

CASTLES IN THE AIR.

New York Magazines... build a Grand Cathedral.

A New York despatch says: New York was astonished to-day to learn that a project was on foot to build in the Empire City a mammoth Protestant Episcopal Cathedral...

THE QUEEN'S DONKEY.

A rather novel present from the London Costermongers. The costermongers of London have become imbued with Jubilee enthusiasm...

In the Spring.

For eight months the best-natured creature in the world is the best-natured creature in the world...

"Bridget, I can not find the kitchen dishes."

"Dishees, ma'am? and it's in the asheer they are!"

"Bridget, what have you done with the bed and table linen?"

"Rags, ma'am! What could you be expecting after the cold weather?"

"And I'm thinking so, myself, ma'am. My family as I live in the winter ways get a new girl in the spring."

"Wearing Apparel in a Bottle."

Pretty Annie Pixley, a New York fortune, is quite as delightful and droll in private life as she is in public...

Without an instant's hesitation or confusion she replied: "Wearing apparel."

"Call that wearing apparel?"

"Yes, sir," demurely answered the little woman.

At Senator Schultz's Committee of Enquiry into the Northwest natural food products...

"Fighting in South America."

A Panama despatch says: A veritable funeral party recently took place near Meriden, Yucatan, Mexico.

The following cable message addressed to the Consul of Geneva at Panama from Guastaguil, under date of May 21st, has been received:

"Well, my girl," said Superintendent Jackson to a young Irish woman who happened to be the only one of her nationality aboard a big steamship filled with Scotch sailors.

"I've been aching to fight that man for a year past."

"Why don't you, then?"

"I did the other day, and I am aching still."

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The following Bills were introduced and read a first time in Ontario Pacific Junction Railway Co.—Mr. Hykert.

To incorporate the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Co.—Mr. Small.

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Mr. White (Castwell), replying to Mr. Mallory, said that the reason for the delay in the Government's action in respect of the proposed railway was due to the fact that the Government was waiting for the results of the arbitration...

Sam Jones on the Married State.

There is many an old mother-in-law that has kicked up the devil right long and hard.

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

There is many a good mother-in-law. I have known a good one. But when you get hold of a bad one, my, my, my, an old meddlesome creature, she won't go to bed without saying to her husband: "Tell me, my sister, as God is my judge, listen—the most sacred relationship of life ought never to be interfered with by a meddling woman."

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

The local subscription to the Queen's (Kingston) endowment amounts to $39,000, exclusive of Mr. J. Carruthers' $10,000.

Thomas, the 7-year-old son of James Kavanagh, of Kingston, fell off the wharf at Kingston last night, and was drowned.

A deputation from the Montreal Bar will proceed to Ottawa to-day to urge on the Minister of Justice the necessity for an increase in the salaries of judges.

The specifications for the railway to the boundary have been prepared, and tenders for its construction are being called for by the Manitoba Government.

The wife of J. W. Bell, M. P., has received a letter from him at the Toronto hospital, and speaks of his recovery of health and probably early return to his home.

The body of Mr. Gillespie, a young married man who disappeared from his home at Kingston about a month ago, was found in the Niagara River at Youngstown on Friday afternoon.

St. Joan Baptist Society of Ottawa has adopted an address to the Queen, and, in connection with the French population of Ottawa, congratulated the Queen on attaining to the fiftieth year of her reign.

A memorial from Quebec and Montreal shipping agents and leading captains of the St. Lawrence urging the despatch of a harbor of refuge at Father Point will shortly be forwarded to Ottawa.

On Saturday afternoon a farmer named Wm. Kirkpatrick, while driving across the Grand Trunk track ten miles east of Kingston, was struck by an engine and killed. His body was carried several miles on the cowcatcher.

A burglar went through four of the boarders' clothes in Mrs. Graham's boarding house on Park avenue, London, yesterday morning, and secured three watches, one chain, one gold and two silver. The burglar was left unfastened.

In reply to an inquiry whether Lord Lansdowne could accept an invitation to visit Montreal, which is being extended in celebration, His Excellency states that owing to previous engagements for the same event he is unable to leave Ottawa.

On Saturday afternoon the body of a female infant was found buried in the gravel on the river bed near Kensington Bridge, London. An inquest was held at a post mortem made, but owing to the decomposed condition of the body it was difficult to determine whether the child was born alive or not. The inquest was adjourned for a week.

Efforts are being made by the city of Hull to compel the New Eddy Manufacturing Company to pay the Roman Catholic Public Schools a revision to incorporate the Separate or Protestant school rate, amounting to $800 a year, the Catholic rate amounting to $4,000. The company will contest the payment.

William Embledon, aged 21, a resident of Harvey, Ont., was killed by a train on the New Brunswick Railway, near Magalloway Station. He was coupling cars loaded with logs, standing between the cars when they jammed together, jamming Embledon's head to a jolly between the ends of two logs.

The Greek Government intend negotiating for a gold loan of $30,000,000. The final estimate of the victims of the Paris Opera Comique places the number at 130.

Prince Bismarck is anxious for a renewal of the Triple Alliance, and desires that the last.

The Hessian Government are following the Prussian Government in abandoning the conflict with the Vatican.

Two officers, said to have belonged to the United States army and navy respectively, have committed suicide at Monte Carlo.

Dr. Morell Mackenzie, M. P., will perform a second operation on Crown Prince Frederick William's throat on Wednesday.

Gen. Ferron, the new French Minister of War has offered Gen. Boulanger the command of an army corps, but Gen. Boulanger has asked for a few months' rest.

Prof. Stein, the eminent political economist of Berlin, has issued a pamphlet dealing with the military importance to Great Britain of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The Empress of Germany is greatly endeared. She does not venture to walk in the grounds of the palace any more, her daily excursions being limited to that derived from being seated in a chair.

King Christian IX, of Denmark has paid a visit to his daughter, the Duchess of Cumberland, at the asylum at Penzing. The condition of the Duchess is unchanged.

King's assassin, Franz Vienna incognito, visited the Emperor.

The Amer of Bokhara has dismissed all the officials of his Government found intriguing against Russia. He has informed the Governor of Turkestan that he and his subjects are impatiently waiting for the great link which will connect their country with Russia and diffuse civilization throughout Central Asia.

A considerable amount of Central Asia has been opened up for settlement to Russia over the extension of the Trans-Caspian Railway to Samarkand, in Asiatic Russia. Russia has forbidden that Chinese should be allowed to settle in the Pacific coast. They will only be allowed to lease estates outside of towns.

The New Zealand Government, Sir Robert Stout, Premier, was defeated in a test vote taken in the Colonial Parliament on Wednesday. The Ministry resigned, and Parliament was dissolved on an appeal to the country taken. The regular elections have been set for September 1st.

There has been a general dissatisfaction in the colony for some time past over Sir Julius Vogel's land nationalization scheme and his general management of the Department of Finance, and it is very probable that Mr. Seddon, the popular leader of the Opposition, will be returned to power.

Sir Charles Dillie's remarkable article in the Fortnightly Review of the month, concerning the land nationalization scheme, speaking at Wolverhampton Friday night, ended by scaring John Bull seriously concerning the lamentable state of his finances.

Sir Charles, speaking from diplomatic knowledge, and from his position in the most positive terms that any war between one of the great European Powers and England would involve a foreign invasion of the British Isles.

Lord Randolph, speaking from knowledge, acquired as Cabinet Minister, asserts that Malta, one of the principal strongholds of Great Britain in Europe, is not provided with a sufficient amount of ammunition for more than three weeks.

Mr. W. Reid, editor of the New York Tribune, has been dangerously ill for the last few weeks of typhoid fever. He will recover.

The annual meeting of the American Medical Association will be held in Chicago on Tuesday, June 7th, and will continue in session until the 14th following. From 1,000 to 1,500 physicians and surgeons are expected to be present.

A New York despatch says the report that Walter P. Reuther, general manager of the United Press, has been discovered by the St. Lawrence, is an error. Mr. Phillips is at present in New York and in his usual health.

A Texas & Pacific express train was robbed by four masked men, eight miles west of Fort Worth, Texas, on Saturday night, and $1,300 was taken from the express.

She Broke the King's Heart.

because she saw that he had ceased to love her. Her beauty had faded, her former high spirits had given place to a dull lassitude.

What had caused this change? Functional derangement, she was suffering from those ailments peculiar to her sex. And so their two young lives drifted apart. How needless, how cruel! Had she taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription she might have been restored to health and happiness.

If any lady reader of these lines is similarly afflicted, let her lose no time in procuring the "Favorite Prescription." It will give her a new lease of life. Sold by druggists under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers of perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. See guarantee on bottle wrapper.

They Don't Wear Pants. "Mamma," exclaimed a precocious New York boy, "the policeman of Boston don't wear pants."

"Gracious!" exclaimed the scandalous lady, "you don't tell me."

"It's a fact," persisted the boy, "they wear trousers!" —Life.

Meat and Cold is a never-failing cause of disease. At this season of the year neuralgia, toothache, and a host of similar diseases are rampant.

The greatest question, then, is to find the quickest, surest, and most economical remedy. Polson's Nerveless exactly fills these requirements. It is prompt, efficient and most economical, for it succeeds in averting every known remedy, and is accepted as inferior articles. A 10 cent sample bottle will give every person a chance to test it. Large bottle $5 cents.

A workman in a vineyard in Napa Valley, Cal., committed suicide the other day by jumping into a cask of wine and drowning.

We ought not to be too anxious to encourage untried innovations in cases of doubtful improvement. For a quarter of a century Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been the severest test and it pronounced the most reliable remedy for that disagreeable malady. Thousands of testimonials of its virtues. 50 cents per bottle. By druggists.

The "infernal machines" received by Inspector Byrnes, Capt. Williams and the British Consul at New York on Saturday were fired cartridges manufactured in New York. The cartridges are filled with mineral cotton and are perfectly harmless. When saturated with kerosene oil they are ignited and used for kindling fires. They were sent as a joke.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of these chronic, irritable and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Clinic, is a strong recommendation of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

As a woman's invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, particularly for overworked and worn-out, run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses and skilful cooks, keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally.

As a soothing and strengthening agent, it is invaluable in allaying nervousness, relieving nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms, and is especially attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and depression.

Dr. Pierce's