 FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.

Our Reporter's Note Book Turned Inside Out for the Benefit of the Public.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The first public entertainment of the Farmersville High School Literary Society will be held in the North Church on the evening of Friday, the 25th inst. Look out for something rich.

SHORT MENTION.—An immense number of saw logs are being drawn to Saunders' mill. Cordwood is being drawn to the village in large quantities. A large number of lots are being piled with lumber, stone and other building material. Never in the history of the village, have there been such extensive preparations for building as are being made this winter.

Mr. Johnson, Head of High School, has been in the past week attending to his father, who lived in the town of Petrolia. A resolution with Mr. Johnson's consent was unanimously passed at the close of the High School literary entertainment on Friday afternoon last, of which reference is made in our notes of that meeting.

It is with pleasure that we recommend our readers to try West's Cough Syrup. You will find it especially useful at this season of the year to cure colds, coughs, check coughs and lung and throat troubles. All druggists.

PRELIMINARY.—One of the items of business before the Presbytery of the Farmersville, Monday, was a petition from Farmersville, asking for the services of the Rev. Mr. Pullar, an ordained minister, to be associated with Mr. Richards in the pastoral oversight of Farmersville, Cantons, Mallorytown, Lyn and Fairfield. The members of the Presbytery were gratified at the unanimity of the petition and agreed to its request. Mr. Kellogg was instructed to obtain financial aid from the Home Mission Committee, which meets in Toronto this month. Mr. Pullar was unable to give his decision at once, but took it into his consideration, and will give his approval or disapproval at the next meeting.

Mr. Porter, Principal of the school, was called away by telegraph on Monday morning, to attend the funeral of his aunt, living near Elbe. As yet no particulars have reached us. Mrs. M. Morris, of Alpena, Mich., left for home on Monday, after spending nearly two months visiting relatives and friends in this section. Mrs. Miller, of Parry Sound, and Mrs. Levitt, of Brockville, who have been visiting at Mrs. Chamberlain's, left yesterday for their respective homes. Mrs. Chamberlain accompanied the party to Brockville. Miss Judd, of Mallorytown, has joined the Band of Christian Workers under the Rev. Mr. Savage, and goes to Toledo this week to assist in a series of meetings. Miss Bertha Boyd is visiting her sister, at Mrs. Lovrin's. Mrs. T. Koyle, Brockville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cornell. Mr. Ed. Donovan is home after an extended and successful commercial trip.

A great blessing, West's Liver Pills will always be found a great blessing to those afflicted with liver complaint, dyspepsia, indigestion and sick headache. Thirty pills 25c. All druggists.

REVIVAL SERVICES.—The meetings in the Methodist church continue with unabated interest. About 160 converts have joined some branch of the Christian Church, or have signified their intention of doing so. The usual services took place on Sunday evening about 200 persons were present. An interesting feature of the service was the conversion of seventeen converts who had not received the rite in infancy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Rogers, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Savage, and the scene was most impressive. There was an immense audience in the church Monday evening, when Mr. Savage delivered his farewell address. He goes to Kingston, where he will hold a series of meetings, already begun by Mr. Mahood. The services he has conducted here, and which were so successfully inaugurated by Mr. Mahood and the Misses Steacy and Dugdale, have been very fruitful in results, especially among the young men and women of the neighborhood. The evening meetings will be continued for a time.

HYMNICAL.—Our quiet little town was thrown into a flutter of excitement on Wednesday last, by the announcement that one of our most popular young bachelors was on that day taking unto himself a life partner. The interesting event in question was the marriage (at the residence of Mr. John Percival, Home st. Brockville, father of the bride) of Mr. Field.

Clock, watchmaker, of this town, to Miss Emma Percival. Miss Vina Bishop, formerly of Addison, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Fred. Bristow reformed the duties of groomsmen. The Rev. E. P. Crawford performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was dressed in white with lace trimmings and pearls, and the bridesmaid in cream and white, and both are said by connoisseurs to have looked "just lovely." The bridal presents were numerous, handsome and costly, and testified to the esteem in which the happy pair were held by a large circle of friends. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was taken by the party, after which all repaired to the G. T. R. station, to see the happy couple off on the wedding tour. The Reporter but voices the popular sentiment when it wishes them long life and prosperity.

CHILDREN AND FROSTED FEET and hands cured with a few applications of West's World's Wonder or Family Linctant. All druggists.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A few days ago, Mr. Charles Johnson, residing near Elbe Mills, received word of the sudden death of his brother Marcus, at Umatilla, Oregon. From a private letter received by Mr. Johnson, written by a friend of the deceased, we extract the following: "The coroner's jury decided that he came to his death by heart disease. Judging from appearances he died without a struggle, as he was lying in bed as though asleep when death came." The following extract from an Oregon paper throws additional light on the sad event:

"Last fall he [the deceased] bought the Gleason ranch on lower Little Butter Creek, and being a bachelor he has been living there alone. He had a flock of sheep, but they have been kept camped in charge of Mart McCumber some miles away from the home ranch. Monday afternoon two of Geo. Winslow's boys went to Mr. Johnson's ranch, and were horrified to find him lying dead in bed near the kitchen stove, where he had removed his bedding. Some days before he had been complaining of a numbness of his left arm."

Mr. Johnson left here on Thursday last, to look after his brother's estate, which is said to be valuable.

HIGH SCHOOL LITERARY SOCIETY.—A large audience, composed of pupils and a good sprinkling of visitors, assembled in the principal's room on Friday afternoon, the attraction being the usual fortnightly entertainment. The programme is to be commended highly, and reflects great credit on Mr. J. Patterson, under whose direction it was prepared. Mr. W. Lewis, presided in his characteristic happy manner. We have not space to criticize the various numbers, some of which were excellently rendered, and must be content with the simple enumeration of the pieces and the performers' names, as follows:—

Opening Chorus.—Reading, "Lightning." J. A. Jones. Recitation, "The Usurper's Daughter." Miss Maggie Johnson. Quartette, "The Mission and the Shack." Mrs. Addison and J. Patterson. Reading, "The Drummer." G. Barry. Instrumental solo, W. Chapman. Recitation in character, Miss Nellie Blanchard. Piano-forte duet, Miss Johnson and Miss Moore. Dialogue, "The Hole in the Carpet." Miss Jeannette T. Spencer and J. Patterson. Piano-forte solo, Mrs. A. W. Blanchard. Recitation, Miss Hill. Piano-forte solo, Miss L. Addison. Reading, "Setting the Hen." J. Patterson. Comic Chorus, Recitation, "The Under the Bed." Miss Flora Black. Recitation, "Trouble in the Amen Corner." Miss Nora Stevens. Closing chorus.

At the conclusion of the programme the chairman called upon the Rev. W. Service and Mr. B. Loverin, who each gave brief speeches. On motion of Mr. Eaton, seconded by Mr. Barry, a resolution of sympathy with the Principal in his bereavement was unanimously carried. It was announced that the Society would probably give a grand public entertainment on the evening of the 25th inst.

Elbe Mills.
 MARCH 14.—Miss Jennie Tweedy, who has spent the winter in Barrie, has returned here, and reports very severe weather in the west.

Messrs. Fay and Chapman have purchased a tomatoe and cedar lot from Thos. Dixie, and have men and teams drawing timber to the mills at this place. The timber is for railway purposes.

Charleston.
 MARCH 14.—We are pleased to hear that our friend Mr. Duffield is recovering. He was able to take a drive the other day with one of our pleasant young men, and went as far as the great railway dump at Phillipsville.

Miss Eveline Morris, of Wiaraton, formerly of Lansdowne Rear, is visiting her many friends in this vicinity.

A party of young folks left Lansdowne Rear for Chantry last week, with the intention of spending a few days with the Pritchards. We wish them a pleasant visit.

If this warm weather continues much longer, we may look for the pleasant face of our friend, the oars man, with his boat.

Farmersville sportsmen are amusing themselves by fishing through the ice. A fourteen-pound pike was recently captured, and excellent salmon and whitefish have also been taken.

Our general merchant is preparing to augment his already large stock of merchandise by the addition of new spring goods.

Elgin.
 MARCH 14.—An old resident, Mrs. Thompson, has passed away, aged 79. The funeral service was held by Rev. T. McGannon, Methodist minister. Her remains were placed in the vault.

We are pleased to learn that our enterprising friend Mr. R. G. Murphy, has decided to remain on the farm, in spite of all the allurements of Southern California.

The Westport Glee Club gave a concert here on Thursday night. People were very much pleased with the singing of Mrs. Frank Reynolds. The play "Bolts and Bars" was well acted. The little girls who sang "Bicy a broom" acquitted themselves nicely.

Proceeds $23.00, which we understand will be given to the English Church, Westport.

Mr. Gershom Wing has secured the position of cheesemaker in the Union factory, Elgin. He has also formed another Union by taking to himself a wife in the person of Hattie Wolf. He is now the happiest looking man to be seen on the streets of Elgin.

The New England Tea held here on February 14th was a great success. Proceeds, $100.00, to be applied on parsonage fund.
