WHIRLED TO DEATH.

Playful Carclessness,

A Jersey City despatch says : A horrible accident occurred in the smoking and fine cut department of Lorrillard's Tobacco Pactory, this city, about 2 o'clock, which resulted in the death of Mrs. Honora down and the girls were standing about chatting, waiting for the paymaster to come along. While waiting for the paymaster Mrs. Perrine went over to the opposite end of the room to chat with her friend, Miss Cosgrove. Only two of the machines were running, and the two inch belts from all the others had been detached from the pulleys and were hanging loose on the revolving shaft. Despite the warnings of Miss Cosgrove, Mrs. Perrine sat in one of the loose beltings and began swinging as she would have done in a scup, holding fast to the belt with both hands a little way above her head. The girl's weight acted as a pressure upon the belt, which suddenly comabove, with a frightful crash. The girl's and arms became entangled in a shaft of the trouble between them is supposed to the assertion of His Lordship. and she died soon afterwards.
