LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.
From the Pen of our Own News-Gatherers.

The REPORTER from now until the end of 1887 for one dollar.

The 17th of November will be Thanksgiving Day this year.

Merrickville is to have a musical convention, on the 4th 5th and 6th of October.

The third prize for large beans in last week's issue should have been credited to Wm. Hillis.

Mr. Wm. Parish has the contract for building a stable at the rear of Mrs. Miller's residence.

The Presbyterian service will be held in the town hall on Sunday morning, at half past ten o'clock.

A man and a monkey publicly conducted a gambling fake on Main street last week. Our village law-guardians, where were they?

The man who does not advertise displays as much good sense as the man who dons his Sunday clothes to climb a barbed wire fence.

Mr. Ambrose Logan, near Frankville, recently lost his barn and stable by fire. There was $600 of insurance, but the loss was twice that amount.

The Quarterly Services of the Society of Friends will be held in their meeting house on Saturday and Sunday next, beginning at 11 a.m. each day.

We understand that the Presbyterians have about concluded the purchase of the North Church from the Methodist body, the price being $2,200.

Mr. Fairclough, late of the Brockville High School staff, proceeded to Toronto last week, where he enters upon the duties of Greek professor in the University.

The return match between the Prescott and Mallorytown hockey teams was played at Mallorytown last week, when the Prescott club sustained a three straight defeat.

On Saturday last, Mr. J. P. Lamb visited Brockville, and paid $1 and costs for indulging in the too forcible expression of his opinion while the arrests were being made on Wednesday.

We are pleased to state that Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Slack, their daughter Mattie and son Charlie, who have been suffering from typhoid fever for the past six or seven weeks, are now recovering.

After a lingering illness of many weeks Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, wife of Abel Stevens, died on Monday morning, in the 74th year of her age. Deceased was a remarkable lady, and her death is regretted by a large circle of friends.

About 10:30 on Tuesday night a lamp exploded in the lamp-room of the Armstrong House and quite a serious fire ensued. Fortunately, there were a large number of guests at the house, and the fire was soon got under control, but not before considerable damage was done by fire and water.

Attention is directed to the advertisement in another column of Philimon Pennock, proprietor of the Elgin nurseries. Mr. Pennock's grounds are stocked with trees of desirable varieties and true to name. He has been in very poor health for some time, and has concluded to sell all his stock as mentioned in the advertisement. Those who want a few trees to stock up with could do better than to drive out and select what they require on one of the days mentioned.

The following paragraph we clip from the Brockville Enquirer:
Mr. G. M. Atwood, buyer of the shoes for A. D. Matthews & Sons, has accepted a position as salesman for the Chappan shoe company, of Chappan, N. Y., and will open an office in New York City. Mr. W. G. Griffin, assistant buyer of Woolsey & Abraham's shoe department, is to be Mr. Atwood's successor.

Mr. Griffin, a former resident of Brockville, has attained deserved success in the great mercantile houses of Gotham, and we are pleased to note this latest promotion.

The Methodist congregation at Temperance Lake surprised Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Wednesday evening last, by an apple donation. The friends brought with them bags of apples, pears, peaches, wilding fruit and cheerful spirits, and soon had so many apples prepared for drying that a bag had to be called. Then it came was stacked with apples and even some potatoes added to the preacher's pile.

The next in order was refreshments, prepared in rich abundance and a goodly number of the ladies, who made Mrs. Rogers the richer by some of the dainties, were left behind. After vocal and instrumental music, the pastor led in prayer, and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers bade good-bye to their warm-hearted friends.

The quarterly review of the Methodist Sunday School was conducted by Superintendent Fisher in the church on Sunday evening, in lieu of the regular service. The children, arranged in classes, occupied seats near the pulpit, and answered very readily the many questions asked relative to the lessons of the quarter. In the answers delivered by the classes in chorus, the bold, declamatory tones of the boys contrasted strongly with the sweet and low voices of the girls, and in the singing a pleasing modulation was obtained by allowing the infant class to repeat the choruses alone.

The quarter's lessons were on the Sermon on the Mount, and in the second part of the exercises the congregation was invited to join, and from the manner in which they responded it was evident that they had not taken advantage, to any great extent, of Mr. Fisher's oft-repeated invitation to attend the regular meetings of the school. The services were altogether of a pleasing character.

cause of the fire is unknown. George is a first-class fellow, and has the heartfelt sympathy of all his neighbors, who should turn out and assist in putting up new buildings for him. Court was well attended here on Tuesday. There are a great many courtiers, of all ages, in this vicinity. The brass band are doing it up well. That's right, boys, practice makes perfect.

Mr. Charlie Lombard has returned from his trip to Montreal with boxes. He took with him some very fine specimens for carriage and draught purposes. Charlie has moved into the village, and Dame Rumor says he is about to take to himself a partner of his joys and sorrows. Che whiz! Charlie, that is good.

The three mile race between Lady Lightfoot, owned by Alanson Baker, and Black Pug, owned by Norman Brown, was won by the former by ten seconds.

We have heard of fishing being a very poor speculation in some parts, but not so here. Lower Lake is a great place for fish of all kinds.

Newboro.

One of our young stove clerks should carefully study the tobacco market before expecting to get "two for cigars" in Farmersville or "two for five cents."

Our genial merchant, T. K. Preston, spent most of last week in Toronto, and we may look for something fine in the dry goods line soon.

Breece's store is finely illuminated evenings, and the front is the finest in town. Mrs. Breece lately returned from Montreal with fall styles in the millinery line.

Mr. Shaver, carriage manufacturer, is repairing and remodeling his works. The buildings will be a credit to our village.

We would like to report the exploits of two of our young gentlemen on the boat last week, but as we cannot get hold of the details we must defer the pleasure.

On Tuesday the 29th inst., George Rogers, two barns and stables were completely destroyed by fire, together with a large quantity of hay and many of the ladies, who made Mrs. Rogers the richer by some of the dainties, were left behind. After vocal and instrumental music, the pastor led in prayer, and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers bade good-bye to their warm-hearted friends.
