An Ottawa despaton says: The Excoutive have had under consideration the cases of the three men, Peter Deroce. Robert Maxwell and J Connolly, sentenced to be hanged at New Wastminster, B. C., on the 24th inst., for the murder of a man named William Dillman, a recent arrival from Min empolis, on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, on or about the 10th of July.

From the evidence at the trial, which was mostly circumstantial, the murder sp. pears to have been one of unusual barbarity. It was shown that Dillman had walked from Selkirk mountains down the railway track in company, part of the way, walked from Science in company, part of the way, on Sanday afternoon in my balloon, the plaintiff, in opening her case, said that she with Derose, who learned of his having Cabizes, from the Place St. Michel, Mar- was an unmarried German lady, residing some money about him. Thetwo asparated, and shortly afterwards Derose was joined by Maxwell and Connolly, two tramps, the three continuing on down the track. Turning off the line into a fruit ranch, they found Diliman asleep in an untenanted cabin. The following day his body was found outside the cabin, his skull smoashed to pieces and an empty purse lying by his side. The three prisoners, who were Foudere and I distinctly heard the report erness in a gentleman's family in Hertthe only persons in the vicinity, were seen coming out of the cabin. They were arrested on suspicion, tried at Lyton, found | signals should be given us when we were | position for four years, and would no doubt guilty, and sentenced to be barged on sighted, so that in case we found it neces. have continued to do so had she not met November 24th. During their incarceration before the trial, Connolly was heard to say to Derose that it was rough on Max. well, as he was innecent anyway. As for the wounded bear's attack. On it came, dealy displayed an inclination to conceal himself he would never have a better was almost dark, and the heavy black marriage was first broached by the defendchance to prepare for death, and would like clouds which loomed up in the distance marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal man, which loomed heavy black marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal man, which loomed heavy black marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal marriage was first broached by the defendstove. The discovery was made by an inclination to conceal marriage was first broached by the defendstove. chance to prepare for death, and would like | clouds which loomed up in the distance to see a prices. Maxwell was heard to ask showed that a storm was coming upon us. Councily whether there was any svidence | However we decided to continue our route, to convict them. Connoily made no reply, and hope three pigeons to let our friends but Deroumanid that he thought there was, | on land know that we intended to pass the but he would fight it right through, and if night mid sky and earth.

but was subsequently discharged as oured It is now claimed that he is again insane. and the Government have granted a respite in his case until December 22ad, in order that a medical commission may inquire into his case. Connolly has been respited | broke down upon us. Harl fell upon the until the same date. The sentence of Maxwell has been commuted to imprisonment for life, as there is evidence that he was | us down almost to the level of theses not an active participant in the crime.

ALABEMENT AMATEUR SEGGERER

A Mt. Louis Tallor Swallows a Table Matte and has to be tut Open-Some

A Bt. Louis despatch says: Joseph Hoffman, a tailor, 40 years of age, resides with his family on South Broadway. He is small in stature, but has always endeav. ored to impress upon his household that he was a wonderful man. A year ago he endeavored to rival the famous jugglers by awallowing a poker. He succeeded in out we Adifferent thing. A young man clothes : off flew our shoes. We threw the .esone, and seizing the poker and i our desperate excitement forgot that drew it out. Hoffman suffered severely the constant was beating on our naked afterward from inflammation of the bodies. stomach, but finally recovered. His experience did not care him of his appetite for swallowing solids. Wednesday night, after partaking of supper, and while some- | gale soil blew high, and we had given up what under the influence of liquor, he took | all hope when we caught sight of that a silver-plated table-knife, 9} mones long, light. There flashed its friendly rays, and and horrified his family by announcing that | our balloon was being driven in its direche was going to swallow it. Throwing his tion. It turned out to be the lighthouse head back to the angle assumed by profes. on the I land of Sanguinaire, which lies to sional jugglers, he took the knife by the the south of the Guli of Ajaccio. point and inserted the hardle in his mouth. | " An hour later we touched land in a He pressed it slowly mward until all but field near Appleto, one of the suburbs of about an inch of the blade had disappeared Ajaccio. We had some difficulty in landfrom view. Hoffman then showed signs of lag, because of our want of ballast. The alarm, but when finally the knife disap- balloon bourced about, giving us a terrible peared entirely from view he ran around shaking up as we were dragged over four the room in apparent agony and right. A miles of rough country. arrive were at a loss what to do. An hour after the knife had been swallowed Dr. Bernays placed Hoffman under the influence of chloroform. Then throwing off his A Verdict in the Case Which Implicates coat he commenced one of the most delicate surgical operations known to medical men. He made an incision in the abdomen, where it was found. The knife was removed and the cuts carefully sewed up. The whole operation was performed in less than a good prospect for his recovery unless inflammation sets in.

A NAUSEATING DOSE.

cure Euch Wiber of Adultery.

brief of one of the eminent barristers en- stepped forward to make a statement, my little princess of the heath on Scot- on the Central Experimental Farm near gaged in the case, and from it learns that when a sensation was caused by Susan land's woody heights. With many hisses, Ottawa. Lady Campbell is charged with unnum. Morgan exclaiming excitedly, " You place, at Leigh Castle, Somerset; at the At the conclusion of the testimony the at the present moment the defendant is Hotel Windsor, Paris; at Purfleet, Essex, jury returned the verdict, "That Mary the husband of this Miss R., and numerous other places With Capt. Morgan came to her death from arsenious Shaw, of the London Fire Brigade, Lady poison, by her own or unknown hands Campbell is accused of criminal note in administered, hastened by mental and The marriage was sgain and again post- Mr. White reports that satisfactory her dining room at Cadogan place, where physical troubles brought on by usage from poned, until on February 2nd, 1885, the arrangements have been made to prevent also she is charged with committing adul. Thomas Calladine and an operation per- defendant wrote to the plaintiff stating injury from snow-slides. He found Manitery with Col. Butler. Her Ladyship is formed by Dr. L. B. Childs." also confronted with an accusation of improper conduct at Cadegan place, at a house in Brook street, at Leigh Castle and other places with Dr. Thos. Bird, and with maintaining criminal intimacy with an unknown man about April, 1883, she being at that time in a delicate condition. Dr. Bird is Lady Campbell's family physician, and is old enough to be her grandfather. The respondent, as well as all of the co-respondents, have filed a crowds shock hands with ms. They thrust general denial of the charges. Lady Campbell's petition charges Lord Colin with acia of adultery with Mary Watson, her ladyship's maidservant. Scores of witnesses have been sammoned by both sides, including the Duke of Argyll, the Marquis of Lorne and other members of the Campbell family. and Lady Miles, wife of Sir Wen. Miles owner of Leigh Castle, who are chief witnesses against Lady Campbell. Sir Henry James has returned his brief and withdrawn from the case, giving as his reason that he is friendly to all the parties involved. The Attorney-General has also | age of 17. returned his brief, for Teasons not stated, but presumably on the same grounds.

A Dress for a Pretty Woman. I would permit a more ocquestish type of pretty women to wear the following dipper gown, which we were shown on the same occasion. Ple 7 of ivory satin form | Schiller wrote and published a poem the front of the skirt; a such of black | Moses in his 14th year. a knot, and the ands are gathered into jet | poems at the age of 17. tassels; a panel of black velvet borders the pleats on either side. These are edged Papers "before he was 25. with jet, and at the top of each a tiny panier of ivory satin is arranged, tied down with a jet ornament. The short train is before the writer had reached the age of 20 safep, with a breadth of soire silk in the Shakepeare wrote " Harolet"—if he dil part and the sleeves being made of a trellis and arms of my imagined pretty woman writers at 18, abine radiantly .- Cousin Madge in Lordon

The Jawish Almanack states that the and 17 years of age. are 5,400,000 Jews in Europe, 300 000 in the world is estimated at 6,800,000.

MID SKY AND SEA.

Perilous Voyage and Miraculous Escape of Aeronauts.

SOME AWFUL SENSATIONS.

The acronaut Capaza, who, in his balloon, the Gabizza, accomplished on Sunday one of the most successful ariel for an alleged breach of promise of marvoyages of this century, telegraphs the following account of his exciting journey : | a statement of defence denying the prowaiting for several days for a northwesterly recision and other pleas, was not reprewind M. Foudere, a member of the De Brazza mission, and I started at 4 o'clock Mr. Wedderburn, who appeared for the last for three days. "As soon as the balloon was released she carrying on business in London as went straight out to sea, almost skimming marble agent, but now residing the surface of the water. Then the rose Germany, where he had married and taking a westerly direction passed over | lady of reputed wealth. In February, 1880 Toulon. As we passed over the city M. the plaintiff compied the position of gov of a cannon, followed by the sound of fordshire, at a yearly salary of £100 and steam whistles. I had arranged that there | maid and lodging. She had then held the

were ready to take us ashore. BEATEN DOWN BY A STORM.

until he at last returned home a lunatic. lightning speed. With the greatest diffi were flying through the air at almost He was confined in an asylum for a time, outry we managed to strike a light, and In a letter dated the following day from tending to have him removed to the then on reading our compass we found we were going out to sea toward the coast of

" Luckily at about balf-past 7 the wind veered round to the west. Then the storm callon and scunded as if a hundred giving me that never-to-be-forgotten hour, diummers were beating taps. It drove

A MISERABLE HALF HOUR, " The half nour that followed I shall not rough and wave after wave truse against to his " grumbling love " and say " Look | the car of the balloon. One minute we were rising just above the foamy crests, the next we were being driven down into an abyss whose depth the darkness prevented us from seeing. The awful sensation of being in the presence of death without any chance of warding him off came over us. Then we tock coursge and decided that if our balloon was swamped we would at any . his throat, but getting it rate swim for our lives. Off went our as in the room came to everything overboard, except the compass,

SAFE AT LAST.

" A light! Thank God, a light! "It must have been about 9 o'clock. The neighbor, who happened to be in the room, . When we stood on terra firma we found attempted to pull the knife out, but could | we had reached our destination in six not obtain a sufficient hold on it, and it hours. Ajaccio is two hundred and fifty Hoffman's agony then became terrible and | flies, but the course we were forced to take physicians were summoned. The first to | must have been over four hundred miles."

THE MARY MORGAN MYSTERY.

Coroner Lausing and a jury investigated arrived at the rate of about one every other | West, and afterwards visit the Territories. And vent my happy heart in joyous song twenty minutes. Yesterday Hoffman was Morgan, sister of the deceased, and tiff had meantime left her situation and asked. resting quietly and the doctor says there is Thomas Calladine, the betrayer of the returned to Germany; and on August 13th, A man named Ingles has been sentenced mourning and kept her face concealed by a wrote to thee that two ladies announced for stealing a letter.

Not to be Shaken That Way. " My visit to England was one round of cordiality and sympathy. On one cosasion, after I had spoken, I got into my carriage and prepared to drive across one of the Thames bridges. You pay a half-penny to get across, you know, and a penny for carriages. Well, as I got into my carriage their bands through the window, and I was kept busily shaking them. As we were crossing the bridge a lank hand was thrust in at the window. I shook it. Again it was thrust in, and sgain I shook it. When I saw toat hand for the third time I was astonished. But the owner bad become impatient 'A half-penny for your fare,' he said, and I saw my .nistake."-Henry Hard Beecher, the age of 14. was but 10 years old. The post Southey began to write verses before he was 11.

Some Smart Loung Men. h lopstock began his " Messiah " at the

Bryant's" Thanatopeis" was published

Shakspeare wrote " Hamlet "-if be dil what he (she learned counsel) considered a centre. The bodice is of moire, the upper write it-when he was only 36 years of age. moderate sum -viz, £1 000-which was Bulwer Lytton, Bayard Taylor and the only what she had actually lost by the work in jet, through which the shoulders poet Keats were successful magazine defendant's heartless, deceivful and salf-

> Firz Occen Halleck's best verses were pean d when the author was between 14 tiff, damages £2 000

Parm by Coauser were known and read Asia, 35,000 in Africa and 250,000 in before the writer had reached his 12;b America. The total Jewish population of year, and Leigh Hunt made a stirat the age

ENTIRELY THY RICHARD."

Curious Breach of Promise Case in England.

AMUSING LOVE LETTERS. (From the London Times.)

This was an action to recover damages riage. The defendant, though he delivered "Afaccio, Tuesday, Nov. 10 .- After mise and siternatively pleading mutual seuted in ocurt. seilles. Our intention was to reach Cor- at 31 Wellington street, Camden-town, and sica. We took with us some carrier | was now a daily governess. The defendant pigeous, and food, and water enough to is also a German, and as the time of the engagement was a widower, residing and sary to land we should know that boats | the defendant. This she did early in 188 at a meeting in London for the purpose of forming an International Club for Teachformer thus alluded to the engagement : | tunate man was dead. "In a waking dream our little corner in the waiting room and our promounde up ! and down passed once more before me, and I tender thee my heartiest thanks for and at the same time-thy dear self." R chard" Numerous others of a similar character followed, and in one he had forgot to my dying day. The sea was had cooled he might be able to bow them here, is it to day different than when thou wrotest these words?' (Laughter.) These | quest.

levers, observed the learned counsel, all " ENTIRELY THY RICHARD." The deferdant took her to Germany, where he was received by all her relatives and friends as her affianced husband. Rings were duly exchanged between them according to the custom in Germany. This fact the defendant in a letter thus alluded to: "How is the ring getting on? Does it press, or does it fit smoothly and softly? It is the first link of the heavy chain under which thou wilt have to sigh in future." take place in the autumn of 1881, and accordingly the plantiff, at the defendant's request, gave the necessary three months' notice to terminate her engagement as governess in the Herifordshire family. Having in due course so left her situation, the plaintiff joined her relatives in Germany and produced her trousseau 1881, the delecdant wrote her that so matters stood, the correspondence continuing. On December 10:b, 1882, he wrote the following letter, the importance of which would appear later : " My dear Jatuy,- . . . As to my honorable etc. In 1883 the marriage still had not | Middleton took part.

Thy RICHARD."

THE WEALTHY HEIRESS.

hopeless, etc. The jury would remember | competitive points. what defendant had said on this head in his letter of December 14th, 1882, which had been previously read. The learned counsel

ENDED THIS UNFURTURATE ENGAGEMENT. ges. Miss Pape had given this man five Milton began to woo the muse when he years of her life. She was 30 at the time of the engagement; she was thereanxious not to be compelled to come into Texas Siftings. court, had through her solicitor endeavored to come to terms with the defendant for seching conduct. The jury found a verdict for the plain-

A SON'S TERRIBLE CRIME.

Father to Death.

THE OLD MAN'S DYING STATEMENT.

(Toronto World of Thursday.) Yesterday afternoon Charles McAuley aged 40, a tinsmith by trade, was arrested by Sergeant Hall and Constable Cooney on the charge of having murdered his father, John McAuley, also a tinsmith. The pri soner, with his wife and four children, has lived for some time at 86 Nassau street, and about six months ago his father and mother came from Ireland and made their since the arrival of the old folks, was the scene of nightly fights, caused chiefly by whiskey. daughter-in-law. The three rented miserable and dirty requas at 244 Borden street, a two-story, rough cast house, and it was in one of these rooms that the father met his death between 10 and 11 | vite our settlement." yesterday morning, when Charles McAuley visited the place and asked for his wife. He found her upstairs and made her go down, shoving her part of the way, after which he entered a room where his father was. That they quarrelled and that the son beat and kicked his father to death there is no doubt, although the two women assert that the injuries and consequent "It was then 6 o'clock in the evening. It ers. Their acquaintance continued, and in death of the old man, whom they say was ant. She told him that before deciding old pensioner named Williams, who became a level plane. the would like to consult her relations in lived next door, who entered Germany, where she was going for her the place at noon and found the summer holiday. On July 17th sho was old man lying on the floor suffering intense starting from Victoria Station for agony. McAuley's face and body bore the shore backward sloping to the base of a the young huntsman had been wounded as that, with care, your hand would possibly Grmany, and the defendant met marks of kicks and cuts most brutal, his precipitous hill-high, broad and snapped savagely recover," and they both laughed heartily. it came to the worst he would not squeal.

Peter Derose was a native of Montreal but left his home at the age of 15, and for coast. It had become pitch dark and we but left his home at the age of 15, and for coast. It had become pitch dark and we bearts never beat with a more rapturous.

Well, they strolled together under the stomach being black and blue and greatly swollen. He toid Williams that his son had but left his home at the age of 15, and for coast. It had become pitch dark and we land. The plaintiff yielded to his request, kicked him and that he feared he would die. land. The plaintiff yielded to his request, | kicked him and that he feared he would die. the defendant to the plaintiff, the hospital, but before it arrived the unfor-tectives Burrows and Brown were detailed to arrest the son. While the two former man dudge into a lane. His appearance | pot, Arthur and his accompaniers took our fair deliverers, I'm in too sad a plight | years ago. The letter concluded " Entirely Thy McAuley, and on being acrested he proved place. to be the man. His wife was found at the house on Borden street and she was ar. new abode and brought them in its train two are comin', Messa. I spece ya'd beita mentioned that he kept all her letters so rested as a material witness. A neighbor happy children, towards whom the parent dive?" that in the future when perhaps their love stated that the dead man sent out for a heart went out in love and admiration | "Nonsense, Jake," said the other, imbottle of whiskey a few hours before his | The elder, Raiph, who had attained to patiently springing into the cance, which | the following in relation to a gentleman death. An empty bottle was found beside man sestate, was absent across the lake now was righted. Then turning towards whose name has figured in the Montreal him. Coroner Johnston will hold an in. attending college. The younger, a girl, the girls he removed his hat as they drew press:

OUGHT TO BE A MAN.

Echooner Victor.

Capt. Lannex's daughter, Minnis, only 18 cance her long, dark hair float- garments." preparatory to her marriage. In August, and did the work of the hardiest sailor with could not exist and not hold habitation in especially to-day, as I expect an absent (engaged on the Montreal Journal of Compreparatory to her marriage. out flinching. The schooner finally reached | a heart like hers. owing to a business engagement in New port safely, and the heroic young girl, more so than the men.

Latest From the Northwest.

Thankegiving Day was observed in the usual manner. The ground here is perfectly age, etc. . . I slipped into action clear of snow, although there have been early, and I was already a soldier with my some heavy falls across the line. The suddenly dropped down into the stomach. English miles from Marseilles as the crow | 17th year, and at 18 became a reserve | principal event of the day was the unveilofficer. Therefore thou caust be quiet, I | ing of the monument at St. John's cemetery am not by far 60 years yet, and as to my erected by the 90th Battalion in memory health, I would not change with any man," of their fallen comrades, in which General taken place, and the plaintiff returned to | Prof. Saunders having visited Stonewall England and took an engagement as and other points about Winnipeg in search | ing with responsive heart she heard governess in a nobleman's family. All for a site for the experimental farm for this Hire through the forest where the bright birds A Detroit despatch says: Wednesday this time the letters from the defendant Province, will leave to-morrow for the died in Harper Hospital on November 10th, 1883, the defendant wrote the plaintiff Council, has returned from Ottawa, where and some ser sational facts were brought to expressing the hope that the new year he went in connection with the Wood light. Among the audience were Susan (1884) would see them united. The plain. Mountain Railway. He says he got all he dead girl. The former was dressed in deep | 1884, the defendant wrote her: "I already at the assizes to two years' imprisonment heavy veil. Calladine seemed nervous, and themselves from Ostend to come and visit At the request, of Prof. Saunders the appeared not to appreciate the looks of London-Miss R, of Wiesbaden, and Miss Manitoba Board of Agriculture is sending Lord Colin Campbell and file Wife Ac. | ouriceity bestowed upon him by the crowd L., from Suchteln-both no fledglings. | to Ottawa some of the Red Fyle wheat and in the court room. Several witnesses were They claim me from early to lats. . . six rowed barley which carried off the A London cable says: Further and examined, among them being Dr. Childs, It is too hot for anything, and so we drive | Hudson's Bay Land Commissioners' prize fruitless efforts have been made to prevent | who it is alleged performed a criminal about. . . Miss R. is very rich and | at the Provincial Exhibition. The wheat the Campbell divorce suits from coming operation on the unfortunate girl, and does things splendidly, which is very com- was grown by Mr. Andrew Dawson, of Into court. A United press representative Susan Morgan, the deceased's sister. At fortable. Miss L. is an old friend I have Headingly, and the barley by Mr. M. has been favored with a perusal of the the close of the latter's evidence Calladine known since childhood. . . . Adieu Young, V.S., of Maniton. It will be placed

Thomas Thomas, a Cree Indian, is being bered acts of adultery with the Duke of needn's say anything, as you are the mur. That letter, gentlemen, said the learned tried at the Assizis to-day for the murder Marlborough at her residence in Cadogan | derer of my sister. It was all your fault." | counsel, is the clue to the whole case, for | of Harriett Gilmore at St. Peter's reserve. Dr. Orton has left for Centre Wellington to look after his constituency. Messrs. White and Kerr, of the C. P. R. have returned from British Columbia. that he had consulted a doctor who told toba flour rapidly crowding the Oregon him that his health was such that total article out of the western market, and says rest and quiet were necessary; and he refrigerator cars for fruit, fish, etc., will (the defendant) concluded by saying that soon be running between Winnipeg and the next year he would be 60 years old, etc., Pacific coast. Mr. Kerr says the company " and under these circumstances I am | will next year put on a steamer to ply bound to come back to the conclusion I between Var couver and Victoria, B.C. As wrote to thee already two years ago - regards transcontinental rates, Winnipeg namely, that our engagement is perfectly | has been placed upon the same footing as

A Monster Hat's Fight for Life. A rat was caught at the house of D. C. continued: He also stated to the plaint:ff | Neary, on Washington street, yesterday, at a subsequent interview that his health | which Mr. Neary alleges measures nearly would not permit him to marry any woman, | two feet six inches from the nose to the tip and yet at this very time he was actually of the tail. It was let loose in a room from engaged to the rich heiress, Miss R , whom | which it could not escape, and a Faronite he married on March 10th following. The | cat set apon it. It required but a sbort plaintiff answered this cruel letter, ex- time for the redent to make the cat feel him, which he barely acknowledged, and | be withdrawn. Two dogs were then brought in. After almost an hour's labor grieve about the duck ?" on the part of both the citizen of the sewer The plaintiff, Miss Pape, would be called succumbed. The fight was a desperate and would confirm his opening. It only one. Buth dogs bear marks of the rat's

A mixed Stem.

Professor Score, of the University of fore not a young woman now. For Texas, is a man who is very apt, when he him she had given up a lucrative and com- becomes excited, to transpose his words. fortable position worth some £200 a year; Having occasion to rebuke his son, Wilthere was also her wasted trousseau. Then | liam, who is pecoming rather fast, he said : she was entitled to some solatium for all "You must thing this stop. Only yesmoirs ribbon falls over them, tied in Henry Kirk White published a volume of her misery and disappointment. These terday I saw you parading Austin girl with matters they would consider fairly. He an avenue of the opposite sex on your arm, Dickers had produced "Pickwick would only mention, in conclusion that s burning dog stuck in your mouth and a before commencing this action the plaintiff, little eiger trotting along behind you."- interview the other day : " I know there | Your brother misht -itures, but I happen to know that Jones | tion. ege for the ministry, who otherwise would | who this disturbing stranger is.' Kate Field at a resent but que given by women thrilled her hearers by an elequent speech when proposing the to set—"The ground at Cartersville, Ga. So you see, his speech when proposing the to set—"The ground at Cartersville, Ga. So you see, his women thrilled her hearers by an elequent speech when proposing the to set—"The ground at Cartersville, Ga. So you see, his www.dee, God Bless Them."

Sam Jones and this Income.

When, God Bless Them."

Was proposing the to set of the might of the birth-returns after a long year's absence. Oh, frightened look of inquiry, "dear Ralph, of day exercises of our eldest daughter, a course you know the gentleman with you lovely girl whom I think you have never my brother, and he of me. He calls me comes to have a wound dressed?"

OMEEMEE:

Charles McAuley Kicks His A Romance of Que Hundred Years Ago.

Arthur Seaton, from the deck of the Brighton, watched with a sorrowing heart | of the young hunteman." leaning upon his arm, stood one who by shores sank out of sight, and as a silent tear dropped upon his cheek he addressed home with him. The house, especially his weeping wife: "Courage, dear heart, coprage. Though we bid adieu to the good | Marion, "perhaps it has been angered. old land, in the land we're going to bright | Come quickly, see what it pursues." recollections of our English home, whence On Tuesday night the old man and his surely I have borne a priceless sonvenir, wife left the sor, taking with them their | may beguile us of the cares that time may | medley of noises in the woods. A moment | to meet his parents. bring upon us. We journey to a country later a cance from the concealed inlet dart- | Left alone together, Marion in a pleasant over whose vast unbroken fields and lovely | ed out upon the bay and in it Marion with | voice began : lakes the flag of England waves, and there | a startled heart descried the stranger of | "I am pleased to welcome you, Mr. we shall find a spot where nature will in her thoughts. He was reloading his gun Lawrence. Ralph's friends are always and brought them to the shores of Canada. | shallow water. A stalwart negro, evidently | carnestly. "To-day's adventure, Miss Whence journeying a long and weary way, | his servant, who was paddling as for his | Seaton, is like a dream." tion, they reached the shores of a beautiful | sper and in the act upset the capce, throw- | Marion, smiling. triangular bay separated by a long strip of | ing himself and master out. sandy beach from the waters of a noble | Quickly they gained a footing and tion, "such a dream, dear Mis. Seaton, as I lake which extended away to the horizon. | while the white man grasped a hunting hope never to be roused from."

wallow in the water.

Here upon a summer's day, when the " Massa Harry," said the negro, " de | had reached that stage of intimacy entitle Sergeant Hall, Constable Coonsy and Ds. | upon the waters, aroused to sportive action | did." tallied with the description they had of rest and chose the ipst as their abiding myself to mest them."

the wind. Marion, her name had inde-How Minble Lennox Helped to Bave the | native of the place and since childhood | bravely protected."

> reached a nock wherein a birch-cance was | Sec. where the Indian is spearing fish." moored, and entering it she shoved it with | " I know the creek, sir." her paddle from the shore. Out upon the water then she stood looking towards the | "accept your hospitality to-morrow?" spot whence she herself had come, and

I love to stray

I never grieve, While for my Wawanoshquay's dusky head I garlands weave ; There o'er the rippling waters in my birch cand I love to glide. With Wawanoshquay ever kind and true

Ye forests! Yo wasses Still be my home, Far from thy fragrant breezes

"What makes Omeemee's voice," asked I friends long separated can. prospects of the chase are bright, and yet | seemed quite doubtful about visiting this | ner calculated to impress ignorant people. Omeemee wears a heavy countenance ill- place." singing." And as they glided out upon | and I quickly came down to test it." the bay Marion replied: "I have a sort of | " And found it accurate, I hope?" secret, Wawauoshquay, I will not hold from you-a something I would like to a spot as heaven has arranged on earth. speak about, and know not how to put it I'll have my father, who, you know, is such into words -a feeling that I do not under | a loyalist, make this his home, now that stand, suggestive first of other joys, new | the revolution over yonder has placed him joys I know not of. Then followed by a | under a foreign flag. Ralph, there is a longing sense as if they never would arrive. | maiden hereabouts in whose bright eyes And then the hills and woods and waters, | the beauties of these waters seem to centre. and the chase, till now the only source of I have seen her often, but an adventure of your unerring aim, so close indeed that one me her father's hospitality. Remembering no danger threatened them."

and just as we turned into the little poud | boy, I have no wound, but I will meet her, we met a hunterman in a light cance?'

" I well remember it," said Wawanosh- one. "Oh, no, poor thing, 'els not of ducks | surprise them now."

still I see him moving off upon the waters." | comfort and refinement abounded. "Twas he who roused the feeling that I "Here," said Ralph, halting, " is spoke about." taw him close to your father's abores at tion. Listen, do you not hear a girl's might as well be where my father came | way from the bay." from-scross the seas I must not speak "Ra'ph," asked Harry, excitedly, "do to bim, I dare not look in that direction." you mean the lady just appearing?" " 'Tis strange indeed," said Wawsnosh. "Y-s, come along and meet her." And Rev. Dr. Joyce, of Cincinnasi, said in an quay, "I cannot understand it, I -- Ra'ph in his cagerness left his companion his wild sister. Says they'd cage me where he is and adds lest I should grieve, 'Not do you shrink so, Not's ?' asked Ralph tearing Marion but to prevent the songster of the forest from escaping.' He brings a "Dear Ralph, don't laugh. I was by triend. I wonder if we'll please his civil- when he received it, and it looked so dread-meets an enemy to-day."

A monster bear." "It seems in chase of something," said Gomerlet me introduce you."

Bearcely had she spoken when the report Ralph introduced them and hurriedly ran of a rifle broke upon their ears, raising a off on the very plausible plea of a desire while intently watching the ferocious beast | visitors." And the good ship bounded over the sea | now bounding towards him through the | "Thank you, Indeed," said Harry,

Another of the bay's shores was an irregu- | knife the negro held a gun upraised to use | "What!" exclaimed Marion, " with your lar bluff, cleft by winding valleys-natural it as a club, and thus, at bay, they awaited hand paining you so," and as Harry sudits course, intent on vengeance for the hurs it, Mr. Lawrence." Perceiving then that A broad plane, penetrated by inlets wind- it had received. Meanwhile the girls it was but a scratch he had received she ing far inland like little rivers, spread bravely burried to the resone and soon they laughed outright, saying, " Forgive me, but itself for the whole width of the third saw the combat had begun, that already I thought before we parted on the water tants came rushing to slake their thirst or | enemy remforced, dropped, turned about | emotion. and made a quick departure for the shore | Before Harry's visit terminated they sun, glistening in the trees and spatkling good Lord delibered us dat time, deed he ling them to kiss at parting, and eventually full many a bright hued bird and butterfly, " Yes, Jake, and yonder is the angel that many a festive occasion their decendants and while the wild fowl floated upon the sur- | He sent. Now, quickly, right the boat, and | delight to tell the story of their ancestors' were g ing along Borden street they saw a face of the bay or flew in fl.cks from pot to while I wade to shore, go you and thank romance on Burlington Bay one hundred

"Perhaps you tink my color hides de Good fortune smiled upon them in their | blashes. But look; su's you bon, de gals bright and beautiful and active as near, saying with a countenance of gratibeen discarded for "Omeemee" by "We are grateful to you ladies, as truly suncouncing that "the great royal staff of the Indian maiden Wawanostquay, a grateful as we love our lives which you so English, French and German physicians,

Marion's companion. Marion's complexion, "Pray, sir," said Marion with drooping | visit Monoton, about November 10th During a recent storm on Lake Erie the fairer than Wawanoshquay's, had taken | eyes and in a quiet voice, her compassion | to remain for ten days. It was also steam barge C. N. Pratt, when about 15 the tint of the leaves as they appeared | conquering her trepidation, "for so slight | stated that this was the first trip miles out, abreass of Fairport, disabled her | the autumn morning of her birth, save | a service do not speak of gratitude. You of the staff, and in order to build up wheel and was obliged to cut loose from her | where the rose tiut had struggled to the | would have overcome the beast without | a reputation they would treat patients consort, the achooner Victor of Windsor. | surface on her check. Her eyes were large | our sid. What brought us hither is your | free of charge. The names of the staff to Lift to herself in a raging sea which and dark of expression, earnest and bleeding hand. My father, whose house in | visit Monoton were not given, but the head trequently swept over the deck, the coudi- sincere, with a distant look, however, as if on the hill, has skill in surgery, and could | flices were stated to be Montreal, Dublin, tion of the Victor and her little crew of | searching for an object far away; acquired, | dress your would. Besides, you must be | Edinburgh and London and the names of It was arranged that the marriage should less than half a dozen was desparate. perhaps, as on her knees in the chilled. There you could dry your dripping the President and Vice-President were years of age, was the only woman aboard. | ing from her uncovered head, | "Kind lady; hospitality is ever a jawel one's arm. Some day's before the 10th Realizing the imminent danger of the with fowling piece in band, the gazed in to be prized but never have I seen it in so | there arrived on the scene a person, evivessel, she donned a tarpaulin suit against | quest of game across the water while | fair a sessing. I thank you from my soul." | dently with colored blood, accompanied by her father's commande, and for thirty six | Wawanoshquay paddled the caroe. But | "I cannot attend you thither," said a white woman. This party described hours, until the storm subsided, worked something there was besides which to her | Marion, " but you will be welcomed. We | himself as Dr. G. H. (Gustavius Hamilton) with the crew. She belped to haul in the countenance added a lock of tenderness. have our game to bag before returning. | Griffin, B. A., M. G. I., M. D., and to some tow-line, took her turn at the wheel, and | Twas love | for love | Always an important duty here, but | parties stated that he was a literary man brother home."

Bright was the crisp October more, and | Said the stranger, "My own abode is | the great royal staff; also stated that he York their wedding must be postponed, and although exhausted from exposure, was no just around a turning in the inlet; there I was on his wedding tour to England and bounded to the water's edge, startling in | may change my clothing. Besides, within | the continent, stopping over at Moneton her course the tipy equirress that scam- an hour I meet a friend, a college mate for a few days. The 10th came, but pered to the branches of the trees to chirp seme distance off, where youder little beyond Dr. Griffin there were no signs of and gaz; at her in safety. And soon she creek connects these waters with the lake. | the "great royal staff." Crowds of sick,

"But might I not," continued he, Griffin announced that one of the staff, "On yes, sir, should your wound require | been detained by the illness of his wife, and soon her brightening eyes and an approach. it," glancing at his hand, then with a that the other had been detained by press ing sound of a girl's voice, tuned to the smile and modest bow she turned away of business in Quebec. But the doctor was morning music of the forest, told that one | and as her companion paddled off Harry | equal to the emergency, and although he she was awaiting was at hand. And listen- and the negro with uncovered heads had anyounced that he was only indirectly watched their departure. "Have you an eye for beauty, Jake ?" | seemed to be provided with all the formula, and after locating the knife in the stomach made a small incision opposite the place young woman from Kingston, Ont., who spread the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "Entirely Thy thy the strange death of Mary Morgan, the day, signed as usual, "En ob colo' as you talked. Yes, sa, da was | with a druggist, and his modus operandi was black; de effec' was gran', massa, gran'. | as low as $4 up to $10 or $15, and perhaps A little later and Harry, well mounted, | even higher, according to the apparent which as he approached he espied a brisk | people have come twenty and thirty miles and handsome young horseman near its | to be treated, and though in some cases banks and quickly recognized Ralph Scaton, | they refused to pay anything, in most his expected friend.

ing greetings and met as only bosom | bers of the "great royal staff," and inquiry Wawanoshquay as Marion reached the "Well," began Ralph as they rode are expected. Dr. Griffin is a large, shore and entered the cance, "a voice as | leisurely along the beach, "I received | pompous man, makes a great display of aweet as any in these tuneful woods, sound | your request to meet you and here I am. | diamonds on his person, and in his room is sad to day? The day is beautiful, and the | But when we parted, old fellow, you | dressed with large Turkish cap in a man-

sorting with the joyous song she's just been "Ralph, your description was alluring, dently a well informed man .- Montreal

"Accurate? I tell you it is as beautiful all my happiness, seem for the time to lack an hour ago brought us in contact. I had a expenses at this season of the year will be tussle with a buge bear (of which I'll speak "Indeed," said Wawanosbquay, "you | again), receiving this little scratch upon the seem careless of the chances of the chase of | hand. The maiden being by with a comlate. The other day you let a flock of panion, and thinking from the flow of geese, new visitors upon these waters, go | blood my wound was serious, approached | M cackling by unharmed within the range of me with a modest look of pity and offered would think the geese had rense and knew | our appointment, I asked leave to call to-

"Wawanoshquay, do you remember, it is | "Oh, yes,' said she, most sweetly, and, got long since, when we followed through | as I thought, aichly; 'Oh, yes, sir, if the opening in the rushes a wounded duck | your wound requires it.' Great heavens, Ralph, if to accomplish it I have to make quay, " the duck seemed sorely wounded | "Who can she be?" reflected Ralph, and flapped its wings along the water in | "some new arrival since my absence its burry to escape and at the man's surely. Harry, come home with me toprossed her continued trust and love for small. Sympathy for the cat caused it to sproach we quit the chase and so the night, and to morrow I'll have Marion, my I am not expected till the evening, but we'll

I'd speak, dear Wawanoshiusy, but of the | Leisurely riding and gaily exchanging | stranger. Who say you is he? He was | their experiences for an hour or more, they about my brother's age I think, and as he | at length approached an open glade, in a Thomas Moore began to write poems at remained therefore to consider the dama. tenacious love of life. - Pittsburg Dispatch. | knelt in his cance with hat in hand salut. | remote corner of which a spacious and | Dispatch. ing us, his active form, fair flowing hair | cosy log house nestled beneath the shadow and eyes in bue like yonder cloudless sky I of the forest trees. The glade and house see him even now. He forms the subject | top were yellow with the autumn leaves, of my dreams and in my waking moments and round about evidences of industry, > beloved home, and I feel that to enter it is "He's often hereabouts, Omesmee. I to end the rapture of a month's anticipa- have yet to be heard from, and the list is voice calling Wawanosbquay? My sister's "Oh, so have I but what of that? He voice, Harry; she is ascending yonder path and burried to where Marion now stood have been reports that these men, Small "My brother! I would not speak to with a countenance of amszement, Quickly and Jones, have been loose in their expend. any but yourself of my strange faccina. dismonuting, he drew her to his besom and saddle girth.

"I do not know that he doe : but wi ized companion. Ob, I'll ask my brother, ful at first sight that I felt it a duty to in a careless way of course, to gather news invite him. But how came you in his

the receding shores of England. Exiled by Conversing thus, they neared a wood "Why, darling girl, that's Harry Lawthe uncqual law which makes of the eldest whence suddenly some distance back a rence, my best companion, whom I have son, unworthy though he be, the sole insound as of a pistol shot came forth. mentioned in my letters a thousand times. heritor of the parent estate. By his side, "Ha, ha," said Marion, "the small game | He visits us a while. He told me all about this morning's adventure, but his descriprecent sanction held the cherished right to

"But larger game," said her companion, tion of the heroine was so beautiful that call him husband.

"is breaking through yonder thicket. Now,
Even as they gazid, the well-beloved it has cleared the thicket and hurries thinge of earth, and I never dreams he powards the inlet behind the hill. A bear ! | was describing my charming little sister, who, thank Heavan! is not an angel yet.

> Suffering herself to be led to where Harry stood awaiting their attention.

their labor lightened by their mutual devo. life, turned excitedly to glance at their pur. " Not an unpleasant one, I hope," said "No! no!" returned Harry, with emo-

Marion became Mrs. Lawrence, and ou

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE.

Dr. Gustavins Griffin Does Duty for the

The Maritime Province papers contain

About ten days ago advertisements were inserted in the Moneton newspapers surgeons, professors and specialists" would accompanied by a string of titles as long as merce), and only indirectly connected with consumptives and other incurables in the meantime began to flock to the hotel. Dr. whose name he gave as Dr. Goodall, had connected with the "great royal staff," he and commenced the treatment of all who "I hab, sa ; I was struck wid de shades | believed in his powers. He opened business rode around the shore towards the creek, | willingness of the patient to pay. Some instances the doctor succeeds. This is the They galloped towards each other shout. 12th, and still no sign of the absent memat the hotel fails to show that any others He is a brilliant conversationalist and evi-

THE GREAT GALES.

Record of the Dinnster Wrought by Recent

The following summary of marine losses sustained during the storm of Wednesday and Thursday is corrected up to Sunday. Many of the vessels mentioned will unquestionably be rescued, but the wrecking necessarily heavy :

essel.	Pecuniary Loss.	Liv
kiuson	≥ 5.000
erald	200
nuetto	the second second second
ekaunee	· TIESENER
erne	The second second	1
hfinder		SHE
liam Joues	*	100
th Haven		7015
rida
ert Wallace and consort	300,000
March	The state of the s	9.33
vey Bissell
y of New York
ndiffa		17 3
wahoga
lahassee		100
lie Church	1.800	1316
khout	2.500	100
Dougs!	2.500
nan Case	2,500	90.00
M Baker		1152
r of the North	2 500
den Harvest	2 500
eu
rts and Sumatrs
, Kolfage		100
ry	The second
mas P. Sheldon	Mark Colored States con of the Lakes
untless
	-	11.00
Total	$635,100	3

The loss given for Wallace and consort, and Sparts and Sumatra, includes their grain cargoes. Of the vessels in the above list all are American, except the Queen of the Lakes (of Toronto), which was the only loss on the lower lakes. Other vessels undoubtedly not yet complete.

The Irish Presbyterian Church bas recently loss three leading men. Rev. Dr. Arrott Bellis, comparatively young, and Rev. Dr. W. Fleming Stevenson and Prof. Croskery, who both stood in the front rank of the ministers of the Irish Church. A citizen recently received a letter from bis brother-in-law telling of an arrival in showered kioses upon her face ; then look. his family in this way. "I will answer bas expended $4,500 in charities; that he "No! No! I was about to say your ing rapturously about for Harry, he beheld your last question first. Julia is doing is now supporting four young men in col- brother who returns to day might learn bim dismounted and very busy with his splendidly to day. She was somewhat used up yesterday and last night especially.