FARMERSVILLE, AUG. 30, 1887.

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

From the Pencil of our Own News-Gatherer.

Farmersville trotting races, Sep-tember 20th and 21st.
Mrs. Maehard, of Brockville, is visit-ing at Mr. S. A. Taplin's.
Mrs. W. Lawson, of Gananoque, is vis-iting friends in Farmersville.

The Methodist harvest home sup-er takes place Monday evening next.
Miss Bertha Richards and Miss Mad-jen have returned from their sum-mer vacation.

Mr. Weldon Mott, near Sealey's Corners, is erecting a barn of mam-moth proportions.
The next sitting of the Ninth Divi-sion Court will be held here on the 19th of September.

The ladies of the Methodist Church are decorating the church in prepara-tion for the harvest home festivities.
L.O.S.T. On Saturday last, between Char-leston Lake and Farmersville, a black seer over-coat. Finder will please bring the missing article to the residence of the Rev. E. S. Jones, Farmersville.

Mr. Richards' store, Irish Creek, was burglarized on the 22nd inst. The burglars got away with $250 in cash.

Mr. W. Conors severed his connec-tion with the Great Bargain House last week, and has gone to St. Paul, Minn.

Our Lacrosse Club is shortly to play a match with the Lansdowne Club, and are diligently practicing for the contest.

A company has been organized in Gananoque to engage in the manufac-ture of buggy wheels. Geo. Taylor, M. P., is president.

Mr. Jas. Hall is here renewing old acquaintances. We understand that he has decided to fit himself for the work of a missionary in China.

Mr. R. M. Percival's tailoring estab-lishment in Delta, is maintaining its popularity. Mr. Percival's new adver-tisement will appear in our next issue.

Mr. Edgar M. Wirren, of Eugene City, Oregon, favored us with a call on Monday. He had been visiting friends at his former home, Elgin, and was then en route for the far West.

Unionville Fair, Sept. 14th, 15th and 16th; Delta, Sept. 27th and 28th; Frankville, Sept. 29th and 30th; Lyn-dhurst, Sept. 29th and 30th; Newboro, Sept. 20th and 21st; Elgin, Sept. 3rd.

Mr. J. C. Stafford, of Lyndhurst, has purchased from Mr. John Day, for $1,100, part of the old McCormack farm, situated east of Gananoque on the corner of the Kidd road. We understand Mr. Stafford intends resid-ing on his new property.

Farmersville High School reopened yesterday, and classes are being formed for teachers' certificates, university matriculation, and law and medicine. Candidates for any of these classes should present themselves as soon as possible, so as to miss none of the lectures.

The Frankville and Toledo Chris-tian Band of Workers assembled on Sunday at the residence in Plum Hol-low of Mr. Richard Bogart, and held divine service. Mr. Bogart, who is confined to the house by age and in-firmities, was much pleased by the visit and the opportunity it afforded him of engaging in public worship.

There is talk of another boom in the affairs of the B. W. & S. Ste. Marie R. R. It is said that Contract-ors Hervey has effected a loan of suf-ficient magnitude to warrant the statement that the building of the line will now be pushed on energetically. Were this announcement made in con-nection with some other name, it would be easier to put faith in it.

The total rate to be collected in this municipality for 1887, inclusive of high school debt and current ex-pense rates and exclusive of public school rates, is $779 mills on the dol-lar, which will produce $3,636. The rate last year for the same purposes was $785.4 mills on the dollar, re-sulting in the collection of $4,997. The railway bonus rate will not be levied this year.

A correspondent of one of the Brockville papers takes pride in noting that Delta is the only place in the county where can be found a hotel at which liquor is not obtainable. We are informed on the very best author-ity that the proprietor of the Lyn House is another who may be placed in the same category, as he will not allow a drop of liquor on his premises, and is that particular that he will not even sell a cigar on a Sunday.

Mr. James Reid, of Lansdowne possesses a team of trained oxen, which he drives in harness, either single or double. The people of Delta are frequently treated to the sight of the smiling Jim driving to town in a buggy drawn by one of his unique steeds, which he handles with perfect ease, and which excites manoeuvres which would do no discredit to a good road-ster horse.

While in Lyn yesterday we were shown through the butcher shop of E. D. Wilson, who has been long and favorably known to the people of Lyn and vicinity as a model caterer to the wants of his customers. The refrig-erator is constantly supplied with near-ly a ton of ice, which reduces the temperature to below 40 degrees. The supply is so arranged as to allow the meat to become thoroughly cooled be-fore being offered to his customers. Mr. Wilson has the reputation of be-ing one of the best buyers in the sec-tion around Lyn and can always read-ily buy the best in the market, which fact assures his customers a first class article.

Messrs. Lewis and Paterson have purchased the business formerly car-ried on by Messrs. Grigg & Barr, Brockville, and will open out in a few days with a new and complete stock of general dry goods. Mr. Lewis is known to Addison people as a thorough business man, and Mr. Paterson has had a number of year's experience with Messrs. Geo. C. Hutchinson & Co. We predict for them a successful career, and can confidently recommend the public to patronize them.

We visited Delta a day or two ago, and noted with pleasure an air of bustling activity among the business men of that rising village. We in-spected the brick and tile manufactory of Mr. J. E. Brown, and were much interested by what we saw. Business is rushing in the yards, and Mr. Brown employs a total of fifteen hands. The quality of the manufactures turned out is excellent, and the sizes range from a small two inch pipe to a large conduit for constructing drainage main. Over 100,000 tiles are now ready for delivery, in addition to a large stock of brick. Builders and farmers would consult their interests by communicating with Mr. Brown.

Attention is directed to the dates of the fairs, published elsewhere in this issue. Farmers, now is the time to commence preparations for making a good and large exhibit at the fairs. Stock raisers should not forget that the fair is the best place to advertise and sell any surplus stock. Mechanics, remember that if one of your carriages or implements takes a prize at a fair it is the very best kind of an adver-tisement you can have. Ladies, bear in mind that your department of the fair is especially attractive to the ma-jority of fair-goers. We trust that every one who possibly can, will put forth an extra effort to make the fairs in this county a grand success.

On Wednesday of last week some Scott Act cases were tried here before Police Magistrate Judd, which created considerable interest. Inspector Phillips was the prosecutor, and conducted his cases in person. Mr. F. W. Campbell, of Gananoque, appeared for the several defendants, who were all charged with second offences. After the examination of nine witnesses, the case against Edward Duffield, of Charlston, was dismissed as not proven. The other two cases were against Fred. Pierce and Adam Armstrong respectively, and nearly fifty witnesses had been subpoenaed by the prosecu-tion. The defence in both cases was that the refreshment bars had been leased to one in the Armstrong House to Harry Johnston and the Gamble House bar to Joseph Stucky. Mr. Campbell asked for a dismissal of the cases upon this ground, but In-spector Phillips asked for an enlarge-ment and a substitution of the names of Johnston and Stucky in the infor-mations. The Court decided to en-large the case, and adjourned to the first of September. Subsequently Johnston and Stucky pleaded guilty, and each paid a fine of $50 and costs. The costs of the first cases were ad-judged against the prosecution.

At a recent meeting of Farmersville Lodge, I. O. O. F., the following ad-dress of condolence was presented to Bro. E. McLean:—
DEAR BROTHER: We take this opportu-nity of expressing our sincere sympathy with you in your late bereavement. Dur-ing the sickness of your late, beloved wife it was the earnest prayer of your fraternal brethren that she might be spared to her affectionate husband and to her darling babe. But it seemed to be the will of Him who, knowing the end from the beginning, causes all things to work together for His own glory and the good of those who put their trust in Him, that she should leave this vale of care and sorrow and join the redeemed, who are continually before the throne praising Him day and night. While her departure has for a time deprived you of the joy of her immediate presence, yet the knowledge of the fact that she firmly trusted in Christ and there-fore has obtained a starry crown and is now numbered with the saints above, should be a source of solace. And now, dear brother, we pray that the All-seeing Eye of a Loving Father may ever watch over you and your dear child; that each day He may draw you nearer and nearer to Himself so that at last when the mes-senger of death shall lift the veil that hides the unknown from the known you may behold Christ, our Elder Brother, in com-pany with the loved one gone before, ready to welcome you into the land of bliss where there shall be no more sorrow or mourning and where all tears are wiped away from the eye.

Signed on behalf of Lodge.

Cornelius Vanderbilt is about forty years of age and worth certainly $75,000,000, perhaps $125,000,000. He is a tremendous worker, and his friends fear he is injuring his health by his assiduous attention to the de-tails of his business.

The Town of Windsor, N. S., chal-lenges Halifax to an exhibition of beautiful young women. The sugges-tion is that Halifax shall send twelve of her handsomest daughters to the Windsor fair, and that Windsor shall match them with a like number of her loveliest.

A Dakota man while on his way to borrow his neighbor's paper was struck by lightning and killed. We have no comment to make here, says the Colum-bian Capital. To intelligent people it isn't necessary.
