

HIS BACKBONE BENT, BOILED IN A CALDRON.

A Wonderful Surgical Operation. A Wonderful Surgical Operation. A Wonderful Surgical Operation.

The poor fellow could not lie in a recumbent position, nor on his side, in consequence of the extreme pain attending the operation, and was compelled to lie on the whole on his face. Slowly he had lost the power of motion and sensation in his legs, so that they could not be raised from the body down.

And His Neighbors Took Him from Jail and Hung Him.

A Texas despatch says: James Howard, aged 30, was taken from the jail here at midnight on Wednesday night by a masked mob, by whom he was carried a short distance below the town and hung to a tree by the neck.

HE ABUSED HIS WIFE.

A Texas despatch says: James Howard, aged 30, was taken from the jail here at midnight on Wednesday night by a masked mob, by whom he was carried a short distance below the town and hung to a tree by the neck.

ROBBERY OF HER HAIR.

A woman who is reported to have been robbed of her hair by a man who was passing by her house on the street.

SINKING OF A STREET.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says: A street in the city has been washed away by a heavy rain, and the water has reached a depth of several feet.

Resurrectionists at Work.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says: Resurrectionists have been discovered at work in the city, digging up the bodies of the dead.

Renewed Interest.

There must be some harm in tobacco, my dear, said a lady to her agent, who had just returned from a visit to the States.

No Proof.

There must be some harm in tobacco, my dear, said a lady to her agent, who had just returned from a visit to the States.

THE LORD AND LADY SCANDAL.

Lord Colin's debts and furnish a house. Sir Charles Russell asked: "Is there any foundation for the suggestion that you, in any shape or form, pressed Lord Colin into this engagement?"

To which Mrs. Blood promptly answered: "I do not wish to speak to him strongly as to the discovery of which my family treated my daughter. I said, 'If you presented your father with a butcher's effusion if it cost me plenty of money, and he ought, at least, to treat my daughter with courtesy, being what she is.' He replied, 'That is perfectly true. He ought, at least, to treat my daughter with courtesy, being what she is.'"

Several witnesses testified that Lady Colin bought factory goods and engaged in mission work among the poor, and that her engagements of this kind had been several times a week from 6 to 10 o'clock in the evening.

Lady Colin Campbell has established such preponderating evidence of an alibi against the alleged meeting with the Duke of Marlborough at Purbeck hotel as to destroy the allegation, which was really the only very strong circumstance against her.

THE PURBECK INCIDENT.

It was stated for the defence that on a certain day in August Lady Colin Campbell and the Duke of Marlborough were at Purbeck, a commonplace barrow which was in the Lower Thames and that they were seen walking through a keyhole marriage compromising scenes.

THE DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH'S EVIDENCE.

The Duke of Marlborough, one of the co-respondents, testified that he had seen Lady Colin Campbell on the morning of August 12th, and that she was seen walking through a keyhole marriage compromising scenes.

THE CO-RESPONDENTS.

Chief Shaw, another of the co-respondents, testified that he had seen Lady Colin Campbell on the morning of August 12th, and that she was seen walking through a keyhole marriage compromising scenes.

THE ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement was made without our consent being asked, but when our daughter returned to us from Scotland we saw plainly it was quite useless to try to induce her to change her mind.

THE MATTER OF MONEY.

I should have expected her to be received with pride and joy in any family, no matter how poor it might be.

THE PROPOSITION FOR SETTLEMENT.

But this depends on Your Grace consenting to the settlement as a mortgage on her father's property, would be a small provision, but it would be a small provision.

THE SETTLEMENT.

This settlement will be a certain loss of income to me, as securities which satisfy my eye are very small interests.

THE DUKE'S DECISION.

My dear Duke, I have received your letter of this date, and I have never supposed that you or Mr. Blood had the smallest responsibility connected with your daughter's engagement to my son.

THE DUKE'S DECISION.

I have thought it my duty to withhold all approval of such an engagement, and not to recognize it until it should be irrevocable.
