Nor dares to wear a garment old; A heritage, it seems to see. One searce would wish to hold in fee. The rich man's son inherite cares; The bank may break, the factory burn, A breath may burst his bubble shares. And soft white hands could hardly earn A living that would serve his turn;

What does the poor man's son inherit? Stout muscles and a sinewy heart, A hardy frame, a hardier spirit ; King of two hands, he does his part In every useful toil and art; A heritage, it seems to me. A king might wish to hold in fee.

A heritage, it seems to me. One scarce would wish to hold in fee:

What does the poor man's son inherit? A patience learned of being poor, Courage if sorrow come to bear it, A fellow-feeling that is sure To make the outcast bless his door A heritage, it seems to me. A king might wish to hold in fee.

O rich man's son! there is a toil That with all others level stands Large charity doth never soil But only whitens soft white hands-This is the best crop from thy lands A heritage, it seems to me Worth being rich to hold in fee.

O poor man's son ! scorn not thy state ; There is worse weariness than thine In merely being rich and great; Toil only gives the soul to shine, And makes rest fragrant and benign ; A heritage, it seems to me. Worth being poor to hold in fee.

-James Russell Lowell.

ping him; no, let him stop with his mother. her sad plaintive little way.

ing herself, and rocking the baby to and dicted him. fro feebly. "You speke so loudly, Hugh, And by and by, when the days grew do you think you could do without Janet, place cannot hold us both—at least not for pocket-knife in the current of air for four tears? I'm getting to be as soft as a good of a nurse if you exhaust yourself | really began to mend. like this?" And he pulled the bell rope

"Oh, please don't send my baby away." she implored, in quite a piteous voice; "he is always with me now, and so good and quiet, only you startled him so."

"Nonsense," he returned decidedly "your illness has made you fanciful surely I must know what is best for my wife. Nurse, why do you allow Lady Redmond to wear herself out with a crying child? it cannot be right in her weak little talk with you now that noisy fellow it from her exceeding gentleness; and this should not speak like that; not to me at days, if you are patient with me, you He then turned and walked out of the is gone; but you seem sleepy, dear; shall I knowledge added largely to her pain. But least. Do you not know that I have no shall be the happiest little woman in the church and no one followed him. He is a leave you to rest now, and come up again she hid it heroically, and greater pleasure in the world than to obey | world."

at him rather oddly, he thought, but silence,

"My baby never tires me." sheanswered, | conduct.

like her excited look, or the fierce | you are to be congratulated."

little sleep, my lady, she said, kindly; but daily reproach to him. Could any that shop too; and yet, if I were to take up shall not be you." And then, in her child-Fay only shook her head. It was not bed - girl be sweeter or more loving, he thought. It was not bed - girl be sweeter or more loving, he thought their cause now, I should only forfeit my should only forfei time yet, she said, but she would like to be | Fay sighed as she watched him. Erle own chances, and do no good. So you mean | Hugh should not go to Egypt. quiet with her baby for a little. And when had changed too, she said to herself; he to be obdurate, my Fairy Queen, and not "You are very unhappy, darling," she "Evolution," said: "I propose to solve insist that America had never been disnurse had gone to have a talk with Janet, was nicer, but he had lost his old-time come to us." she tottered from the couch, and knelt down merriment; he looked graver, and a little "No, dear," she said, quietly, "I could "you are terribly ne happy because you can in its proper light, so that you can under. thing in the world more readily than a pet beside it, and wetted the white robe with her thin, and there was not always a happy not come." But she never told him that not love me and care for your boy; but you stand what evolution is composed of, theory. For example, look at the indi-

only wants Margaret; but you must love that she hoped Evelyn knew all about her. she felt just now as though she your mother, baby, and grow up and com- but she lacked the courage, and could not have borne such an encounter. fort her, for she has no one but you to love somehow it was not so easy to talk to Erle had to go up to London the next day, beautiful home and get lest in these her bis. Erle had to go up to London the next day, beautiful home and get lest in these her bis.

she had not excited herself so much on the delicacy.

had that relapse. It was a very tiresome are looking quite pale, you want a change from, that she might not hear any more, affair altogether. for his own health was sailly yourself, my l'arry Queen." And then she would wander about the not thoroughly re established and a Lon- Hugh, entering the room at that moment, grounds in an aimless way, trying to throw off | don physician had recommended him a caught at the word, and came up quickly to the oppression that was growing greater as few months travel; it was just what he the couch. wanted, and now his trip to Cairo . Don't you feel so well to day, pet?" he hot want her husband to leave her. Her the side of the road, so that he could drive and the Pyramids must be indefinitely asked kindly; "why are you talking about loneliness could not be greater if he went around the gate, and he got by without see him any more. He rather obstinately chose to believe "It was only Erle's nonsense, dear," she but she was so terrified for him. And she that there was a want of will in the matter, said, hurriedly. She never could speak to had taken a dislike to the Hon. Algernon and that I'ay could throw off her weakness him without a painful blush, and it always Fitzelarence. He might be a great trav- What do you think of that 2' said the old in his uncertain way -- perhaps because the now. lessly that she could not walk -which he away." was at first slow to believe he used to "Away" she said, very quietly; "where very charming. carry her down to one of the sunniest rooms are you going. Hugh?"-but there was no | Hugh noticed nothing; he was rather in the old Hall -into either the morning- surprise in her face. room or library - and place her comfortably Oh. you cannot forget," returned Hugh, man like Fitzelarence should admire his on her couch with her work and book before impatiently, "unless that baby puts every- little wife. Fay was certainly very pretty. he started out for his ride.

arms performing such gentle offices for her. was coming down this week to arrange about | was a relief to Fay when the Hon. Algernor Fay used to thank him gratefully with one our trip to Cairo."

breathed its last, its helpless fawn licking | Grise a?" it recurred to his memory, and he could her. idea. And then he touched his black mare | Hugh?" his mind that his Wee Wifle was sadly I should say." are for nothing but her baby.

"Heaven forbid!" ejaculated Hugh : | rather surprised him ; but I'ay did not under- | he answered angrily,

"There, you must take him, Hugh; I | with her childish demonstrations. "I am | But now I can leave her more happily." Hugh did not see how the weak all their life is ended, and they have such for his punctuality—so celebrated for frankly, and however much you may of air ceases and a strong suction sets in, "Yes, little maid, I know you are very jubilee present to Queen Victoria from the arms trembled under their load. as feeble, aching limbs? Ah, no; I do not never altering a given route at a minute's condemn me, at least you will be sorry for which lasts for the next twenty-four hours, sad this evening. The first plaintive note Germans resident in England. he retreated a few steps in most genuine | believe they suffer at all. But now I seem | notice." baby in my life; I should be afraid of drop- | before I die." And so she would prose on in | impatience.

you frightened him; he never cries so when a little cooler. Fay began to creep about the and only take nurse?" garden a little, and call herself well. Hugh Oh, yes," replied Fay, in the same con- of course it must be I. The misery of it is magnetized from the effect. The over- my den, every evening, listening to that "You will be alone directly if you do not send him away," was her husband's carriage; but she saw he did not like it, and become very pale. But just then Ellerton learn to forget the past; and, as I have told remarkable curative properties. Its out at her piano. It's not good for me, impatient answer; it is not pleasant for a begged him to let her go alone -such reluct. entered and told his master that some one you before, Margaret,"-the word lightly efficacy is to be tested by experiments I'm afraid. man to be deafened when he is tired after ant courtesies gave her no pleasure. But was waiting to speak to him on business: scratched through and "I" substituted, upon cases of paralysis and other diseases. a long journey. Why, I do believe you are presently Erle came for a brief visit, and and so the subject dropped. The people who live near the wonderful going to cry too. Fay; what is the was her ready escort, and after that she | Erle looked rather wistfully at Fay when | right to go; and time and absence will help | well call it the "fountain of youth."

> CHAPTER XXXI. FAY'S MISTARE

She loves with love that cannot tire, And when ah, woe! she loves alone Through passionate duty love flames higher As grass grows taller round a stone. Coventry Patmore Never! 'tis certain that no hope is-none?'

No hope for me, and yet for thee no fear, The bardest part of my hard task is done; Thy calm assures me that I am not dear.

Fay gave up her baby without a word; appearance, but he said very little about it. ing smile; but she was touched by his kind come to the conclusion that he had lived time with his hands to the music. The prayer at the house this evening. He has though the had lived time with his hands to the music. The prayer at the house this evening. she was too gentle to remonstrate, but if he | He had an instinctive feeling that the | thought for her. could have read her thoughts. "He does shadow had deepened, and that Fay was | "No. Erle," she said, decidedly, "it that it would be wiser and more honest if quiet, and shielded her face with one hand. | reverential tenderness; and Fay was deeply | Griselda." Sir Hugh was rather uncomfortable; he grateful for his delicacy, for she knew now the worshippers left the church in a state heaven, and remion, and peace and joy purities, from whatever cause arising. It is the worshippers left the church in a state heaven, and remion, and peace and joy purities, from whatever cause arising. It is "Well, I'ay." he said, in rather a depre- an unloved wife. Fay was very proud by his. cating manner, "I meant to have had a nature, though no one would have guessed "Hush! Erle," she said, gently, "one of these embraced her, to her great consternation. stops, and -what was that? A scream? Fay uncovered her eyes and looked the young creature had suffered in her and her eyes grew misty, "I have no other thing happened to distract his attention, she made no answer. Hugh rose and | Erle and she were better friends than | that." looked at his watch, and repeated his ever; but they did not resume their old con- use the family standing about the family standing about the beginning had not pleased by the family standing about the beginning had not pleased by the family standing about the family standing about the beginning had not pleased by the family standing about the family sta "No," she said, very slowly; "do not reticent about his own affairs, and spoke to your staying at our house while Mrs. away." he said to himself; "I am afraid she trouble to come up again. Hugh. I cannot little of his fiancee and his approaching | Montague is there? We would wait on | will kel herself hurt if she reads this, poor talk to you to night; I shall be better marriage. He knew in his heart that Fay you, and watch over you, as though you were little thing. I have not been sufficiently had read him truly, and knew that his a queen." There, I told you so," he cried triumph warmest affections had been given to "Yes, yes! I know that—you are come to a different conclusion. She thought alife Said Palace Tower of Infantas and antly. "I knew that little rascal had tired Fern, and he had an uneasy con- lalways so kind to me, Erle; but it would the letter had been written to Margaret wearily, and closed her eyes. Oh, if she | Fay never told him so; shecongratulated | ingdon." could only close them forever! But then him very prettily and made one of her old | " Very few people do." muttered Erle, place could not hold them both, and for she remembered how terrible death had mischievous speeches about "the young "but he has always been a good friend to my "place" the unhappy girl substituted exemplars types. seemed to her in her illness -a bit of infin- lady with the go in her "-but somehow it | mother and me." Hugh looked at her a little puzzled; his few questions, as in duty bound, about his of course you make allowances for him. gentle; if she knew all,"-ah! and she did | Wee Wife was very much altered. he prospects, and how often he saw Miss Selby. But Hugh has told me the story of poor know all—"she would own that it was his thought; and then he kissed her two or and if he would bring her to Redmond Hall Nea Huntingdon; and somehow. I duty; his present life was unendurable." three times with some affection, and went one day: "for I mean to be very fond of feel as though I could never and therefore therefore he was going to your wife, Erle, whoever she may be," she visit Belgrave House until you are master Egypt with that dreadful man who would bles, But when she heard him go down stairs | continued; "and I hear from the Trelaw. | there." she rang for the nurse to bring back her neys that Miss Selby-but I must call her | Erle smiled. "When that day comes, of us must leave, and of course it must | baby directly. The woman did not Evelyn now-is very nice indeed, and that Mrs. Trafford shall reap a golden harvest | be 1."

Erle, with a touch of real feeling, for his for them all. Think of such women living eyes to his portrait; "if one must be sacri-"You had much better try and get a fiance's unhelfish devotion was a in a place like the Elysian Fields-over ficed it shall not be you -no, my dearest, it look in his eyes. Fay sometimes feared one of her reasons was that she might shall not be troubled with us any longer; relative to the material which go to make vicinals who still maintain that consump-"It is all over, baby," she meaned; "he that the other girl with the fair hair had possibly meet the Ferrers there, if they were and, indeed, I could not stop -" and here a it up. Evolution is as settled a scientific tion is incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden does not care for you or for me either he not been forgotten; she wanted to tell him coming back from America; and blush of shame came to her sweet face doctrine as the laws of gravitation. It is Medical Discovery has cured thousands

Lady Redmond had a serious relapse But there was one subject on which he his place the following evening, and after to forget all your troubles, and presently their ancestry becomes indistinguishable if taken in time. after this, and it was two or three dilated without reserve, and that was on that Fay had a miserable time; for all day you will be happy, and it is I who will go, my from that of rabbits and squircls. We weeks before she was carried to the couch Mr. Ferrers' search for Crystal. He was long Hugh and his guest were anning the dearest." in New York now, he told Fay, with his | route for their trip, or talking over previous sister, and he was waiting for further intel- | tours. Hugh had not learned his lesson yet. ligence before he followed Miss Davenport. | Either Fay's knowledge of geo, raply was Neither his wife's illness nor his "Miss Trafford corresponds with him," he very limited or her head got confused; but own had taught him wisdom; he continued, with an effort; "but it seems as she listened to them, she felt as though was as restless and unreasonable as ever. the travellers have little time for writing." Egypt were thousands of miles away, and He grew very impatient over l'ay's pro- But he wondered, as he talked about the as though Hugh would certainly get fort in longed weakness, which he insisted was due Ferrers, why Fay changed color so shose trackless deserts, and was cruel to night of his return, she would never have | "I am tiring you." he said, hastily: "you she would make an excuse and leave the

a change.

of her meek, beautiful looks, but she seldom "No," she replied. "you never said any- for a day or two to procure his outfit, and said anything—his kindness had come too thing about it, Hugh;" which was the then come back to the Hall to bid Fay goodlate to the poor child, who felt that her truth, for he had never taken the troubleto | bye. It was on the second day after their heart was slowly breaking with its hopeless inform her, though Mrs. Heron had had guest had left Redmond Hall that water? Or who would be satisfied with "Well, well," rather irritably, "I meant sual.

laugh. This was a tired Fay who rarely that one could get leave of absence for half debris which she first believed had been Not many people live near the well, but love you, love, spoke and never laughed—who seemed to that time. I hope my wife will be as accom- thrown away by mistake—but on closer those who do reside in the neighborhood of looney, you! Why don't you take her he was quite appalled at the notion of any likeness between this absurd specimen any likeness between this absurd specimen any likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen are the specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen are the specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen are the specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen are the specimen are the specimen and I and know that my likeness between this absurd specimen are the specimen of humanity and himself; but happily she would say to herself. "I must love my health requires complete change, and I and know what it meant. Afterwards she strangest things is the fact that the cur- The music suddenly stops! The young-

better now that she had ceased to vex him | time, only her illness recalled me. | curiosity. want to see him once in your arms-my getting very dignified," she thought, "and "And you expect to make the trip in ently the concluding portion of a long made by a locomotive blowing off steam haven't turned a leaf in that magazine yet. two treasures together;" and she held the very quiet; and I think this pleases him. | cleven weeks with Fitzclarence as the leader | explanatory letter.

the summer heat was over, she would dear. I should like you to write at once to what I must suffer. "Oh, hush, hush," she said, nearly cry- grow strong again. And Fay never contra- your aunt, and ask her if she can have you "So you must not blame me, dear, if I magnetic property was greatly increased. to bring her absent lover back to her this and the boy. The cottage is rather small; have come to the conclusion that the same | Several weeks ago Supt. Judy held his minute. Well, I declare! is that more afraid you will be very lonely when Hugh if she knew all, she would own you go to Daintree; you will be dreadfully | the letter was torn across, and Fay read | see Evelyn, and I am sure you two would | its climax.

not care for his child at all." she was say sick at heart, but he only showed his sym would not do at all. Hugh would not do at all. I he placed himself in a threatening attitude, as she stood at the window this evening as ing within herself; and then shows very pathy by an added kindness, and an almost it. He wishes me to go to Aunt secret and told Fay why he had thought it the consequence being that no one was able I passed! Yes, the piano is resigned to-

knew he had been out of temper, and that that though she had been blind, others had go, so long as he is enjoying himself," burst stand, and he had grown irritable and of alarm. When the first hymn was given unutterable! There are still tears in its news, and other exerctory organs, cleans to the stand. guessed the stab he had inflicted when fear that every one traced her husband's really provoked him. But he regretted the excuses for himself on paper. He could suddenly, left his pew and advanced toward with hope. And now the hope grows disappointing that he was disappointing that he was disappointing that he was disappointing that he was disappointed up to the hope grows and advanced toward with hope. And now the hope grows disappointing that he was disappointed up to the hope grows and advanced toward with hope. And now the hope grows disappointing the hope grows disappointing that he was disappointed up to the hope grows and advanced toward with hope. And now the hope grows disappoint in the hope gr he had refused to take their boy in his restlessness and dissatisfaction with his life rash speech as soon as it was tell her truly that he was very fond of her, the vicar, every one expecting something stronger and seems almost ready to burst both he's and strength. In malarial districts, no one knew till too late how my husband's wishes. No," she continued. Hugh never finished this letter; some- is that he is an escaped lunatic. happiness but that - no other happiness but | and he never found an opportunity of comfidential talks. Erle had grown strangely "what possible objection could Hugh have him. "I will write another when I am sciousness that she condemned his never do for me to come to Belgrave and that the "she" who was mentioned seemed to fall flat; and she asked him a "Yes. I know; and he is your uncle, so same house with her. "She was good and lead him into danger. "One or other in a great measure to her own fault. If often he had heard it was a sign of leave her for such dangers, she thought. And sometimes she got so nervous that the days went on. It was not that she did away -so she believed in her wretchedness; if she liked. Still be was very kind to her | deepened if he looked at her long, as he did | eller, as Hugh told her, and a very amusing companion, but his manners were not to doctors said he must humor her, or she "I never saw you look better than you do her taste. Fay's innocence instinctively would fade away from them yet. So he to day," returned her busband: "she is took alarm at the covert admiration contold her that she would never get strong quite rosy, is she not, Erle? But you are veved in her guest's looks and words. He while she lay moping herself to death in right, and a change will do her and the boy was too much a man of the world to pay from the ground; and now can Willie that little painted bird-cage, as he called the good. I was thinking how you would like her open compliments; and indeed her Waffles tell us where meat comes from?" blue room. And when she answered list- to go down to Devonshire. Fay, while I am gentle dignity repelled him ; but he made her understand that he thought his hostess | air of one familiar with the subject." meat | ready for the opera reminds me of an un. | Company's new steel steamer the Cibola pleased than otherwise that a fastidious It was a new thing to have those strong remember that I told you that Fitzelarence much improved -not half so childish. But it | the concert. - Quanta I rate Advance in the city of New York.

MAGNETIC WIND.

heart was slowly breaking with its hopeless inform her, though Mrs. Heron had had love. For who would be content with the orders to prepare a room for the expected Fay went into her husband's room to dust and arrange his papers as nomenon that has just come to public the meted grain and the measured to tell you, but one's memory is treacherous trom the first. Sir Hugh had a masculine ounce when they have given their all in sometimes. He will be down here about from the first. Sir Hugh had a masculine because the first of a congregation, when some one pertinent of the Texas lieve I'm just a wee bit jealous of that nently asked: "What are you going to do Wednesday or Thursday, for in another horror of what he called servants' interfer- & Pacific, who visited this city a few days handsome, smiling fellow. It's a little with a man that can't do anything?" Those looks used to haunt Hugh as he rode through the Singleton lanes; ho used to puzzle over them in an odd, ruminative fashion.

He remembered once that he had been in at the death of a doe—where, or in what at the death of a doe—where, or in what at the could not remember; but she had been overtaken with her fawn, and che had been to touch the fawn to touch the fawn to touch the can't do any thing fellow. It's a little papers on his writing table of the road, in whose jurisdiction the bly without fear of a scene.

"What will you do with yourself, dear," a great pride and pleasure in her task; east of El Paso. The workmen put the of "Lone Jack' far preferable to such make it successful. It should be remembered to be a such make it successful. Hugh had stood by and shuddered at the he continued, briskly. "Don't you think and Hugh's first marital praise was pipe down about 600 feet, when suddenly nonsense! Of course it is! dumb look of anguish in the wild deer eyes, it would be the best thing to go down to bestowed on the clever little fingers an underground cavern was struck. as with a sobbing breath the poor creature Daintree and show your baby to Aunt that tidied without disarranging the drill dropped about 6 feet and his cherished papers and after that the poor creature Daintree and show your baby to Aunt that tidied without disarranging the drill dropped about 6 feet and his cherished papers and after that the poor creature Daintree and show your baby to Aunt that tidied without disarranging the drill dropped about 6 feet and his cherished papers and after that the poor creature Daintree and Daintr his cherished papers, and after that the a current of air rushed up the pipe. she makes that instrument speak! It called on old Deacon Blank to lead us in its red wounds. Hugh had not been able to "Just as you like," was the work became her daily pleasure. But this Drilling ceased and the well was aban- voices her very feeling more truly than prayer. forget that look for a long time; and now indifferent answer. But Erle interrupted morning there was an unusual amount of doned, the 600 feet of pipe remaining in ever tongue could. Yes, he's certainly disorder and confusion. Sir Hugh had sat the ground and giving a connection between there to-night; and she's talking to him can't do it.' not tell why Fay's eyes reminded him so of ... How long do you mean to absent up late the previous night sorting and dest the surface of the earth and the subter- through that piano just as plainly as can the dying doe's -it was an absurd morbid yourself from the bosom of your family, troying his letters; and not only the baskets ranean cavity a quarter of a mile beneath. be, the little minx! I wonder if he can then? but the floor was heaped with a profusion The phenomenon did not at that time interpret her music? a little smartly, and tried to efface the "Oh, two or three months; we cannot of torn paper. Fay felt weak and tired, attract the attention of any one sufficiently recollection by a rousing galop. But, do follow out the route Fitzelarence proposed and she went about her work slowly; but to investigate. Recently, however, Super- those bird-like runs and trills-don't they what he would not get it out of under that time about ten or eleven weeks, she would not ring for a servant to help her; intendent Judy's attention was called to it. say, just as plainly as daylight: "I'm so it would be a long time before she tidied and his personal examination and inquiries glad you came to night-so glad, so glad, altered; she was not the same Fay whose "Three months? Well, all I can say is Hugh's papers again, she thought. And have developed peculiar facts and testi- so glad, gl little tripping feet had raced Nero and marriage is not the fettered state that we then her attention was attracted by an mony about the wonderful well. Gov. those softer, deeper notes! Can't you Pierre along the galleries with that ringing bachelors imagine it to be. I had no idea unfinished letter lying at the bottom of the Brown stopped to see it on his way here. hear? "For I love you. O, I love you, inspection she found it was torn across. it are thoroughly acquainted with it. Ever right off that piano-stool and fold her in Hugh used to tell her so sometimes, with "There was a concealed sarcasm in Erle's But it was in her husband's handwriting. since it was abandoned, three years ago, your arms and kiss her? I have no paan inexplicable feeling of jealousy that careless speech that jarred upon Hugh, and Fay never knew why the temptation came the people near by have been in the habit tience with such a young noodle. What and after it was over more than one of the to her to read that letter. A sentence of going and sitting about the well in sum- wouldn't I give to be down there in your the little mother did not hear own baby." And then she would think shall not be the man I was without it. I owned that her fault had been a great one; rent of air ebbs and flows like the ster's evidently come to his senses at last! him, for she was adjusting the long robe to like her ought to have had three months last but she was to pay dearly for her girlish ocean tides. From 10.15 a.m. to 10.15 p.m. Well, God bless them -God bless them !

departed. Hugh was to join him in town

Do old people feel like this, I wonder, when of the expedition. Fitzelarance, so renowned And now I have told you all fifty yards. At. 10.15 p. m. the overflow as though I can never rest for my longing | Erle was going too far, and Sir | "For, indeed, I have done all that a man day. It has been observed by horsemen use in your repeating it so often. You'll "I take him! My dear, I never held a that Hugh may love me and tell me so. Hugh answered him with decided can do, or at least the best that is in me, that whenever they get in the neighbor- make me sad, too, if you don't stop soon. impatience.

and have only been beaten and humiliated hood of the well strong magnetic forces How often has the piano told me, within are felt and sparks are given off if the the past two weeks, that he has gone. Oh, Women understand these sort of things. No wonder Sir Hugh marvelled at her, friend of yours, Erle; but I never listen to ness has exhausted me, and taken away all horse's mane is touched. Recently a man so far-far away-away; There, now, I thought so, he is going to so silent of tongue, so grave of look—such the idle gossip one picks up at one's club. I strength of resistance; and though it may from Sierra Blanco was sitting close to the across the sea-the-sea; and cry; and Hugh's discomfitted look an altered Wee Wife; but all the conclusion am perfectly satisfied with his arrange seem cowardly to you, I am forced to run | well, and on taking out his pocket-knife | you're so lonely; that your heart was not lost on Fay, as the baby's at which he had arrived was that the baby ments, and so are the other men-we have away, for my present life is unendurable. found a nail which he had in his pocket is almost breaking-breaking-breaking-breakingshrill voice spoke well for his strength of had been too much for her, and that, when two other fellows going with us. Fay, my Just put yourself in my place, and think clinging to the knife. He held the knife breaking. Poor little girl! I wish I a time. One or other of us must leave; and minutes, and the knife is still strongly woman. I must cease this moping here in they were left alone together. "I am us both. She is so good and gentle; Galveston News. goes away," he said, kindly. "Why need that this is my duty; but-" here pleting it. The hight before he had read considerate." Unfortunately Fay had House. Hugh does not like Mr. Hunt- | was Hugh's wife. Yes, it was his wife of whom Hugh spoke when he said the same house." Hugh could not remain in the after all her hard work. You do not know "No. no. my bonnie Hugh," she said at way she almost snatched him to her "She is far too good for me," returned how I long to help her, and make life casier last, with a dim smile, as she lifted up her a pocket in order to place the visiting man, woman and child in Europe insisted went on, pressing the letter in her hands; this vexed question and present evolution covered at all. A man will give up any. but the Hon. Algernon l'itzelarence took rible deserts; you shall stay here and learn pedigrees of monkeys and baboons until covery " will care any case of consumption,

To be continued. Mark Twain's Meanest Man Outdone, The Brockville Recorder publishes the following: " The writer was on the road to Farmersville and had to wait some time at ! the Elbe toll-gate, which was blocked up by a waggon with a hay rack. As we finally drove up and handed over our four cents the old lady in charge of the gate said: 'If you wait long enough I'll tell you whathat Haven't seen him on the street in a long five or active cathague, according to size of man was so long here. You see this morn, time." ng he went past with a load of hay so large t would not go through the gate. To help him out of the trouble my husband and her lately myself got rails from the fenceand fixed up unloading. When he came back just now he refused to pay only one way, as he said he had only gone through the gate once. | hurry

Lessons in Natural Philosophy. " Yes, Tommy," said the teacher of the I infant class, "that is right; vegetables come "Yessum," responded Willie, with the comes from the butcher's."

- Secretarion The Place for Our Superfluous Girls. H.-Because she has to be undressed to Keep a close watch to night and see be dressed .- Boston Courier. which of the one hundred young genflemen thing out of your head. Do you not even in her husband's eyes, and she was so of our town except the and young ladies to There are nearly 5,000 Husgarian voters, and will be submitted to the general com-

A Remarkable Subterranean Bellows Near

a Texas Town. About 100 miles east of El Paso, near notice. The authority for the statements a moment ago, so Sir Welcome Beau is collect the active services of every member a current of air rushes out of the pipe so loud that it can be heard for forty or | What an old idiot I am, to be sure !

Extraordinary Scene in a Church.

dull there with only your aunt. I do not no more. But as she stood there her Saints' Church, Woodford Wells, Essex. It He is dead, d see why you should not come to Belgrave fingers stiffened over the paper, and an icy was the occasion of the usual harvest he is drowned. I, too, will die, will die; I, House first, while Mrs. Montague is there, chill seemed to rob her of all feeling. She festival and the building was crowded. As too, will die. And those wild, piteous that most common of American maladies. She is a very pleasant woman, Fay; and thought that letter was written to soon as the service commenced an elderly chords! Do they breathe a prayer? I you could do just as you like, and you would Margaret, and now her despair had reached man, of gentlemany appearance, jumped think they must. Ah! how they pierce soon be great friends. Lo come. Poor, unhappy Wee Wifie; it was a most a lady who was entering, exclaimed, "Oh, up from his seat excitedly, and, pointing to | my heart ! Fay; and you can go to Daintree after. fatal mistake. That letter had been written what a bonnet !" He continued muttering Erle was quite shocked at Fay's changed property but he said very little about it ing smile; but she was touched by his kind. The steamer is lost. They have given up all hope. I saw a man of cured, complications multiply and Consumpthe life of a hypocrite long enough, and churchwardens and others endeavored to doubtless comforted her. But, oh, what mainlies are quite limble to set in and, some r pacify him, but when they approached him unspeakable sadness there was if her face, or later, induce a fatal termination.

By the same of better to go away. He had tried to speak to lay hold of him. Meanwhile many of night. In sad, low tones it speaks of cleanses the system of all blood-taints and to to the right cause, and knew that she was uttered, especially as a soft hand touched and that he wanted to make her happy. "I serious to happen. The man, however, went forth into a hymn of celestial gladness." this wonderful medicine has gained great mean to make you a good husband, he had up to a lady, put his arms around her and But there, the door-bell rings, the music elebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Challaged stranger to the locality, and the supposition | good to be true. So he isn't drowned, after spicuous and better conserveds reliefs of justified it the Albambra Arabian palace.

As She is Wrote.

Warehouse of the photographs of the Albambra and Generalife and images in boil-clay of the best famous andalusians | much. My ! what a divine hymn of grati-

Dont purchases nothing until visit this establishment.

We remit the demands out Spain with readiness and economy. Keep this advertisement of the trading. house Joes Gamera Cruz and use it as shall have some difficulty in settling the questions that at times arise from the smartest inventor of theage, but if he really we want a soon MAN in your locality to pick cases of human nature which exists wants to serve his fellow men let him invent potentially in mere inorganic matter and a machine that will take all the little bones the chain of spontaneous derivation which out of fish. connects incandescent moleculus or stardust with the world and with man himself."

The Origin of Man.

Somewhat Contagious.

"He's sick "And where's your ma? Haven't seen !

He's sick. And where are you going in such a genuine too often offered. " Going to the dector's. I'm sick."

our house, and she's taking music lessons." I now ?" A Mean Man.

Husband-Getting rendy for the opera ? bill the landlord don't seem to think so," Wife-Yes, dear. plucked fowl? W .- Not knowing, can't say.

A BAOHELOR'S REVERIE.

The Romance Woven from the Strains the Piano Next Door.

evening? My pretty little neighbor must telling h Philadelphia Baptist Associabe otherwise engaged. The door-lad rang tion the other day how necessary it was to

It was a mere fragment, and was appar- with a sound that resembles the noise and I've let my pipe go out, too, and What ! is that a tear ? It is, by Jupiter ! | by Dr. Sage's Remedy.

this ebb and flow continuing day after of the piano told me so; and there's no in the current of the air and found the could cheer her up. I'd give my right hand

"Great Heavens! I shall go wild if this continues! Every evening since that steamship has been overdue the agonized tones of the piano have almost driven me crazy. And there it goes again, telling me disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, An extraordinary scene occurred in All over and over, in weird, distracted tones ;

"There is resignation in the piano's

" Well, bless me if it isn't almost too all? I wonder what they all thought of | from a common Blotch, or Erantion, to a me for rushing in where the returned lover and his sweetheart, almost wild with joy, caused by tad blood are conquered by The Gran Establecimiento de Modelos of were clasped close in each other's arms, powerful, purifying, and invigorance in the weeping for gladness. I suppose I had no Geometricals reductions of the more con. right to intrude, but that scream | Crysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eve

"The old piano seems almost bursting with happiness again to-night. It fairly others Arabian monuments of architectural | delights me to hear it. I'm so glad the young folks are not going away from the house next door, now that they are married. I should miss the piane, oh, so tude and bliss there is in those simple, Originant of edifices in arabian style in soulful measures that the happy little alls class of works and arabesques flowers | woman is playing now ! Heigh-ho! That young fellow got a rare treasure! But I | and cured by this remedy, if token or tre don't envy him. No-I-don't-believe-I-do. But, anyhow, here is his health, The prices are very reduceds and incredi. and long life to the young couple. ' May they live long and prosper!"

Was America Ever Discovered ? At the time when Columbus started in search of the New World nearly every that there was no New World to discover. When he came back, crowned with success. a large proportion of these good people ad-A. Johnson, in dealing with the subject of alive to day many of them would doubtless

-Mr. Edison is unquestionably the

For Condipation," liver complaint," or bilioneness, sick headache, and all diseases i arising from a disordered condition of the liver and stomach, take Dr. Pierco's " Hello! Hills, my girl, where's your pa? | Pleasant Purgative Pellets -a gentle laxant

Is the best-moredy for corns extant. 'It acts quickly, makes no sore spots and effects Where a your brother George ! Don't a radical cure. A hundred ingitations prove its value. Take neither substitutes offered as good nor the close imitations of the

Putnam's Corn Extragtor

Six Months After Marriage. "What, all sick? What's the matter?" She-" Why do you look so unhappy, "Oh, Cousin Nell has come to board at | George? Don't you know we are one. He - Yes, I've heard that before, but when it comes to paying the weekly board

H .- D've know why a woman getting ! The Ontario & Ningara Navigation was successfully launched vesterday at Deseronto. A constitution for the proposed annual!

mixee for adoption to-morrow.

A USEFUL DEAC He Couldn't Pray or in Me Could Keep the Dogs Out Charch.

The Rev E. A. Dickinson, editor of the I wonder why the piano isn't going this Religious Hemid, of Richmond, Va., was bered that church in the backwoods means

". 'Taint no use askin' me,' he said, ' " Suppose you start the next hymn

" Can't sing either." ". How about taking up the collection? I guess you can manage that?' "Nop. I'm a bad hand at getting 'round. Better get some one else.' " Noticing that the old fellow carried a stout walking stick an idea was suggested. "Well, brother, do you think you're able to keep out the dogs?' " You bet I air,' he confidently replied. Then taking a seat at the door, he battled congregation was followed home by yelp--Philadelphia Bulletin.

Chronic nasal catarrh positively cured

Anton von Werner is painting a picture of Kaiser Wilhelm at the age of 90, sitting

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, hieness," or emptiness of stomach in the moreing, tongue coated, bitter or bad teste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Billious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The many complicated your disease has become, the toms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred do as as,

Dr. Pierce's Colden Medical Dis.

fested us joteney in curing Tetter, it "FOR THE BLOUD IS THE LIFE."

Chrostion, a fair skin, buoyant opir 's strength and bodlly health will be estable which is Serofula or the Bunns, la creat abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful com-bination of tonfe, or strengthening, afterative, or blood-cleaning, anti-bilions, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only

Thereughly elemns it by using Dr. Piercely es a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Cataurh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy. Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottle; Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Address.

663 Main St., BUFFALO, N. Y. DUN 1, 46 87. AND TRADERS GENERALLY.

World's Dispensary Medical Association.

CALFSKINS for us. Cash rugalished on saturactory guarance A bivers C. S. PAGE, Hyde Park, Vermont, U. SAMPLE STREET, SAMPLE

with a Valuable TREATISE of this disc. To say Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Torento

ING SICK SENS DIFTOUR What I warrant my remed to cure the worst cases. Heramas others have fating to no

A constitution for the proposed annual reason for not now receiving a three sent afforce for a lindustrial lightheition in Ottawa has been been because and a five motive of the proposed for a trial approved by the Citizens' Sub-Committee, will worker you attent on a Room