The Millier and the Maid. Across the heath mar lown the hill, Aback of patient Dobbin. The farmer's daughter rides to mill. And mocks the thrush and robin.

For saddle she's a sack of grain, She sidewise sits and chirrups; A finger in old Dobbin's mane Is good as forty stirrups. The miller comes -a merry blade! And doffs his hat and greets her-

What wish you here, my pretty maid?" "I've brought a sack of wheat, sir." And have you gold to give for grist ? " Not I, we're poor, alack, sir;

From what is in my sack, sir." He lifts her lightly from her seat, And laughs-a merry miller! 'I cannot take my toll in wheat,

I must have gold or siller.

But take your toll-a tenth, I wist-

But since you've brought no coin nor script, He smiles and fondly eyes her-I'll ask no toll but from your lip-A kiss-who'll be the wiser !"

The maiden blushed and bowed her head And with her apron impered, And pouted out her lips of red. Where countless kisses lingered. " A single kiss?" (She smiled in glee,

As one would say, I've caught you. My father said your toll would be A tenth of what I brought wan,"

The mill stream shouted to the sauda: " He kissed the farmer's daughter?" But the grim old wheel stretched out its hands And spanked the saucy water.

.... In the Lane.

And art thou then, my heart, too old Ever to leap with love again, To feel the strong blood-torrent roiled Through heaving breast and teeming brain ? Is it no more, my heart, for thee Life's one unsprestioned cestasy

Are faded quite those dim, far days When music mothered every sound, When up and down youth's happy ways Fared glories on eternal round? Has chill of years killed every joy hat blossomed for the wandering boy? These are the trees once known so well We felt to them all but beknown:

Their very shadow we could tell The same glad songs from bush and bough-As once we heard, we hear them now, And these sweet flowers beneath my feet, Their young eyes greet us as of yere,

The hope, there! Still they think to meet. Her glance that shall not answer more: To us alone it cannot be They're looking up so tenderly. This is the same gray path we took Behind the slowly going day; As they do now, the light leaves should When evening breezes blew this way

And there's the glow upon the dome,

And liere the cows are coming bonce.

Ab, no, good beart, thou still caust stir, Still lives the love first bid thee lean ; Still are we at the sale of iger They laid away 'neath yonder steep. Though clods be on her and a stone, In the dear old lane we're not alone

burg, 2nd Tebruary.

of that corps in the face of overwhelming of brave men as they close in battle, or the ing, and dancing a fling on the quarter proper quarter for the expression of Her you build your kraal there shall I make my | Ernest's great black horse, "The Devil." Majesty's pleasure with regard to his hut. Koos! Baba!

on service in the campaign.

'I have, etc., "CHIEF OF THE STAFF." Then comes a letter from Sergeant-Major Jones, gratefully acknowledging the expression of the high opinion of the Officer, etc., and declining the offer of a commission, in another volunteer corps. Next is a private letter from the Officer. etc., offcring to recommend Sergeant-Major Jones for a commission in the army. And, finally, a letter from Sergeant-

Major Jones to Officer, etc., gratefully declining the same. Ernest looked up sharply. The raison of cutre of the movement was gone, for he could | perfect bonesty and truthfulness, no longer sae, but the habit remained.

"Why did you decline the commission. deremy moved uneasily, and looked through the little cabin window.

presently. " Nonsense! I know you would have liked to go into the army. Don't you remember, as we were riding up to the camp at Isandhlwana, you said you proposed that work it ?

"Yes. " Well? "Well, I said we!"

"I don't quite follow you, Jeremy, "My dear Ernest, you can't go in for a | was sitting at breakfast. commission now, can you?" Ernest laughed a little bitterly

"What has that to do with it?" you in your misfortune to go and enjoy myself in the army. I could not do it ; I come along, quick! should be wretched if I did. No. old I fellow, we have gone through a good many things side by side, and, please God, we will stick to each other to the end of the hour.' Ernest was always easily touched by might go before you know." kindness, especially now that his nerves Mr. Cardus smiled, and, rising, put or were shaken, and his heart softened by his hat and coat, " to oblige" Dorothy, he would be ever at his side to help him. He misfortune, and his eyes filled with tears at | said, but, as a matter of fact, he was found it, grasped it warmly.

4 ...

have a blessing that few can boast -a true ing up and down the quay by the Customfriend. If you had gone with the rest at House, waiting for the launch to start. Isandhiwana yonder, I think that my heart would have broken. " I think we do bear and blind one another a love that 'passeth the love of "Do you think that he will be very much a woman. It would not be worth much if distigured Reginald? it didn't, and that is one thing. I wonder "I don't know, dear; your brother said passionate love for this blind man whom affected, and in cholera, small pox, yellow positive when, in a business transaction Jeremy ; from the sole of his foot even to | "I can hardly believe it; it seems so the crown of his head there was no blemish strange to think that he and Jeremy should in him. Your hair would not weigh 'two have been spared out of all those people. hundred shekels after the king's weight How good God is !" though" (Jeremy were his hair cropped " A cynic," replied Mr. Cardus with a like a convicts); "but I would back you to smile, "or the relations of the other people

flected by anything, and Jeremy knowing morning, and

Just then there came a knock at the door. As the levked sweet did not underrate that place; she knew rule, with people who raise a how! because and who should enter but Marook, but I freedom of his native dress. The results again, remarking that there was "much | with a blue pennant at her top.

more room now.

"Where did you get these things from, Mazook ?" asked Ernest. Mazook explained that he had bought the rig-out for three pounds ten from a second-

"Do not wear them again. I will buy you clothes as soon as we get to England. If you are cold wear your great-coat." " Koos!" (chief.)

brought the black stallion on which he had | were there. off the ground by his coat, and shaken him | saluting vigorously.

you that you would regret.' Zulu answered in his liquid native tongue. | now.'

ship, and went out on to the black water toward the after part of the ship, while, So did she believe in the existence of the out of which the white men rise, and my giving up the unfamiliar language, he planets, and in the blooming of roses in bowels twisted up and melted within me, vociferated in Zulu (it might have been walled gardens; but she could not ge and I went through the agonies of a | Sanskrit for all they knew.) hundred deaths, then I regretted. 'Oh, "Make way, you low people! make way to see the opening rose-buds, so she had to why.' I said in my heart, 'did not my for the old man with the shining head on satisfy herself with the light that poured shall grow like a white man from the ctc. dark and heavy things. But behold, my

Amazulu, you have done well. Great is the | with a cry of, " Dolly, where are you?" hunting path; great was he in the battle; moment he had drawn her to him, and the mouth?" all the Undi could not kill him, and his kissed her on the face, and she had returned . A great many things, Doll. Shooting, brother the lion (Jeremy); and his servant | the kiss. Oh, fie! Dorothy, fie! then bit those who digged. Oh, yes, he is | Jeremy lifted her up two or three feet and knowledge and discretion; you have seen Mazook stood by, and Zulu-fashion, him form the ring that spat out fire so fast | chanted a little song of his own improthat his servants the horsemen were buried | vising, about how the chiefs came back to "Then follows the reply dated Maritz- under the corpses of the Undi. So great is their kraal after a long expedition, "1. I have to direct you to convey to with their lightning, but could not kill him one, the husband without any doubt of Lieutenaut and Adjutant Kershaw, and the then. And so now, my father wanders and many wives, and the father of at least a surviving members of the corps known as | shall wander in the darkness, seeing not | hundred children, etc .- and Beauty in the Alston's Horse, the high sense entertained | the sun or the stars, or the flashing of | shape of a sweet and small one, etc., etc. by the Officer, etc., of the gallant conduct spears, or the light that gathers in the eyes | and finally they all went very near to cryodds at Isandhlwana on the 22nd of love which gleams in the eyes of women. | deck together.

". 3. I am directed to offer you a com- Zulu fashion, Mazook departed to tie up sweet and good she was, abandoned his between his present appearance and his they were with qualities which in some taking liberties, felt down his flank till I it; and in their raw and unconverted state.

"He is a good fellow, Mazook," said Ernest when the Zulu had gone, "but him. Either he will get homesick and sweet with great bunches of violets (fo "On general principles," he answered and become drunken and degraded. should have done better to leave him in

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

ERNEST'S EVIL DESTINY. About nine o'clock on the morning folif the corps did anything, we should try and lowing Mazooku's oration a young lady came running up the stairs of the principal Plymouth hotel, and burst into a private sitting-room, like a human bomb-shell of attractive appearance, somewhat to th astonishment of a bald old gentleman whe

"Good gracious, Dorothy! have you gone suddenly mad? "O Reginald, the Conway Castle is "Everything. I am not going to leave | nearly in, and I have been to the office and got leave for us to go off in the launch; so

"What time does the launch leave ?" "A quarter to ten exactly."

"Then we have three quarters of ar "Oh. please. Reginald, be quick; it Jeremy's words. I'utting out his hand, he as excited as she was. There was a patch a letter, or move from room to room with felt about for Jeremy's, and, when he had of red on each of his pale checks, and his throw Absalom over your shoulder hair and | might draw a different conclusion."

Mazook transformed " His min or frame. Dorothy neither was, nor ever would be, a too deep into his heart to be altogether dis. or sweethearts, for they should have been instead of being clothed in the bese white pretty woman, but she was essentially a lodged by her. But she was prepared to able to keep them. If any man could have tribute. A contribution from your poverty garments he generally wore, was arrayed in a flannel shirt with an enormous stuck up collar, a suit of pepper and salt reach.

It she had never got to the botton of the up collar, a suit of pepper and salt reach.

It she had never got to the botton of the wise little head at her own reflection in man, and, as for the lady, I would not wise little head at her own reflection in the single from the little wrinkles on will win you a credit mark above. The said: "My brethren and sisters, this will have proved himself the better widews mite isof more value than the one. If you have not the will win you a credit mark above. The said: "My brethren and sisters, this will he would have proved himself the better never do. Singing is a part of the worship, and I desire that all of you engage in it. me downs several sizes too small for him. | questions which contracted her forehead as | the glass, as she tied her bonnet strings. | have her without her heart. But I gather | "Yes," replied Johnson, " but you see, and a pair of boots considerably too large a childt, her steady blue eyes, her diminut She was an eminently practical little that was not quite the case with Eva." for his small and shapely feet, for, like tive, rounded form, and, above all, the person was Dorothy, and having recognized "Oh, no indeed; at least she said that those of most Zulus of good blood, his indescribable light of goodness, which the "eternal verity" of the saying that she was wretched. hands and feet were extremely delicately shone around her like a halo, all made her half a loaf is better than no bread, "Exactly as I thought. Well, now, you charming. What did it matter if the especially if one happens to be dying of will understand that it is rather hard. You an extremely small and rakish looking billycock hat, and in his land his favorite and most gigantic knobstick.

Lips. At the least, they will have the best she could secure the outward and visible forced into being the wife of another man. Northern Pacific trainin Montana suddenly bright chirography. Wild violets and lilies however charming be may be; and I hope jumped from the coach with a yell and are blooming, the green grass is growing, tangible, and there isn't much comfort in for her sake that he is charming. In fact, started up the side of the mountain in the On opening the cabin-door he saluted in that the longer and dustier portion of spiritual affection, you know," she said it fills me with a sensation I can not des face of a driving storm. He was pursued, are singing their spring matins and every. the ordinary fashion, and coming in life's road winds away toward the pale with another stake of the head. squatted down on his haunches to await horizon of our pate on the farther side of In short, the arguments which proved so " Poor Ernest!" orders, forgetting that he was not in all the the grim mile-post marked "30."

covering what had happened, sat down | they were off toward the great gray vessel | them; Mr. Plowden recognized no higher It was a short run, but it seemed long Jeremy burst out laughing, and having sketched his retainer's appearance for the benefit of Ernest, told him what had benefit of Ernest had benefit of

> Now haul away! Make fast !" But they were not to be seen.

"I hope they are here," faltered not apply to the affairs of every-day life. Besides, if he had been asked, he would "How is 'The Devil?" Ernest had his bald head. He too hoped that they women did not possess any of these things.

escaped from Isandhlwana home with him. At that moment Dorothy became aware think like Mr. Plowden, and there are Mazook replied that the horse was well, of a great black man, clad in a white | thousands of educated ladies who give color | to remain on the ground to become useless. but playful. A man forward had been smock pulled on over a great-coat, and to such opinions by their idle, aimless teasing him with a bit of bread. He had carrying a big spear and a kerrie in his course of life, their utter inappreciation of around your peach trees. The effect may reduction which was on his side voluntary, that the hero of this occasion received

"Inkosi Casa" (chieftainess), he re- lowering of women is woman herself. But "And so you find the air cold. Are you peated, going through the same process | what does it matter? In due course they not regretting that you came? I warned | before Dorothy. "This way, master; this | have their families, and the world goes on! way, missie. The chief without eyes sent "Ou ka lukoos" (oh, no, my chief), the me to you. This way; the lion bring him things, and she knew what an important father kill me father than bring me on to whose brow sits wisdom, and the fair young from the one, and the scent that came from this great moving river? Surely if I live I maiden, the sweet rose-bud, who comes," the other. When one is star-stricken, or whiteness of my heart, for I am exceedingly | At that moment Dorothy's quick eye saw

"O Ernest, Ernest !" she cried. father, when my bowels ceased to melt, and | The blind man's cheek flushed at the

my heart about this journey over the black to avoid them-one need never be kissed girl. water. And my heart answered and said : | by a blind man-but she did not avoid ! Mazooku, son of Ingoluvu, of the tribe of them. On the contrary, she placed herself the Maquilisini, of the people of the so that the groping arms closed around her chief whom you serve; great is he on the "Here, Ernest, here!" and in another the jackal (Mazooku), who hid in a hole and Then she kissed Jeremy too, or rather great and his breast is full of valor; you kissed her-it came to the same thing. And have seen him strike the Undi down; and | then Mr. Cardus rung them both by the his mind is full of the white man's hand, wringing Ernest's the hardest, and he, that the "heaven above" smelled him | which they had, etc. - and how Wisdom in out as " tagati" (a wizard) and struck him | the shape of a shining-headed and ancient

And how is this? Shall my father want a | And then they all talked at once, and se " 2. It is with deep regret that the | dog to lead him in his darkness? Shall | about collecting their things in a maddle Officer, etc., learns of the heavy misfortune | his dog Mazooku, son of Ingoluv, prove a | headed fashion; and when these had been which has befallen Lieutenant Kershaw. faithiess dog, and desert the hand that fed | put in a pile, and Mazook seated, assegn He wishes to express his appreciation of him, and the man who is braver than him- and all, upon the top of them as a solemn the way in which that officer handled the self? No, it shall not be so, my chief, and | warning to thieves (and ill would it have remnants of his corps, and to inform him my father. Liv the head of Chaka, whither gone with the thief who dared to meddle that his name will be forwarded to the thou goest thinker will I go also, and where with that pile), started off to inspect

And behold, Dorothy stroked " Th And having saluted after the dignified Devil's" nose, and he, recognizing how mission in any of the volunteer corps now his split trousers with a bit of string. usual habits, did not bite her, but only There was something atterly incongruous whinied and asked for sugar. Then Ernest going into the box with the horse, which melodious and poetical words, instinct as nobody but he and Mazook were fond o respects make the savage Zulu a gentle- came to a sear inflicted by an assegai, i man, and put him above the white that mad charge through the Undi, and Christian, who for the most part regards showed it to them. And Dorothy's eyes the "nigger" as a creature beneath con- filled with tears of thankfulness, as she tempt. For there are lessons to be learned | thought of what the horse and its rider even from Zulu "niggers," and among had gone through, and of the bleaching them we may reckon those taught by a bones of those who had galloped by their courage which laughs at death; an absolute side; and she would have liked to kiss fidelity to those who have the right to com- | Ernest again, only there was no excuse, so mand it, or the qualities necessary to win she only pressed his hand, feeling that the sorrow of the empty years which were gone was almost atoned for by this hour of joy. Then they went ashore to the hotel, and sat together in the pleasant sitting-room fear that one of two things will happen to which Dorothy had choson, and made become a unisance, or he will get civilized she remembered that Ernest leved violets) and talked. At length Mr. Cardus and Jeremy went off to see about getting the things through the Custom-House, where they arrived to see Mazook keeping half dozen gorgeous officials, who wanted to ope a box, at bay with his knobsticks, and plastering them with offensive epithets which fortunately they did not under-

" Doll," said Ernest, presently, " it is a beautiful day, is it not? Will you take me

"Yes, Ernest, of course I will." "You are sure you do not mind being seen with a blind man ; you must give me your hand to bold, you know.'

"Ernest, how can you?" Mind giving him her hand to hold indeed! thought Dorothy to herself, as she ran to put her bonnet on. Oh, that she could give it to him for always! And in her heart she blessed the accident of hi blindness, because it had brought him so much nearer to her. He would be helpiess without her, this fall, strong man, and she would not be able to read a book, or write out her. Surely she would soon be able so " If I have troubles, Jeremy, at least I In a quarter of an hour they were walk. | would become indispensable to it! And warm. It does seem rather hard that a had found again; and in her breast she would have come to my rescue, and When he had been engaged to Eva, she had woman really acknowledges, however many | Medical Stand done her best for him and her, and bitterly others she may be forced to conform to: had she felt the way in which he had been and that a woman of refined nature who treated. But Eva had taken her own has ceased to love you, and is yet forced to But Dorothy was thinking how good God | course, and was now no longer in the out- live with you, is in consequence a thing ! .. It was his fashion to talk nonsense when was to her. She was dressed in pink that ward and visible running, whatever place worthless to you, and disflouored in her she might still hold in the inward and own eyes. Besides, I ask no favor in such convincing to her were not unlike those

But what made her chiefly attractive was | that carried conviction home to the gentle were most disastrous. With a crack and a her piquante, taking manner, and the breast of Mr. Plowden, when he made up bang the reach-me-down trousers, already "chie" of her presence. She was such a his mind to marry Eva in the teeth of her engagement to, and love for, Ernest; but, [strained to their utmost capacity, perfect lady.

split right up the back. The astonished "All aboard, if you please," broke in putting aside the diversity of the circum Zulu flew up into the air, but presently dis- | the agent. " Run in the gang-way !" and | stances, there was this difference between spiritual part at all; he did not believe in that sort of things ; he contracted for Eva satisfied. Of the beautiful soul which the "Ease her! Look out for the line there! human casket beld, and which loathed and hen-houses unless carbolic acid is added to hated him, he had no account. He had got it, as a single application of the mixture is the year, which are the ones in which a temporary ball occurred, during which It was all done in an instant, and next the woman, what did he care about the better than two or three applications of naments and torchlight processions are in mixture is toboganning, sledging, curling, skating tour rich voice in the gallery loudly called out naments and torchlight processions are in Misthur Bishup. Misthur Bishup. Misthur Bishup. class passenger as the weather was growing deck, amid the crowd of passengers, and affinities with what is good and high, were looking round for Ernest and Jeremy. | and the divinity of love, etc., etc., were capital things to preach about, but they did

Mr. Cardus took his hat off and wiped | have given it as his candid opinion that waited till that man passed under his box, hand, who was pushing his way toward anything beyond their own little daily be easily noticed the first season after the and, therefore, to his honor. But there is "goold" half-sovereign. "It was all and had seized him in his teeth, lifted him them. Next moment he stood before them round, and the gossip of the dozen or so of ashes shall have been applied. families who for them make up what they "Koos!" he said, thrusting the spear | call society and the interests of existence "Good! Give him a bran mash to- into the air before Mr. Cardus' astonished and by their conduct in the matter of marriage. Truly the great factor in the

Now Dorothy did believe in all these When first we come upon the smoking They followed him through the press they dominate over and direct finer minds. near to know the beauties of the stars, or mad in the matter of roses, that is better afraid, and have cast all my inside forth.' a great man issuing from a cabin, leading And so, taking Ernest by the hand, she them so as to permit of plenty of heatfrom the said, and many more things another man by the hand. And then she led him through the crowded streets with the sun. They are well worth the small the rule of silence with those whom she King and the Professor, the mouth and the part of the sun. tender care, and on to the quiet Hoe. And amount of labor required for bringing them | did not well know. This passed for sullen | slowly and reluctability open to the as they passed, the people turned to look to perfection. at the handsome young fellow who was There is no when new ones had grown to replace those music of her voice. He drew his hand, blind, and some thought that they would ducks, geese or turkeys too early in the which I had thrown forth, I was glad, and from Jeremy's, and stretched out his arms not mind a little blindness if it led to did eat much beef, and then did I question | toward the voice. It would have been easy | being personally conducted by so sweet a

Soon they reached the gardens. "Now tell me about yourself, Ernest. What have you been doing all these long years, besides growing bigger and handsomer, and getting that hard look about fighting, playing the fool." "Pshaw! I know all that, or at least I can guess it. What have you been doing in your mind, you know ?" ". Why, thinking of you, of course, Doll." "Ernest, if you talk to me like that, I will go away, and leave you to find your | in the middle of the winter season. own way home. I knew well of whom you have been thinking every day and every night. It was not of me. Now, confess it. " Don't let's talk of her, Doll. If you talk of the devil, you know, you sometimes raise him; not that he requires much raising in this instance," he laughed,

"I was so sorry for you, Ernest dear, and I did my best ; indeed I did. But I could do nothing with her. She must have has a family of children, for I have seen | tection from the cold. their births in the paper.

"() Ernest, when I think of all you must have suffered out there about that woman, Decease to be sorry for her, and begin to

"Ah, yes, I have been unhappy sometimes - sometimes I have consoled myself. much so as when I have been in process of consolation. But you should not hate her, poor girl ; perhaps she has her bad times too; only, fortunately, you women cannot feel, at least not much-not like us, I

"I don't know about that," put in "Well, I will qualify my remark—most women. And, besides, it is not quite her fault; people can not help themselves have been to the effects of too much neat from unlism to weaken his faith or arouse his the sun. What is known as rust, or blight, suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. He has two sons, one a wild and suspicion. much in this world. She was appointed to be my evil destiny, that is all, and she must fulfil her mission. All my life she will probably bring me trouble, till at last the fate works itself out. But, Dolly, my dear, there must be an end to these things, and Nature, always fertile in analogies, teaches us that the end of sorrow will be happiness. It is from the darkness of Mohawk Church, near Beautford, and the are followed by the flowers. Nothing is | Montreal. Of the last-mentioned church lost in the world, as old Alston used to say, now a venerable edifice, but a very insigniand it is impossible to suppose that all the ficant one compared with the modern grief and suffering are alone wasted; that churches of the commercial metropolis. they are the only dull seed that will not, Rev. Robert Campbellis writing the history when their day comes, bloom into a beauti- There are many interesting points connected ful life. They may seem to be intangible with the old building, but one that stand for a walk, dear? I should like to go for a between tangible and intangible is only a gation enjoyed in early times unusually difference of matter. We know that friendly relations with other religious intangible things are real enough, and per- bodies. When an Episcopal church was haps in a future state we shall find that barned the Episcopalians worshipped i they are the true immortal parts. I think this Presbyterian church, and when the

"I think so too." gets the mastery of that idea, it makes to worship in. the navigation easier. Once admit that everything works to an end, and that end a good and enduring one, and you will cease to call out under your present sorrows. But it is hard for the little boy to learn to like being whipped, and we ar

all children. Doll, to the end of our days." spiritual side of Ernest's nature. Dorothy | matters. I have no sympathy, as a general well that the image of her, rival had sunk | they have lest the affection of their wives |

To add to the incongruity of his appear. | month was a little wide, or the nose some. | hunger, she made up her mind to make the | see I did leve her dearly, and it is painful answer to this old conundrum is, " Don't ance, on the top of his hair, which was still what "tiptilted?" Those who can look so best of the position. Since she could not done in rulges Zulu fashion, and decorated sweet are able to dispense with such fleshly help it. Eva would be welcome to the and who by that divine right and by the with long bone snuff spoons, was perched attributes as a Grecian nose or chiseled inward and spiritual side of Ernest, if only law of nature should have been my wife, as One of the passengers on a snow-bound the open page of nature's book in her own

FARM AND GARDEN.

Working the Garden-Spring Suggestions-Use C

Peas may be hastened by sprouting the seed in a box of moist sand before planting. Do not use fertilizers too lavishly on

The silver maple is a rapid-growing tree often attaining a diameter of ten inches in ten years. It also thrives well on sandy soils, requires but little care, and les few

Make your hot-bed frames in sections, so There are hundreds of educated men who | that they can be stored away when not in | horses have given a great idea of his wealth use. It is much better than allowing them to the colonists. What must it have been, loike yez to feind me a moighty foin

> It is an easy matter to have a garden so arranged as to cultivate it with a horse. time. At their entertainments the Marquis | the King of the Maoris was so desirous | hoe, but the best results are usually ob- and Marchioness do things magnificently, viewing an exhibition of the Profession s worked by hand. A few boxes in the house filled with earth, and planted to tomatoes, lettuce and cabbage, will be found a cheap mode of

If potted plants be watered around the roots with lime-water the angle-worms will be destroyed in the soil. The caustic qualities of the lime-water kill all soft-skinned worms. Only a small amount of the limewater is necessary.

tions, sprinkle the soil and plants with speaking, she was apt to make use of words that the royal mouth should be open lime-water and clean off the space around just the contrary of those she wanted to wide. After considerable refusal and part season, as they will not thrive as well as when hatched in April or later. A good start in dry weather will enable them to grow rapidly and entail less labor, while dampness is fatal.

Freas' grafting-wax is four pounds resin, one pound of tallow and one pound of beeswax. Melt all together over a slow fire and when it is melted turn out into a tub of cold water and pull as shoemakers' wax is made. Soften with hot water.

has tried cold storage for peaches, says he'd stop to talk to him, and I often saw that with him it has been a decided success. him shake hands with a conductor of the This indicates that the time is coming when street cars who came from his part of located, at a profit of at least from so to s peaches may be stored and offered for sale Ireland, and he had always something some of them are only old varieties with May. new names. Before devoting the garden to The Princess Louise enjoyed best in any new variety, give it a test by procuring | Canada the society of the French. She a packet of seeds for experimenting, as a was very fond of getting away from Ottawa The heat generated steam from the w loss from poor seed or from an inferior and going to live en artiste at the citadel of variety cannot be recovered. Time is an Quebec-an old place that dated from the important item in gardening.

Place the hotbed in a position so as t been off her head, or the man and Florence | get the most sunlight, and cover the sash ad some power over her; or perhaps she at night so as to avoid loss of heat by radianever really cared for you; there are some | tion. Glass permits heat to escape very women, you know, who seem very sweet, rapidly, and it is best, therefore, to use a but cannot truly care for anybody except double glazed sash, as the air space bethemselves. At any rate she married, and | tween the panes of glass will serve as a pro-

Here is the way the large strawberries are produced. Apply a heavy dressing of a mixture of two parts each of muriate of potash and superphosphate, with one part hate her. I am afraid you have been very clean, water when necessary, and do not allow a single runner to start, as they should be pinched back. Mulch the young There, what is the use of telling lies ?-I plants in the fall and remove the mulch Anglo-Scotch provinces, and helped to poject in the telescope—a final halo mave always been unhappy, and never so ing of fertilizer and clean the soil by stirring it about an inch. When the young berries are set pinch off all but the largest.

It requires work, but it will pay. Regarding strawberry rust opinions differ. Some ascribe the cause to too much mois- old man, and is a strong believer in Spirit ture, others to excess of manure on the ualism, no thing having ever been too plants, while it is also claimed that it is miraculous if done in the name of Spiritdue to the effects of too much heat from | ualism to weaken his faith or arouse hi which does the mischief by working around other a thriving citizen. The latter is a the plants. It is suggested that the best partner of his father's in the mercantil over the plants. " Behold How Good a Tning It Is," etc. The oldest Protestant church in Canada is St. Paul's, Halifax; the next oldest is the night that day is born, and ice and snow | next is St. Gabriel's Presbyterian Church Presbyterian church was undergoing repairs the neighboring Roman Catholic priest lent Well, then, Doll, you see, if once one the congregation a Roman Catholic building

Warmth of Bodies After Death.

Cases have of late been frequently reported ! kept from burial because they did not become | surprised to see the young man walk in and | cold. Faith-healers and miracle-workers pay up the old score on of a near roll of have been called in on such occasions to bills. Young Harley paid up other small "And you see, Doll, for some reason I resuscitate the supposed victim of suspended accounts about town, and the astonishing to weave herself into his life, that she have been picked out to catch it pretty animation, and indulged in distribes at fact that he had money soon became the will be found to be quite clear. Then lay being called in too late. It is not generally talk of the village. The news was not long then, perhaps—perhaps—and her heart woman like that should be allowed to turn known that there is, as a rule, an elevation in reaching old Mr. Harley's cars, and, after board as before, and again go over the lines pulsed with a joy so intense at the mere all the wine of a man's life into vinegar; of temperature immediately after death, pondering over the matter for some time. with the pencil. The result will be a per-After all these years," said Mr. Cardus. thought of what might follow, that it but so it often is. Now, if she had died, owing to the blood no longer being cooled in and closely examining the letter from his became a pain, and she caught her breath that would have been bad enough; but I its passage through the lungs, and to the departed wife, he at last reluctantly made (faluit or paper) in minute dots. The and leaned against the wall. For every could have borne it, and bided my time to stoppage of the circulation, and in many up his mind that he knew how Henry had tarlaten design may be used against and to the fibre of her little frame was thrilled with a join her. Or if she had ceased to love me, cases where the nervous system has been got the money. This belief was made she had lost for so many years, and now I could have borne that, because my pride fever and hepatic abscess. The post mortem with Charles Green, another storekeeper in rise in temperature is often very decided. the place, he received the veritable $20 bill 1882 VO 10 0US Memory vowed that if she could help it she would because I know that the law of her affec. The heat of an apparently dead body is he had inclosed to his wife to help along her lose him no more. Why should she? tions is the only law that the heart of hence not concerns e evidence of life. - celestial millinery business. He learned that

"The Widow's Mite.

" My friend, we expect a contribution from you to aid this good work." "I would be glad to contribute," that I don't believe I can contribute any-

I'm not acquainted with any widows."

L'ett-burg Despatch. - What is the best way to manage a all sing down here. Now sing. They man ?" asks a feminine correspondent. The . Dg.

and after a half-mile chase was captured | thing indicates that nature is glad to cars. He had suddenly become insane.

CANADIAN VICE-ROYALTY.

(Paris letter in the London Truth.) eries," has called to give me supplemental had many interesting adventures and not a information about the past and present few amusing ones. While I was in Belfast ment was made that the Lansdownes were mated discussion among those present to get the chateau of Montreal (?) fitted up During the evening, and after the success. and to spend there the coldest months of ful performance of several astonishing featfull fling. This news caused intense excitement and the Anglo-Scotch thought it quired the entertainer. should go in midwinter every year to show | wants?"

the light of their countenance to the French | "Well, I think I can - nearly anything at Montreal. Lord Lansdowne, I am told, keeps up a fine show. His carriages and they wonder, before his income from his ner." The best place for your wood ashes is Irish estates was reduced by a quarter-a Mr. Bishop is authority for the state. no burning of candles at both ends of the the best advertisement I ever had," said Government House as in the Dufferins' He also tells that while in New Zaul tained on small plots well manured and but close economy is the every-day rule. unusual powers that the obtained a private yearly, but dipped his estates and sold the that his dusky Highness himself should timber off them when he could gain politi- conceal an article which Bishop was to a cal points by a judicious use of money. cover. Mr. Bishop was taken from the things, and she knew what an important securing early plants. Now is the time to begin, as they will not grow too rapidly dollar "when they were away in Canada. brought blindfolded into the kingly present. The Princess was as beneficent as could and at once began the search. In a fix be, and was never appealed to for money minutes Mr. Bishop turned to the and without (when she was satisfied that she arch's month as the place where the articl. had to deal with honest people) putting her | was concealed. His Highness grunted as hand in her pocket or signing a cheque. complatic dissent to the place located by She was a great success until the sledge the Professor as containing the article to accident befell her. Her nervous system which Le was in search. Bishop insisted Clean out the old stalks of the carna- then got upset, with the effect that, in that it was there, and finally demanded reserve and favoritism, and caused a good instant, however, the King began to coult deal of resentment among the ladies.

and first-rate in business," said my visitor, been correctly located, attempted to swall "but he was unendurable," "How so?" the button, and thus defeat the determined I asked. "He was so stand-off in his mind-reader. What might have happened demeanor. Dufferin knew the Christian to Bishop had the Maoris lost their Kin . and pet names of all the children in is one of those things we tremble to Ottawa, read of the births in the papers. | template. - Editor's Brawer, in Harpers and remembered to congratulate the fathers | Magazine for March. of the new-born babes. He shook hands publicly with a grocer's wife who had triplets, and one day got out of his carriage to go and admire them when they were with their mother and the servant in the street. | money can be made rapidly and early the Mr. Galloway, of Malden, N. Y., who If a newsboy said a smart thing to him otherwise can be carned by years of labor with bright and pleasant to say. Lorne's stand- Either sex; all ages, Do not be tempted with all the new offishness after Dufferin's chaff and heartinovelties" offered in garden seeds, as | ness was like an icy blast in the month of

Marquis de Montcalm. (It was built by the Duke of Wellington.) It became the thing there to be artistic. Officers, the sons and daughters of judges and of ministers (preachers), successful trades people sionism, art furniture and art unions, to be bien en cour. The princess used to go out on sketching expeditions in a boat. She had some narrow escapes near rapids; that, however, was not at Quebec, but high up the river. It used to be said of her that she was all radiance to the French Cana- I naked eye on the eastern horizon dians, and had more French than English | daybreak, but is so low down that it books on her drawing-room table. But readily seen unless one knows and the Lady Sophia Machaniara understood the where to look. It was discovered the co-"independent" temper of the ladies of the 6th. About 5 a. m. it makes a leading make things smooth and agregable. A Letter from His Dead Wife.

Benjamin Harley is a well-to-do resident of Rearing Branch, this county, writes a Lock Haven, Pa., correspondent. He is an remedy is to burn a light covering of straw | business. Old Mr. Harley is a widower. his wife, who was also an enthusiastic sample bottle. Large bottles only 25 cur is, Spiritualist, having died only a few weeks by all druggists and country dealers. ago. The other morning old Mr. Harley awoke and found lying on his pillow a piece of paper, folded and addressed to him. He opened it, and found that it was a letter |purporting to come from his dead wife. It | you used to : was a business letter. It informed Mr. Harley that the writer was in heaven. which was a thoroughly practical placeso much so that she had set up in the limost as good as your all ones." millinery business. She was just their in need of 550 to put in the business, and requested her shusband to inclose her that cess of that singer." " Neither in 1." amount. She instructed him to "She sings through her has most put it in a letter and place the atrociously." "Perhaps that is a reson letter in a stump near her son Henry's why every one is waving a handker but at house. Extravagant and ridiculous as this her. letter was, old Mr. Harley did not doubt for a moment that it came from his wife. He could not spare $50 that day, but he wrote a letter to his wife, inclosing $20 and informing her that he would send the remainder in a few days. The letter he placed in the stump as directed. Young Henry Harley long ago exhausted his credit at the tavern and other places in Roaring Branch. evidence to the contrary, bodies have been or three days ago the tavern-keeper was

Congregational Singing.

the buil had been changed for young Henry

. Bird Wilkins, of St., Paul, one of he leading colored divines of the North sponded Johnson, "but I am so very poor | west, preached at Bethesda Baptist Church last Sunday. He is modeled somewhat after the Sam Jones style, and at the even- | & too was an ite, as we ing service, hoticing that only the choir quartitic took part in the singing, is Do you suppose that only four of the angels to the suppose that only four of the angels in heaven do the singing? This church is Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toron a model of the upper church. They ell sing up there, and I would like to have you and brought back with frozen face and welcome spring's early arrival .- Albany (Ga. News.

Pass It Up This Way.

Views of the Wife of a Canadian Judge in Amusing Experiences of the Prince of Elucidaters. Mr. Washington Irving Bishop, who has The wife of a Canadian judge, who read lately been exciting so much attention by what Sir C. Tupper said upon the "Truth | what he terms his "mind-reading," has representatives of Her Majesty at Ottawa. Mr. Bishop gave an entertainment in Ulster

"Well, well, what do you want?" rather a shame that the Vice-regal court . Or spose yezean foind annething a u an

" Will yez foind somethin for me, the "Certainly." "Well, the morrow a Sunday, and a Lord Dufferin not only spent his £10,000 | scance. After some parleying it was decided violently, which resulted in a button lang "Lorne was just as good as he could be, expelled. The King, finding the place had ion't let golden opportunities pass unimers vol new, You are started free. Capital not re-

A Rome, N. Y., girl filled three and beer jugs with wet sand, corked distritightly, and set them in the oven to hear so that she could warm her bed with and an explosion followed, which room with flying sand and fragmbeer jugs. The girl and the rest of the family were badly scared, but unhand

I suffered 7 years with scialic thanks ism. No treatment relieved me. lom's Rheumatic Repellant cured part to that for 2 years I have not had level to be. toms of rheumatism. A. Furtexev.

key, Mich., formerly of Berlin, Out Barnard's comet is now visited to be surrounding a sharp white mess in the centre. It has a short nebulous tail, et out

2° in length. Its distance from the carth is now about 113,000,000 miles.

With Satisfaction. Polson's Neavitage, the new and certain pain cure, is used with satisfaction to every instance. There is abundant resenting sore throat, chilblains, toothache. Nerville is in fact a sure remedy for all pants, high internal and external. Try a 10t

No Doubt He Can. Juvenile hostess entertaining the vieweer Mr. Filtrip, can't you walk as

"Why, yes, Bessie, why should all

"Oh. I heard mamma say that vir were on your second legs, but I thought the vie At the opera - "I can't explain the sur-

Mrs. Cleveland has kept strictly to her rule of nevergoing out except to the houses of members of the Cabinet, and as they entertain very little, occasions of her appearance in Washington society have been few and far between. The simplest and one of the flost conventient methods of tracing and transfer. and his longing for convivialty had been ring designs is the use of tarlaten instead the newspapers in which, despite medical | necessarily misatisfied for some time. Two of tracing paper. Place the pattern to be copied upon the drawing-board fid cover it with the tarlatan, and pin leth to the heard with drawing tacks. Ther, with a hoderately soft percil, draw the pattern carefully. Remove the pins and the design the tarlatan upon the material, pin to the feet copy of the design upon the material define Any look harted in one reading. Heavy re-ductions for postal classes. Prospectus, with opin-ter of Mr. Phot for, the Astronomer, Hops W. W. Astron. June 19, Reviews, Drs. Mison, Wood and PROF. LOISETTE. 237 Fifth Avenue. New York.

DISCOVERY.

DCNL, 11, 87.