Menstruous Fire.
The dwelling-house of James Cox four miles from Farmersville, was burned to the ground on Sunday morning last. The fire had made considerable headway when discovered, and all the household effects in the second story and cellar were consumed. Only Mr. Cox's sons endeavored to get to the chamber to save his clothes, but was only able to get out one sack of flour, which was afterwards destroyed by being allowed to remain close to the burning building. We understand there was an insurance of $600 on the house and contents.

Sick-headache and all liver diseases yield immediately to West's Liver Pills, sugar-coated. All druggists.

Sympathizing Brethren.
The following address of condolence was presented to C. G. Algire by his brethren of the Farmersville Lodge of Odd-fellows:—

To CHAS. G. ALGIRE:
Dear Brother,—We, the officers and members of Farmersville Lodge, No. 237, I. O. O. F., beg to express to you our heartfelt sympathy in your recent sad loss.
We understand you have been deprived of a kindly, loving and affectionate helpmate in the loss of your dear wife, and society has lost one of its best members. A large number of the members of our Lodge had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Algire personally. They and we all feel your great loss keenly, and can only pray that this dispensation of an All-wise Providence be to us all a lesson. We assure you, dear brother, you have our prayers that the God whom we all serve will fulfill His promise, and that you will find in Him a friend who has promised to shelter all who trust in Him. And when life is over, its duties fulfilled, its trials passed, its crosses borne, may we with you meet the loved one gone before.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge, D.
Wiltse, R. S. Jas. Ross, N. G.

OBITUARY.

LINES ON THE LATE MRS. C. G. ALGIRE, WHO DIED DECEMBER TWENTY-EIGHTH.

And thou art gone! how sad the thought—
A loved one from us thou hast Come, heavenly balm, 'tis thee alone Can comfort as we mourn.

How fell with tears each watcher's eye
Across the message borne;
The bud and blossom taken thence;
I leave with you the thorn.

We'll miss thy voice to cheer the heart;
The sunshine of thy smile
Of warmed our hearts as summer's sun,
When they were filled with guile.

We've seen thee tripping o'er the lawn
And all thy graceful beam,
And hither where thy footsteps part
To us the brighter seem.

If sighs and tears the debt could pay We'd call thee back again.
Alas! we sigh in vain, your tears Fall free as autumn's rain.

All, can it be thou wert but sent To bid us all good cheer, Then summons us around thy tomb
To shed the bitter tear.

With gentle hands and broken hearts
We lay our loved away;
Disturb them not, but let them sleep Till dawn of judgment day.

To Him who looks the lily fair
And calms the ravens' need,
We leave the whole, and an' but say He doeth all things best.

COUNTY NEWS.

Events of the Surrounding Townships, Gathered by Our Own Wide-awake Correspondents.

Etbe Mills.
Mr. Munsell Brown has sold his black colt, price received $120.
School has not yet commenced in this section, for want of a teacher.

A fine piece of ice has formed on Jas. Hollister's lot, and by clearing off the snow, the boys have good skating.
Morton Brown expects to soon return to Dakota. Query: Is he going back alone?

Delta.
Well, here we are again, Eli—the elections over, the Tories at grief, and only one of their number (they are not sure of him) in the Council. Our deputy reeve got ten votes in Portland —just ten righteous men, or women, we don't know which, for ten women voted there. Well, there were ten righteous in a city once, and the city was spared. Portland may also be spared.

We have a splendid singing school here under the management of Prof.
Lewis and his assistant, F. Lecky.
At the close of the term it is the intention to give a grand concert.

It is reported that a woman of this place and a woman of Daytown are to fight a duel shortly. Heavy bets are expected. The odds are now two to one on Daytown, although the Delta lady has the advantage in size and turns the scales at twenty-one pounds more than her opponent.
We understand our new hotel keeper has everything to attract the attention of the public, with a house full of music. If Ed. minds his business he may re-establish the reputation of the corner house.

WINTER WHICH HE FEELS QUITE JUBILANT OVER. He says Dr. Hall, as successful as he is in treating horses, don't get all to do.

Two Spring Valley bloods gave a Dublin man a free ride the other night, but took the advice of a prominent country doctor, and took him back home again as speedily as possible.
Query: What happened the other that night, and why did the boys spend so much time on the cushions, endeavoring to brighten them up for their former lustre.

Mr. Bennett Towris' family are very ill with diphtheria. The youngest child, it is thought, will die.
Mr. Brock Davis has been suffering intensely for some time past with a swollen knee. He is confined to the house.

Mr. Wm. A. Westlake put his horse
"Moxy Cobb" under training this winter.
J. Hudson, Brockville, is handling him, and no doubt will capture quite a share of the purses offered. He is a promising young horse.

Lumber Jim and his mate, of Paul's Point, are out on the war path this winter for foxes. They are having very good success.
We never knew until last election day that one of our neighbors had two sons by the name of "Iob."

$1,000 Forfeit, Having the utmost confidence in its superiority over all others, and after thousands of tests of the most complicated and severe cases we could find, we feel justified in offering to forfeit $1,000 for any case of cough, cold, sore throat, influenza, hoarseness, bronchitis, consumption in its early stages, whooping cough, and all diseases of throat and lungs, except asthma, which we only aim to relieve, that we can't cure with West's Cough Syrup, when taken according to directions.
Sample bottles 25c. and 50c. Large bottles $1. Genuine wrapped only in blue.
Sold by all druggists, or sent by express on receipt of price. JOHN C. WEST & CO., Toronto, Ont.
