And make the heart leap like old wine. "Aye, smiles are best," the matron said, " My children love them more than toys; They are the manna of the days To all my romping girls and boys. And when with sweet words they are given, They blessing straightway bring from heaven

Then though you have naught else to give, Pray give the world a smiling face; It will forgive your gravest faults For this one happy act of grace. It needs no head with world-lore wise To sunshine make with lips and eyes.

Crystal did not answer; perhaps sh could not. He was coming up to London actually to Belgrave House, and on this very evening. Erle must have got scent of her secret-how or in what manner she could not guess; but all the same, it must be Erle who had betrayed her. She had thought him a little odd and constrained the last few times she had seen him; she to go through the shop?" had noticed more than once that his eyes had been fixed thoughtfully on her face as though he had been watching her, and he had found himself Retected. What did it all mean? but never mind that now. Raby would be coming to Beulah Place, but sl would be hundreds of miles away befor that; she was safe, quite safe; but if only she could see him before she went. If sh could only get rid of this tiresome Percy who would stay, perhaps, for hours. Could she give him the slip? She could never remain in his company through a long evening; it would drive her frantic to listen to was near, and she could not see him. An then all at once a wild idea came to her. and her pale cheeks flushed, and her eyes grew bright, and she began to talk rather quickly and in an excited manner.

"Oh! do you know, Mr. Trafford," she said, gravely, "I think it is very wrong you to encourage Mr. Erle to come so ofte to Beulah Place. Fern is pretty-very pretty, and Mr. Erle is fond of saying pleasant things to her, and all the time he knows Mr. Huntington wishes him to marry Miss Selby. He has no right to make himself so agreeable to your sister; and I think you ought to keep him in better order."

"Oh! I don't pretend to be Erle's mentor," he returned, a little sulkily; for he thought he saw her drift to keep him from talking of his own feelings. "I never interfere with other fellows."

"Yes, but Fern is your sister," in reproachful voice; "and I do think you are to blame in this. Why do you not tell him that he must leave your sister alone, and would be very angry if he knew of these would get into trouble."

"I can't help that,' was the indifferent answer. "Erle, must take his chance with the rest of us; he knows as well as I do the risk he runs." And in spite of her preoccupation, Crystal noticed a curious change in

"Do you mean that he would get into serious trouble? is that what you would imply? I do not think you are doing your duty, Mr. Trafford, if you do not warn him of Mr. Huntington's displeasure. Mr. Erle is weak, he is easily guided, but he has good principles; you could soon induce him to break off his visits.'

"I don't see that I need trouble myself about another fellow's love affair; I have too much in my own mind. Of course you look impatient, Miss Davenport, it is a crime to speak of my own feelings; but how can you expect me to take interest in another fellow when I am so utterly miserable myself?"

"Mr. Trafford," she said, trying to con

me speak to you for once, as though I were your friend," she would have substituted the word sister, but she feared to provoke one of his outbursts of indignant pleading "You know you may say what you like to me," he returned moved by the gentle ness of her speech, for she had never been so gracious to him before. "You have more influence over me than any one else in the world. If you could make me a better man, Miss Davenport. "I would give much to do it," she answered in a low voice that thrilled him strangely. "Mr. Trafford, you will b angry with me if I speak to you very frankly, and earnestly-as earnestly," here she paused, "as though we were biddir each other good bye to night for a long

"If you will call me Percy," he replied, with sudden vehemence, "you shall say what you like to me." "Very well," she answered, with a fain smile at his boyish insistance, "it shall be Percy then-no, do not interrupt me," as he seemed about to speak. "I am very troubled and unhappy about Mr. Erle's visits; they are doing harm to Fern, and must tell you, once for all, that you are not doling your duty either to your sister or "Erle again," he muttered moodily. "Yes, because the matter lies very close to my heart, for I dearly love your sister Mr. Trafford-Percy, I mean-you have youth, health, talents-the whole world lies before you; why do you envy your cousin, because he is likely to be a richer man than "He has robbed me of my rightful inheritance," was the moody answer. "It could never be yours," she returned, quickly; "a Trafford will never be Mr

Huntington's heir." "I would change my name." "That would avail you little," with touch of her old scorn, for the speech dis pleased her. "Mr. Hundindgon would never leave his money to the son of the man he hated, and of the daughter whose disobedience embittered his life. Mr. Erle has to answer for no sins but his own.' "He had better be careful though," was tears running down her cheeks. the quick response. "What, have you done him misch ef already? Why-why are you not more generous to the poor boy? Why do you encourage these visits that you know will anger Mr. Huntingdon? Why do you tempt him from his duty? Percy I implore you to be true to yourself and him. Look into your own heart and see if you are acting an honorable part." "You are always hard on me," he returned, sullenly. "Who has been blackening my name to you?" " No one, no one, " she answered quickly :

"but you are a feekless talker, and I have "And now, I lookalmost as smart as the might drink first, and he said. "Oh, laws. gathered much from my own observation. Princess Dove herself.

"You would hate me all the more, I sup. | the new hat is very pretty." pose," in a defiant voice. " Indeed I do not hate you, my poor poy: "But Fluff!---" inheritance-one who was so afraid of sea last summer?' poverty that he deserted his mother for the "Of course he would, and mother and I pillar box, and another footman was fast too late to retrieve the past. If you have sagaciously. to your grandfather."

clever you are-what a splendid barrister lace to find me." success and money will come to you in | Fluff?"

winning you in the future?"

"Why not?" he demanded, fiercely. "Because I belong to another," answered, slowly, and there came a wonder- | good child. will live as I am to my life's end." They had reached Beulah Place by this Fern ?"

There were few passers-by, so no one Fluffy!" us companion's hands.

" I tell you this for your own good, and cannot help that."

I cannot trust myself."

turned away without a word. Crystal had looked after him rather wist- the shop door.

Crystal was walking very fast now, as round the empty room. she hailed it. "Will you drive me to Vic- her birthday; this was the treat she had ache?"-for Raby had uttered a low groan, the curve. Somehow it seemed to me l oot can had got down and was making tination.

centre of the carriage. "You must let me then she resumed her walk with much elp you out," Crystal heard her say in a dignity is a deep step-take care;" but as Raby such speech, in her odd abrupt way. trol her impatience, " I wish you would let tried to follow these instructions a little to Miss Merriman, gently guided him and proudly, that most of them answered her too, who scorned the burden of even a placed him in safety.

the matter, Mr. Ferrers?'

Miss Merriman darted away.

Once he looked up as hasty footsteps house brushed him, as though he would move aside, but a girlish figure interposed fellow, but, as he expressed it afterwards, between him and the loaded truck, and again he thought she was the rummiest little lady the little hand guided him to safety.

would have knocked you, only the young her drooping spirits by a dab of hot brown yours a (native hut), not only on account of

CHAPTER XXVII. PLUFF GOES TO SEE GRANDPAPA. Thou, like a little curious fly That fusses through the air,

Dost pry and pry And with many questions, ever Rippling like a restless river. l'uzzneg many an older brain. Dost thou hour by hour increase thy store 1 DIRECTORS TODGE Thus a squirrel, darting defuly, Up and down autumnal trees, Sees its hoard of chestnuts growing swiftly In a beap upon the leaf-strewn leas. Claude Lake.

You have told me more than once that you " I really think you do, Fluff, though you which speech Fluff took as a compliment. are in debt; sometimes I fear you gamble. The lies as if he believed his own lie."

Oh!" as a darkefish mounted to his fore once saw parading the streets of Tokio, soberly dressed as to coat and trousers, but I assure you graduated at Princeton in 1878. He is now I like your white frock much better; and But she felt as though her troubles were his white head surmounted by a child's Banks, says; "Mr. Halstend is a good graduated at Princeton in 1878. He is now

" But Fern!

or one who fried to rob another of his about the dog when we were down by the and, oh dear, what joy, the door was open

loaves and fishes of the man who was her would stand and listen to him and try not asleep in a chair that looked like a baby's to laugh. 'Lost, stolen, or strayed, a little | cradie turned upside down. "The old story," in a despairing voice; witch-girl in a clean white frock, rather too Fluff ran up the steps and looked in. will you never give me the benefit of an much starched; a frilled cape that crackles be strayed, like the sheep in the turnip. Fluff began to feel giddy. "And be turned out of the house a field, when the shepherd turned them all But it was babyish to feel frightened in pened when she was a wee baby, twelve tion among ministers. beggar."

Supposing I strayed on purpose, Fern, you courage, and passing the sleepy footnan on the between Newburyport and Byfield, and I tiptoe, crept softly up stairs, holding very between Newburyport and Byfield, and I tightly to the balustrades, for she felt as was then the engineer instead of conductor,

"Never mind the senses; I saw them and I canaries were singing. Here she saw a halfmyself." Then, with a sudden change of corner cupboard, china images she called open door, and pushed it open, and then she was in fairy-land.

"Never mind the senses; I saw them and canaries were singing. Here she saw a halfopen door, and pushed it open, and then longs to my story, too, as you will find.
You remember that hill with the cottage at tone, "Crystal, if I do this-if I leave Bel- them, and I thought them so pretty. Give she thought she was in fairy-land. grave House, will you give me a hope of me the four pence half-penny for buns, Fern It was such a large beautiful room, with the foot of it, and golden rod and wild

she | you do not go too far :, come back soon, like a | chair a gentleman asleep, for he had his | event of my life occurred. ful light in her eyes; " and for his sake I " Of course I am good on my birthday.

ime, and Mrs. Watkins' shop was in sight. " Dear me, what an odd question, thinking. His face looked very nice and that morning as I walked over to the noticed why Percy stood still and seized "Never mind that; in the Sunday school | childhood she laid her hand on his knee. | heavy with dew, and there were clusters of the teacher always answers the children's "If you please, sir, will you tell purple grapes on the vines along the hedge. "You love another man? You dare to questions directly; she is a very nice me where I can find grandpapa."

will you ring the bell, for there is no need Well, they fell down dead because they had strange dreamy life of his. told a lie."

"I am not coming in," he said hoarsely. Fluff shifted her pence uneasily. unhappy, but indeed it is your fault, and I penny for the sweeper. Here is the four-thought it better to tell you the truth. pence, Fern; I don't think I shall be hungry that you have made you people; one Dath, two plant, two plants, two plan Good bye, my poor boy;" but though her until ten-time. Now, good-bye, I must go." did you say; do you mean that you live at wife and baby used to be sitting out there voice was full of gentleness and pity, he "Why, Fluff, what nonsense! here, Beulah Place in the Elysian Fields?"

ully; her heart felt strangely soft to him | "I don't believe there is such another | poor little hands were held so tightly that her; and I was such a strong healthy to-night. "Was it wrong to tell him, I child in the United Kingdom," she said to they were quite red and sore afterwards. | young fellow I felt that I should be able to wonder?" she said to herself, as she quickly herself, laughing. "She is terribly young "Oh, she has gone to America with that protect and guard her always. etraced her steps. "He is terribly reck. for her age, and so amusing; how dull it horrid Miss Campion; yes, and she is Almost 3 o'clock and the old forty-nine will be held in the parlor of the Elm Street Joseph Clark, a boy sent from Kingston ess, one never knows how he may take will be without her this afternoon, and horrid to take our dear Criss-crass away. was puffing and steaming fit to burst as we Methodist Church, Toronto, on Tuesday, to Penetanguishene some years ago, escaped things. It was good of him to listen to me poor Crystal so far away, I wish mother Fern cried so this morning, and Crystal neared the bend. I was already looking to- October 18th, at 2 p. m. so patiently; and now he has gone away had not let her go, or that she were safe | cried too, but she had to go, she said, so it | ward the hill and sure enough there was home again;" and Fern sighed as she looked | was no use making a fuss about it; and | the baby's white dress; no, I was mis-hough she had suddenly remembered some Now it so happened that Fluff had coaxed time. What is the matter?" peering They were not there. Why, I wondered. errand. As an empty hansom passed her her mother to let her take a walk alone on urious in his face, "does your head Perhaps they would be there before I turned

6.30 train from Singleton. I think there new hat that Crystal had trimmed for her | though he were suddenly oppressed. as a parting present; and she had promised "None too much," was the somewhat gruff | to be very careful, and not go too far. The answer, "but my horse is fresh;" and fourpeace was to be expended in buns-so. Crystal drew into a corner and tried to curb | she and her mother had arranged, but Fluff ner impatience by watching the passers by; had secretly intended to put it to another but her fear of being too late kept her rest. purpose, until her conscientious scruples had obliged her to leave it at home instead As they drove into Victoria Station a of paying the omnibus fare that was to handsome barouche, with a pair of fine save her poor little legs; they would get onys, attracted Crystal's attention. The sorely tired before they reached their des-

inquiries of a porter. "Singleton train | Fluff ran down several streets, till sh keep to Miss Selby. Your grandfather just due," Crystal heard the man say, as was out of breath, and then she fell into a she handed the cabman his fare; and as little trot; but first she gave the half-penny visits to Beulah Place, and then Mr. Erle she quickly passed through the station, to a ragged boy, and begged him carnestly the train slowly drew up at the platform. | never to tell stories; and after that sh Only just in time! Crystal pressed asked him the way to Belgravia. Not geteagerly forward, scanning the occupants ting a lucid answer from him, as he only of all the carriages until she came to the told her that he had been a cripple from There were two passengers in this com. which, being brimstone, was bad for rheum partment; a young lady, with a good- atics, Fluff told him she would have natured freckled face, was speaking to a repeated the whole story of Ananias and very tall man who was standing in the Sapphira to him, only she had no time, and leasant countryfied voice, "and wait with | And the method of it was this-if method you until your friends find you;" and then it could be called which had in its sidelor ame the answer in the deep tones Crystal movements the similitude of a crab. First she went into every baker's shop she passed "Thank you, you are very kind. My and, shaking her head sorrowfully at the infortunate infirmity gains new friends for fresh current buns on the counters, asked me everywhere; so after all, you see, in a confidential whisper the quickest and even blindness has its alleviations. Miss shortest way to Belgravia; and when they "Oh, I will be sure to tell papa what you business, she pursed up her mouth and said ay; it will be such a comfort to him. Now, that was not the question, and would they will you put your hand on my shoulder-it | please confine themselves to facts, or some

And she looked such a little lady as she gloved hand, that certainly did not belong spoke, and held her little head up so Miss Merriman nodded and smiled her starting on his afternoon round, said he he failed to steal one (which was seldom).

The baker's boy was a good-natured alacrity .- Philadelphia Times. he had ever met; indeed, he confided his "It is all right—the man says he is wait. suspicions to a grocer's lad that she " was a Delta, Lieut. William H. Schultz says : ng for Mr. Ferrers," observed Miss Merri. bit cracky;" but he let her sit on his cart | As we approached Verchoyansk (Northern man briskly at this moment. "What horrid for all that, and trundled her the length of Siberia), the cold was almost unbearable, things those trucks are; I was afraid one two or three streets; and further he revived compelling a stop at nearly every inhabited

"What ! a young lady !" asked Raby, side of a loaf which, as he said, would never | which suffered visibly during the low tem-"Oh, only a tall young lady in brown, After that they got facetious, and admired yourtus are not far apart as one approaches who seemed to notice you wanted help. She a Punch and Judy show together, and the village. Breathing was at times diffi-

has gone now-probably a passenger for the parted with deep regret, when a policeman | cult, and on January 10th and 11th (1886) | when Solomon wrote, and that when Poor | adjourned, to meet next year in Sarnia desired them to move on. "I think all young ladies are good to me." Fluff began to feel rather lonely after responding to 86.80 Prof. returned Raby with grave courtesy, hold. It was getting late, she was afraid, zero. This is the coldest temperature ever that one fellow did the borrowing and the Foster was in attendance, and received a ing out his hand. "I know I have met with and those little legs of hers ached dread observed, and I afterward had the sorrowing. I am older now, great setting out from Mrs. Youmans. very kind fellow-passenger;" and then, as fully; but she fell in at the park gates tion of establishing it beyond a doubt by my children, than I was when I was ne took the footman's arm and entered the with a playful flower girl, who ran a race the agreement of the thermometers at sounger, and I have learned that there is carriage, Miss Merriman saw the tall young with her, basket and all, and then stood Verchovansk, observed by exiles who were nothing in the world that will make a man The proof of the pudding is the eating lady in brown walk quickly out of the and igered in broad Irish because she was | furnished with instruments by the Central hate you so bitterly as to owe you borrowed and the proof of the extraordinary power

> It was nearly tea-time now, she thought: maintained its reputation of being the pole | you? ing the old crier after her. She wondered latitude is only 680 north. how she was to get back. She was very thirsty, and felt half inclined to cry; and then it struck her that the large splendidpassing and asked him.

the next square;" and when she heard that | been asked to stop them. she clapped her hands joyfully, and went and drank out of a little iron bowl in company with a sweep. She asked him if she | show is a red-haired negro infant.

over when she stood in front of Belgrave House, its many windows shining like but you make me very angry sometimes. If I were to be lost really and truly What a grand place it was finer than Renfrew have subscribed $1,000 with which Halstead is the veteran editor of the Cin- stars reminds him of the old college days Do you know me so little as to think I lost, you know-would the funny old town- the Crystal Ball Palace where Princess to fight the repeal of the Scott Act.

The footman had just run out to the excuse—will you never allow me to defend when she moves, and a pretty broadbright property and the cold ministers, the Scotsman returns when she moves, and a pretty broadbright property broadbright pr was a great staircase with carved balustrades and dark slippery stairs, and the doors were all shut, and there was not a sound in have a different feeling toward her from Spurgeon. Though no direct notice was out because they had no business there. her own grandpapa's house, so she took years ago. you will make. You can take pupils; "Indeed! have you lost your senses, though she were slipping every step, and and was younger looking than I am now presently she came to a sunny landing. with this white head of mine. "Never mind the senses; I saw them all | place with a conservatory, where some | Only 36 years old, sir, and you see I

> "Oh Fluff, Fluff, do becareful, and mind eries, and lovely china; and in an arm- around the bend that the most terrible children, contains the following edifying herald."—Richmond Religious event of my life occurred. eyes shut. What did they do to Ananias and Sapphira, was not asleep, for his eyes opened, and yet | sky looked, as deep and blue as my baby's teacher though she has red hair, but she The gentleman raised his eyes—as Fluff and as the fall came on they were deep to a commission of four cardinals. The told her mother afterwards, "he looked at crimson instead of pink, as they are earlier Empress of Austria's commemorative gift that you may never speak to me again "Oh, indeed! so I must tell you about me without seeing me;" and then his hand in the season. I had one in my buttonhole is a magnificent tiara valued at 70,000 as you have done. You must not be angry Ananias and Sapphira. What is the mat- closed quietly over the child's. Nothing that morning. with me for telling you the truth; and now ter? how pale you look, my pet. . . . ever seemed to startle Raby Ferrers in that Baby had put it there when she kissed to the number of 1,200, will shortly set out cannot trust myself."

That was the lie they told about the "My grandpapa's name is Mr. Hunting- My wife was a Christian, and although I Missions for the Northwest, is expected to "What makes you so strious, Bobby?"

Then we will say good-bye here," was land and money that they wanted to keep don, and he lives in this house—Belgrave did not believe in her religion then, I have return to Optario during the winter. he quiet answer, and she pressed his hands themselves. I think they were greedy House it is called, and I am Florence learned to put my trust in God since baby kindly. "Forgive me if I have made you people; one Bath, two plain, and a half- Trafford, but they call me Fluff at home." lisped to me about the rose that morning.

scarcely heard it. He had wrung her hands, Fluff;" but Fluff was scuttling downstairs "Yes, at Mrs. Watkins'-mother, and hands at me, and the baby would look so almost throwing them from him and had as fast as she could go, and Fern was only Fern, and I, and Crystal too, only she went sweet and innocent, waving her little fat in time to see her little feet whisking through away this morning.

she does not mean to come back for a long | taken; it was only a piece of newspaper. and had dropped Fluff's hands, and he was | never so longed to have them there as I did usiness-like tone; "I want to meet the She was to wear her best frock and her pushing back the heavy dead-brown heir as that day, and I kept anxiously looking un-

(To be continued.)

Peach Culture. The conditions of failure in peach-grow ing, concisely stated, are:

1. A wet soil, or one that from any caus whether the land is situated high or low. 2. Excessive fertility while the trees are

3. Severe cutting back of the young and robbing it of much natural vitality. 4. Allowing the tree to overbear and

5. By deficient and improper cultivation. On the other hand the conditions of success in peach-growing are: 1. An elevated locality that is not subject to late frosts in the spring or late frosts in | body pushed me over and I fell down here.

2. A warm and moderately fertile soil that is well drained by nature. Artificia drainage may prove successful, but its of the train, carrying baby on my shoulder, utility has not yet been fully demonstrated. all the men threw up their hats and tion produced in the soil by growth of trees to pray for her safety and happiness, as fine family and education came to this through that great blood-purifying organ, and fruit.

4. Never let a tree overbear. 5. Continue cultivation until the close of the dry season every summer, even if it continues until September.

I well remember one fellow, a fine soldier with civility; and one big baker's boy, just blanket on a march, and so at night, when

The Greatest Known Cold. In his report of his mission to the Lena bread, scooped skilfully out of the ourselves, but more owing to the reindeer, peratures. Fortunately these inhabited the temperature sank to 66 Celsius, cor. Richard said, "He that goes a borrowing Mrs. Addie Chisholm was re-elected Presistation; and as she passed her there were beaten, while Fluff sat down, sulky and Meteorological Observatory at Pavlovsk, tears running down her cheeks. exhausted, on a beach under the trees.

> A Deserved Thrashing. E. H. McAlpine, referee in equity at St. House, and she ran up to a workman just other day by Captain Peters, of Quebec, whose neck has been abstracted a bullet its promptitude in doing its work. brother-in-law of Miss Beatrice Hathaway, | which he received during the Crimean war. that was not Belgrave House, it was in attentions to that young lady after he had been in deceased's neck for 33 years.

Taverner in Boston Post.

A SKETCH Of a Little Child, an August Rose and an Answered Prayer. The following literary sunbeam is from debts, if you are in trouble, own it frankly " It would not be stolen or lost, it would not be

-one Bath, two plain, and a half-penny to marble ladies standing in the corners, with clematis growing along the stone wall? She shook her head; "I cannot give you the sweeper that takes me best over the baskets, and satin couches, and face drap-It was one day in August, in the first of Fluff stole in and looked at him; no, he | the month, and I will never forget how the he did not seem to see her, perhaps he was | eyes, nor how sweet and still the air was kind, and with the unerring instinct of station. The golden rod and ferns hung The roses were unusually late that year, me good-by. "Who are you' my child, and who is your | "Pitty 'ose, papa, for 'oo. Dod made it, mamma tell me so. Dod live up in 'ky."

on the hill and they would wave their arm, I used to have a great longing in my "Away-what do you mean?" and Fluff's heart that no harm should ever come to til away in the distance on the track I saw something that made every pulse in my body give a great leap and then stand still. Madras. There, just ahead of me, toddling along, arms stretched out to balance herself, was with her yellow hair flying and her little my baby! A moment more and the wheels would be grinding her body and her precious blood would stain the track. I lived ages in that moment of agony. I waved my arms, shouted, rang the bell like young, whether it be secured in the natural a madman, and as I was pulling the rope conditions of the soil or by the ingenuity the rose fell from my buttonhole on to the seat, and baby's words, "Dod made it. lovely; did-" "Oh, perfectly lovely; I Dod live up in 'ky," came to me. For the declare, Mame, I-" "So did I, and rowth each year, thus dwarfing the tree first time in my life I poured out my soul in prayer. "God save my child." At that thus exhaust the vitality by a single crop grassy embankment. As soon as I could I had a perfectly splendid time every minute, ran back to find her, and there she sat in be at home again?" "Perfectly lovely." mouth to me, and as I hugged her to my heart she lisped

Don't ky, papa! For I was crying and thanking God at the same time, and when I came alongside loveliest-" "So have I-perfectly 3. Thorough cultivation, without manure, cheered and most of the women were sobuntil the trees come into bearing, then com- bing. That rose is in the locket with one bine the two so as to supply all the deple- of her baby curls, and I have never failed neapolis girl. A certain Swedish baron of well as for many other things since that country and, the old story, found himself cleanses the system of all blood-taints and imday. Isn't she a beauty, too? And you obliged to obtain any situation to keep can't blame me for liking this time of year from absolute want, so he entered the neys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, best, and for always wearing an August clothing store of M- as clerk. Well, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As rose whenever my darling girl pins one in this young lady, hearing he was a noble, digestion and nutrition, thereby building up

Old Truths Newly Told. terian see the Standard, the new organ of and he wrote his name, and beneath, "Clerk would see her past the dangerous crossing he sat up by a fire and made night hideous Henry George? Those who do not miss a in M -- 's store." " O," said he to me "There, you are all right now. What is in the next street, and put her a little on with mock sermons of wonderful theology good deal, whether they sympathize with you should have seen her face lengthen, and her way. Fluff said she was very much and doubtful morality. Strange to say, Henry George's theories or not. In an she said, 'I didn't want that. I wanted Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases "I thought some one touched me," he obliged to him, and trotted confidingly at his he survived the war, and is now enlisted age, when many shrewd practical men seem your name and your title.' There it is,' caused by bad blood are conquered by this returned, with a puzzled look, "and you side, adapting her conversation to her in the army of the Lord. At Vicksburg drifting away from Christianity altogether, I answered; there's the name and clerk powerful, purifying, and invigorating mediwere on my other side, so I suppose it was hearer as she thought best, for she enlarged this same preacher was responsible for a and when the gulf between the rich and the at M—'s is the only title I wear in this its benign influence. Especially has it maniin a rambling way on the Miracle of the ready retort under trying circumstances. poor seems to be growing more and more country."-St. Paul Pioneer Press. "Yes, a young lady," as Crystal moved Loaves, and told him what her teacher said He was then a firm Calvinist, and was impassable, it is refreshing to read such away rather suddenly. "Ah, there is a on the subject of the fishes; and then she always ready to do battle in defence of his addresses as are weekly reported in that footman; he seems in search of some one. became confidential, and explained to him creed. One day he was sitting with a group paper-addresses spoken to crowded audi-I will ask him if he belooking for you," and that she bore an innocent partiality for the in an angle of the works, discussing his ences of workingmen in the city of New moist peely bits of soft crusts that one favorite dogma of predestination. Just York, by such speakers as Dr. Pentecost and Raby stood quietly waiting, but he little | could pare off a loaf without showing a sad | then a shell exploded among them and | the great-hearted Dr. McGlynn-an Ameriknew that the girl he had come to London to deficiency, and how she always liked to knocked the predestinarian over without can Pere Hyacinthe-who has sacrificed his spaired, health appears as a priceless boon. seek was standing a few yards from him, take in the bread at Mrs. Watkins' for the hurting him. When he recovered his ecclesiastical prospects that he might trying to see him through the tears that purpose; and lastly, she told him in a breath and legs he darted off for the shelter preach, according to his conscience, the old who are suffering from some of the many weary little voice that she was going to see of a traverse just in front of us. His an- truths of the Sermon on the Mount. It is Many people turned to look after the tall, grandpapa, who lived in a big house in Bel. | tagonist yelled at him and twitted him for | this and no wild socialism that he and striking looking man in clerical dress. The gravia, but that she was getting very tired, want of faith in his own doctrine. He did others are preaching to the crowds Sunfelt hat just shaded the pale, massively cut for she had a bone in her leg-two bones, not pause in the order of his going, but day after Sunday, and that the crowds, too, features. He looked older, Crystal thought, she thought and might she sit please on stuttered back :" Ca-ca-can't stop; its pre- listen to, even as the common people did and a little sadder, but the mouth was as the top of his little cart to rest her predestination that I must get on the other long ago, when the "Galilean Gospel" was poor legs when he went into the next side of the traverse !" and he fulfilled the first preached. It is an instance also of the the Chequasset kennels, is one of the most decree to the letter and with commendable uniting power of the great practical verities successful breeders of the St. Bernard dogs edy to the public. Dr. Pierce thought scripusly listened to with earnest and sympathetic land studying the dog, and is an authority a medicine which, from its wonderful comattention by an assembly of Methodist on the subject. ministers, as he explained the platform of the Anti-Poverty Society. Has not the Church allowed questions theoretical too much to interfere with her practical unity? and has she been as fathful to her " message to men of wealth" as she should have been?-Canada Presbyterian. How to Make a Man Your Enemy. I have often thought that people hadn't morfey that he cannot pay.

- Burdette. A coming man-The man for his rent.

sailor hat with floating blue streamers .- man for he is good to his mother in-law, Court astronomer at Tokio. When he acand when a man is good to his mother-in cepted the court appointment his name The temperance people of the County of law he is good to every one else." Mr. was changed to Hidemaro Okenna. Seeing cinnati Commercial.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Spurgeon's Orthodoxy-The Pope's Jubitee

-A Little Mormon's Hymn. Though Mr. Spurgeon has denied the Fluff ran up the steps and looked in.

There was a beautiful scent of flowers as the pen of Carrie McAyval in Good Cheer:

Story of his probable withdrawal if the Baptist Union failed to punish certain here was a beautiful scent of flowers as

That's something I never do; and as to heterodox ministers, the Scotsman returns sir, I'll tell you about something that hap- writings are the main topics of conversa-

The Pan-Presbyterian Council meets in June next. The American Executive Co. mittee has been called to meet on Wednesday, 26th inst., at New York. At the meeting will be representatives from all parts of North America. Among the delegates will be Rev. Principal Caven, of Toronto ; Rev. Dr. McVicar, of Montreal Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Brantford, and

A Sunday school hymn book recently the instruction of good little Mormon

With Jesus for the standard, A sure and perfect guide, And Joseph's wise example What can I need beside? I'll strive from every evil To keep my heart and tongue, I'll be a little Mormon

And follow Brigham Young. The Pope has intrusted all arrangements in connection with his jubilee celebration francs. A pilgrimage of French workmen, for Rome for the purpose of offering homage to the Pope. Rev. Mr. Robertson, Superintendent of months and will visit any congregations "Why, ma told me that I must remem desiring his services at missionary meet- ber not to ask for anything to eat, and I'm ings or otherwise. Those desiring his trying to remember it." ener of the committee, Rev. Dr. Cochrane,

Folks often excuse themselves saying lations require that the help shall be they can't afford to give; but if they saw attended by a physician employed by the things in a truer light they'd say that they | hotel. Under this system Dr. Sargent, for couldn't afford to keep .- Mark Guy Pearse. | the Windsor Hotel, yesterday vaccinated The annual meeting of the Methodist | the 287 employees of that house. It was General Conference Sabbath School Board | an all day's job .- N. Y. Sun.

Rev. Dr. MacGregor, of St. Cuthbert's, Edinburgh, preached at Balmoral on a recent Sunday morning, and had the honor, along with the Empress Eugenie, of dining with the Queen in the evening.

Dr. Alexander Paterson, who has been ppointed medical missionary to South Arabia, is grandson of Dr. Chalmers'

" Missionary of Kilmany" and son of the Church's first medical missionary to

They Told Each Other All. "Why, Manie, is it really you?" "Yes, "Only yesterday, and-" "Where were you?" "Oh, every place-Newport, Bar Harbor, Long Branch and-but where were you?" "Oh, we went to---"Did you have a good time?" "Perfectly "I had the best-" "So did I, and oh, Mame-" "Do tell me all about moment she stumbled and fell down the it, for I "I will, some time; I just and ___ " "So did I; but isn't it lovely to "I think so, too; I've had a lovely season of it, but then-" "So have I, but, as "I tied to climb on cars, papa, but some- you say-" "There's no place like home, after all." "No, indeed; do come and I-" "I will, for I have had the splendid!" They separate .- Tid-Bits. Properly Rebuked. I was told the richest thing about a Minmy buttonhole, as she did this one two must have his autograph, so she came into both flesh and strength. In malarial districts the store one day and requested it, leaving her album. It puzzled him greatly. Why should she want his autograph, a complete How many readers of the Canada Presby- stranger ? Suddenly the truth struck him | covery

What it Means. To the man or woman who has never been ill, the word " health " is meaningless. But to the one who has suffered and de liar to their sex, Dr. Pierge's Favorite Prescription holds forth the promise of a speedy restoration of this " priceless boon."

Miss Anna Whitney, the proprietor o of Christianity that Dr. McGlynn has been | in America. She spent years in Switzer-

The spooks and goblins that delight To fill with terror all the night; That stalk abroad in hideous dreams With which dyspepsia's fancy teems. Will never trouble with their ills The man who trust in Pierce's Pills Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets vegetable, harmless, painless, sure !

The tenth annual convention of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance got borrowing down to an exact science | Union concluded its business yesterday and over pain of Polson's Nerviline is the using "But why should that make him mad at | it. Polson's Nerviline never fails to perform wonders in every case of pain. It canno in another hour or so Fern would be send of the greatest known cold, although its I do not know, children; I do not know, fail, for it is consposed of powerful pain subduing remedies. It goes right to the Nerviline cures all kind of pain, internal or There has just died at Kendal, Eng., an external. Go to any drug store and get a looking building opposite might be Belgrave John, N. B., was publicly thrashed the old pensioner named Wm Lindsay, from 10 or 25 cent bottle, and be delighted by

Results Tell.

"No," he said, eyeing her wondering, of St. John for persisting in annoying The bullet is the size of a marble, and had Rev. Adirondack Murray, whose s cialty is fish stories, crossed the line into anada One of the latest achievements of the other day and came back crestallen. science is the measurement of a snail's Of the lying capacity of the French Cana. One of the attractions at the Boston baby. pace. It has just been demonstrated that dian he says; "There is a childish enthus. a snail can go a mile in fourteen days, lasm about it that captivates you. H No Chinaman would ever have been Science should now attempt to discover smiles as he lies. He lays his hands on his betrayed into the ridiculous plight of a how long it takes the average messenger. heart; he lifts his eyes upward; he embel. THE COOK'S BEST FOIT ALL

when he took part in cane rushes.

A Prominent Merchand ' . Trouble

Old money bags mopes in has office all day.

As snappish and cross a bear;

The clerks know enough a keep out of his way,

Lest the merchant should gramble and two Even Tabby, the cat, is in fear of a cuff. Or a kick, if she ventures too near; They all know the master is apt to be rough,

There's certainly something the matter with

We've guessed it - his liver is sluggish and bad, Hisblood is disordered and foul. Its enough to make any one hopelessly mad. And greet his best friends with a growl. The world-wide remedy, Dr. Pierce's iolden Medical Discovery, will correct a disordered liver and purify the blood, tone your system and build up your flesh and

An Accommodating Miller. " You complain of having to pay your pastor's salary," said an old miller. " I will pay it for you and you shall not feel it." At the end of the year he brought in a receipt in full for the salary from the pastor, and then he explained: "I did it by taking a little toll when you sent your issued at Salt Lake City, "to fill a long grain to my mill, and I took so little that felt want" (as the preface declares) in none of you felt it. You see how easily the

A Toronto Divorce Case. Messrs. Foster, Clarke & Bowes, solicitors, of Toronto, give notice that application will be made to Parliament next session on behalf of Andrew Maxwell Irving, of Toronto, clerk, for a bill of divorce from his wife, Marie Louise Irving. formerly of Toronto, now of Buffalo, on the ground of adultery. This is the fourth divorce case which the Senate will have to deal with next session.

A Forgetful Boy.

Bobby was spending the afternoon at his aunt's, and for some moments had been gazing out of the window in a painfully

All the big hotels in this city are ru under the strictest discipline. The regu-and arrived at his home yesterday, having footed it all the way.

cally and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizzineta frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" haustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulnes indescribable feeling of dread, or of impe If, you have all, or any considerable number

Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symp-Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery tions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consump tion of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discelebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred discases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Dis-CURES ALL HUMORS from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores. fested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, lous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections. "FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Br. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested relous power over this terribly fatal disease, of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name ass too restrictive for or blood-cleansing, anti-billous, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catavrb, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottle Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association,

663 Main St., BUFFALO, N. Y.

D C.N L. 43 87. time and then have them return again. I mean a radical cure. I have made the disease of PII's, EPILEPSY or PALLING SICKNESSA life-long study. I warrant my remedy cure the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at come for a treaties and a Pres Bottle of my infalling remedy. Give Express and Post Office. It costs you nothing for a trial and I will cure you. Address DR. H. G. ROOT.

Branch Office, 37 Youge St., Toronto.

I have a positive remody for the above disease, he its neethousands of cases of the worst kind any of long standing with a Valifabile Tillative on this diam. " to any

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto