She sat down at her husband's deak and good to me and the boy." began writing rapidly, and as the thoughts came to her; and when she had it sished, she enclosed her letter with the tor 1 fragment, and, after addressing it, s aled it carefully. As the did so she heard footsteps approaching the library, and slipped it hurriedly into the open drawer, and the Heron and Janet. next moment Sir Hugh entered with a telegram in his hand. for you, Fay," he began, hurriedly; "and not a soul seemed to know where you were. Look here; I have just had this telegram earlier than we intended."

And as Fay seemed to have no answer orders. ready, he went on-" I am so vexed about it, my pet, for I meant to have driven you over to Pierrepoint after luncheon; you looked so pale this morning, and I had to arrange about so many things. Well, it cannot be helped; Raville is packing my 'Gladstone,' and I have not a moment to get what I want, and meet Egerton and to mrs. Heron. This new nurse has the Federal Powis, the other fellows who are to join us. been here six weeks, and does not know my the local baby inst now; tell her I held baby Powis, the other fellows who are to join us.

now?" asked Fay, hardly able to Daintie was very small, and shows the likely she was judicially interpreted) that in many articulate—her lips had grown quite begged her to dispense with Janet's services, disappointed that Sir Hugh was not white. What if she should be too late after | and only take nurse.

I shall sleep at the Club to-night, and you lady's ways. And who will wait on her, I held baby just now; tell her I canada; and if such autonomy is to be privileges of the Senate and House of Commons and of the members thereof the lady's ways. I shall sleep at the Club to-night, and you had sways. And who will wall the Provincial have gone to look after the luggage, maintained, it has become apparent that should like to know, if I am to be left behind? have gone to look after the luggage, maintained, it has become apparent that should like to know, if I am to be left behind? have gone to look after the luggage, maintained, it has become apparent that have gone to look after the luggage, and of the members thereof; that the Provincial have gone to look after the luggage, and ask her to read it." And though the Constitutional Act must be revised may expect me to be down to dinner to. should like to know, if I am to be down to dinner to. should be confirmed as the Federal Acts the Constitutional Act must be revised were; and that it should be declared by the morrow. The next day—" here he hesi. But she worked with a will for all the woman thought the request a little morrow. The next day— here he hest that a Provincial the worked with a will for all the woman thought the request a little and amended; therefore the representatives amending Imperial statute that a Provincial that it should be declared by the amended; there is time enough to talk that a provincial the worked with a will for all the time here hoves a strange she took the sealed packet without some, how well he looked, as he stooped over her with his plaid over his

He need not be fearful of her detaining him; there was no clinging, no agony of weeping this time. She put her two hands daft. round his neck and held him for a moment, as her cold lips touched his, and then stood quite still and waved to him--sadly, quietly -from the window as he drove past, and that was all.

CHAPTER XXXII.

"GOOD-BYE -- GOOD-BYE." I never will look more into your face Till God says, " Look! I charge you, seek me Nor yex yourself with lamentable thoughts That peradventure I have come to grief. Be sure I'm well, I'm merry, I'm at ease. But such a long way, long way, long way off, think you'll find the sooner in my grave,

And that's my choice-observe. E. B. Browning Fay had made up her mind to be lost. Could any one imagine anything so utterly guorant and childish, and yet so pathetic into the great lonely world, so that traced to her hiding-place. Hugh might come back to his old home in

was giving up herself in complete renuncia- mare's glossy neck, as though she could and I could not take you, Please go back PRIVATE ATTACKS ON FEDERAL AND PROVINCIAL none of these things. She only felt that she | band's second name St. Clair-she would be must go and take her baby with her. There | Mrs. St. Clair.

but she never remembered afterwards how old Indian friends there; and, as they had the strange feverish energy that supported to the Deeside, and had fallen in love with her. She was working in a dream, in a Rowan-Glen. nightmare, in a horrible impatience to be | 1 gone-to be gone-where? But even this little plans with the utmost precision. In Such an innocent, pitiful little letter it

"Darling Hugh," it began, "do not be angry with me when you come back tomorrow and find your Wee Wifie has gone. What could I do-how could I stay any longer after reading your words. Indeed, I think I could have borne anything but father had slept, that would just do for her this. No, this one thing I could and baby. not bear-that you should leave your home and country to free yourself must be you." Darling, do you not know me better than that ?

" I felt you could not love me, Hugh ; but have I ever blamed you in my heart? I was too childish and young for such a man as you. Why did you marry me, dear-that was a great mistake. But perhaps you saw

"I tried so hard to please you, but somehow I always failed. And then the baby came-our baby-and you did not care for band's neck. him; and then, indeed, I thought my heart When Janet called her at the proper time would break. I wonder if you know how I she found her up and dressed and beginning have loved you? I was not too young for her baby's toilet. that, though you thought I was. I never bless my dear husband, and sometimes— laugh, "I don't think I am putting on baby's things very nicely, but I wanted to was it very childish of me, I wonder?-I put baby's hands together and made believe he was praying tod. "I think if you knew what I suffered, when they thought I was dying, and the angels would not come for me; I think -yes. I do think, Hugh-you would have been sorry for me then.

for I shall take great care of myself, and his eyes will remind me of you.

" I shall say good by to you very quietly. in my throat that seems to choke me ; and ; God bless you, dear; and then she left the I feel as though I could blosh with shame room. for being so little and insignificant in your eyes. You are like a king to me, Hugh ; so grand, and moble, and proud. Oh, what made you marry me? You did wrong there, darling, did you not ?

thought of your Wee Wife." with her.

Some strange factish power seemed to anter into her and give her a fitful strength.

She unscaled it, and added a short post-she with her.

Some strange factish power seemed to am going to some kind people who will be while Nero licked her little ungloved.

She had placed the letter where Hugh would see it at once, and then she went her until death, and yet he had brought her upstairs. She wanted to have her baby in | to this. her arms, that its touch might lull the The journey was a very short one; but deadly faintness at her heart; and when she felt a little better she sent for Mrs. Redmond did not appear surprised, when

"I have been looking all over the place and she was to follow him immediately. rather helplessly, for she was young and a Respecting Amendments of the British She would take her luggage with her, of country woman, and the din and bustle course, for she did not intend to return to were overwhelming to he; but Fay was the Hall before going down into Devon- helping to identify her luggage, and America Act, 1867, and defining theorie shire; but they would see Sir Hugh again did not answer. She told nurse to the limits of the legislative and executive from Fitz. He wants me to come up to shire; but they would see Sir Hugh again go into the waiting room with baby, powers and functions of the Federal and she would come to her presently. Provincial Legislatures and Governments, the following evening to give his final

And would she be long away? asked Mrs. | cab. Heron. She thought my lady looked very ill, and required a thorough change.

"Do you mean you are going off to Egypt | And then she explained that the cottage at 'Do you mean you are going off to Egypt | And then she explained that the cottage at her at once. Her lady looked faint, she was plenty of the Act came to be defining the privileges of their Legislative her at once. Her lady looked faint, she likely she was judicially interpreted) that in many Councils and Legislative Assemblies; that

Janet looked very disappointed when Fay | there, Fay; one can never make you understand thinking about," she grumbled, in confidence, thinking about," she grumbled, in confidence, thinking about, she grumbled, in confidence, the servation of Provincial autonomy is to Mrs. Heron. This new nurse has only to Mrs. Heron. The Mrs. Heron. The Mrs. Heron. This new nurse has only to Mrs. Heron. This new nurse has only to Mrs. Heron. The Mrs. H ness." But she worked with a will for all the worked with a will be said and delegates of the Provinces of Ontario, powers as the Federal Parliament has with that, and all the time her boxes strange, she took the sealed packet without and delegates of Ontario, powers as the Federal Parliament has with of saying good-bye then.

Of saying good-bye collecting her little treasures, and the porter who had loaded the cab was respective Governments, and in conference dropping them in the boxes as she passed. standing a little way off. Fay told the cab- assembled, believing that they express the "All right," he laughed good humoredly; dropping them in the boxes as she passed.

"All right," he laughed good humoredly; dropping them in the boxes as she passed.

Now it was a book Hugh had given her, or and then Fay stood quite still, holding the picture, or the withered flower he had the porter came up to claim the picture. table, till he came back.

"My traps are in the hall; I must say good-bye quickly, darling."

The daylor of a minted term; that in the basis upon which the Act should be amended, subject to the approval of the hadden but for a minted term; that in the other four the appointments are by the his gratuity he found the cab driving off, hadden but for a minted term; that in the other four the appointments are by the his gratuity he found the cab driving off, hadden but for a minted term; that in the other four the appointments are by the his gratuity he found the cab driving off, but Fay flung him a shilling. By a strange several Provincial Legislatures: clutched with the greediness of a miser; but Fay flung him a shilling. By a strange several Provincial Legislatures: and even a silk handkerchief he had worn fatality the cabman who drove them round his neck-she put them all in. met with an accident that very day, Such a strange little assortment from the consequences of which he died > costly ones-she would not require them in and baby and the big black dog, but he Legislature; that this power of disallowance the country, she said, quietly; but she would had not heard her instructions to the may be exercised so as to give to the Federal given her, or the old family jewels that had Fay only took her ticket to York; she that the Act should be amended by taking away been reset for her, but those that had dared not go straight to her destination. belonged to her mother, and were exceed. When she arrived there she would not put ingly valuable; there was a pearl necklace up at the station hotel, but had herself ture, the free exercise of their exclusive right of legislation on the subjects assigned to them, that was worth five hundred pounds. Hugh had drawn out a large sum of money that It was an unpretending place, kept by he had given in charge to her-he meant to honest folk; but Fay found herself very enough to keep her and the boy for more lessly; but she made the girl promise to call than a year, and after that she could sell her early, and ordered a fly to the station;

publicity and the nine days' wonder of the you shall come with ma; we will go to found them out.

and him as to tarnish his years ago. If she remained in England, of programme, and later on a special mesreputation by an act so improper and Hugh would find her, and she had a dread senger came down from him bringing a He might forgive his spoilt trip and do with baby, for of course she must leave farewell letter. empty home; but how will he ever bring stranger who did not know she was Lady usual, and he and Sir Hugh had started that Provinces; and that, in case no other early But Fay, poor mistaken child, thought of self that she would call herself by her hus- follow them.

was no time to be lost, and Yes, she and her father had had a very she must make all her plans very happy time at Rowan-Glen. They had been to Edinburgh, and to the Western Fay's will was a strong one-there was | Highlands, and had then made their way | came up very respectfully. no fear that she would falter in her purpose; to Aberdeen, as Colonel Mordaunt had some she carried it out, or from whence came still some weeks to spare, they had come down

But they could not obtain a lodging in one of the cottages, so the manse opened | that's all; a little tired. question was answered before many hours its hospitable doors to them. The minister, were over, for she was to make her poor Mr. Duncan, was old, and so was his wife, your door." and they had no children; so, as there was the quiet evening time, as she paced rest- room and to spare, and their income was | need. The other side of the block will be somewhat scanty, the good old people were 'round this way in a moment, and I'll just and Lieutenant-Governors of British Colonies of a place of refuge where she might rest safely for a little. The moment the carriage and his little daughter. Fay had forgotten had turned the corner, and she could had turned the corner, and she could their existence until now; but she rememsee it no longer, she had taken the bered how kind Mrs. Duncan had been to letter from the drawer and laid it on the her; and she thought she would go to her, and tell her she was married and very unhappy, and then she would let her and baby stop there quietly in the old grey

Nobody ever came there, for they were quiet folk, and Mr. Duncan was an invalid; and there was a dear old room, looking out on the old fashioned garden, where her and baby. Fay had a vague sort of feeling that her strength would not last very long, and that by and by she would want to be cared for " You must go, you say; of course it as well as the baby. Her poor brain was getting confused, and she could not sleep there was so much to plan before the next of a jeweller

Ah, what a night that was. If it had not been for the soft breathing of her infant in the darkness. Fay must have screamed out six months ago, and it has gained time within any Province, be specially declared by the in her horror, as thoughts of the desolate enough to pay for itself." future came over her; and yet it was easier for her to go away than to stay on at the Hall an unloved wife-a millstone round her hus-

"Here, Janet," she said, with an unstead gave him up and went wandering through lodge meeting the other night and came eral elections is cumbrous and confusing, and inthe rooms, saying a silent good-bye to every thing; and last of all she went into her husband's library. moned her to breakfast. She would come them has twenty-two toes. "Good-bye, my darling-I shall never in a minute, she said, quietly; she was only It is stated that Dr. Morell Mackenzie bly of the Province. call you that again, for I am going away arranging Sir Hugh's papers as he liked to for ever. You must not trouble about me, have them. Yes, she knew the carriage from cancer in his throat, but deprecates an have them. Yes, she knew the carriage from cancer in his throat, but deprecates an have them. have them. Yes, she knew the carriage from cancer in his throat, but deprecates an have them. Yes, she knew the carriage from cancer in his throat, but deprecates an operation which can do no good and will be america Act and of the Several Provinces thereby Nor BEADT FOR DIRECT TAX out me, and I love him so. When he is older I will send him back to you. He is so like you, dear—a Redmondall over—and his even will remind me of your standard lover—and his even will remind me of your standard lover—and his even will remind me of your standard lover—and his even will remind me of your standard lover—and his even will remind me of your standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied and the restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you. He is applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lover—and him back to you applied to be restricted her check against a standard lov not fear that she would be late. And then, attended with great danger. arms, while she rested her check against Union. The Nottingham Tabernacle has by Provincial and the Provincial arms, while she rested her check against Union. The Nottingham Tabernacle has by Provincial authority that it is where he passed a resolution of averaged a resolution of a veraged a verag will sit this evening," she said. "Good-bye, Sourceon her, and bade her take care of the aged life, etc. Answers to these questions must belong to the Provinces. people at the Pierrepoint almshouses, and be sent to the Russian Consulate within "Good-bye, good-bye. I shall be quite see they had their little packets of twenty-four hours.

Do not look for me; only give me a toa and grocory as usual; and ight now and then—one kind and gentle then the shook hands with her and

She read through the letter dry-eyed, and "Good-bye to you all," faltered the poor kissed it, and laid it on the table. It would child hurriedly. "You have been good touch his hands, she thought. Later on friends to me, all of you. Good-bye-good nurse afterwards remembered that Lady they arrived at Euston, to find that Sir Sir Hugh had gone off to London, she Hugh was not waiting at the station. the recent Inter-Provincial Conference at told them; they had telegraphed for him, "What are we to do, my lady?" she asked Quebec:

Sir Hugh had sworn to love and cherish

have left it for domestic expenses while he | comfortable. She made some excuse about was away. Fay wrote out a receipt, and not bringing her nurse, and the chamberput it with her letter. It would be no harm | maid helped her dress baby. She was to keep it, she thought; Hugh could help almost too stupefied with grief and fatigue himself to her money. There would be by this time to do anything but sleep help-

With the rash impulse of despair—of a good-bye. The groom, who knew that he despair that hoped nothing and feared was to follow in a few days with Bonny in the waiting room and read her mistress's nothing—she was taking the most terrible Bess and another horse—for Sir Hugh had note. "Dear nurse," it said, "I am really any decision should be subject to appeal as in step that a young creature could take. She been very mindful of his wife's comfort - very sorry to treat you so badly, but I canwas doing evil that good might come; she was rather surprised to see her kissing the not help it. I have gone away with baby, final. tion and self-sacrifice in obedience to a not bear to part with her; when she had to Singleton by the next train; you will miserable and mistaken idea. If she had left the stables, Nero, who had followed her find your box on the platform, and the porhad been less childish, and her worldly of some impending change, looked up in her what to do when he arrives this evening .-

(To be continued.) At 3 in the Morning.

He was leaning against the lamp-post

" Fine night, Mr. Jones." " Bootiful." "You're out rather late, ain't you ?" " No, no about my usual time."

" Are you waiting for somebody ?" " No, no-going home. A little tired,

"Thank you, thank you, but there's no

Consolation.

Druggist-" Now, what do you want ! me up for 3 cents ?"

Boy-" Why, I had ter git up fer herein mentioned. Not To-Morrow.

He-Oh, my darling ; you will be mine, mother-to-morrow? She-Yes-that is-no, no! To-morrow is washday .- Waterbury American.

A Profitable Watch. "It is said to be."

evidence of it. I bought this watch here "such works as shall, although lying wholly

At a Musicale. He-" Shall I bring you an ice while Miss Yellfort is singing? Pray take some-

If I took anything it would be ether." Mrs! Spilkins says she believes it no -believes that this is to be a year of won derful phenomena-for Spilkins went to a the preparation of separate voters' list for Fed-

Resolutions Adopted by the Provincial Representatives.

FINANCIAL BASIS. Reciprocity Endorsed

DISALLOWANCE CENSURED. Following are the resolutions adopted at

Whereas, in framing the British Korth a work, new, complex and difficult, and it 'Nurse," she said, quickly, when she was to be anticipated that experience in came back a few minutes afterwards, "will the working of the new system would sug-"Yes," returned Fay, quickly; but she you give me baby a moment, and go to the gest many needed changes; that twenty turned away as she spoke. She should most refreshment room—it is just a little way years' practical working of the Act has the functions entrusted to them; that, for this certainly be away all the time Sir Hugh down the station. I should like some sand developed much friction between the was in Egypt. Janet must set to work at | wiches and sponge cakes, and perhaps you | Federal and Provincial Governments and once, for they would have to start early. had better get some for yourself, there is Legislatures, has disclosed grave omissions And then she explained that the cottage at plenty of time;" and the woman obeyed in the provisions of the Act, and has shown standing and intention had not been said this, for she adored her gentle little As soon as she had left the waiting-room, expressed, and that important provisions "Egypt, indeed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. The said this in the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed, and that important provisions in the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass these laws; that a Proposed! What a child you are, said this, for she grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass the grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass the grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass the grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to their true to pass the grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to the pass the grumbled in confidence. In the Act are obscure as to the pass the grumbled in the Act are obscure as to the pass the grumbled in the Act are obscure as to the pass the grumbled in the Act are obscure as to the pass the grumbled in the Act are obscure as the grumbled in the Act are obscured as the grumbled in the Act are obsc of odds and ends. Janet thought she was in two or three weeks' time; and this vincial Legislatures in relation to subjects one thing checked all clue. When the enumerated in the 92nd section of the Act; that And she would have none of her evening inquiries were set affoat, the porter received an enterious section of the Act reserves to the dresses packed up, or indeed any of her certainly remembered the little lady lowing at will all acts passed by a Provincial legislation on the subjects assigned to them, subject only to disallowance by Her Majesty in Council as before Confederation; the power of disallowance to be exercised in xegard to the Provinces upon the same principles as the same our Federal system, as well that the Federal 'arliament should not assume to exercise powers assume to exercise powers belonging exclusively She was going to lay down her wifely rights her necklace. She was rich, but how was she and when the morning came she got into it to the Federal Parliament; that to prevent any such assumption, there should be equal facilities without telling any one where she was such assumption, there should be equal facilities. The last act before the daylight closed burgh.

Was to go to the stables and bid Bonny Bess It would be impossible to describe the Federal Parliament and Provincial Legislatures; as after, a statute has been acted upon; and that to avoiding uncertainty, litigation and expense, been older; if her simplicity of character about all day with a dog's instinctive dread | ter will help you. Sir Hugh will tell you | that the constitutionality of Federal or Proby private litigants, except within a limited time (say two years) from the passing thereof; that hesitated before taking a step that must "Do you want to come with me, Nero?" And enclosed were two months' wages. In thereafter such constitutionality should only be anger as well as grieve her husband. How she asked, sadly; "poor fellow, you will spite of her youth, Fay had excellent business questioned at the instance of a Government, spite of her youth, Fay had excellent business. Federal or Provincial: that any questioned at the instance of a Government, spite of her youth, Fay had excellent business. would Sir Hugh's haughty spirit brook the fret yourself to death without me. Yes, capabilities, only her husband had never decided after the lause of the limited time. But unfortunately for the bewildered other than the mese pronouncing of the decision Redmond—the successor of all the starched For all at once the thought had come to household at Redmond Hall, Sir Hugh be treated as if originally enacted by the Legisla-

4. That a leading purpose of the Senate was to of going abroad. Besides, what could she letter from Sir Hugh—a very affectionate protect the interest of the respective Provinces be administered by the Lieutena of going abroad. Besides, what could she letter from Sir Hugh—a very affectionate protect the interest of the respective Provinces nor of each Province in Council," ments are made by the Federal Government, all the trouble that awaited him in his nurse behind; she would have to engage a Fitzclarance had acted on impulse as and for life, affords no adequate security to the Redmond. And then she bethought her- very night, leaving Powis and Egerton to remedy is provided, the British North America epresenting such Province are Senators chosen by the Province; that thereafter the mode of election be as follows : If the vacancy is occaand the watchful guardian of the night sioned by the death, resignation or otherwise of vioted of an offence against the larg of the Per a Senator chosen by a Province, that Province to choose his successor; and if the vacancy is occasioned by the death, resignation or otherwise of any other Senator, the vacancy to be filled as now provided by the Act, but only for a limited term of years.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORS' POWERS. 5. That it was the intention of the British North America Act, and of the Provinces which " I'll walk down with you and see you to matters as to which the Provincial Legislatures every Province, as the representative of the Sovereign in Provincial affairs, should have the same executive authority as other Governors Provinces ever since Confederation; that it is of essential importance to the Provinces that this right should be maintained, and should be placed beyond doubt or question; that, there Boy—"Three cents' worth of paregoric." such right, and the right being in consequence Quebec should be detailed by declaring its true construction to be according to the intention and practice as

FEDERAL SEIZURE OF LOCAL WORKS. British North America Act as giving to the Federal Parliament the power of withdrawing from Provincial jurisdiction local works situated yearly by the Dominion to the several Provinces will you? When may I talk to your within any Province, and though built in part or for the support of their Governments and Legisotherwise with the money of the Province or the latures nunicipalities thereof; and of so withdrawing advantage of Canada or for the advantage of two or more Provinces, whether that is or is not the true character of such works within the meaning " Is time money?" asked a gentleman and intention of the Act; that it was not the ateution that local works should be so with drawn without the concurrence of the Provincial egislature, or that the power of the Federal advantage," as expressly mentioned in section 29, subsection 11, of the Resolutions of the Quebec Conference of 1864, and that the Act should be

PEDERAL ELECTIONS ON PROVINCIAL LISTS. She (a rival of Miss Y.)-" Thanks, no. and revising the same for elections to the Provincial Assembly; that, without any detriment Federal elections, under the express terms of the British North America Act and of the subseient statutes of the Federal Parliament : the A pair of Siberian kittens belonging to this conference the British North America Act R. T. Wilson, of East Mottingham, Pa., should be so amended as to provide that, at all Ellerton found her there when he sum have each a blue and a gray eye, and one of Province, the qualification and lists of electors

confederated was, that the Provincial authorities will sit this eventual.

God bless you, dear; and then she left the room.

All Russians resident in Berlin have been visited by the police and given a list of questions relating to the date and place of the fact of the fac

9. That, according to the intention of the hereafter payable yearly by Canada to the That the Legislature of the Province of Mani-

legal proceedings in the Provincial that the Provinces accordingly have always enjoyed or dealt with the revenue there-from ; that, according to a recent decision of Her Majesty's Privy Council, the Provincial Legislatures cannot legislate as to such fees or apply the revenue to Provincial purposes; and that the Act should be so amended as to expressly give this constitutional right.

POWER OF ISSUING COMMISSIONS TO HOLD COURTS 10. That by the British North America Act the Provincial Legislatures have exclusive jurisdiction to make laws in relation to the administration of justice, including the constitution, maintenance and organization of Provincial Courts, both of civil and criminal jurisdiction; that a judicial opinion has been expressed that Lieutenant-Governor has the power of issuin commissions to hold Courts of Assize and Ni Prius, Oyer and Terminer and General Jail De Prius, Oyer and Terminer and General Jail De-livery, but the right to do so is considered to be so open to the question that, when it is deemed necessary to hold such a Court, independent commissions expressed in the same terms have, by arrangement between the Federal and Pro-vincial Governments, been issued by the Gover-mer-General and Lieutenant-Governor; that it is expedient that all doubt should be removed and the contrivance of two commissions rendered nnecessary; and that an amendment of the Act should expressly declare that the Lieutenant-Governors have power to issue such comm sions, subject to Provincial statutes. 11. That it has been found by the experience they should possess certain privileges and imment of Canada, and confirmed by Imperial legislation, defining the privileges, immunities and powers of the two Houses and of the mem bers thereof; that Acts in like manner have been passed by several Provincial Legislatures these Acts have not yet been confirmed by Imperial legislation; that doubts have been expressed as to the power of the Provincial Legislatures to pass these laws; that a Proand with the safeguards provided by the British North America Act, a second Provincial chamber is unnecessary, and the expense thereof may in all the Provinces be saved with advantage; that under the Act a Provincial Legislature has power to amend the constitution of the Province; that this power includes the abolition of the Legislative Council, or changing the method of constituting the same; that the provision has failed to effect the abolition of the Council is some Provinces where public opinion is believed to favor such change; and that the Act should be so amended as to provide that, upon an address of the House of Assembly, the elected representatives of the people, Her Majesty the Queen may by proclamation abolish the Legislative Council, or change the constitution thereof, provided that the address is concurred in by at least two-thirds of the members of such House of Assembly,

FEDERAL CLAIMS TO PROVINCIAL CROWN LANDS. provided that all lands belonging to the several earliest practicable moment take steps with the Provinces of Canada shall belong to the Provinces of Securing the enactment by the Imperial vinces respectively in which they are situate; that the claim recently made by the Federal Government to all Crown lands as to which there was no treaty with the Indians before onfederation, is contrary to the intention of the Act and of the Provinces confederated, i which, until a recent period, the Act received begislatures and Governments of the Provinces; lear and indisputable in its technical effect, as well as its actual intention, that all such lands belong to the Province in which they are situate, and not to the Dominion

14. That by the British North America Act the prisdiction with respect to bankruptcy and law which may thereafter be passed; that it is youd the legislative jurisdiction of Parliament or doubtful how far under the present provisions of the Legislature which enacted the same, prothe Act, the Provincial Legislatures can deal vided the action would not lie against him is the with the subject; and it is desirable that the Act | statutory provision had been within such legislabe amended by expressly giving to the Provinces | tive jurisdiction the necessary jurisdiction, in the absence of and subject to any Federal law.

Redmond—the successor of all the starched and spotless dames who hung in the old guest-chambers—should so forget herself where she and her father had stayed many which belongs of right to the Crown, should the royal instructions given to the Governor General subsequently to the passing of the Act His Excellency is (among other things) authorfor which the Senators hold office, and to give ized and empowered to grant any offender conthe choice, as vacancies occur, to the Province to which the vacancy belongs, until, as to any indee justice or magistrate within the Dominpower of a Lieutenant-Governor of a Province vince, or of commuting and remitting, in whole or part, any sentence, fine, forfeiture, penalty or punishment in respect of any such offence; that it is presumed this was not the purpose of the nstructions; that the power of dealing with all natters relating to the execution of Provincial laws should belong to the Lieutenaut-Governor in Council of each Province, leaving (if deemed desirable) the power of the Federal Governmen were thereby confederated, that in respect of all | to apply to other cases; and that the Act should be amended accordingly. THE NORTHERN BOUNDARIES OF ONTARIO AND

16. That the Provinces represented at this con as to the boundaries of the Provinces being se tled and placed beyond dispute; that th Dominion, so far as the same have been determined by Her Majesty in Privy Council should be established by Imperial statute, as reconmended by the order of Her Majesty; and that being no express provision in the Act declaring the whole northern boundaries of Ontario and Quebec should be determined and established THE PRESENT ARRANGEMENT AS TO PROVINCIAL

17. That by the British North America Act al the Customs and Excise duties, as well as certain 6. That the Federal authorities construe the other revenues of the Provinces, were transferred

> And that an annual grant in aid of each Pro-vince should be made, equal to 80 cents per head of the population as ascertained by the census of 1881, with a special provision in the cases of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

(2) That the revenue of the Dominion, at th which 26 per sent, or $2,753,906 went to the Provinces for Provincial purposes, so per cent., he Dominion revenue has been raised from responding increase of subsidy has been granted | bly of Quebec. to them, 13 only, instead of 20 per cent, of th neroased revenue of the Dominion, or #1,182.525 seing now allowed to the Provinces, while ustcad of 80 per cent, 87 per cent, or $24,994,475 s retained by the Dominton, GREATER COST OF CIVIL GOVERNMENT AND LEGIS

greatly exceed the amount provided therefor by he Act; and that the other capenditure necessary for those local purposes which, before Confederation, were provided for out of Provincial

3. That the yearly payments heretofore made increased annual allowances BASIS FOR A FINAL SETTLEMENT.

(A) Instead of the amounts now paid, the sums

everal Provinces to the support of their Governpopulation and as follows:

(a) Where the population is under 150,000, but

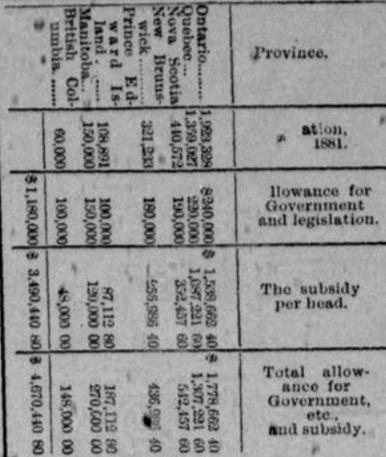

(a) Where the population is 150,000, but does no: exceed 200 000. does not exceed 400,000 O Where the population exceeds 1,500,000 240,000

(B) Instead of annual grant per head of population now allowed, the abnual payment here-after to be at the same rate of eighty cents per head, but on the population of each Province, as ascertained from time to time by the last decen-nial census, until such population exceeds 2,500,000; and at the rate of sixty cents per head THE CASE OF MANITOBA AND BRITISH COLUMBIA.

(C) The population as ascertained by the last connial census, to govern except as to British columbia and Manitoba; and as to these two Provinces, the population to be taken to be that upon which, under the respective statutes in that behalf, the annual payments now made to them respectively by the Dominion are fixed, until the actual population is by the census ascertained to be greater rand thereafter the actual population, so ascertained, to govern.

(D) The amounts so to be paid and granted yearly by the Dominion to the Provinces respec-tively to be declared by Imperial enactment to be final and absolute, and not within the power of the Federal Parliament to alter, add to or

EFFECT OF THE PROPOSAL. (6) That the following table shows the amount which, instead of those now payable for govern ment and legislation and per capita allowances, would hereafter be annually rayable by the Dominion to the several Provinces (the same being calculated according to the last decennia Sova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and according to the limit of population now fixed by statute for the Provinces of British Columbia and Manitoba):

CONSIDERATION BY LOCAL GOVERNMENTS. sidered by the Governments of the several Pro-vinces of the Dominion, and, if approved of. switch of his invention. The appliance is should be submitted to the Provincial Legislatures.

DUTY OF THE LEGISLATURES.

their respective Legislatures, should at the RESOLUTIONS RESPECTING PROVINCIAL LEGISLA-

inter-Provincial interest and concern in respect America Act is necessary, this Conference, as A test was made on Thursday on the main to certain of the said matters, resolves as fol-

PROTECTION OF MAGISTRATES UNDER CONSTITU tures, it is expedient and just that it should be enacted by the respective Provincial Legisla-tures, that no action shall lie against any judge, which may afterwards be held to have been be-several Provinces for the enforcement of debts a few weeks since at the age of 90, leaving opinion that such assimilation should include only one of them, indeed, is married. To provisions against preferences by insolvent them he leaves the interest of his money debtors, and provisions for the examination of debtors, and for taking speedy possession of an insolvent's estate for the benefit of his creditors; so far as these subjects can be dealt with by the | trust consisting of the principals, or presi Provincial Legislatures.

21. That this conference approves of there being legislative provision in the several Provinces of the Dominion rendering effectual in GIVING EFFECT TO IMPERIAL LEGISLATION. 22. That this conference approves of a similar proper conditions) with respect to probates and letters of administration granted in the United Kingdom, to go into effect when probates and letters of administration granted in the Dominion are by Imperial legislation made effectual in the United Kingdom.

Resolved, That copies of the foregoing resolutions be formally communicated by the President on behalf of this conference to the Federal Government, and that this conference do cordially invite the co-operation of the Federal Government in carrying into effect these reso-

RESOLUTIONS TO BE TRANSMITTED TO THE ference to the respective Governments of the that point, but the former does not stop. The namely, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia, with a view to their concurrence in and

O. Mowat, Prime Minister of Ontario and Honore Mercier, Prime Minister of Quebec and Attorney-General. W. S. Fielding, Prime Minister of Nova Scotia and Provincial Secretary. Andrew G. Blair, Prime Minister Brunswick and Attorney-General. J. Norquay, Prime Minister of Manitoba, Pre dent of Council and Provincial Secretary. C. F. Fraser, Executive Councillor and Commissioner of Public Works. Arthur S. Hardy, Executive Count

A. M. Ross, Executive Councillor of Ont and Treasurer. Geo. W. Ross, Executive Councillor and Minis ter of Education Quebec and Acting Commissioner of Crown bee and Provincial Treasurer Charles A. Ern. Gagnon, Executive Conneillor J. McShane, Executive Councillor of Quebec and Commissioner of Agriculture and Public Geo. Duhamel, Executive Councillor of Quebec and Solicitor-General.

Joseph Shehyn, Executive Councillor of Que-

F. G. Marchand, Speaker of Legislative Assem-J. W. Longley, Executive Councillor of Nova Scotia and Attorney General. # A. McGillivray, Executive Councillor of Nova Scotia. David McLeilan, Executive Councillor, Pro rincial Secretary and Receiver-General of New

C. E. Hamilton, Executive Councillor of Manitoba and Attorney-General.

Brunswick.

That, having reference to the agitation on the abject of the trade relations between the ainton and the United States, this Inter-Provincial Conference, consisting of representatives of all political parties, desires to record its opinion that Unrestricted Reciprocity would be write each a sentence containing one of of advantage to all the Previnces of the these words. One boy displayed his igenuity 4. That several of the Provinces are not in a stressess cherish forvent loyalty to Her as follows: "A hedgehog has Brussels on condition to provide, by direct taxation or other. Majesty the Queen, and warm attachment to his back."—Beston Commonwealth. Deminion ; that this Conference and the people wise, for the additional expenditure needed, and | British connection : and that this Conference is in consequence have from time to time applied of opinion that a fair measure providing under to the Fe-leval Parsiament and Government for proper conditions for Unrestricted Reciprocal care relations between the Dominion and the United States would not lessen these sentiments on the part of our people and, on the contrary may even serve to increase them, and would at door yesterday. "We have none," was the for a final and unalterable settlement of the the same time, in connection with an acjust ropty. "Oh. we" hot ones il do, said the toba at its last session enacted a measure viding for the construction of a rails ay from Red River Valley Railway; that the line of the proposed railway is within the original limits of he Province of Manitoba as defined by 33 V. c. 3 of the Statutes of Canada; that by the subsquent Act 44 V., c. 14, for the extension of the boundaries of the Province, it was enacted that poen or shall hereafter be enacted respecting th Canadian Pacific Railway and the lands to b ranted in aid thereof;" that this provi sion does not apply to the original limits of the Province; that the Province of Manitoba in accepting the extension of its boundaries on the conditions mentioned did not surrender any right, power or franchise which may be exercised by the Province with a its original limits; that the Legislature, in passing its measure for the construcwithin its constitution powers; that the Act has, notwithstanding, been disallowed by the Federal Government; that this conference views with alarm this encroachment of the Federal upon Provincial power, by which the will of the people of a Province in a matter within Provincial jurisdiction is subordinated to the will of the central power; and that this conference desires to express its sympathy with the people and Legislature of Manitoba in their struggle for the rights of their Province.

The delegates from the Province of New Brunswick did not concur in this motion, and wished their dissent to be placed on record. A Song for a Boy I Love. Keep ahead of the world, if you can, my b Tis the only sure way to succeed.

If you ere fall behind, 'twill be hard to get back'
To the spot where you once had the lead: And there's no way to win in the battle of life So casy, so safe and so sure.

For most of life's ills 'tis the cure. But you never get dollars till first you get per As from accross the mighty caks grow; Work hard, and work ever, and save as you toil No matter if progress seems slow; Thus be true to yourself in the years of you And you'll rest without worry when old. Save the pennies to-day, into silver they'll turn,

As to have a few dollars ahead of your wants --

And the silver will grow into gold. Let the fools try to tempt you to pleasures to-That will take the small coin from your purse; Store your brain in the hours they give to the With knowledge, you ll not be the worse; For labor, and study, and saving in youth mies to-day will be silver full soon And the silver will grow into gold. Fair Italy lies on the Alps' farther side, Tis the place we have dreamed of alway, But those Alps must be climbed by the stout limbs of youth

Will give rest and content when you're old,

Ere by Tiber we pass age away; So work, my brave boy, in the years of your If you want rest and plenty when old ; Take care of the pennies, to silver they'll turn. And the silver will grow into gold. L. J. BEAUCHAMA.

LATEST RAILWAY NEWS.

An Appliance to Prevent Accidents from Leaving Switches Open. Some time since N. E. Springsteen Michigan Passenger Agent of the Erie designed to prevent the accidents which occur almost daily through the carelessness 18. That in the opinion of this Conference, the of employees in leaving switches open. The several Provinces of the Dominion, through models were submitted to a number of railroad men, including Chief Engineer Masson, of the Detroit, Grand Haven & Parliament of amendments to the British North | Milwaukee Railway, and he at once ordered America Act in accordance with the foregoing one put on at Pontiac for the purpose of testing its adaptability. It is so constructed that the movement of the train of cars There having been submitted for the consid- operating on a cam placed on the outer side of the rail controls the switch, closing it if it has been left open and locking it as well. line at Pontiac. Four engines were used on the main line. The switch was left open and the engineer tested its working, running at a speed of from 8 to 22 miles an from time to time as to the respective powers of hour. It worked to perfection, and on the Federal Parliament and Provincial Legisla- | Monday next a party of local railway magnets will go to Pontiac to witness another test. A company will at once be formed to manufacture the switch. Twenty-two miles of grading have been completed on the Northwest Central Railway. Scholarships for Canadian Universities,

Robert Bruce, a market gardener, who lived on the St. Foy road, at Quebec, died a fortune of $120,000. His three daughters, all above middle age, have no children; during their lives; but on their death, without issue, the fund is to be vested in a dents, ex-officio, of Morin College, Que bec ; Dalhousie College, Halifax ; Bishop's College, Lennoxville : McGill University, Montreal; Queen's University, Kingston; all the Provinces (subject to proper conditions) Toronto University and Manitoba College scholarships, of the annual value respectively of $25 and $100 each, to be called " The Robert Bruce Bursaries and Scholarships." The holders must be matriculated students of one or other of the universities named, actually pursuing a regular course of study in arts or science. The scholarships are to be divided into two classes, CO-OPERATION OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT one for candidates at matriculation, and the other for third year's men.

A G. T. R. Brakeman Saves a Lady's Life. Wm. Jepson, of Niagara Falls, a Grand Trunk brakesman, has been tangibly rewarded by the company for his presence of mind in saving the life of a lady passenger at Prairie siding one day last week. The Pacific Express passes the accommodation at lady was stepping off the accommodation, and, not noticing the approaching express, support of the conclusions arrived at by this was standing on the track. Jepson took in the perilous situation at a glance and caught her by the cloak and pulled her back. Her escape from instant death was very narrow, and, as it was, she was severely injured by a blow from the cowcatcher of the express Heaviest Truss in the World.

The first truss of the Poughkeepsie (N.Y.) bridge was swung into position on the 7th ast. It is 525 feet long between the centres of the towers, 82 feet deep and 35 wide, being the largest and heaviest steel truss in the world. It rests on steel towers 100 feet high, which stand on masonry piers, the David A. Ross, Executive Councillor of Quebec. | foundations of which are 125 feet below Arthur Turcotto, Executive Councillor of high water and rise 30 feet above high water, and its total height from the founda tion is 337 feet. It carries a floor system on top for a double-track railway, and is capable of supporting a rolling load of 3,000 pounds to the running foot on each track.

> A Small Favor Asked. Conductor (after the accident)-" Well, sir, we have at last found your valet, but sad to say he's cut in two." English tourist-" Aw, vewy distressing! Sorry to trouble you, dontcherknow, but I've never travelled in this country before; would you see in which half is the key of my trunk?

Natural History. A Quincy teacher recently in giving primary language lessons wrote upon the blackboard the words" Ingrain,""Brussels," Easily Suited. " Will you give me some cold victuals?"

Sir Charles Tupper arrived at Ottawa yesterday, and will probably leave for Washington on Monday.

asked a mendicant at a Prospect avenue