The Passengers Jump Into the Lake-A Number of Them Drowned.

A special from Charlevoix says: The Steamer Champlain, of the Northern Michigan line, bound for Cheboygan from Chicago, was burned at midnight between Norwood and Charlevoix, at the mouth of the Grand Traverse Bay. The boat was running ten miles an hour when flames suddenly shot up from beneath the engine, driving the engineer from his post with his clothes on fire. He ran to the hurricane deck, plunged into a tank, and then A number of private Bills passed through the country, and always had born the sleeping passengers alarm was given, the sleeping passengers had been fastened to all, they gathered on the been fastened to all, they gathered on the forward deck. Two life boats and life rafts were lowered, but the steamer was running so fast that they got away. In ten fire the passengers were all compelled to jump into the lake. The steward says there were 57 persons on board, including

The lost are as follows : Ella Cooper ; Smith, Robert Wilkes and George W. Risley, of Charlevoix; Mrs. R. M. Kehoe, R. McKill, Steward Bears, two children, aged 3 and 5 years, of Chicago; Captain Lucas, of Petoskey; Henry Brennan, the clerk and Chicago; Mr. Russell, of the Jackson, Mich., Corset Company; a gentleman, a boy from Milwaukee bound for Mackinac, one waiter and four Indian deckhands, a lady and her daughter from Frankford, names unknown.

Those saved floated an hour and a half, bosts from the shore. Several of the saved convictions, but yet had not been able to under contract. were badly burned. There are seven unac. establish general respect for the law. counted for, the above list of lost comprising only those known to have perished. The boat burned to the hull and has been towed here. It is impossible now to tell the cause of the fire, but it is thought it may have been caused by a lamp exploding. Seven bodies have already been recovered. The Champlain was valued at $10,000.

A TORONTO MAN

At Buffalo Wants Possession of His Two Daughters and $20,000.

A Buffalo despatch says: Quite a sensational arrest was made on Thursday night about 11 o'clock by Detective Watts. It appears that a day or two ago Hugh Cameron, a commercial traveller living in Toronto, arrived in the city and registered at the Broezel House. Cameron, it is stated, home in Toronto, with a wife and two childid not go just as it should, and he and his wife parted company. She went to a boarding house and he continued his business on the road, the two little girls having | both amendments. been placed in a private boarding-school in Toronto. This arrangement went along for a while, but it is claimed Mrs. Camerou finally left that city and came to Buitalo as the wife of A. T. Kerr, who has broker's office in this city and several other towns. During Cameron's stay here he had obtained an order from the courts, with the assistance of his attorney, Leroy Andrus, for the custody of the two little gods who have for some months past been at the Holy tending to take them to Toronto. Their took her children away, but only a few This created music, and Mr. Cameron then swore out a warrant for the arrest of Kerr. He was found at his home, and spent last] night in a cell at the station house on a charge of attempted abduction. He said to a Courier reporter that the whole thing was late hour succeeded in finding bail.

time came. Mrs. Cameron and her two

Going to the Dark Continent. AlWashington despatch says: In a repor. to the Department of State from Goree Duka, Africa, United States Consul Strickland calls attention to the absorption of African trade by Germans. He says : " Formerly Americans had quite a monopoly of African liquor traffic, and not longer than six months ago New England rum and alcohol arrived at Goree sometimes in quantities of 1,000 barrels in one shipment. The Germans by establishing a line of steamers to this coast from Hamburg have now got nearly all of this trade, and are besides introducing rapidly other cheap articles of

German manufacture. The Germans

much attention. Now they have eight new the English and other competitors on ac. | ville -38. count of the extreme cheapness of their Bain Wentworth, Baird, Barron, Bechard, Ber at 32 cents per gallon, and forms the basis | Carpenter, Cartwright Sir Richard, Casey, Casof most of the sparkling beverages with | Cook, Daly, Davies, Davin, Dawson, Denison, gale himself. It is surprising to see the

The picnic season is here in full blast, An editor who evidently "has been catarrh, liver complaint, kidney disorder, there thus soliloquizes: "Now let us to McIntyre, McKay, McLeian, McMillan (Huron), McKay, McLeian, the woodlands hie where trees their verdure | McMillan | McMillan | Wandrenin | Wand wrap, for spring no longer lingers in old burly winters lap. In picnic garb we'll Mallock Obrien Paterson Brant Perley (As) amble forth and sit beneath the trees, and simbola Perley Ottawa, Perry Platt, Porter, sustained the Government in the position have ear! hides all chopped and backed, Prefentame, Parcell, Patnam, Real, Robertson | they took on the fisheries question, but he with stings of bumble bees. We'll garly Shelburne, Ross, Royal the Marie, Scarch, don our linen coats, and thin segrsucker senger, semple, Shakespeare, Somerville, speaking too much of the advantages He was very fond of fords. One day the Times must have increased the dread of pants, and sit beside the gargling biream. | Sproute, Tayler, Temple, Therien, Thomsson, | Canada would derive from a reciprocity, pants, and sit beside the garging stream.

While o'r us crawl the ants. We'll swallow wallow which people make by scaking one cheap Wilson Argentent, Wilson Elgina Wilson might be used against us. He would suglepter in a tub. The pulless sandwich we Lennos Wood Westmoreland Wright-145. shall cat devent the clammy pie, and at Mr. Gironard's wine and beer amer on bowls of quetard while a tear bedims | ment was then put and lost. Yeas, 45; | position as the Americans. (Hear, hear.) our eye. We'll tip the mustard in the jam. | mays, 138.

To Girl Graduates.

Be just as sweet as you can. The man under sanction of the law.

· A North Carolina clergyman not only The House then divided on Mr. Jamie. * try had entire control of its own affairs.

A fashionable New York lady would not : nays, 1 2. composed entirely of islands.

west Council as wide as the franchise for deaths of its members. Though the age of the Dominion Parliament, by reducing the number of nominated members of the unexpected than that of the late member on the convention of 1818; we stated and the Government would take charge of the the session must have been far from ex- not in any way, in the most remote degree, second reading was fixed for to-morrow.

a failure. The Government was in the suffered. best position to say whether or not the law Mr. White (Renfrew) also paid a tribute every country has territorial jurisdiction St. Thomas, where the Scott Act was car- intimately acquainted. ried by only thirteen votes, liquor was now Mr. Patterson (Essex) asked the question of the British Empire. Therefore there sold openly, without concealment. The he had given notice of as to the enforce- can be no compromise on that point. There the motion to repeal the Scott Act, and question the other day by my hou, friend limit is reckoned from a line drawn from would vote for the Prohibition resolution. who has asked this question and by the headland to headland and not from the would vote for the Prohibition resolution. Who has asked this question and by the Headland to headland the majority of the people of the country. for the repeal of the Scott Act, as he favored | migrants under contract for work was | Mr. Mills-And the courts.

a return to the license system. claring that temperance was a virtue which | understood that the Act when passed by | Mr. Mitchell-Their several States mainmust be enforced by moral suasion, but was | Congress was intended to prevent an influx | tain the same thing, as, for instance, Chesapposed to the repeal of the Scott Act. It being 6 o'clock the Speaker left the

After recess. Mr. McMullen said that while he must the Act if dissatisfied with it. He did not ernment officials on the frontier. Of course, the position that a fishing vessel is one up to a couple of years ago had a pleasant | believe the Scott Act would effect the result | what Canada may do in the matter will thing and a trading vessel another; that a hoped for and would prefer prohibition. depend very much on the result of the fishing vessel, simply by getting a trading dren, both girls, and now aged respectively He thought there should be a plebiscite in 5 and 7 years. Everything, apparently, order o ascertain the views of the people. He called upon the leader of the Government to advise the House on the subject. He would vote for prohibition and against

Act had been an utter failure. Since it places had been increased. Neverthele

Angels' Academy, on Porter avenue, in- But he could not vote for a prohibition law, Statutes, chapter 173, and substitute think a single step has been taken or will what was going on, went to the convent and of Canada, the vast area of woods and although they may not be persons usually conference with the Canadian Government, minutes before the officers, in company with were hundreds of farmers who manufac. extend it to all persons who are employed I think it would not be well that I should Mr. Cameron, arrived for the same purpose. tured their own beer and sold it, must feel in or about a vessel, to load or unload it, speak further. I believe that the Govern-[hibition. He was at one time as strong and ing on board the vessel at the time; the best sense of the word. A democratic a piece of spite work to punish him. He was very indignant over his arrest and said] he could square himself when the proper tavern for their liquor now brought it home | that has been completed. and children were educated to the sight of Mr. Mitchell gave his hearty approval to friendly to the extension of commercial drinking and drunkenness. Hotel-keepers | the Bill. He thought any interference with | relations with Canada, and I can say that children were before Judge Hatch yesterday afternoon. Lawyer Andrus, for Cameron, kept their bars open as before and sold free labor should be put cown. urged an immediate settlement of the case, without concealment. They had a good Sir John Macdonald introduced a Bill they can to foster that feeling, and to but as Mrs. Cameron's lawyer was not morning. Meantime Sheriff Gilbert takes charge of the children. Mr. Kerr, who is under arrest in a civil suit brought by wise drink to excess when represented to the Government that owing received from the American Government to Cameron for $20,000 damages for alienation an attempt was made to force them to to the large influx of settlers who had Lord Salisbury's latest proposal. of his wife's affections, had not up to a refrain. The law was a disastrous failure, gone in recently, fully half the settlers Sir John Macdonald said he was not in and not only that, but people began to look under the present law would be practically a position to state that. thing. Under moral sussion good progress election would take place for two years. He believed it was in the interest of Canada He therefore asked leave to introduce a He believed it was in the interest of Canada

> it was repealed. a success in Nova Scotia. He spoke strongly representation consequent on the increase the fishery officers were explicit from the in favor of prohibition and restrictive liquor of the population of that country. laws generally.

Mr. Jamieson spoke briefly against the amendment. Scott Act was lost. Yeas, 37; nays, 145. Following is the list:

YEAS-Messrs, Amyot, Baker, Bergin, per month, which at first did not attract Hickey, Kenny, Labelle, Labrosse, Macdonald urgent request of the Opposition to take not have been a single seizure. Canada Sir John MacDowall, McGreevy, Madill, steps to secure the renewal of the Wash. had thousands of miles of coast along ones, averaging perhaps sixteen hundred | Skinner, Small, Smith Ontario, Stevenson, Tyrtons each. They seem to be gaining on whitt. Ward, Weldon St. John. Wood (Brock-

> Kirkpatrick, Landry, Lang, Langelier Que. position so suddenly of those stringent overheating and lack of out door and other bee Langevin Sir Hector, Livingston, regulations naturally gave rise to very exercises, second, insufficient friction o

who have invested their money in the trade | Canadian Government were recommended |

graduate is a villain or married. Tie the question of compensation, being a de- upon a treaty seventy years old, which did for working-women. your casay with a blue ribbon, and be tail of prohibition, the wight time to dis. not permit Americans to come in and purpractical in the choice of a subject. We cass it will be when the details of a prohi- chase bait or coal if they wanted to buy. suggest "The Coming Man. - Buffalo bitory measure are before the House. | Looking at the negotiations which had been Mr. Fisher's amendment was carried, going on, he had come to the conclusion

Yeas, 91 : nays, 84, 1 refused to marry an eloping couple, but son's prohibition resolution, as amended We had gone too much on the a samption arrested the bride and telegraphed her soy Mr. Fisher's amendment postponing that the United States Government could ning of the "pottery craze," and is now father that, he held her subject to his consideration of the question of compensa. be forced to make a reciprocity treaty, but said to have an income of $200,000 a year. tion. The motion was 'lost-yeas, 70; he thought that time had passed.

There is a county in Florida which is | House had suffered by the death of Mr. | tion. Campbell, of Renfrew. Mr. Campbell, Sir John Macdonald said-I think the to bury their victims.

entering the House late in life, did not take request of the hon. gentleman is only minent part in debates. None could reasonable one. This is a matter of great Mr. McDowall introduced a Bill to amend assuming manner, combined with close the Northwest Territories Act, by making attention to his duties. This session the have passed between the two Governments the franchise for members of the North- House had suffered more than usual from and he could not disapprove of the position Council from six to four, and making for Restigouche (Mr. Moffat) and the mem- | we held to it that the change of years and elections once every three years instead of ber for Digby (Mr. Campbell) still those the commercial treaties between England once every two years. He said he hoped who met Mr. Campbell in the early part of and the United States did not and could Bill, and the Opposition would not oppose pecting that they would so soon be called affect the terms of the convention of 1818. t. upon to moura his loss. Mr. Campbell was, That convention was made with due he believed, for many years engaged in deliberation. It was a matter of mutual mercantile pursuits in his own section of concession, in which a good deal was given of Fanny Margaret Riddle, were passed without a division being actually taken, Lir Hector Langevin stating that those members who opposed all divorces on principal joined in the regret expressed at the loss of had expressed their views of voting against the Bill for the relief of Marie Louise Noel. The House who knew him looked upon him expressed terms of the Treaty of Washing-Discussion on the Prohibition resolutions | with more than mere cold regard. His ton, recognized the existence of that treaty. kindly manner, his evident sincerity of We hold that in watching our waters we Mr. Casey said he could not vote for Mr. purpose won the good-will of all. Those are only defending our rights, and indeed Cargill's amendment for the repeal of the opposed to the hon, gentleman politically, we may go still further and contend if Scott Act. He was not in a position to say not less than those who agreed with him, there was no convention we are an indethat the Canada Temperance Act had been | would regret the loss the House had pendent country - independent of the

was a failure, as it was their duty to en- of respect to the memory of Mr. Campbell, and control in every way, administrative, force it. He could not say the Scott Act as one representing an adjoining consti- executive and legislative; over three miles had been a success in his constituency. In tuency, and one with whom he was of water on its coasts. That is necessary

Inspector in West Elgin was an ardent ment by the United States authorities are only two questions on which there may Prohibitionist and had done his best to against Canadians in border towns of their arise any difference of opinion or contenenforce the law. He had obtained many laws prohibiting the entrance of laborers | tion. The first is the headland question.

We adhere to the position taken by the permit from an American customs collec-

when it likes. We hold on that question extremely friendly to Canada, extremely the Canadian Government are doing all

Mr. Mitchell said he agreed in the main

Mr. Foster said the instructions given to first, that they should keep cruising on their necessary for obtaining supplies would per-

any particular time, consequently vessels

The Foes to a Fine Complexion.

Sir John Macdonald replied-The atten- British Government from the time of Lord Mr. Lister said he would vote against | tion of the Government was called to this Bathurst until now, that the three-mile uninformed before, that the Act preventing | dealing with that question in the bstract, Mr. Wood (Brockville) said he would vote | the reception in the United States of im- agree with us. to be put in force along our inland Sir John Macdonald-And the courts. Mr. Bechard opposed prohibition, de. | waters and our frontiers. It was well There is little doubt about that. of immigrants from Europe. It seems to peake Bay and Delaware Bay. us to be a very forced construction and a Sir John Macdonald-The several States very unfriendly course, and the Govern- maintain that they have sovereign rights ment of Canada will make inquiry to see within those bays. The only other queswhether the Act really will be pressed by tion is as to bait, whether under the treaty say the Scott Act had not been a success in the Government of the States. The American fishermen cannot enter into our his county, yet he could not vote to rescind impression we have is this: It is over harbors as traders and purchase bait and it, because the county had power to repeal | zeal on the part of the United States Gov. | deal generally as traders. We have taken communications received.

Mr. Mills-That would require legisla- tor, cannot change its character and be a

Si r John Macdenald-Yes. Mr. McNeill said that in Bruce the Scott | ing threats, intimidation and other offences. | make Canadian waters a basis for their He explained that Mr. Amyotthe other day fishing operations, by which they are came into force the number of drinking had called his attention to circumstances to supply the American markets with which, in his judgment, required the fish and keep us out. There is no doubt he would vote against every proposition urgent disposition of his Bill for the pro- in my mind that on that point too now before the House, because they would | tection of ship laborers, but he (Mr. Thomp- | we are in the right. I am glad to say deprive the people of the right of local | son) was only able to acquiesce in Mr. | that Her Majesty's Government have fully option which Parliament had given them. Amyot's suggestion for the removal of cer- sustained us. There has not been the Mr. Bergin said prohibition was an tain defects in the present enactment of the slightest expression of a disinclination to interference with private rights, but in nature of technical defects. The Bill he sustain the legal right of Canada. Meanview of the great public good intended to be | now asked leave to introduce was to while correspondence has been going on, of gained he was a Prohibitionist on principle. repeal section 11 of the Revised which we are duly informed. I do not because prohibition could not be enforced. | one to extend the first protection of be taken by Her Majesty's representative swamps, any one who knew that there engaged in that business; secondly, to and I may say further, without our assent. that it was impossible to carry, out pr. - although they may not be actually work- ment of the United States are friendly in advocate of the Scott Act as anybody, but | thirdly, to make it penal to assault or | Government of that kind, dependent very now that the Scott Act had passed in his beat any person for having worked for any much every four years, at all events, on the own county, what did he find? They had vessel. The present law restricted the popular voice, is pledged to take a course twelve hotels kept by good and sober men. penalty to persons who assault those perhaps not so direct as Governments Now they had from 150 to 200 unlicensed actually engaged in working, but not affect- otherwise constituted, but I believe that groggeries. Men who formerly went to ti ing those assaulted in connection with work the Government of President Cleveland is inspector and an upright and honest magis- respecting the Northwest Coancil. He anticipate the time when we may hope trate, but conviction was impossible. There | said the elections to the Northwest Council | there will be enlarged commercial relations was a certain "cussedness," in human nature | would ordinarily take place next October; | between Canada and the United States. which led men who would not other but members from the Territories had Mr. Jones asked if an answer had been upon defiance of the law as rather a noble disfranchised next October and no other retrogression under this attempt at prohi- Bill continuing the existing Northwest to maintain the most cordial and friendly bition was fearfully rapid. It was a sad Council in office until next session of Par. relations with the States, and he thought day for his county when the Scott Act was liament, when the Government would be Mr. Foster should give instructions to his carried, and it would be a happy day when prepared to come down with a measure officers to avoid a repetition of the irritatre-dividing the whole of the Northwest and ing seizures of last year. Mr. Freeman said the Scott Act had been | making the necessary alterations in the

On item 120, $5,000 to provide for the various beats and keep out of the harbors cost of maintenance and repairs of fishery just as much as the weather and what was protection steamers and vessels, Mr. Cargill's amendment to repeal the Mr. Davies regretted that the appropria. mit them to do. Whenever vessels entered tion was asked for without any report being a harbor they were boarded. The protecbrought down from the officers in charge of tion fleet had to keep continually on the the fishery protection service during the cruise and to keep the American vessels past year. He believed that if the Govern- outside the three-mile limit. If they had ment had years ago complied with the been successful in that then there would

Mr. Flynn thought that during the last might find their way within the threeseason a great deal of annoyance was given mile limit and a cruiser not always on date customers. Hamburg alcohol is offered Brien Brown Bryson Cameron Campbell Kent), to American fishermen by unnecessarily hand, but that there had not been diliharsh customs exactions. In one case, to gence in cruising there was not a shadow of his own knowledge, an American fishing proof. which the simon pure African loves to re- De St. Georges, Desjardins, Dessaint, Doyon, captain called at a Nova Scotia port to The item passed. Duchesney, Dupont, Edgar, Edwards, Eisen | land the effects of a Canadian sailor in his employ, who had been drowned in the

Girouard, Godbont, Gerdon, Grandboit, Guay, who were Canadians, went ashore, and for plexion, though manifold, may usually be deprecated the idea of Canadian statesmen gest to the Government that steps be taken to place the French fishermen in the same who doesn't like to look upon a sweet girl | Mr. Fisher moved in amendment that absurd in his (Mr. Ellis') view to stand New York for a projected apartment-house presented the man with a whole town. that it would be for the better if this coun-

THE BODYKE EVICTIONS.

A last (Thursday) night's London cable afternoon Col. King-Harman, Under-Secretary for Ireland, in reply to the ques- to death at Levis, Que., on Saturday b ernment were powerless to suspend | igniting her clothing. evictions in Ireland. They would be suspended, however, during the period that Crimes Bill, Mr. Dillon moved to adjourn in order togall the attention of the House to the Bodyke evictions. The Government, he said, had refused to appoint a committee to be opened for traffic about the same on bottle wrapper. Large bottles, $1. Six to inquire into the matter. He was therefore bound to demand an open discussion in Parliament. The eviction of thirty-five families had disclosed featuresof the greatest harshness. Landlord Callaghan, ever since he got possession of the estate, had mercial union. Owing to the number of husband (who has paced the floor with been raising the rents without expending a speakers the meeting was adjourned till shilling for improving the property. The next Saturday, when suitable resolutions . result was that one of the most industrious sets of tenants in Ireland had been ruined. When Rev. Dr. Wilson left Kingston

United States-and it is understood that report of press correspondents and other evening. witnesses of the evictions was against the police. The police had acted brutally, the North Ward, Brantford, on Saturday in action, wonderful in effect! Put up in making wanton attacks upon women and evening while playing and when found was vials, convenient to carry. Their use children. Seeing the public interest in the dead. The mother, Mrs. Robert Hay, of attended with no discomfort! These sterto the independence of Canada as a portion matter, the Government ought to grant a Richmond, Que, is the wife of the Super. ling merits account for their great committee of inquiry the same as it had intendent of the Atlantic Division of the popularity. after the Bolfast riots.

MY. Balfour said there was no justice in the accident occurred. comparing the events at Bodyke with the events in Belfast. He asked why Mr. Dillon raised the question at the present time. waggon laden with timber ran away at the received by him when he was in poor cirmust report the Crimes Bill on Friday. station, and the driver, Samuel McConnell, The precious hours that were being wasted of West Nissouri, aged about 40, was disreports as a basis for procedure, especially when such reports were highly colored. (Cries of "Oh, oh," and "Hear, hear." He had no knowledge of the details of the alleged police assaults. Mr. T. P. Healy-More shame for you Mr. Balfour-But considering the treatment the police have received it is not surprising if, in some slight measure, they he ve exceeded their duty. He would not says that deceased was prompted to say a word in support of the evictions, the act by the fact that a young woman which would not have occurred if Mr. Cal. with whom he was on too intimate terms laghan had taken his advice. (Cries of ' Hear, hear.") What really prevented the Government's amending this state of Mrs. Colwell, of Byron, with two chilaffairs was the action of those who inter- | aren and a lady friend, were driving over posed between the Government's Land the clay bridge at the Cove, London, on Bill an endless and useless discussion over Saturday, when a horse and buggy driven the Crimes Bill. (Cheers from the Con- by a drunken soldier collided with them, servatives.) The resistance to the law at knocking the ladies and children with their fishing vessel when it likes and a trader Bodyke was incited by persons who ought | rig off the bridge and into the Cove. Forto have known better. (Hear, hear.) He tunately no one was injured, though the the Revised Statutes, chapter 173, respect- fishermen have no right to come in and protested against the doctrine that was buggy was badly smashed. Two county sons that the proper way to amend the law | captured the volunteer, who had taken off was to break it: (Cheers.) Therefore, he his red coat and made for the woods. Hi urged that the best means to secure a remedy was to procure the legal amen d

> ment needed On Tuesday evening the windows of the Presbyterian Church at Parsonstown were smashed, and the furniture in the vestry was destroyed. The Catholic inhabitants at a meeting to-day-the parish priest presiding-pledged themselves to do their utmost to bring the miscreants to justice. A last (Friday) night's London cable says: When the debate was resumed on (which deals with the proclaiming of dangerous associations), the consent of both uttermost. If there was a national danger | markets in the south of Russia. demanding such exceptional powers Parliament might be trusted to confer the necessary authority.

Mr. Balfour opposed the amendment. Mr. Gladstone said the section of the House most responsible as guardians of the Irish liberties were the Irish members. Was it henceforth to be understood that the desires of the Irish members on such sabjects would be sufficient to make it the duty of the Government to provide oppor tunities for discussion? (Cries of "Hear." Mr. Dillon declared that the belief was universal in Ireland that the Bill was mainly directed against the National League. The powers which the clause put Lord Salisbury's speech in the House of passages, discharges falling from the head misery and hatred in Ireland.

n vote of 233 to 161. character of the clause. While he was tility in the Lower House. speaking the hour of 10 arrived. The Min- Shortly after the men employed in the isterial benches rapidly filled, members Twin shaft at l'ittston Junction, Pa., had pouring in from the lobbies. The Parnel gone to work on Saturday morning there lites simultaneously arose and left the was a violent explosion, which was heard House, the Chairman twice calling upon for miles around, and which caused rock, Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. them to resume their seats. Amid great | coal and timber to shoot out of the shaft | confusion a division was ordered and the like a violent volcanic cruption. The house clause was adopted by 332 to 163. The at the top of the shaft was smashed into a Gladstonians who went out returned after | thousand pieces. Five men were terribly the voting, but the division having been injured, some, perhaps all of them, fatally. declared they immediately arose in a body The victims are Patrick Barrett, Ed. catarrh. My family physician gave me up as and mithdren amid Conservative cheers. Mooney Bernard Demnsey Michael Finors incurable, and said I must die. My case was have been in a much better condition than possible to have a vessel at every point at and laurely and Conservative cheers Mooney, Bernard Dempsey, Michael Finors and laughter. The remaining clauses were and Martin Donohoe. Barrett and Mooney set, my voice would become so hourse I could then put and carried without comment and | will die. the Bill passed the committee stage, the Conservatives again cheering. The report stage of the Bill is fixed for the 27th inst.

must know that any plan of dealing with | tested, it stands without an equal! Any the Protestants apart from the rest of the druggist. Gen. Sherman, in his march to the sea, population of Ulster is impossible. The used to go out of his way to avoid a bridge. recent astounding revelations made by the army was to ford a river. For miles before | Ulster to be subjected to Parnellite rule." "Say, Bill, I guess we struck this river | but my judgment and conscience forbid it. If Ishave said a word that seems harsh or unfriendly. I will ask you to forgive it.

being considered luxuries for the rich.

Marc Antony was so pleased with a repast A thrifty husband at Boston had his

Christian Steinmets has been committed | Rife's portrait made into a fancy picture for trial at Exeter, charged with having out of respect to his second wife's feelings. engaged in a wheat swindle, with intent to The color of the eyes was changed, golden'

> day. He apologized for not replying to the welcome which he received. He was Prominent politicians in Montreal are who were loyal to the Ameer have now still confident that Mr. Chapleau's appoint- descrited hime The insurgents have prome and a first and

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Archbishop Fabre is dangerously ill from A 5-year-old girl named Begin was ! a od tion of Mr. Pease, Liberal, said the Govern- sparks from a pile of burning rubbish The Y. M. C. A. have collected $1,808 of wrong. Make a healthy woman of her and the necessary guarantee of $2,400 required; the chances are you will make a cheerful Parliament devoted to the Jubilee celebra- before commencing the erection of their and pleasant one. "Favorite Prescription" new building at Owen Sound.

> Railway at Lachine will be completed by | tive guarantee from the manufacturers the middle of next month, and the line | that it will give satisfaction in every case, from Smith's Falls to Montreal is expected or money will be refunded. See guarantee

A largely attended meeting of the Prince Edward County Farmers' Institute was held at Picton on Saturday to discuss comwill be presented.

It was on record that Mr. Callaghan, in re- over three years ago owing to his connec- is the way a Western man puts it in exfusing to abate rents, had said that tion with the Salvation Army it was pressing to a friend his complete satisfache would have no greater compunction in thought he would never preach in St. | tion in the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant putting a tenant out on the roadside than George's Cathedral, in which he was curate, Purgative Pellets. So small and yet so he would have in shooting a bird. (Cries again. Time works changes, as the doctor effectual, they bid fair to supplant entirely of "Shame.") The consensus of the occupied the pulpit in the Cathedral last | the old-style pill. An ever-ready remedy

Robbie Hay, aged 5, fell into a cistern in | constipation and all blood disorders. Mild G. T. R., and was visiting her sister when

Between 12 and I o'clock on Saturday afternoon a team of horses attached to a first railway crossing west of Dorchester head, and at latest accounts the doctor had the bench. The Lord Chief Justice not long no hopes of his recovery.

A native of France named Cyprien, 45 Justice Hawkins once inquired the first years old, proprietor of a small factory for name of Archer, the jockey; and now canning meat, committed suicide on Fri- Baron Huddleston, trying a breach of day night by deliberately jumping into the promise case, has found it necessary to St. Charles river from Dorchester bridge, have elucidated the meaning of the little Que. A bystander jumped after him, but crosses at the bottom of a love letter. But Cyprien refused to be gaved. Report when the big-wigs are off the bench-! had taken steps to compel him to marry.

name is Edward Cushman.

The British Board of Trade has approved the new Tay bridge, and it will be opened for traffic on Monday.

Returns from the elections for members of the Hungarian Diet have been received | cally scaled. Always tresh and reliable. As from 278 districts. These show the return a laxative, alterative, or purgative, of 184 Liberals, 77 Opportunists, 6 anti-Semites and la Independents. The Austrian Government is confident of having a larger majority than before. Any one who considered the vast frontier the Act to persons actually employed at Washington without consultation and the Crimes Bill this evening Mr. Fowler Serious election riots are reported. In (Liberal) moved an amendment requiring several places the Radicals set fire to the that before the enforcing of clause six headquarters of the Ministerial candidates. The crops in Podolis, Kieff and Bessarabia are excellent, while in Taurida, Houses of Parliament be obtained. This, Kherson and around Odessa they are he said, was the most dangerous clause of failure. Drouth, heat and the collapse of the Bill, and ought to be resisted to the I the Chicago ring have seriously affected the

The French Chamber of Deputies yes terday passed the first clause of the Army Bill, which declares it to be the duty of every Frenchman to perform military ser. MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y. vice, and the second, which provides that | the duration of military service shall be 20

While a party of 250 pilgrims were crossing the Danube River, near Paks, the boat in which they were making the passage was caught in a hurricane and capsized. Only a few of the party were saved. Over one hundred bodies have been recov-

into the hands of the Viceroy would be Lords on Friday night is regarded in Lon- into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, used for the suppression of the League, don as proof that the Imperial Government which would result in a greater crop of will not use the changes in the Canadian tariff as an argument against the proposed in the cars, deafness, backing or coughing to Mr. Fowler's amendment was rejected by subsidy to the Pacific mail service; but clear the throat, expectoration of offensive Lord Salisbary's admission that the Several more amendments having been | changes might affect the view taken by the | breath is offensive; smell and taste are imdisposed of the Chairman put the question House of Commons, coupled with the paired; there is a sensation of dizzness, with whether the clause should stand a part of speeches of Earls Carnarvon and Granville, the Bill. Sir Charles Russell entreated the strengthens the anticipation that the sub-Honse to consider the gravely objectionable sidy proposal will meet with strong hos- case. Thousands of cases annually, without

Humbug. Barnum said "The American people like John Bright has written to Mr. Glad- to be humbugged." This may be true in stone an apology for inaccurately quoting | the line of entertainment, but not where his Swansca speech and accusing him of life is at stake. A man with consumption, talking of Ireland "as if there was no Pro- or any lingering disease, looking Death in vince of Ulster," the fact being that Mr. | the face and seeking to evade his awful hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking which block up the wharves when a steamer | Gamber, Georgien, Giganit, Gillmor, Growien, Giganit, Gillmor, Growien, Giganit, Gillmor, Growien, Grow to Ulster and its peculiar interest in the with confidence we place before our readers Guillet, Hale, Hall, Hesson, Holton, Innes, this the captain was fined $200. The im- classed under the following heads: First, Home Rule question. Mr. Bright says he Nature's great remedy, Dr. Pierce's Golden made his "somewhat inaccurate quotation | Medical Discovery, a sure relief for that Remedy, and I non now a well man. I believe from memory." He adds: "I still con- long train of diseases resulting from impure Levitt Langevin Macdonald (Huron), Me- strong feeling on the part of the American the neck and face, with deep rubbing and tend, however, that there is no hope in Mr. | blood, such as consumption, chronic nasal fair trial to experience astounding results and settling the Irish question. Mr. Gladstone | general debility. Time-tried and thoroughly > me I-I shall really have to move to Mexico," said a Washington man to his wife the other day. "What good would that do. I'd like to know?" " There is a law there compelling males, and males CONSCINETION

The Victor's Crown Should adorn the brow of the inventor of | bare been their land to stone is my faith in the the great corn cure, Putnam's Painless with a VALUABLE TREATISE on this disease to any another man's umbrella in case of rain.

The most reliable cure known for rheuprepared only by W. A. McCollom, Askabad state that most of the Ghilkais at Gulistan-Karez.

Is a fretful wife-I wonder what will mend her? Try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Ten to one your wife is cross and fretful because she is sick and suffering and canis the only remedy for woman's peculiar The new bridge of the Canadian Pacific | ailments, sold by druggists, under a posi-> precious, sweet little baby?" Young 'precious" o' nights); "Yes, I have;

for sick and bilious headache, bilionsness,

A well-to-do German walked into the rooms of the the overseer of the poor at Buffalo the other day and gave the official cumstances in 1877.

Queen Judges. Amazingly innocent and unsophisticated the English judges are, when they are on ago had never heard of Connie Gilchrist

Governor Torres of Sonora, offers $100 each for the heads & Apache Indians. Since the hair he been dressed in plain bandeaux, combs have come into fashion White nuns' veiling is combined with plain white net for dresses to be worn by adies in light mourning.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. ALWAYS ASK FOR DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS, OR LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Being entirely vegetable, they opor occupation. Put up in glass vials, bermetihese little Pellets give the most perfect

Billions Headache, e Dizziness, Constipa-tion, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all

ly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their smative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of World's DISPENSARY

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRIL.-Dull cases of Catarra, "cold in the head," Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Intold Agony from Catarrh." such a bad one, that every day, towards sunbarely speak above a whisper. In the morning simost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's inturch Remedy, in three months, I was a wellman, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Blawking and Spitting."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh. ELI ROBBISA, Rungan P. O., Columbia Co she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and pro-" My dear, if you don't quit annoying | cured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty.

DCNL, 26 87.

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto DUNN'S

Corn Extractor. It works quickly, never you want. See that you get Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, the sure, safe and painless cure for corns. umbrella when he goes out. Having his own in hand, he will be less liable to steal BAKING locks gave place to raven tresses, and the matic affections is an internal remedy head was surmounted by a theatrical- called McCollom's Rheumatic Repellant, THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND The German Crown Prince reviewed a druggist, Tilsonburg, and sold by wholesale body of school children at Sydenham to and retail druggists generally.

Advices received at St. Petersburg from

Mr. Ellis said he observed there was a Littleton Payne, who slived near Kief Roman carts without springs and the the papper in the tra, and try with all our a Mr. Sproule moved in amendment, That disposition on the part of the British Gov. Grange died recently of pneumonia. A Cincinnatus plow are still used in the might to show that we are filled with glee. in the opinion of this House, when it is ernment as say to the Canadian Govern- singular thing about him was that he was Spanish district of Corgunna. Meat is Then let us to the picnic hie, our basket in found expedient to prohibit the manufactory hand and homeward come filled up ture, importation and sale of intoxication of age, these teeth he was born with were except on great festive occasions, and the Painless Corn Extractor the sure safe and brought down the despatch from Lord with wee, and leaves and dust and sand. | liquors, it should be accompanied by a -c . | brought down the despatch from Lord | the only ones nature ever vouchsafed to common beverage is water, tea and coffee sonable measure of compensation to those Salisbury of December 27th, in which the him. Snow Hill Md. Shield. to be careful in their precedings. It was . The Beatrice is a name, suggested in prepared by a cook for Cleopatra that he > defraud farmers. Mrs. George Ward Nichols established 'a improper use of soap and water .- Dress. Hard Travelling for the Bummer.

He Only Had Two Teefh.

pettery factory in Cincinnati at the begin-a stuffed owl, perched our a cabinet opposite the Day being called, said it was his pain. inform the country of the position the Ove of these fine days, says the Ishiladelphia the Day being called, said it was his paininform the country of the position the Ove of these fine days, says the land and the Day being called, said it was his paininform the country of the position the Ove of these fine days, says the land and the Day being called, said it was his paininform the country of the position the Ove of these fine days, says the land and the Day being called, said it was his paininform the country of the position the Overnor of Quebec attempted to destroy the Quettah Railway.

Press, we shall all of us realize that it would be far cheaper to bury the wires than it is be far cheaper to bury the wires than it is be far cheaper to bury the wires than it is be far cheaper to bury the wires than it is

Sir Richard Cartwright said it was very The electric-light wires are still killing a unable to speak above a whispir. sit down to a table at a distinct party until |. Sir Richard Cartwright, on the Orders of desirable that the First Minister should good many people all ever the country.