical liz das a sub-titute in the arts and indus | Wirla's Dispensary Medical Association, Din't shub a boy because of dulness i Don't suub a boy breau e he stutters. Dio's shub any one. Not alone breause

Nothing Like Leather. A recent excursion from the provinces prought to the Ludian and Colonial Era bi tion a number of employees engaged in the leature and boot and shoe industries of Northampton and neighborhood. Muthe Canadian leather di play in the E .-Quatrant. O.e Montreal exhibit suclude in immense piece, which, it was explained came in its entirity from the back of a after careful examination that they were o'vi can of its bona file unturo .- Canadian Gazette, London

The 'uneral o' Mes. G riting, late chief of Hordie Church on the 22 duly, all be members of the sect j big in the prom London bu ses to I remay. ind from the camp at lipton, in the Nas Foreste The c. ffin was exerted in a pony. suggessful in Toronto. " Will you believe | susise used by the decessed, and on it was -Ivory white satiu is the preferred fabre for brides dres es. In William Black's new novel the heroice is a temple nurse in a L and a hospital. Justin McCarthy will lecture in Toronto oa Navember 22 d.

Mrs Dariel Burley, of Bangor, Mr., a in the very best, cease to be wholstome. few more toget ugo found her cow lying in | Fr to the quite tree of lexas it is she shall with her feet tied t gather. The learn dithe the park yields more tabrick now was unried and two beavy palacks | na . hat of red oak; hat the wood is good! put on he stable doors A night of two | 'or espinet work, and is excellent for fence after she was prioued and died. The posts and ties; that the bean which the same night Tuckman II wes ow was live promote in abundance is executent par-oned and in the mirairg was found | god for stock, and that its gum makes as lying dead, with her feet fied together, | good a mucilage sa guin arabic. Cow owners to Bug ware graning ex med. -" I sm s'raid, B bby, said his m ther, seriously injured from the falling of an nangity boy you've been to-day be will Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Thompson, the insecure se ffold, the American Builder quant you severely " . Have you got to | Landlady-Yes; and I thick it's better adds: "It seems too bad, with the grante | tell him? asked Bobby, abation ly. Ob. | bred than some of my boarders. this country affords, that it cannot find yes; I hait tell him immediately after Betsy Pemberthy, Henry Lyng's old some one who will invest a conffeld which | dinner." (The look of concern open, school teacher, has just died in list-et w will prevent the fearful less of life whice | Botby's face despened, until a bright | Carovall, England. She was very foud of is daily occurring through the exceleseness | thought struck bim) " Well, ma," he |-her famous scholar and used to speak of of those who build the ordinary pist and said, "give him a better dinner than usual | bim as " Master Johnny Broadrib, or Mr. Irving, as he is called now." You might do that much for me."

CURRENT TOPICS.

DR S A. BR WN. Upited Swies Davy status in the Medical Round that he bat tions produced by the platon bak or posen ivy so common i : our woods at d slong old fer ces. This eyes fit he fi da in br mi e, that the solution sh uld be renewed every | by sayl g : twenty-four hours The eropeton never | " How is if? My little girl said she would extends after the first tuorough spice. be back in five minutes and the wa gove tim, and it promptly disappears within over half en nour."

twenty-four hours if the application is per- | "I doe: n's know, mamma. I dees the Electricity has been suggered as a the child's snawer .- Kingston Freemin. means of c pital ; u i bmens, and new a French sommunt has obtained a patent to apply it as a substitute for toe cat-o'-nine. tal sin e rpora' quaishment. The colpris, having been undressed, is accurely sira; ped to a steel triangle, which inconnected with und pole of a powerful battary. The other pole is connected with the whip, which consists of a number of start wires ouvered with a sp nge. This whip is dipped in water before the stroke is administered and wherever the wat wires tooch an elec trio discharge toke- place. Perhaps, after according to the beinousness of their que may be beneficially extended to many crimes, lustead of chatting them up in THE death of Miss Mary C. oil Hay re- the increase, principally employed as a premoves one of the most active and indus. vention against damp other walls and tri us women of letters from the ranks, mason work underground, also for water was never idie, and, though her nevels | or terns, covering for underground vanite, we e not in the fi at flight by any means, | e.c. The u usl method of applying it as to yet they pleased a large circle of realers. | reduce to a sem liquid state, in a large iron Sie was one of the brightest and most pot over a good fire, sufficient a-phale to eye. She belonged to a family of sister. that the flame does not rise over the top of was regarded ther with tender admiration | the pot and ignite the asphalt. The wall is and studied her comfort and conventence | made as nearly dry as pusible, and the in every possible way, so that she had jun's somewhat rough, to admit of the asadvantages in her daily life for her work | phalt penetrating the pores and recurring a in the freedom from domestic cares such | hold; the wall is then covered with a phale as most liberary men, but tow literary applied with a long bandled brush, write women, enjoy. One of her p custarines the material is hot, and brushed in well-a was that and did not like to be called quating one-ball mon thick being as perfect Miss." Bus requested herefriends even a prop otor as a thicker one. A parrel of to address their is ters simply to "Mary a phait, as four d in the market, heated and Occii Hay."

sink counceling with a c sepool thirty feet | Scientific American sway would be best vousilated if the ventilator pipe were ron up through a chimney or along optade of it, sabmitted the commanagina to the Department of House Mr Do Wolf, the Commissioner, replies as follows: "It you mean to run the pipe into and through the smoke fl te l' unbe ipatingly say do not do is. F ret, because this permits the line to become unduly heated, thereby causing a very rapid upward movement of the air within the p.p.; very often so reptd as to o anse the enure sewage in the horiz mas drain and connect. log trats to become frozen in the winter months. S cond, brownes of the destruct tive action upon tron.pipes ci sulphur compourds and other gises generated to the uv. ly about time 'boneycombs' or parfor ates the pipe, thereby permitting drain sir can the money do hom?" to re discharged direct, into the building doring fluotuating parrents (at times wien | rep i d Stebbins. flues are not heated). Third, because of the possibility, if not probability, of concea ed work being imperfec ly done. The ou side of but near to a heated flue, and President of a rival justitution."- Bull b at method is to car y the drain vent pipe continue same to a proper dieta ca above the roof of bui ding. are oriuging out a tab carround birth rate 393 and death rate 26.1 stamps. World's Dispusary Medical Austria, 39 1 both rate, 29 6 death race. Associa ion, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N Y. The offinal returns state that our annual birth rate is 36 and death rate 18, but bubbled up a hundred fards away and wore a pair of yellow linen brecome in the in 1880. Our colored population have a come of her works will be exhibited i higher birth rate than have the southern | dou this wruter. than the whites. It is a so a curious fac | general debility, lot of self-confidence and that more colored females are born than | will power, impaired memory, descondency whites, but taking blacks and white- and other attendan sof wrecked manhood, trics is something remarkable. The | 663 Main street, Buff.lo, N Y. material is produced in rode, tubing, sheet and rolls, and among its various manufacpowder bex s, paper knives, themnies, res. | Proudfoot's father that the decreased was saurant checks, shoe books and horrs, hap. | bapt zed. umberlis and case handles, etc. in imitaion of ocra, ivory, malachite, tortoise -nell, amber, lapis Iszali, agate, carnellon to ; piano keys and organ stop knobs, in D spensary Medical Association, 663 Main mitation of every ; white and colored letters | street, Buff slo, N. Y. for signs, monograms and trade marks; stereotype places and type and word cure, moultings and veneers for picture frame-, Hera'd has accepted a cill to the units ry bowes on, cornices, pencie, etc., in white in lows. and colors; mountings for speciacles eyegiarare, pera glasser, etc. succittuing aud for art boist teeth, trimminge, whip nandles and popoli ousce, statuette, rellers things at he useful and ornamental, the sure for the workers. staim being also made that the substitute is I better adapted for these purposes than is the original material.

Quaint and Curious.

A fog of green ginger color blanketed N w Lo don recently. . The newest shirts have got back to the old plan of buttoning in front. A rordinar or prevents whistling on th at rate of May field, K. , between the hours

Competition has reduced the fare in

o' 10 p m and 6 a m. I m well known that Mosel wire im reves find it is the years old and then | -lore promatos. Ace rong to Wil kelman per pran nee at which all wires, no'ud.

Boarding bou e wi : Alolphus (takes Resensing to a carpetter who was "that when I tell your pape what a but last picca) - This is very good bread, ought to get rid of is." "Way, mamma only yesterday you told me to keep it.' - San Francisco Call.

which he has used with a varying uotess | A little girl "O: the Hill," Rondon', in at least forty case. He uses the Grog last night a rougly importuned her mother issolved in o ive ci, or m to han or giy cer. | to allow her to go a short distance with ine, in the strength of a n to two ty drops | another listle girl. A ter promising not to of bromine to the ounge of cil, and rubs the | be gone over five minutes, she was given mix are on the affected parts three or four permission She did not return home for titues a day. The bromine is so volatile | nail an hour. Her mother took her to test

TOMMY S BU INESS PRAYER. Little Tommy, an atteresting boy, but timid when left alone in a dark room, wal overheard recently by his mother to say in his loneliness : "O Lord, don't let any one hurt me, and I'm go to church beze Souday and give you some money."- minutes was wubber and atwetched," was

Catskill Mountain News

Increased Use of Asphalium is Suilding Our experience in the use of asphaltum in the treatment of four dation and cellar a time, we may have out viols sentenced to | wails fully confirms the following item from take electric shocks of graduated intensity, the Western Manufacturer, and we believe its other turposes than those suggested: The use of asphaltom in building is largely on applied to vertical walls of brick, will o d. THE Sanitary News, of Chicago, having | na ily cover about 250 agrare feet of surthe requiry if a paste-'uo, wa er-closet or | fact and produces most lasting results. -

What is Needed By every man and woman, if they desire to secure comfort in this would, is a corn sheller. Pasnam's Corn Ex ras or shells corns in two or three days and with ut discomfort or pain. A hundred imitations prove the merit of Patnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which is always sore, as'e mad painless. See signature of Poleon & Co. Wo. each bottle. Sold by medicine dealers.

"I don't see," ob e:v - pggs as be leaned back ': his chair, "how any man of sense cau os led to embizzle $50,000 or comit ution of coal, who all a sempara | $100 000 and skip the c untry. He is disgraced, his future ruined, and what good "You don't take the right view of it,

"The ides, my dear sir, is to set la for half the sum stolen and return home to be looked up in as a smart man and re-elected

Advice to Consump iven. Or the appearance of the first symptoms facts with regard to the birth and as general d bility, loss of appeting, pal of death rates of the leading notions of the | chilly sensations, followed by night-sweats world. Unfortunately, our tables are not and ough, prompt measures of relief as accurate as those o fleeted in the Euro | should be taken. Consumption is scrotnipean States. Abroad there is a careful ous disease of the mage; there'ore use the record of marriages, births and deaths great anti-terofulcus or blood-purifier and These are collected by us without any strength-restorer, Dr Pero's "Gilden thoroughness, save only when a centus is Midical Discovery." By perior to cod liver teing taken. In E gland and Wales it oil as a nutcrive, and unsurpassed as a has been found that the birth rate is 35 4. | pectoral. For week lungs, spitting of and the death rate 20 5 per 1 (0) parsons. | blood and kind ed affections it has no In Sweden the birth ra e is 30 2 sesinat a lequal Sold by druggises. For Dr Pierce's de ath rate of 181. In the German Empire, Prestuse on consumption, send 10 cents in

Queen Victoria in said to be an artist of o early our brith, rate is whom larger, as no mean ability, and she spends a large

Youthful Indulgence the death rate of the placks is quite large. In particious practices pursued in solitude, till they are increasing relatively faster is a most startling cause of nervous and stamps, for large illustrated treatise, point-Tue extent to which cellulaid is now nti line out unfailing means for perfect ours.

The father of David K nordy, the Stotand toilet articles in imitation of ivory, Wednesday, was preceder to the church coral and amber; collars and cuff , j wel. I f which the father of R v De. Proudfoot,

The Billious,

Mr. T. Hall, late editor of the Daudalk

A direat Steward initating tard rubber, horn and tortoise | Co. P rtland, Maine Full information will be shell, etc ; handles for table carlery, plates | sent you, free, about work that you can do and pay you from 85 to 825 and upwards a day. A number have earned over +53 a day. Capital not r skates, aprone and forks, etc. Totalist | needed; Hallett & Co. will start you. Both might be indefinitely extended in the line of | rexes; all ages. The chance of a lifetime. All new. Now is the time. Fortunes are absolutely

> J B Welle, of R A B off, Cal, sot down to a little cav by in the hears of the tree, were five small and healthy frogs. They Nachville had a of Zin W o in Gress and fills a small bag with food, a little tobacco and some stones, goes to the fiv r and throws it in. Asked why he does this, he saya : "Brother can't get anything to est under the water." One of his brothers efficacy, that I set I send TWO BOTTLES FIRST WITH A VALUABLE TREATISE OF A CHOSEN to any dyspoptic, constipated, shou daddress, with 10 cents in stamps for treatise. World's a sou doak, and four feet form the butt. were a little off in color, but all right. general condust appears to be perfectly sain, but each morning be gets up early.

Bullerer. tress express and a of a address.

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto U CN. L. 14 16.

Was drowned.