noon, at the Westminster County Court Lady Constance Howard, the daughter of the Earl of Winchelsea and sister of the late Lord Maidstone, appeared to answer a judgment summons at the instance of Mr. Quantrell, furniture dealer, of Wardour street, Oxford street. Judge Bayley asked the defendant if she was married? The Lamentable Blunder by a "Served-Himdefendant replied in the affirmative, but added that her father had stopped her allowance of £200 a year, and she was entirely dependent on her husband, who is the second son of the Earl of Effingham. In superior court, during which the defendant had declared that she had an allowance from her father, the Earl of Winchelsea whereupon the defendant explained that since then the allowance had been stopped. The judge said that he had no power to commit a married woman without a separate income, and dismissed the summons.
