LETTERS FROM CALIFORNIA.

Mr. Thos. Smart, late of Brockville, has written a series of letters from California, giving glowing accounts of the prospects in that State.

Riverside, Cal., Oct. 12.—We arrived here yesterday, right side up with ease.

The topic of the day is the good quality and low price of goods to be found at H. S. Moffatt's.

Our popular and highly esteemed teacher, Mr. W. A. Lewis, is succeeding remarkably well in training the young idea how to shoot.

Mrs. Pritchard, milliner and mantlemaker of this village, has removed to the chamber of the stone house opposite H. S. Moffatt's.

Rev. D. C. Sanderson preached a very eloquent sermon at Brockville, on Sunday, the 6th, to the "members of associations" there.

Mr. Charles Hayes, who has been engaged by Mr. E. Davis for the past two years, is now moving into the village having been engaged lately by Mr. W. Lewis of this place.

Mrs. Sanderson and family have returned from visiting her friends and it is needless to remark she was greatly missed by the villagers during her absence.

It is with deep feelings of regret and sadness that we are obliged to chronicle the death of Mr. Horace Hayes.
