FARMERSVILLE, FEB. 16, 1887.

FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.
Our Reporter's Note Book Turned Inside Out for the Benefit of the Public.

Political Meeting.
The Hon. Wm. Macdougall will address a public meeting at Newboro' to-morrow (Thursday) evening.

An Early Spring.
A flock of crows was seen at Kingstons, and a robin at Ogdensburg, last week. Old settlers say that everything points to an early spring.

For liver complaint, dyspepsia, and sick headache use West's Liver Pills. All druggists.

Auction Sale.
On Thursday, the 24th inst., C. J. Imerson will offer for sale on lot 5, con. 6, Bastard (Harlem), a valuable lot of farm stock, implements, etc. The sale will begin at one o'clock.

Obit.
Wellington J. Earl, of Wiltsetown, died on Thursday last, and the funeral took place at the Methodist Church here on Saturday. The deceased was in his 48th year.

To Ladies. The great beautifier for the complexion: One of West's scarlet Liver Pills taken nightly. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

Special Services.
Mr. H. W. L. Mahood, Miss Stacey, and Miss Dugdale, a portion of the Savage band, are holding crowded meetings in the Methodist Church every evening.

Directors Meeting.
The Directors of the Unionville Fair will meet on Friday, Feb. 25th, at 1 p.m., and the Delta Fair Directors will meet the following day, (Sat. 26th). These meetings are for the revision of prize lists, and other important business. It is hoped that every director will be present.

Artistic Photography.
S. M. Switzer's photograph gallery at Newboro is held in high estimation by that gentleman's patrons, as the work turned out by him is of a high order of merit. Mr. Switzer advertises that he will adhere to his present low scale of prices until the first of April.

Why will you suffer with a bad cold when a few doses of West's Cough Syrup will cure you. Invaluable for all throat and lung troubles. Consumptives try it. Small size 25c., large bottles $1.00. All druggists.

Next Week.
By arrangement with the municipal council of New York and Escott, we shall next week publish the minutes of the council held on the 12th inst., containing a list of the road overseers and other officers appointed, as well as a full report of the business done, and furnish each ratepayer, not already a subscriber with a copy of the REPORTER.

Mill Burned.
On Wednesday night a grist mill, and also a saw mill owned by Luther Coon, of Morton, were burned to the ground. A large number of men, who were in the employ of Mr. Coon, are now thrown out of work. The buildings were not insured. The fire is supposed to have caught from an old stove in the saw mill.

Horses, Cows, Fat Cattle.
The Beaver Manufacturing Co. manufacture the best vitalizing food for purifying the blood, for regenerating and invigorating the system, for fattening cattle and sheep, for horses, for milch cows, and for calves, sheep and poultry. There are 2,000 feeds for a horse or cow in each 100 pounds of the food. It is rich, it is potent, and it is cheap. Call at my store and see it. J. P. LAMB.

Pain cannot exist when West's World's Wonder is applied. Cheapest and best. 25 and 50c. All druggists.

A Suggestion.
A correspondent writes:—"Why should not all Christians and Temperance workers meet next Tuesday, say at 10 a.m. and at 2 p.m., for the purpose of prayer on behalf of the Temperance cause. We need more temperance men in Parliament—men who will use their influence for Prohibition and all other good laws. Let Christians pray from now until the close of the poll, for every voter to do his duty in this matter."

The Oddfellows' Hall.
Through the kindness of one of the officials, we were allowed to inspect the other day the new hall of Farmersville Lodge, No. 237, I.O.O.F. It is situated in the upper flat of Lamb & Davison's store, and is a roomy and comfortable place, and in which the lodge is established. But upon these objects of weird and symbolic significance our uninitiated eyes were not allowed to gaze. Passing into the main hall, we found a room nearly 50 x 23 feet well carpeted and fitted up in a regal manner, with five upholstered chairs on raised platforms for the principal officers. A number of fine portraits of leading members of the Order adorn the walls, and everything betokens a cosy and comfortable retreat in which the fraternity may meet to discuss and carry out plans for the benefit of their favored institution.

Short Mention.
Harvey C. Brown has started a bakery and grocery at Delta.

W. F. Earl has purchased the goodwill and stock of J. H. Percival, and will run the business in the old stand, Karley's block. See his advertisement in another column.

There were three public meetings in Farmersville Monday evening, and all were well attended.

The next meeting of the Brockville District Farmers' Institute will be held in Farmersville.

There were three weddings in Farmersville to-day. Names next week.

Read P. Wils's advertisement in our next issue.

West's Cough Syrup stops tickling in the throat, stops that hacking cough and gives perfect relief; it is certainly worth a trial. All druggists.

Success.
The rapidly increasing jobbing business of our enterprising druggist, Mr. J. P. Lamb, is demonstrated daily by the large number of boxes shipped to druggists and merchants all over the country, showing that the demand for his proprietary preparations is continuous and ever increasing. Lamb's Lubricating Liniment, Lamb's Horse Powder, and Hunt's Cough Syrup, are meeting with the ready sale they so justly merit. In our daily intercourse with persons from all parts of the country, we hear nothing but praise of Mr. Lamb's preparations, and we predict for these medicines a rapidly increasing popularity.

The Late Geo. Karley.
We had only room last week for a mere mention of the death of one of Farmersville's oldest inhabitants, which took place on the 7th inst. Mr. Karley, the subject of this sketch, came to this country with his parents from Ireland in 1840, and settled in the township of Kitley, subsequently removing to the 11th concession of Elizabeth town. In this township he resided until 18 years ago, when he moved to Farmersville and engaged in the manufacture of cheese, and also in a mercantile business. In the pursuit of his business of cheese buyer he crossed the Atlantic several times, and during the crash in the cheese trade he lost heavily. He finally went out of business and lived retired until his death. The funeral, which took place on Wednesday last, from his late residence to Christ's Church, was very largely attended. The Orange Lodge, of which deceased was a member, took charge of the obsequies. The Rev. Mr. Jones preached a plain and practical funeral sermon, after which the procession resumed from the church and the remains were interred in the cemetery vault. Peace to his ashes.

The standard remedy for liver complaint is West's Liver Pills; they never disappoint you. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

High School Literary Society.
On Friday afternoon last, the second entertainment under the auspices of the above named society took place in one of the school rooms of the High School. Mr. W. Lewis, president of the society, acted as chairman, which duty he performed in a most agreeable and satisfactory manner. The programme consisted of twelve numbers and was rendered by those taking part in a very creditable manner. The opening chorus by the class was a rendition of an old familiar ballad. A recitation, "Charge of Batoche," by Mr. Loueka, was well received. Miss Rhodes gave a recitation, "The Widow's only child," which was full of pathos, and being distinctly spoken, was received with well merited approbation. Miss Etta Hotelison gave an instrumental selection in good style. A dialogue by the Misses Richards, Mulvaugh and Ripley entitled "Temptation," was acted true to life. A duet by Misses Hutchison and Moxley, was very good. "A Story of the War," by Master W. A. Johnston, whom the chairman introduced as the smallest scholar attending the High School, was given with a distinctness not excelled by older members. A solo by Miss Richards, entitled "We'd better hide a wee," was a specially rendered of a popular song. A recitation by J. W. Johnston of "Defence of the bridge," was spoken in a clear, distinct voice, which was heard all over the room. A reading by R. Redmond, entitled "Jimmy Butler and the owl" brought down the house. A recitation by Miss Moxley, "Parody on Lord Ullin's daughter," was given in a style that places Miss Moxley in the front rank as an amateur elocutionist. The closing piece on the programme was a reading by F. H. Eaton, on "Triumphs of the English tongue." A few words of commendation and criticism from a REPORTER representative and from Principal Johnston, followed by God save the Queen, brought a very pleasant afternoon entertainment to a close.

When a man clients an editor he generally puts his foot in it for about forty times the amount. There is no law restricting an editor from publishing the truth in his paper, and if he improved the opportunity every time he could make it decidedly uncomfortable for some folks.

Wonderful is the effect of West's World's Wonder Family Liniment. One bottle will relieve more cures than four times the number of any other Liniment. 25 and 50c. All druggists.

The annual meeting of the Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario East will be held in Brockville on the 1st of March.

MR. TAYLOR'S MEETING.
Monday evening the town hall was crowded, on the occasion of a public meeting addressed by Mr. Taylor. The chair was filled by Dr. Addison. Mr. Taylor delivered a long speech in which some of the public questions of the day were muddled and misrepresented in an astonishing way. In referring to the public debt he gave figures which were the small fraction of $50,000,000 below the truth, in order to make out as good a case as possible for his party. He denied emphatically several charges which had been brought against him, including the custom house and dredging jobs. While not an eloquent speaker, Mr. Taylor certainly proved himself capable of making the best of the very bad mess in which he finds himself.

Mr. Taplin, although taken by surprise, replied briefly, and in telling language criticized Mr. Taylor's speech and the actions of the government which he supported through thick and thin.

Mr. Brough followed, and devoted a considerable portion of his speech to an explanation of why he left the Reform ranks, an explanation chiefly remarkable for its omission. He did not mention the refusal of the Reform party to accept him as a candidate, nor his resignation from the office of license inspector, nor did he enlighten his hearers as to the causes of that resignation. After getting a good start in his speech he mounted the Regina scaffold, from which he did not come down until the audience were tired.

The Farmersville orchestra rendered splendid music at intervals. The meeting closed in the usual manner, and we fancy Mr. Taylor must have felt much depressed at the ear-splitting cheers for Blake and Britten, and at the preponderance of Reformers present.

The spring assizes are to open in Brockville on Friday, 18th March. Judge Rose presiding.

Look out for counterfeit $2 Dominion bills. They are of such character as to easily deceive the unwary.

A Devil's Lake, Dakota, despatch dated the 10th inst., says that the body of Mrs. Edward Walters, who disappeared a few days since, has been found near Devil's Lake. Mr. Walters came to Devil's Lake from his farm last Friday, and the storm became so severe that he could not return. His wife is thought to have become alarmed at his absence and started to go to her nearest neighbors. Her body was discovered a short distance from the road upon the open prairie, partly covered by snow, and only about a quarter of a mile from her own door. The snow about the spot where she lay indicated that she had walked about in a small circle for a long time. The blizzard last week was the severest of the roughest winter known for many years, and reports are coming in, every day of lives lost in the storm. The total of the lives in Dakota this winter can hardly be below the death figures of the Vermont railroad accident, while a large number will suffer permanently from the freezing of parts of the body.
