A Paris cable says: The Pranzini trial came to an end at half-past 6 o'clock last evening in the presence of a most dazzling bouquet of Parisian mondaines, artists and demi-mondaines. Among the spectators sitting near me I noticed the Comtesse de Bourbon, the Duchesse de Fitzjames, Mille Rossita Mauri and a besy of danseng from the Open. Sitting right behind.

Allle Jeann council but water as trial cating chicken san wiches and no and then refreshill he self from wit ! little silver flask.

Pranzini stood cool but pale, listening to every word uttered by his counsel, and . w and then he turned his eyes toward the made the courtroom resemble a flower

When the prisoner's counsel, Maltre since Maltre Lachaud-ended his speech with the words, " Pranzini demande la vie avec toutes ses jouissances-la vie avec les femmes; la vie avec le jeu," Pranzini stretched out his left arm, and with tentorian voice shouted : "Give me death or give me liberty: I am

The jury retired, and after an hour and three-quarters' deliberation they returned a verdi t of - lity as to the murder of Marie Regnault and her servant, but said that the killing of the little girl was without pro meditation.

The President, eveing Pranzini fero ciously, said, "Pranzini, have you anything to say? Pranzini answered in dry, crisp tones, and with clenched teeth, " Non ! Then the judge pronounced the death sentence. The ladies cried "Oh! Oh! dead silence ensued. Pranzini ther muttered, "I swear to God I am innocent! And this closed the trial for the triple murder of the Ruq Montaigne.

KILLED IN COLD BLOOD.

Prominent Washington Citizen Knifed : Death on the streets by a Laboring

A last (Wednesday) night's Washington | Bill would be deprived of its worst features | despatch says : The most sensational murder that has occurred here since the assas (Cheers.) sination of President Garfield was committed about 5 o'clock this evening on the Randolph on his clear exposition of the corner of Fifteenth street and Pennsylvania | defects of the Bill. If Lord Randolph's | life is desprised of. The thief is described | Tories hope to force the Irish into crime avenue, opposite the northeastern end of speech led to a new development of the the Treasury Department Building. Mr. Bill, the House would have no difficulty in J. C. Kennedy, an attorney and real estate passing it. Lord Randolph had performed ington and a personal acquaintance of the measure, transforming its nature and National Capital, was murdered in cold the Government assented, the House would blood and apparently without provocation by try to put some decent clothing on the by John Daily, a white laborer. A few keleton. Let the Government throw overminutes before po'clock Mr. Kennedy left | board the clauses that both Tories and his office, just above Riggs' Bank, and Liberals opposed, and the Bill going withcrossed the street to the opposite corner. out delay into committee would find an where he mailed several letters. He then leasy passage. started to take a car of the Fourteenth Mr. Goschen, speaking in behalf of the street road. When he was within a few Government, said that while they would feet of the car Daily, who had been not attempt to disguise the difficulty of loitering around the corner for several their task, they must refuse to buy a single a large, keen-bladed kuife, similar to those their convictions. Dwelling upon the Mr. Kennedy's right side near the abdomen | the Government would do their best to with a vicious lunge, and then gave it a incetathe views of the gentlemen on the jerk sideways. Mr. Kennedy fell to the other side with regard to the leaseholders' ground, and after giving one cry of clause. He boldly defended the eviction his murderer, who made no attempt to clauses, and denied Lord Churchill's asserescape. A crowd assembled, and Henry tion that the Government was trying to Ason, a colored watchman, seized Daily, found a system of national credit. He who had stood gooking on, apparently the oposed the path for a revision of refused to modify the being rendered in the least illegible, or that good secount of her presence in Regent who is a Eutheran, refused to modify the being rendered in the least illegible, or that good secount of her presence in Regent who is a Eutheran, refused to modify the being rendered in the least illegible, or that good secount of her presence in Regent who is a Eutheran, refused to modify the being rendered in the least illegible, or that about five minutes. The exercement roses Mr. Parnell said he thought Mr. Goschen took place. Revolvers were drawn, the accords her the privilege of remaining a one well-known editor that he refuses to for hire. It seems to be enough for Mr. threatening to hang the murderer. Daily of his property under his future Land Purpaid but little attention to them and refused | open Pull than to the interest of the Trish to say why he committed the crame. Once | tenants. The Covernment proposed to him." It was with difficulty that he crowd | rid of the record of such transactions as was restrained until Daily was conveyed to evictions. The attempt to bolster up the

COL. REYNOLD'S ROMANCE,

Why a Rich South Carolinian Took His

Slave for a Wife. A Columbia, S. C., despatch says: A was absolutely necessary. special to the Paily Register from Sumter, Mr. Gladstone thought the debate had S. C., reports the death in that county last | been conducted with great ability. Pre Saturday of Colonel William J. Roynolds, suming that the Government maintained of the bodies of the ill-fated pleasure seekin the 79th year of his age. Colonel Rey- an open mind with regard to the suggetions ers who went down with the yacht Mystery nolds, fifty years ago, was one of the most | made he thought it needless to press the promising young men in the State, and was amendment to a division, but that the afternoon, and there are only twelve now noted for his industry, integrity and active | House should be left at liberty to amend | missing. One of the saddest incidents of interest in military affairs. He fell deeply and substantially improve the Bill. The the disaster came to light to-day. A month in love within beautiful young girl belong- committee understood that if pressed to do ago Chas Gargot, of 86 Park avenue, after excursion to escape the heat of the city. ing to one of the first famil's in Clare- so, the Government were willing to drop having been out of employment for some She had bestowed unusual pains on her mont county, and made suit for her hand, the bankruptcy clauses. He reminded the weeks, secured a lucrative position in a costume, which was of corn pongee. The He seemed to be favorably regarded by the House that those clauses constituted Chicago plate glass establishment. He skirt and the waist were trimmed with ingirl herself, but her parents had more what the Government had always put went on, leaving his wife and two children numerable rows of fine knife pleating, made ambitious views for her, and would not forward as a prominent part of the at home. They were drowned. Yesterday by machinery. It was flat-pressed, neat and allow her to marry him. Nothing daunted, Bill and that no substitute was proposed. a letter, came from Chicago to 86 Park rather becoming. She had a parasol made the young man went to work to win a Assuming that Mr. Chamberlain intended avenue. Mrs. Gargot's brother received it, of over-lapping rows of the same pleating. name and position which would render to press his amendments. Mr. Gladstone and seeing it addressed to his dead sister in She had a peaked bonnet, on which him more acceptable to the parents. He called attention to and hailed his speech | the familiar hand-writing of her husband, several rows of it were placed. Nothing was elected to represent his county with great satisfaction. There was no forwarded it to Mr. Gargot's brother. He could have been finer than the lady's apin the State Legislature; served reason to compel the Government to reject opened it and found within an affectionate pearance as she sat down among the rather one term with credit and distinction, the suggestion with regard to the revision letter to the dead wife and money to pay envious company. Pretty soon dampness and returning to his home made another of judicial rents, and there was no appareffort to secure the hand of the girl to ent disposition on the part of the House to There was an admonition to come at once. the frills. Every particle of the dressing whom he was attached. He was again sustain the Covernment in rejecting the refused; but after he had been elected a proposals of the Owper commission. The third time over prominent and wealthy Opposition had obtained a vantage ground competitors the opposition to him was which they could not have anticipated a the well known German metal founder and apparently silenced, the young woman pro- week ago, and with the prospect of a still gigantic steel gun manufacturer, died yesmised to be his wife, and all the prepara- further improvement in the views with terday in his villa near fissen, Rhenish tions were made for the wedding. At the which the measure was regarded by the Prussia. Herr Krupp was born at Essen, last moment she wrote a note sixing that other side of the House, he had hoped the 1812. The enormous manufactory at Essen she had yielded to the wishes of her mother | amendment would not be pressed. and must decline to fulfil her engagement. The amendment was negatived and the deceased in 1827. At first the elder Krupp This broke up Colonel Reynolds' life and | Bill read a second time without division. | had only two workmen, and the works were career. After brooding for a long time It was decided to consider this Bill in com- conducted on the most limited scale; but over his disappointment he took for a wife | mittee on Thursday next He left an estate consisting of some thousands of dollars in money and 1,000 acres i of land, and it is thought that the validity of the will will be sustained.

THE NOBLE NOODLES

Who Admire Mrs. Leslle Will Not Fight. A London cable says : There will be no the Russian Prince Eristoff, who a few days ago played respectively the parts of cow-Marchis thirsted for blood, so he told his brought to hear induced the Prince to disdo things well, also advanced the argument to consider the question of danger, but he

GOVERNING IRELAND.

Lord Churchill Adversely Criticises the Land Bill - Goschen Defends It -Specches by Gladstone and Parnell-Crime in Merry-Juries that Won't Convict. A last (Thursday) night's London cable

2 the debate on the Land But, objected saue. There was a general agreement, he tutely necessary to afford relief to the Irish tenuntry. It was a great mistake to impute a want of good faith to the Government in the proposals of the Bill. The pretty women and bewitching toilets that Government had been forced to offer a temporary land measure before the session closed, for no more odious duty could devolve upon the Irish Government than to administer the Crimes Act unaccompanied one of the most accomplished rhetoricians by a measure which would satisfy the tenantry. (Cries of hear, hear.) Proceeding to examine the clauses of the Bill, he supported Mr. Dillon's criticisms on the restrictions of the lease-holders' clause, which he hoped the Government would amend. He did not see that the tenantry through windows or transoms and opens testimonial and with the delegates. Mr. dreading to bring the characters to life, would derive any benefit from the clause the doors for his pals. Wednesday night dealing with evictions. (Parnellite cheers.) they visited Verplanck and entered the He would fear to entrust Irish houses of A. Bleakly, D. Tuttle and two apon then by that clause. (Cries of without booty, one of their number barel, whole the g is, as was shown in our and finally thought I never cheers.) What would have been the state Bleakly. Mrs. Bleakly, who has been bination of vulgar political intrigue and turned out. I was only full of the wrath On" from the Conservative benches and of Ireland if this clause had been in opera- ill, was aroused by some one fumbnot within the limit of physical possibilities brought Mr. Bleakly from a lounge in an he has repaid the donors with flattery as keep it short.' I wrote in reply: 'I shall to deal with the clause this session. The adjoining room, where he lay asleep. He gross and as clumsy as that which pleases stop when I get through—not before.' He Bill must be lightened by throwing it over. grappled with the intruder and a fierce his own far from fastidious palate. It is never got it, for I had to make a book of it. and many fainted away, causing a tremendous tumult. Pranzini motioned with his hands as if he wanted to speak. A

grappied with the intruder and a nerce struggle ensued in the dark. Mr. Bleakly in the bankruptcy clauses were equally obmendous tumult. Pranzini motioned with his hands as if he wanted to speak. A

grappied with the intruder and a nerce
struggle ensued in the dark. Mr. Bleakly
man has sunk before he can contemplate
finally succeeded in wrapping his fingers in man has sunk before he can contemplate
finally succeeded in wrapping his fingers in

the bankruptcy clauses were equally obman has sunk before he can contemplate
finally succeeded in wrapping his fingers in

the bankruptcy clauses were equally obman has sunk before he can contemplate
finally succeeded in wrapping his fingers in to lower the moral tone of the tenantry be the burglar's mustache, and was speedily such an offering with anything but repugthe burglar's mustache, and was speedily such an offering with anything but repugthe burglar's mustache, and was speedily nance and disgust." Is not all this a little in writing it. I had young children, was speedily such an offering with anything but repugthe burglar's mustache, and was speedily nance and disgust." Is not all this a little in writing it. I had young children, was speedily such an offering with anything but repugthe burglar's mustache, and was speedily nance and disgust." Is not all this a little in writing it. I had young children, was speedily such an offering with anything but repugthe burglar's mustache, and was speedily nance and disgust." Is not all this a little in writing it. I had young children, was speedily such an offering with anything but repugthe burglar's mustache, and was speedily nance and disgust." Is not all this a little in writing it. I had young children, was speedily such an offering with anything but repugtion of the tenantry bethe burglar's mustache, and was speedily nance and disgust." Is not all this a little in writing it. I had young children, was speedily speedily but the burglar in the burg litigation. The Government, in view of the teeth in the captor's hand, and freeing himlarge number of tenants who it was expected self, dashed through the door. Mr. Bleakly, would be forced into bankruptcy, seemed to though clad only in his nightrobe, pursued be trying to build up a system of national and again grappled the thief in front of the credit on a widespread foundation of na- house. In the struggle which followed both by vilification of every one in the language and more, too. It was though it was writtional insolvency. If the Government, with men rolled down a steep embankment upon he Irish members, would agree to deal

Sir William Harcourt congratulated Lord agent, one of the oldest residents of Wash- a capital operation under chloroform upon many of the most prominent people of the deaving the mere skeleton of the Bill. If would not be purchased on the judicial crossing. basis. The present measure would simply be regarded as a monument of stupidity and inaptitude. A speedy revision of rents

a negro girl who had been his slave, and In the House of Lords this afternoon attained to their present gigantic proporlived with her to the last, regardless of Baron Ashbourne, Lord Chanceller of Ire- tions. Herr Frederick was the discoverer public opinion and the cutreaties of his land, moved the second reading of the of the method of casting steel in very large relatives. He reared a large family of Crimes Bill. After speeches by Earl Gran- masses. He sent to the London Exhibition children, and himself drew up a will pro- ville, the Duke of Argyll, Lord Carnarvon of 1851 a block weighing 45 German quinviding for them all and putting them on av and others, the Bill was read a second time. tals, and at present a block can be cast his address to the Grand Jury of County | Kram manufactured a large number of Kerry vesterday, stated that there was a larticles used for peaceful purposes, but his decrease of crinte in the county. He said name is more particularly associated with he could not, however, congratulate the thegigantic steel siege guns which the Gerpeople on the fact, the cause of it being the mans used with such terrible effect against complete subjugation of the peaceable mems the city of Paris. In 1864 the Emperor gation, which was now allowing the well- which he declined to accept. disposed a little repose from violence. Notwithstanding this there were 60 cases of confidence in the ability of the Marquis to bailifs had "evicted a tenant named but without some convulsion of nature the Halliman. There had been the growth has been slow, not perhaps, over that the Marquis, when she says, is the best usual barricade of frees, timber and one foot per century. Then has it been that the Marquis who she said the would be said the would one for the Sand the would one find the world was beneath him one time a book agent in Toronto.

One foot per century. Then has it been down. It with Islands revolutionary Cabinet, was at bears a tablet which reads; "Here livid belonging to the family of the tenant and belonging to the family of the tenant and the shadow of the Infinite this is not long. The shadow man like De Leuville. The Prince refused | ants and indicts L. Egilence was given by indeed a long space. - Calusa Cal., Sun. the bailigs establishing beyond doubt the decided that if Mrs. Leslie's feelings were identities of those of the accused who threw An infant son of George A. Perkins, of not at stake, his dignity as a genuine and boiling water and scalding porridge and Petrolea, set fire to its clothing while play. not at stake, his digital prevent him used pitchforks through the orifices made ing with matches last Wednesday, and was unquestioned prince would prevent him by the best of from fighting with a gentleman who was by the besieging bailitis. It was distinctly burned to death. The child's mother was splitts, and smoking in moderation." not even a genuine and an unquestioned shown that one prisoner thrust a red-hot also badly burned in trying to put out the iron bar through one of the orifices, burn- flames.

complete suspension of the aw.

ing an emergency man. Local solicitors appeared for the accused and watched the case, but there was no barrister. Not a bit of evidence for the defence was adduced, and no address was made in favor of the prisoners. Justice Johnson summed up pointedly against the accused, but, after some hours' deliberation, a majority of the jurors favoring acquittal, they were discharged, the judge roundly scolding the says: In the House of Commons this unknown dissentients. Fire men were vening, Lord Randolph Churchill, resumext tried for rictous conduct at another and the same estate in this was > in ponce, theight in the ter a western In a short time the jury acquitted the assessed, a did the cheers or the speciators.

OVER A BANK WITH A BURGLAR. Mr. Bleakly's Thrilling Encounter with a

Midnight Visitor. A story of a thrilling midnight tassle with a burglar comes from Verplanck, New York State. For some weeks Tarrytown, Peckskill and other towns along the Hudson have been visited at frequent intervals by marauders who have entered and robbed houses, and when pursued, have escaped in a small yacht in which their nocturnal excursions are made. The gang numbers five men and usually includes a boy, who crawls which the house stands, and fell heavily with arrears and a revision of the jadicial rents instead of the bankruptey clauses, the and would become acceptable to the country, had arisen from her bed and followed her husband to the street, where she stood call. to Ireland. If the Tories fancy that the Pittsburg Dispatch. ing upon the neighbors for help, was thoroughly prostrated with fright and her paradise. Let there be no outrage. The curly hair.

TURNED THE HOSE ON THEM.

A Lively Battle Between Railroad Laborers and the City Authorities at Youngs-

A Youngstown (O.) despatch says: A regular pitched battle between about fifty Pittsburg & Western Railroad employees. mostly ludians, or one side, and the whole city police force, with twenty-five specials. the City Engineer and Street Commissioner's force, every member of the City Council and Fire Department, under the leadhours, walked up behind him and drawing vote by making any concession against ership of Marshal Williams, on the other, used by butchers in killing hogs, ran it into temporary character of the Bill, he said Contractor Kelly, of the Pittsburg & across Mill street, making a routbed about three feet above its grade, when the city forces at a given "Murder," grouned deeply and pointed to clause. He defended the backruptcy signal, blown on the fire whistle, put Grand Dake Constantine, uncle of the script that is rolled, or folded so as to in an appearance, and two well directed Czar. The attempt at assassination was necessitate a constant effort to keep the streams from three-inch nozzles soon drowned the railroaders out. They deserted husband were stopping. The cause given up of different kinds and sizes of paper. their locomotive and cars and the police for the attack was that the Grand Duchess, or blotted and interlined to the extent of young girl, whose employer gave a perfectly rallied and climbed upon it, and a battle terms of her marriage covenant, which is in any other way untidy. It is said of street at that time, was a prostitute plying rapidly and the crowd grew boisterous. was looking rather to the enhanced value police used clubs and both parties fought Lutheran and joining the GreekChurch. The read any manuscripts that are untidy or Newton that a young woman is in Regent one. By this time 2,000 people had congre-gated and a hand-to-hand light occurred. The police again captured the locomotive and pulled the train out of reach. Several crowd and said, "Yes, I killed byn-d-n another name, with the object of getting and pulled the train out of reach. Several enough of Maria Paulovona," referring to that is prepared from a pad of note paper protest. Regent street after half-past 9 is arrests have been made, among them Con- the Grand Duchess of that name who is the size, and is sent in an envelope large enough or the record of such transactions as the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the paper need not be folded. Then all decent girls who have to pass through it wife of the Grand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the paper need not be folded. Then all decent girls who have to pass through it wife of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the paper need not be folded. Then all decent girls who have to pass through it wife of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the paper need not be folded. Then all decent girls who have to pass through it wife of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the paper need not be folded. Then all decent girls who have to pass through it wife of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so that the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, brother so the control of the Crand Duke Vindimir, b would defeat its own end, because the hand obstructions, and police are guarding the pected of making proselytes. It is stated against an article before he begins to read.

THE LATE VACHT CALAMITY.

ing Incident of the Accident.

A Brooklyn despatch says : Three more were recovered at Point Breeze yesterday

Krupp Dead, A Berlin cable says : Frederick Krupp was established by the father of the under the supervision of the son they A Publin cable says; Justice O'Brien, in | weighing more than 4,000 quintals. Herr sers of the community to a lawless organ- | William offered him letters of nobility, withstanding this there were 60 cases of malicious minery before the jury, showing In boring a well on the farm of Mrs.

LABBY'S LETTER.

What the Jubilee Cost the Queen-Cheap Freuch Wines-The Language of a Pishfag-Advice to the Irish.

Mr. Labouchere cables from London to he New York World:

have done, I have done."

Anything more itiful, more pathetic more tragic, cannot be imagined than the The announcement that the Jubilee effect of the above few words, coming in hospitalities will cost the Queen upward of broken and faltering accents from the lips 500,000 is an exaggeration. The very of Harriet Beecker Stowe. nighest official estimate, including charges

Propie who are in the habit of drinking mixing into Medoc or Macon. can delegates who brought him over the dreadful shame! I kept putting it off Mr. Perry Belmont as a man who wants fury, and I commenced what I meant to promotion and is willing to flatter the Irish, be a short story like the others. But I sordid commercial speculation. The money and the story built itself around it as of a fishfag is more notable for its weak. ten through me, I only holding the pen. ness than its strength?

victory is already won, they are in a fool's than to carry it out in Ireland. ATTEMPT TO MURDER

St. l'etersburg, which has come by way of If you will excuse my saying it, they Combinen, in Eastern Russia, states that are very untidy. It is greatly to your dison July 10th a band of religious fanatics advantage that they come into the editor's attempted to murder the wife of Grand hands in such condition; he is always Duke Nicholas Constantinovitch, con of prejudiced at the start against a manumade at the palace, where the lady and her pages open sufficiently to read, and made that previous to the attempt religious -Independent. Three More Bodies Recovered -A Distress- This lady is also a Protestant, being a

A LONG BRANCH COSTUME.

Story Which All the Ladies Will

One of the drollest exhibitions of dress was made by a stout lady who went on ar blew them out and blew them up. The fastened with a black pin, when the head fulness required for pleating is just three times the surface it covers. That parasol that it was some kind of composition was a mass of crazy, ruffled rags. That Hat laid ever any old Irish cap that ever crossed a peat bog on a Tipperary widdy's head. That dress was a half-inflated. flopping balloon. The face of the lady got would be $10 or ten days she would be get ting at 10 in the morning in the police court .- Long Branen Letter,

Advertising for skin Grafts. (Hartford Times)

Several months ago Miss Emma Neuman, tribute to her relief, for at this time he museum, variety show and restaurant. calls for outside aid, in the following card: Young persons, not over 30, who are willing to confer a favor on Miss Emma | The Scotch, unlike their English neighthat a deplorable amount of crime was still Sarah Williams, some flys sules south of friends if they will allow seeds for grafting than feasting. A young Englishman who committed with impunity. The applica- Colusa, J. C. Frazier, who has the farm in the new scalp to be taken from their had mid a visit to the northern portion of tions for protection had also increased. rented, struck a piece of wood at a depth of arm. The family and friends have fur- Her Majesty's dominions found this to be a The social tyranny had extended to mer- 170 feet. The wood brought up by the nished material, and a good scalp is being fact, and his tempor was not improved cantile and logal dealings, resulting in the auger was in an excellent state of preservacomplete suspension of the aw tion; and was prenounced "all oak." The now the greatest obstacle in suc essfully how he liked his visit to Scotland, he re-Full represent the first criminal trials place is only fifty feet above the sea level, covering the entire head. The piece for plied; "Oh, I enjoyed myself very much, which thek place on Wednesday for resist so, that the wood is 120 feet below the grafting is pinched up and slipped off withs on I don't care for their Sunday dinners. that consideration for her belle was such scaling water accompanie of the sufficient to induce him to be the Marquis alone. He has proposed marriage to Mrs. Justice de husen presided at the assists. It has it was such scaling water accompanie of the who will assist the recovery of Miss Neu let 2" "Nothing in particular," was the letter as the letter Leslie and has been refused, but that dat seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the seems that on the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the estate of the Earl of street wouldn't be without the estate of the Earl of t Lesine and has been that on the estate of the Earl of since this pieces of wood was in a growing 9 30 a.m. or notify him, and arrangements for dinner on Sunday was a walk round the not diminish his printed as a sheriff, thirty constables and eight tree? The valley, of course, has grown, will be made for the convenience of parties. church and a smell of the flowers.

absent-minded physician. "Oh! the usual Ellen Terry's success in the "Amber the best remedy known. Sold by wholesale thing," returned he. " Perfect quiet, no Heart," presented her with the play, which druggists of Toronto, Hamilton, London, worry, exercise, amusement; no coffee, no be had bought from the author, Mr. Cal- Winnipeg and by retail druggists generally The mosquito is at hum wherever he Boston has a tailor appropriately named

That the bright intellect of the author of Uncle Tom's Cabin is molomba.

MRS. STOWE'S GREAT STORY.

" Uncle Tom's Cabin."

egen very young. I especially liked writing short stories when I lived in Bruns that they are consuming pure Bordeaux or | wick, Me. For these I used to get $15, $20 Burgundy, will be interested to learn that and $25-good pay in those times. I nover within the last few weeks half a million thought of writing a book when I comgallons of Italian wines have reached Bor- menced 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' I became deaux from Naples and Bari, in addition to first roused on the subject of slavery when some two hundred thousand gallons of I lived in Cincinnati, and used to see Greek wine. Of course these wines, which escaping slaves come over the Ohio from are bought at inconceivably low rates, will Kentucky. Ah, me ! it thrills me even leave the town to which they are consigned now, the sight of those poor creatures! after having been transferred by dexterous Now, a young girl, suggesting the lover, mixing into Medoc or Macon.

Having sought consolation by the abuse breaking in bondage; again, the strong of its friends, the Times proceeds to deal husband, aged father or stalwart brother with Mr. Gladstone's speech to the Ameri- Oh, I must write a story to stop the

Joseph Pulitzer is described as a Bavarian, till the Fugitive Slave Law lashed me into others. At Tuttle's they secured a watch, the committee as composed of pushing grew and grew, and came and lords, with the powers conferred but were frightened off at the other places trish tredesmen. Says the Times: "I. ame and came. I wrote and wrote and escaping capture at the hands of Mr. columns a month ago, a delightful com- should on. I did not plan the book as it tion last winter? He did not doubt that ling under her pillow. She asked if was raised by charging for admission to wrote. A publisher was waiting for a story from one-quarter to one-half of the tenantry it was her husband and received a muttered dancing and fireworks. As for Mr. Glad- from me. I told him the subject I had would have been in a state of tumult and affirmative from the burglar. She detected stone, his colossal vanity and insatiable undertaken. He wrote, saying: 'You have disorder appalling to contemplate. It was the strange voice, however, and her cries appetite for flattery are well known, and struck a popular subject; for heaven's sake such an offering with anything but repug- hindrance, no rival interest, no belief but overdoing the vituperation? The Times keeping house and teaching school at the appeals to all patriotic and intelligent men. time, and never worked so hard, but I had May not possibly some of them vaguely to write. Dinner had to be got, I knew, opine that the cause that has to be defended. This had to be written, just as much—aye, was lifted off my feet. Satisfied? I never upon the rocks below. Here the burglar The Coercion Bill has passed the House thought about being satisfied. When it again broke away and disappeared through of Commons and will in a few days receive was finished it was done, and relief came. a neighboring alley. Mrs. Bleakly, who the Royal assent. The centre of resistance I never felt the same with anything I afterwill therefore be transferred from London wards wrote."-Hiertford (Conn.) Letter i

Good Advice to Contributors,

as short and thick set, with a mustache and as a justification for the Crimes Act. The Every now and then it becomes an Irish must not play their game. They editor's duty to say a few words to conmust oppose with a passive resistance tributors, either privately or in his editorial whenever an eviction is attempted. The columns, in regard to their methods of prehome of the victim should be barricaded paring manuscripts. It is, fortunately, no and the task of the exterminators rendered longer necessary to say " write only on difficult. Whenever a man turns informer one side of the paper, ' or " don't fold each or takes land from which the rightful sheet separately;" for no one to-day comholder has been evicted, such a man should mits these capital offences. Untidy manube treated as a leper. If the Irish are only scripts, however, are still common. A true to themselves it will be found more private letter, bearing on this point, was easy to pass a Coercion Act in England written by one of our editors last week. which ran somewhat as follows: DEAR MISS -,- I am sorry that we cannot use the accompanying article. A I have written to you once or twice in : A Russian Grand Duchess by Religious | way not usual with an editor. I am tempted to go further and give you a little advice A London cable says: A despatch from about the appearance of your manuscripts.

many advantages from a sanitary stand. Idelay. It is intolerable that the liberty point. It is cleanly and easily kept unpol. and character of every decent woman luted by disease organisms or disease pro- who passes through Regent street at night monly attendant upon functional and organic ducing filth. It is non-absorbent and will is to be at the mercy of every police connot collect or hold moisture, as is the case stable on the beat. But this is the actual with wood or brick. It is a poor conductor | result of Mr. Newton's decision - a decision | of heat, save that received from the rays of the sun, which for health purposes is the to-day with grave regret .-- Pall Mall Gazette. most valuable. Paper also has its advantages when treated by certain processes. It can be prepared so as to be fire-proof and neat it is invaluable. It is no idle hope which calls up a vision of manufactured all the requirements exacted of the building materials of to-day .- Chicago Herald.

Broken Needles Made Into Pins. Sitting alongside a lady in the elevated train the other day she had occasion to came out of the knife pleats. A brisk wind adjust a portion of her dress which was broke in fragments and disclosed the fact fastened on a broken needle. Curiosity led me to make some inquiries, and I found that nearly all the black-headed pins in the market are made from needles which are broken in the factories in testing the eves Any one who has handled the black-header dition, and one was justified in thinking it pins has probably noticed their remarkable sharpness as compared with the ordinary white pins sold in the market. This is the xplanation - that they are old needles .-

Mr. Wiman's New Enterprise.

Mr. Erastus Wiman has, it is said, f Bristol, had her scalp torn from her bought the large and famous steamship around Anderson are just boiling over with head by her hair catching in machinery in Great Eastern. The price agreed upon is wrath because the terrible roaring of the Wilson, of Bristol, has been diligently engaged since in building up a new scale by Mr. Wiman is to bring the leviathan over gaged since in building up a new scalp by Mr. Wiman is to bring the leviathan over loudest thunder ever heard. Not an egg grafting om the head minute bits of skin here and anchor her near Staten Island. will hatch, and even the old hens refuse to taken from the arms of various persons. The Great Eastern is then to be turned into lay, the noise being so great that the bid-Probably he has exhausted the list of Miss a monster place of amusement, and will dies become so bewildered that they cannot Neuman's friends who were willing to con- include within its bulwarks a theatre, return to the nest, and even forget to put a

A Crieff Dinner,

Neuman, will greatly oblige her and her bors, make Sunday more array of fasting

Number 16 Fetter lane, Fleur de Lis man who minds his own business will be V. V. Ashford, a member of the Sand court, London, is to be pulled down. It

THE ARREST OF MISS CASE.

The Aged Authoress Tells How She Wrote | The Incident which has Set England Mr. Newton is a hard-worked magistrate "No, I write no more. I have done, I who has the misfortune to preside over a court the atmosphere of which is saturated are such as to make men marvel who are less habituated to the poisoned air of Marl-> mit, yesterday, with the booke brought gamet Miss Elizabeth Oute, whose treatment, judging solety from the reports in ! of the policeman Endacott, and the Police Magistrate, Mr. Newton, seems to have borough street. But even when we take howance for his vitiating envir macht, we been simply abominable. Here are the same way with a ten cent man .- Yonkers facts, taken from the report in the Standard : | itatesman. On Tuesday night, at quarter-past 8 o'clock, Miss Case, a modest looking, neatly ings in the neighborhood of Oxford street Men and women should remember that maker's establishment, near Oxford street. | extant. It does its work quickly and with She had been in her situation three weeks, | certainty. See that the signature N. C. and during that time had never been out of Polson & Co. appears on each bottle. Bedoors until the night before last, when, ware of poisonous imitations. with her employer's assent, she went out ] to buy some things. She walked along A Western paper tells about "a sensaand then round by Jay's mourning ware. it from the ordinary quiet and unobtrusive house in Regent street. On her return she | kind. was making her way through the crowd, when Police Constable Endacott took hold that he had been stopped three times in the ing and needless inflictions of your loathe-streets since he had left church, and that some disease? gentleman was not produced, and no evi-

street, and the prisoner was her fore. out to sea, when they make their appearwoman. (The rest of the evidence we quote, ance, to be supported during the rest of the textually.) The policeman has been to my | voyage. house about it, and I consider that he made an improper accusation against my fore. Arabian horses in Dakota. woman. He said, "I want to know where your lodger is, as she has been walking the streets for an improper purpose." I told him she was not doing such a thing.

Mr. Newton-I think she was. The employer-Oh, no; it is quite a mistake. She has never been out of my house before.

Mr. Newton-She was out last night. Stand down, if you please. The employer-I say she was not out for such a purpose.

Mr. Newton-I say yes. The employer-I do not understand what

Mr. Newton (addressing the prisoner) said: New, just you take my advice. I you are a respectable girl, as you say you are, don't walk Regent street and stop gentlemen at 10 o'clock at night. If you do. you will be surely fined or sent to prison. after this caution I have given you.

The prisoner left the iconrt with he friends. Now, here we have a Magistrate declar ing, on the unsupported testimony of one police constable, that a modest looking ter cannot stop here. Sir Charles Warren will do well to institute a searching inquiry generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fanatics also tried to kill the Grand Duchess Elizabeth, wife of the Grand Duke Serge.
This lady is also a Protestant, being a daughter of Grand Duke Louis the Fourth of Hesse.

Paper and Glass Houses.

Paper and Glass Houses.

Chicago architects are discussing the possibilities of glass and paper as building material has of Hesse.

Will do well to institute a searching inquiry into the conduct of the Constable Endacott. If Miss Case had her companion with her, and she can swear to the facts, proceedings ought to be instituted for perjury without ought to be instituted for perjury without ought to be instituted for perjury without delay. It is jutolerable that the liberty delay. It is jutolerable that the liberty

Story of a Popular Song.

Mr. J. M. Whyte, the evangelist, is now in the city, after a season of hard work in cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dysthe Ottawa Valley region. Mr. Whyte is pepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small one of the well-known Whyte brothers, "Favorite Prescription" is a postarticles from glass and paper which will fill whose singing of gospel songs touches a tive cure for the most complicated and obresponsive chord in the popular heart, as is stinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, shown by the fact that they are in demand | painful menstruction, unnatural suppressions at revivals all over the Continent. One of Lienale weakness," anteversion, retroversion, Mr. Whyte's most touching songs is one | bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, called "Papa, What Would You Take For Me?" which he has sung in many places. accompanied with "internal heat." The music is his own, the poem being one of those literary wanderers which are confront girlhood to womenhood, "Favorite Prestantly found going the endless "rounds of scription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, the press." Mr. Whyte tried to find the and can produce only good results. It is author of the poem, but could not for a equally efficacious and valuable in its effects long time. Another evangelist visited Warsaw, Ind., and there the author found the wandering child of his genius in musical dress. He made himself known and has in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative since communicated with Mr. Whyte, His name is S. B. McManus, and he informs | Liver Pills, cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder Mr. Whyte that the poem has been published in hundreds of papers in America. Scrofulous humors from the system. Scrofulous humors from the system. translated into half-a-dozen foreign languages. - Toronto Globe.

> Natural Gas and Setting Hens. The women in and for eight or ten miles shell on the egg .- Muncie Herald.

The Experience of Mrs, Peters.

Mrs. Peters had chills. They dosed her with pilis, But some ! Pellets were tried.

Mrs. Peters had ills.

That acted like magic, and then she got well. The magic "Peilets" were Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets (the original

Who are to be blessed? Surely th among the number.

If best treatment you could get failed to cure rheumatism do not, be discouraged the baby ?" asked an anxious father of an . Mr. Henry Irving, in recognition of Miss | but take McCollom's Rheumatic Repellant Brass kettles, once hammered out, as now spun on a lathe.

A Square Statement by a Curpenter. "For years I have had a chest trouble amounting to nothing short of consumption. I saw how others in like condition had been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and resolved to test its merits in my own case. The results are so be wondered at if occasionally his decisions plane as hardly to require a bitstock or any auger-ment in favor of this grate remedy It does and it claims! It builds up the system, supports and strengthens where thers fail. He ads: "My recovery, which is now on a saye four lation, hinger > a track on that as a judge of the a consider up Restorative, havn't tried other remedies without a bit of relici.

> You can get more wind out of a ten cent fan than you can from a $500 one. It's the

For the Babies

dressed young woman of 23, left her lodg. It is not necessary to buy corn cures to make some small purchases for herself. | Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the Miss Case was forewoman in a large dress. only safe, sure and painless corn remover

Tottenham Court road and Oxford street, | tional lynching." This was to distinguish

Don't Hawk, Spit, Cough,

of ther arm. Startled beyond measure, she suffer dizziness, indigestion, inflammation asked him what he wanted. He replied by of the eyes, headache, lassitude, inability accusing her of soliciting prostitution, and to perform mental work and indisposition forthwith ran her into the police station. | for bodily labor, and annoy and disgust When the police constable was sworn he | your friends and acquaintances with your declared that he saw Miss Case, in com- nasal twang and offensive breath and conany with another woman, whom he did | stant efforts to clean your nose and throat, not identify or produce, stop three gentle- | when Dr. Sage's "Catarrh Remedy" will men in succession, the last of whom, the | promptly relieve you of discomfort and constable said, complained in her hearing | suffering, and your friends of the disgust-

Stowaways trouble English steamers dence whatever was tendered in support of more this year than ever before. To find the constable's evidence. Three specific ten or fifteen of them is a common thing. offences were alleged to have been com. They make friends with the men who load mitted at three separate places with three | the vessels and are put away wherever they different men, but not one of these can be secreted. In vessels that bring men was produced in court. The whole over brick the loaders will build up a little charge rested upon the unsupported oath of room around two or three men, and in one policeman. Then the lady who em- several cases from a dozen or two dozen ployed Miss Case entered the box. She men have been thus secreted. Most of said she was the prisoner's employer. She them are tramps. They only remain in had a large establishment near Oxford their hiding places till the vessel is well

A company of Frenchmen are breeding

The treatment of many thousands of cases ments peculiar to females, at the Invalids s afforded a vast experience in nicely adaptand thoroughly testing remedies for the ure of woman's poculiar maladies, for Pierce's Envorite Prescription the fatterowth, or result, of this great and aluable experience. Thousands of testimoand reall, prove it to be the most wonderful emedy ever devised for the relief and cure of uffering women. It is not recommended as a 'cure-ail." but as a most perfect Specific for As a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparts strength to the whole system, particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," bousesleep and relieves mental anxiety and de-

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully physician, and adapted to woman's delicate effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever period, known as "The Change of Life." Favorite Prescription," when taken doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little a positive guarantee, from the manutee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00. For large, illustrated Treatise on Diseases of 663 Main St., BUFFALO, N. Y.

, D C N L. 30 87.

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto.

THE COURS BEST FOIEND

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto