I ordered the woman and children to leave the hou . The house was about thirty feet from my house and belonged to me. The woman's kusband was there at the time I ordered them out. The husband then went away with a gun to hunt. About two hours after this I went to the barn to cut some straw. While I was doing this Mrs. Werckenthal was taunting and defying me to such an extent that could stand it no longer; I then went to go, and used very indecent and insulting She then went into the house with her children and I then railed up the as far as the corner, when she broke open the door with an axe. I then thought the only way to get them out was to burn down the shanty, so I wasked over to my hou-e and got a coal of fire and threw it into their shanty. I then went around the in the opposite direction, and we met at the back of the house. She said, 'You devil! 18 this the way you intend to kill me?' And then she picked up a stick of wood to strike me. I also picked up a stick of wood and to the ground. I then went to my house and said, Good-bye, wife and children you won't see me any more. I am going to put an end to myseif ' I then went to the Tuesday I lost my way in the bush. After finding out my location I started for the drown myself. After I got to the river and stood on the brink, I prayed to God to close to me, and I took it for an omen not to drown myself, so I started back and struck the Palmer Rapids, and some men took me scross the river and accompanied me to Rockingham, when I gave myself up. her.
