the buckle, and it is supposed that concus. has been a gratifying improvement in the extremity was ranged an aristocratic group brain from the blows there condition of the country, and it is expected of guests—the Princess Frederica of Hancaused the boy's death. Examination of that next year will show a surplus of over, the Dowager Duchess of Roxburgh the premises showed that Hatzka had nearly fifty million marks. Bills will be and the Mar hioness of Ely, Court ladies, viable reputation in the mighborhood some | American States."

they found him seated the Emperor, which were given with enthu- away was another nurse holding the year passed away one day; what a great blank smoking. He was promptly awasted. The stasm. The Prezident, in his opening old prince, who looked around with dawnman had evidently been actuding, but address, alluded to the serious nature of ling wonderment. There was nothing royal whether before or after the tragedy was not the illness of the Crown 1 . e, and the or pretentions in the dresses of either baby, slowly, so gently, that the great black apparent. He was very retirent, and pre- grief of the country over his face. Anxiety although the christening robe, with its void filled imperceptibly, and we scarce

KING OF HIS CASTLE.

Listiany Keep.

now in Ireland sends a whimsical account of a visit he paid the other day to a castle | Prince : "The Reichstag, in profound Pyne, M.P., now resists the service of a Imperial Highness. May God pret ct your name. writ. Listinny Castle consists of a single | precious life and preserve it for the salvaing from Sie Walter Raleigh's time, and listened to the address standing, and only one narrow door at the bottom and a | suggestions. small window mear the top on the same side. The other openings are tiny slits or loopholes too small to squait a man's head. pletely separated from the upper part by logs and masoury, and the staircase is said by Pyne to be so undermined that excited meeting of the Society of Unity masses. A many lives will be lost if an attempt is | Church (Unitarian) was held to-night, havmade to force it. My friend haded Pyne | inc been called to dismiss Rev. John C from a haystack outside. Pyne was too Kunball because of his anarchistic symshortsighted to recognize him, but he pathies. His sermon on the Sunday folknew his voice and let himself down on a lowing the hanging of the Chicago above the ground, whence he conversed for fixion of Christ and gave great offence to Myers, who shot his wife and child, ran a long time. He is in high animal spirits, | many of his congregation. After a sharp away and afterwards gave himself up to | and down the rope keeps him in splendid ball secured the floor, and said the sermon causes leading to his crime. chair, suspended from a windlass, to about | secured this result. fifteen feet from the ground, where he secret means of exit. The interview was ended by Pyne lowering a bottle and a German workingman named Friedel, who tively to herself. I furnished the means of 1661) to translate the Hebrew word alluph, pledged him health and success in good in latter day Ireland than the fact that

TANNING A BOY'S HIDE.

An Atlanta (Ga.) despatch says : Macon

officials have adopted a novel but cruel

Private Justice Overtakes a Young Georgian with Legal Consent.

method of inflicting purisoment on juvenile criminals. A voting negro named Parker was arrested vesterday on the charge of abstracting a sack of corn from the barn of a farmer by the name of Davis. The latter withirew its complaint with the competed he the down order or the layer father agreeing to flog hom if bulency was shown. At noon the parent appeared at the barracks with a long strap that had done service as a butrace. The boy was not appried of what was coming, and when it was appropried that his father had come the vouchful offender was about to jump with joy, but when the door of the cell opened and the strap was noticed he wilted. The father was not disposed to stand cool headed lawyer-whoever saw a hotupon ceremony, and almost commanded the lad to relieve himself or his coat and , the idea is a brilliant one a: I asks for a shirt. This was done, but with great sample of the sort. Try this ; reluctance. As soon as the body max here the strap swarp high in the air, quivered ! for a second and then came shown with a swish and a swark that caused the black " Or this, to point the most apparent, the carriage and you're supposed to keep ski on the boy's bary to turn white ur model;

bare back had a strkener appearance. fainting boy was forese to assume his long time. shirt and coat and was lead home. He i will probably not steal any more corn, for a while at least.

A Wild Gome Experiment.

will be added to the live positry collection, words after me. Then along the Will level pipe and some pebbles. and efforts will be made to me if they can thou take this woman " atc. John, bear ! be domesticated. Specimens of all the dig in mind the vicar's hint, replied:

THE GERMAN REICHSTAG.

The Speech from the Throne-Germany Strong and Ready, but Anxious for Peace-Sorrow for the Crown Prince.

A last (Thursday) night's Berlin cab Hatzka, sat by his corpse on Lincoln street | says: The Reichstag was opened to-day. to day and sobbed as if her heart would | Minister Von Boetticher read the Speech by ak. The child had been beaten todeath | from the Throne. The speech was substan-The Latzka His poor, frail little body was I tially as follows: "Germany in her hierally flayed. The boy was the son of foreign policy has successfully endeavered. The ceremony throughout was simple and Hatzka's first wife, whom he married in to strengthen the peace of Europe by the Germany and who died there about five cultivation of friendly relations with all of years ago. He married again within three | the Powers, by treaties and alliances aiming months after her death, and his second wife to avert the dangers of war and to jointly the baptism formula of the Scotch Presbydied June 15th lest in Chicago. Since then it oppose any unjust attacks. Germany has terran Church, and selected to officiate at appears the poor little walf of a step-son no aggressive tendencies. She has no wants the font Dr. Lees, only three days home has received more kicks than crusts and to be satisfied through victorious wars. An from his visit to New York. He is the was half-starved all the time. The neigh- unchristian disposition to surprise neigh- minister of St. Giles', Edu-burgh, a dean bors say the boy was a nice little fellow. Loring peoples is foreign to the German of the Thistle and principal Scottish chap-He could not stay at home to be beaten nature and to the constitution of the lain to the Queen. Thus, for the first time and starved, but last night he returned | Empire. The military organization of the when Hatzka was out. Hatzka went up | country is not calculated to disturb the to the boy's bed when he returned, and, peace of her neighbors by arbitrary attacks. taking a leather strap to which was Germany is strong in parrying surprises less boy alive. This was about 10 o'clock | wishes to become so strong that she can face | ferred to in the Queen's books, with winlast night. The neighbors heard the with composure every danger. The resump screams of the boy then, and later, about | tion of the Reichstag comes at a serious | the River Dec. in the background of which midnight, they were awakened by a fresh time. The grave complaint with rise the shadows of the historic Grampian was at the depot ready to recognize his and time and rest will cure her of the the music Tom came rushing into the further was heard until this morning, when visited fills the mind not only of the the sound of blows and groating could be | Emperor, but also of his august allies and the whole of Germany, with anxious care. About 9 o'clock this morning Hatzka told Nothing that human service, knowledgeand dropping upon a carpet of the Stuart huntone of the neighbors that the boy had died | careful tending can do will be left undone. suddenly, and they sent word to the Our eyes and prayers, however, are belonging about the room. Upon the walls Coroner and notified the police. Detectives | directed toward God, whose decrees rule | hang proof engravings of Landseer's famous | pany with Mrs. Dayle's son, left for Scotts | gerated, representing the girl as crying for | emotions of pleasure. As soon, however, found the body of the boy, yet warm, at 10 the destinies of nations as well as the life deer scenes of his suggestions of hunts over bord. She is about 35 years of age. Mr. blood and vengeance. Her father says that as the last note was played he sprang up. o'clock, showing that he had died this of the individual man. Firm confidence heather and hills. morning, after what was at least the third | in God and the faithful fulfilment of duty | beating. The body of the little victim is a have been in all especially grave moments stood groups of Balmoral tenants, keepers mass of lacerations where the sharp buckle | the tried support of our people, and they | and attendants-good, sturdy Highlanders ploughed up the quivering flesh. On the now also enable us to do justice to the -with their families, all in picturesque back of the head are frequent imprints of labors awaiting the Legislatures. There and variegated costumes. At the other wiped the blood off the bleeding body of the introduced, abelishing compulsory contri- in-waiting; the Countess of Errell, the boy and burned the rags with which he did buttons on the part of officers and Earl of Hopetous, who is the Lord High each other at all. it. The shirt the boy wor when he was Imperial officials to the widows and Commissioner to the Church of Scotland; whipped was found hidden away in a shed orphans' funds, increasing the corn duties, the Right Hon. C. Ruchie, Cabinet Minisback of the house. It was all caked with dry | modifying the Landwehr and Landstrom | ter in waiting ; Sir Henry Porsonby, the blood, and the clean shirt which flatzka system so that it will be considerably Queen's confidential secretary : Prof. and through our daily tasks nearly all of us put on the poor little fellow is almost as strengthened, relating to the insurance of Mrs. Profei, the Queen's particular neighartisans in cases of old age and sickness, bors and her family friends, together with how, if we were to pas- out of existence, Hatzka is 38 years old, and was em- | modifying the triendly societies law with ployed in a furniture factory. He has two regard to the sale of wine, temporarily looked in from the lawn and seemed startled and in a very short time we would scarcely little sons of his own, aged 4 and 3 years | prolonging the Austro-German treaty and respectively. Hatzka notained an unen- ratifying treaties of commerce with some time last summer by his treatment of a | One hundred and fifty deputies were

to her after she had been working for him diplomatic gallery ther. were only a few gold. It did not seem that a Queen and the many steps, tread the path we have her because she was already betrouned to were crowden. At noon the members of and a mother, wearing a smile which sug- forget. A life all tears, all regret for the another man and declined the honor of the Bundesrath entered the White Hall, gested youthful tenderness. She wore a past, all sighs for the ones we have lost, being he wife. It is related that he charged whi I was illuminated, and took positions dress of black silk, trimmed with black lace. would be a sad life indeed. Tis a soft her with stealing half a shawl of his late on the left of the throne. During the read- Across her breast she were a narrow scarf touch of an angel's wing that soothes uswife and some pieces of table linen, but be nog of the speech the Minister was often of the Balmoral plaid. Beside her stood the angel of forgetfulness. Mother, our not only proved her imposence, but showed interrupted by applause and enthusiastic the father, mother and nurse, who held the Code are supplause and enthusiastic the father, mother and nurse, who held the that he had out the shall himself and cheers. At the close he declared the Reich- cooing cause of the assent lage, all fronting stag open, and Herr Wedell Piesdorff, the the chaplain, who in dress suggested the yet we can remember when she was all it When one ors arrived at I at zkh's house President of the body, called for cheers for well-known picture of John Knex. Not far all-leader, toiler, adviser, all in one. She wealth of bottom embroidery and adorn. missed the clear soul, who once was the bers would join, the President said, in bon, was the object of much admiration. expressing their sorrow and declaring that | An Amusing Sketch of Mr. Pyne, M.P., in | they placed their confidence in God's grace and mercy. He asked authority to convey

ANARCHISM IN THE PULPIT.

Clergyman to the Crucifixion.

A Terrible Bereavement.

How to Believe the Eyes.

a new way? Let the lines alternate. A headed scion of justice- writes to say that Twinishe, winkle little star, and say the world so tugny

are you what wonder I Haw

Asreverend anon of the church relates that on one occasion it fell to his lot to !

marry his footman to his cook. The foot

A London cable says: A correspondent | these sentiments to the Emperor and send finally announced it as "Victoria Eugenie | sleep no less soundly for our forgetfulness. the following telegram to the Crown Julia Ena." Eugenie, after the ex-Empress; Julia, after the Princess Battenberg, the near the Blackwater, in which Mr. Douglas | reverence and cordfal love, thinks of Your | German grandmother, and Ena as a Scotch succonfided by a large farmyard. It has ununimously approved the President's the service concluded with the singing of are the rose, the thistle, shamrock and

NOT A WORD TO HIS WIFE TOR YEARS. The Couple Then Quarrelled and the

but he had stuffed the hopholes with hay, said also that the principles of the anar. shooting," he said. "I don't mean to say gave us the sweet picture of Lady Corisand when a stove was lighted he was quite chist were destined to triumph, and that I was not aware of what I was doing, ande's garden in "Lothair." This league comfortable, barring the fact that the he could not take back a single sentiment but rather that I had not premeditated it. now numbers four hundred thousand This is the sodium, light and free, that stovepipe was too short and filled the top he had uttered, however unpopular or The trouble has been brewing for two members.-F. W. Burninge, in Harper's of the chamber with smoke. He had whatever the result might be to him per- years. I have been married for about Weekly for December. plenty of whiskey and tobacco and cannes | somally. The vote to dismiss him was lost | twenty-four years, but for the past two meats enough to last till spring. When | -yeas, 38; nays, 49. The lady members | years I had not, up to Sunday last, spoken deputations come to viert him he lowers | of the society, who compose nearly half of a word to my wife. In fact, I had not even himself down to the outside in an arm it, voted almost solidly for Kimball and seen her more than three or four times. We | Encyclopedia Britannica, but is in the lived in the same house, but whenever she | American supplement, third volume, page would hear meenter she would shut herself | 783. I send you an extract giving the listens to their speeches and replies. He THE OCEAN STEAMSHIP CALAMITY. in her room and remain there until I left. derivation and use of the word : sible he could be captured, because, even if Another Sad Case of the Loss of Searly a me with a sort of silent contempt, which, dialect of the Indian language of North began finally to be so unbearable that I America, and is used by John Elliot in his built. A Cleveland (Ohio) despatch says: A couldn't stand it, and I left her compara- translation of the Bible (Cambridge, Mass.,

> came to this city a few years ago with a support, however. posed I had a right to go where I would in | xxxvi. 15, given herewith ; it. Just then my wife appeared on the " . Young mugquampoag wunnaumonuh laborer in the salt mills in this city, were defence only, for I feared there might be a quomp Kenaz. lost with the steamer Scholten. Frost man in the house who would create a dis. " These were dukes of the sons of Esan ;

ago and saved all his money to pay for the pared. all his savings, $153, to buy the stickets, going into the parlor, saw a number of His wife was about 45 years old, and the parangers there. I said good evening and chabiren range I from a months up to 22 sat down. Some time after my wife turned to me and asked if I had not been there long senough, at the same time slapping me. I left the room, and after the company had Last Thursday morning there appeared | gene I went to where my wife was and shot in this column a note on the proposed her. Not knowing what the result of my method of relieving the eyes in reading. work would be I left the house."

and forward on the lines why not practice Myers' life.

To avoid the motion of the eyes backward | There is very little hope of saving Mrs.

English Car Heaters.

filled with hot water and put on the floor of Occan. warm on it. The only way to get any cars let them go home."

An Elephant as a Vational Bank, geese caught near Grosso Island, river St., above with or dom. The rev. gentleman | Bailey winter quarters. In the stomach instead."- London Modern Society. Lawrence, arrived by Dominion Express reneastrated in an undertone; Don't was found over 300 pennies, part of a would reach from Washington to Cleveland. | of mental decadence.

BAPTEEZEMENT OF THE BAIRN. A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

to the Princess Beatrice, and the first anniversary was selected by the Queen as chris-indeed democratic. Little about it suggested royalty. Doubtless as a special

-because the Stuarts wire Catholics -a oyal infant has been baptized into the

One o'clock was the hour selected, the Hills. It is a plainly furnished apartment such as a successful merchant might plan views, with curtains of the Balmoral tartan

Scotch Presbyterian Church.

A Royal Baby Christened into the Scotch Together Under One Roof. Presbyterian Church-Simple but In-A marriage ceremony was performed teresting Ceremony-The Baby's Name. A last (Thursday) night's London cable says: One year ago yesterday was born a son their parents are after all not related to Blessed Forgetfuluess.

Do we ever pause to think as we hurry have some duties to perform each daymany other favorite guests. Several deer when the exercises opened with the singing be missed, even by those who love us and of a Scotch hynm by a selected Aberdeen | whom we love? Some other hand would wind the skein, sometimes sadly tangled, In the centre of the room stood the Royal which we have labored over so long. Some young woman whom he engaged as house present. The places reserved for members grandmother, surrounded by her Indian other voice would advise, chide and keeper. He made proposals of marriage of the court were not occupied. In the servants dark Orientais blazing in red and | encourage. Some other feet would take Limpress stood there, but rether a woman | trod so long. Ah! 'tis a blessed thing to God's acre, very calmly, very peacefully ; place there was in heart and home. But time weve his web of forgetfulness, so thoughts to the background. The mem ments of lace crossed with a Scotch rib. motive power of our home. Ah, yes, the world goes on just the same. The new Curiosity was visible upon all faces as made grave, the bitter tears; healing the minister approached the naming, be- time, smiles again. Yet those who sleep cause as yet the name was a secret. He beneath the green sod. the dazzling snow, F. H. HOLLAND.

National Flowers. The water used was from the River larger proportion of those blossoms selected in every form and device to appeal to childtower or keep, about ninety feet high, dat. tion of the Patherland." The Deputies Jordan. After the baptism was sung the as national or political symbols have been jish inagination. new hyma by Sir Arthur Sullivan, and taken from the "hardy brigade." Of such a chorale known as the " German Halle- leek, the broom (planta-genista), the white iris of Florence, the fleur-de lis of France What followed? What follows at any the lily a'luded to by Chaucer. This last well regulated christening? The whole is supposed to have been the white or Jack built. The lower half of the castle has been com- The Chicago Execution Compared by a affair passed off in a thoroughly domestic | Madonna's lily, but in the north of Ireland | way, and next cance lunch on for the the Orange lily is not unfrequently de-A Hartford (Conn.) despatch says: And " classes" and afternoon jollity for the graded on July 12th as a symbol of party feeling. The violet of the Napoleon dynasty is even yet worn in France, and | laboratory that Jack built. at Fontaineblean the apartments of the the chrysanthemum has taken the place of rope inside to a looplied some thirty feet anarchists compared the affair to the craci- A Chicago despatch says: William honor as the national flower, but one badges is the " pale primrose" of Shaks. | window in the laboratory that Jack built. health. The only deficulty was the cold, was inspired by "a strange power." He in honor of the late Lord Beaconsfield, who furnished the soda that, melted with sand, a leader. Elliot used it in a sense of big chief. young son, having managed to lay up some | "Well, everything went along in that a term more comprehensive to the Indian Irish whiskey. Nothing could show better money, recently sent for his wife and his way until Sunday afternoon, when I went mind than that which appears in the King five other children, who had remained in | home, and, going upstairs, went to a store- James' version, 'duke.' The word was the Fatherland. Mrs. Friedel and her room to get something. I found the door spelled 'mugquomp' in the singular, and this comical episode awakens no smile little ones sailed for America on the steamer locked, and was about to go for a key when 'mugquampoag' in the plural. It appears Scholten, and they were all among the lost. my daughter, seeing me, told me I should in many places throughout the Algonquin The unfortunate man learned of his loss not go into that room. I asked her why, translation of the Old Testament, a notable to-day through friends and is crazed with | for inasmuch as it was my house I sup- | place being in I. Chron. i, it, 53; also Gen.

The Meaning of "Mugwump."

> scene with a poker in her hand and de- Esan; wunnaumonuh Eliphaz; montome-A Syracuse, N. Y., despatch says: The clared I should not enter. I then went out gheunche Esaus Mugquomp Teman; Mugwife and eight children of John P. Frost, a sand bought a revolver, intending it for self- quomp Omar; Mugquomp Zepho; Mug-> came from West Prussia about nine months | turbance, for which I wished to be pre- the sons of Eliphaz; the first born son of passage of his wife and children. It took "I returned home about 8 o'clock, and, Zepho, Duke Kermz." - Fulton Republican. Esan; Duke Teman, Duke Oman, Duke

That's So. On the deck of the Dutch steamer Schol-

Lord Fife's Idea of Temperance. warmth out of it at all is to hold it on your The Earl of Fife is not only the boon lap and then your back freezes. One of companion of the heir apparent, but is also the schot water cans is expected to keep a great favorite with Her Majesty. The y a warm for twelve hours. It gots stone father of the present Earl was a The bystanders interfered at this point. | Members of the Vegetarian Society assert cold within two, and for cream may be curious specimen of the killed race. He saying : "Your Majesty will be glad to hear that I have left off drinking sods and brandy." The Queen, smiling, said : " I Review. A Bridgeport. Count., telegram says: am glad to hear it, Lord Fife." His Lord-was arrested for " maliciously trespassing."

THE DEADCABARCHIST'S SWEETHEART.

Knows About ther Infatuation. James K. Van Zandt, the father of the afternoon Squire Snyder tied the nuptial dreaming that he was a newspaper man. went through divers motions, really more knot and a little later the couple, in com- Even what they did say he grossly exag- as if he were in pain than experiencing and is 40 years of age. She has been mar- shocked as himself at seeing such senti- cried out eagerly : ried once and has one child. He has been | ments attributed to her. On the contrary, | "Miss Fannia"-he knew her wellmarried twice. Each time he married it was her tenderness of heart that got her "please git away; I wants ter play dat widows with children, and he had children | into aff this trouble. He does not think | tune!" by each wife. His present marriage there | that she really has any sympathy with the | And jumping upon the piano stool he fore brings together five sets of children, dectrines of the executed men, but she saw played it off perfectly, although I know he who are brothers, sisters, stepbrothers and so much of Spies that under the excite- had never heard it until that moment, for Buffalo Rill.

I asked Col. Cody something about hi financial recess, writes Crawford to the New York World. He said they made a good deal of money in London, but not as much as they should have made. He considered that he was worth to-day $800,000 and that the bulk of this was invested in good Western real estate. Salisbury, h said, was worth about $500,000 that he had put away since he had gone in with the Wild West. Cody says that he is not certain about their future. He has made enough money to retire. They will play the winter through, and then go to Belgium for three or four weeks for the spring exhibillion there. Then they will go to Paris for a few weeks, and Rome later.

I asked Col. Cody about the Prince of Wales. He said: "The Prince has been grounds, before we opened, with the Princess and some of lis friends, and we gave him a private exhibition. He is a good man. He is kind, thoughtful and a good friend. If he likes a man he sticks to bim. He gave me last summer a very handsome pin. I do not wear it, because I hold it too is in the form of a horseshoe, with dianonds and robies alternating, and with the three feathers of the Prince's crest set

There is no man in the United States who is as well known in Europe as Buffalo Bill. He has become the subject of children's story books. He is just as much a hero as " Jack the Giant Killer" to the children of England. Every book and toy I think I am correct in saying that the shop has Buffalo Bill books and pictures in the laboratory that Jack built.

A Lesson in Chemistry.

glass that lighted the window in the ex-Empress Josephine are redolent with compounded the glass that lighted the an exquisite order. In China and Japan | window in the laboratory that Jack built. This is the salt, a molecule new, that furnished the soda that, meited with sand, > compounded the glass that lighted the let passed through Thomas' head and united with chlorine of yellowish hue to form common salt, a molecule new, that furnished the soda that, melted with sand, compounded the glass that lighted the tary honors. Gen. Gordon and his staff, window in the laboratory that Jack buitl. This is the atom that weighs twentythree, consisting of sodium so light and | Times. free, that united with chlorine of yellowish hue to form common salt, a molecule new. that furnished the soda that, melted with sand, compounded the glass that lighted the window in the laboratory that Jack to obtain a complete dress belonging to this home upon a bright Sunday morning when the good folk were wending their way to the kirk. A little dog pulled a ribbon from the hands of a lady who was leading it, and as it ran from her she appealed to the first passer by, who happened to be the intoxicated man, asking him to whistle for her poodle, "Woman," he retorted with that solemnity of visage which only a Scotchman can assume, " women, this ican day for manager " the second com

Bill Nye's Introduction. Probably Mr. E. W. Nye will never for get the time he lectured in Indianapolis. That is the home of Riley, the humorist and poet, and it had been arranged that Riley was to introduce the lecturer. Well, Riley did introduce him. He made an introductory address of one hour and a half, trader or missionary in the isles of the sea | during which time E. W. Nye set and per- by 3 o'clock to-morrow." spired and got ready to get up and cracked Charles Dickons doesn't like the way we ship. It is the spirit that brings the Vic- his fingers and smiled outside and cried in- nine dollars?" Reat of an obscure side. The only thing that E. W. Nye got adopt the English way, and what is that? miner and nerves a Gladstone to await a a chance to deliver that night was his pero- bank, and I've got the other dollar."

Now You Know It All.

my railroad ?"

Five Fam'lies of Children Brought Nina Van Zandt's Father Tells What He Rolling on the Floor in an Ecstasy of

I nesday at the Ohio House, on Carter wretched Nina, tells a reporter of the taking Blind Tom from the custody of Mr. street, says the Chattanooga Times, that | Chicago Tribune that he is a hard working | Bethune, his former life long friend, manattracted a great deal of attention. The chemist, who has no sympathy with the ager and protector, has brought him so bride was a mother and the groom had visconary dreams of either Socialists or prominently before the public in the newsalready lost two wives. The marriage was Anarchists. He became convinced that his papers, a few facts concerning his childthe outcome of an impury which the lady daughter was in love with Spies with her | nood by one who knew him then may not made several months ago for a derespon- mother's support and sanction. He knew prove uninteresting. He was born near dent through a Constant paper. The lady that to oppose the girl's folly would drive the city of Columbus, in Muscogee County, was Mrs. Mamis C. Doyle, of Cincinnati. her from his house, and he would thus lose | Ga., of slave parents, the property of Gen-The man who saw the inquiry and replied entirely his influence over her. He argued eral James N. Bethune, at that time edi or to it with success was John It Wandell, of with both mother and daughter until con- and proprietor of a newspaper called the Scottsboro', Ala. They made love by smeed that it did no good. Then he Corner Stone, but in exactly what year I do letter, she accepted by letter, he proposed decided to do nothing, refusing to talk with not know, as he was some 6 to 8 years, or it to her by letter, she accepted by letter, and newspaper men and trying to induce his may be a little clder, when I first met him For all the brave, strong men-devoted, hardy they made arrangements by letter to meet | wife and daughter to adopt the same course. | in 1855. My first meeting with him and be married at Chattanooga. Mr. He did, however, join to some extent in the was in this wise : I had just married a few Wandell arrived in the city yesterday and effort to save Spies, not because he months previously, and one of General procured the license and made all the sympathized with him, but to avert Bethune's daughters had been one of our arrangements to have the ceremony per- an overwhelming grief from his daugh- bridesmaids. On our return from a northformed by Squire Snyder at the Ohio ter. But, as if the state of things in ern tour we were invited to dine at General House as soon as his intended should arrive. his household was not bad enough, the Bethune e. During the day music was Mrs. Doyle arrived here in company with newspapers, he says, have persistently proposed, and upon the piano and flute my her 14-year-old son on the Cincinnati printed false reports about it. The girl is wife and I played a tune which we heard Southern 'rain. Mr. Wandell had exchange not contemplating suicide and is not starve for the first time at one of the theatres ed photographs with Mrs. Doyle, and he ing herself to death. She is perfectly sane, in Philadelphia. At the first sound of bride. And he did. It was the first time prostration under excitement and grief partor in a single garment, so common they had met, but they were fast friends at from which she suffers. A reporter re- among the little niggers in the south, and -a long com, rich in windows, light and once and quite anxious that the brief cere- cently got into the house under false pre- while the music was going on fell down mony that was to make them twain should tences and worked upon the feelings of the upon the floor, rolled over, turned somerbe performed at once. At 1 o'clock in the women until they talked unreservedly, not saults, clapped his hands, ground and Wandell is a business man at Scottsboro' both she and her mother were as much rushing to my wife and, pushing at her, had not yet come south. To test him, then others played tunes he had never heard, and he would immediately play them off with both hands, just as he heard them. churning for the family, just to hear the monotonous sounds of the dasher in the them cry.

One habit of his seems to savor a good deal of romance, yet it is true. Being blind, he would stay away from home, listening to the song of birds as they flitted from tree to tree till he would get lost in the woods, unable to find his way back. Upon such occasions the most practicable way to find him would be for Mr. John Bethu. , his first manager, to go out in the woods and play his flute, when Tom would hear it, come to the sound and thus get back home.

Although idiotic, he was even at that early age endowed with a wonderful memory. After spriding the day at Geif. Bethune's as related above, it was over six years before I saw him again. The war was going on, and one day when taking a train I un expectedly found John Bethune with Tom on the train. I addressed Mr. Bethune and then Tom, not freaming that he would recognize me, when, to my infinite surprise, he said :

"How d'ye, Mr. Sharp; how's Miss

To which I replied : " Why. Tom, how do you know me so well?" He replied : "Oh, I knows you, en Miss Fannie, too; don't you know when you was at our house and playes dis tune?" and he whistled the very tune mentioned

On that trip I discovered how the absence of sight had rendered all his other faculties more acute, for as we dayhed along at per- memory and this constant straining so dehaps thirty miles an hour he could always | veloped it that I can easily recollect a whole tell whether we were passing woods or open | conversation werbatim without a single fields, houses, cuts, embankments, bridges, note. I can't recollect what I read so well or almost anything else. I remember we | unless I read it out loud, as I was taught to This is the window in the laboratory that | entered a small village on the railroad. when I asked Tom what was outside, to This is the glass that lighted the window | which he promptly replied : " A heap of houset." -- Augusta (Ga.) News.

Killed Two Men at One Shot, A painful sensation was caused yesterday in Rangoon by the news that two corporals of the Royal Scots Fusiliers had accept my recollection without asking for been shot by Private Mulligan, of the same | proofs. - Mail and Express. regiment. Some trilling quarrel had ocporal Thomas and Mulligan. White entered Crisp's chest above the heart Death was instantaneous in both cases. The murderer narrowly escaped being lynched by the soldiers. The murdered men were buried yesterday with full miliwith the entire regiment of the Royal | He is worth more than $50,000. Scots Fusiliers were present.-London

Irreverent Quakers.

Apropos of Quaker bonnets, I was told last year that some antiquarian, wishing sect, asked the younger members of an old with sand, compounded the glass that shades in our theatricals last holidays. I distinction of passing the examinations for lighted the window in the laboratory that am so sorry, but they did capitally!" Oh, the degree of doctor of music at Oxford. that the descendants of the old Quaker |

Cicero, Sissero or Kickero. sero" and "Kickero" has broken out pose in the days of Queen Anne. afresh. It is desfrable that the pronuncia. The new Canon of W. lis, England, who tion of Latin be as nearly uniform as adds to his other distinctions that of being possible among scholars in all parts of the father of the accomplished editor of the world. The tendency is towards the so. London Times, is a rine scholar, and obcalled Roman method. If his fellow, tained his fellowship more than forty years Remans called Cicero Kickero, we might ago. It is understood that Canon Buckle as well amor them and mm in the matter, leans to moverate broad Church views, but especially as we willingly hazard tongue he has never been in any sense a party man. dislocation by attempting to follow the foreign pronunciation of modern Furopean proper dames .- Washington Star.

A Regular Financier.

A .- I am in a tight place. B .- What's the matter now ; "I have got to raise ninety-nine dollars "Why do you, require precisely ninety-"I have to pay a hundred dollar note in

A Wonderful Advantage.

Furniture dealer (to elderly maiden)-And there is another advantage, ma'am, ! which the folding bed has over the ordinary klept is a stealer of valuable books. . Mr. Furniture dealer - You don't have to be like been so polite to me while in " Lenex, who would not let Prescott see his look under the bed to see if there is a man Chicago, you know, and seemed so seriously

A remuse surpliced choir is an innova. I say, mamma, but "Let her go tion in an English church that is creating Gallagher." A Texas candidate for Congress wrote something of a sensation. The singers - Angelina seeks for a definition of man would persist throughout the service Frof. Seguin and Dr. Godfrey have dis. ship thereupon made the further remark: his compaign speech on sheets of paper wear surplices not unlike an M. A. gown, volability. "Volubility, Angelina dear, is than boys ?

Walt Whitman's Thanks.

A New York despatch says the papers sesterday published the following Thanks-Thanks in old age—thanks ere I go, For health, the midday sun she impalpable air for life, mere life, For precious ever-lingering memories (of you, my mother, dear-you, father-you, others, sisters, friends

For all my days-tot those of peace alone-the For g ntle words, caresses, gifts from foreign For shelter, wine and meat-for sweet apprecia You distant, dun unknown -or young, or old or herer, groups, love, deeds, words, Jecks-for non-viewe torward sprang in freedom's udp, att prami, sir lands, braver, stronger, more devoted men-(a special laurel ere I go to life's war's chosen artillerymen - the foremost leaders, cap-As soldier from an ended warreturn'd-as traveller out of myriads, to the long procession hanks-joyful thanks :- a soldier's, traveller's

BETTER THAN A NOTE BOOK.

Gift Which Enables a Gotham Reporter to Dispense with the Pencil.

He said : " It is worth while to pause a moment to consider the principle involved. It is as much the duty as it is the right of Congress to make provision for the commerce of the country in navigable waters, to censtruct lighthouses, to dredge rivers and do that which is due for the promotion of the general welfare." " I beg your pardon," was the reply, and I think I ought to know.'

"Why should you know any better than I do?" returned the first speaker, hotly. stepsisters, and some of them although ment she has caught up their jargon and it had only been recently published, and lecture in my hands. You didn't touch pencil to paper during the entire evening. Two reporters employed on rival morning papers were returning to their offices from a lecture in an uptown hall. During He seems to have loved all sounds, whether | their journey on the elevated train a dispute arose concerning a certain passage which the speaker had used.

" That may all be true," answered the cream. He has even been known to pinch first disputant, "but I would rather trust my memory than your notes. You don't know what was said without referring to them. You don't keep any track of the subject in your mind. You worked mechanically over your note-book, while I recollect avery word he spoke." " Prove it.'

"I will. Open your note-book." The skeptical reporter did so.

" " as follow me closely." To the amazement of the former, the man with a memory repeated page after page verbatim, not only the language but with the proper emphasis of the lecturer. "Oh! I know how you did it," exclaimed the note-taker. "You have heard the speech before and committed it to memory." "I never saw him before to-night, and I never heard him read a word of the lecture before I went to the hall."

"Then bow did you do it?" "I simply remembered it."

"Oh! You've been taking a course at one of the memory schools?" "Yes, it was a memory school, but not one of the kind you refer to, and the course of study was the most painful you can possibly imagine." " What was the school?" h The school of bitter experience. I was blind the first twenty-two years of my life -stone blind. During that time I had to make my memory do service, not only for my memorandum pad, but for my text books as well. I had a naturally quick remember through my ears." " Do ail blind men remember so well." " No, not all. But memory is one of the faculties which nature gives to supply the sense of seeing, and blind men, as a rule, remember far more easily than those who are gifted with all their faculties. Well, here we are, and next time you may

Personal Points.

Mrs. Celia Thaxter, the artist and poet has become a convert to esoteric Buddhism The young English woman who figured in the Valentine-Baker affair is still alive and unmarried. Robert Manchester is perhaps the oldest song and dance man on the American stage.

English newspapers announce the death of Hon. Captain Byng, the popular A.D.C. of Lord Lansdowne at Ottawa a year or two ago. He had only been recently Mrs. Scott-Siddons told a friend in Kingston that her husband was in a lunatic asylum in Australia, and that she has not heard about him for some time. Dr. Horatius Bonar, in a recent letter to a friend, says: My writing days are done. The public must be contented with what I have written in prose and verse. Mr. John Greig, M.A., of Edinburgh, is stock should have so little reverence left built in Bury street for Dr. Watts, the The documents and plans for the chapel for the memory of their ancestors! -Cas- father of modern hymnology, lately came into the hands of Dr. John Stoughton, who mentions that the total cost of the building was cily $3,500. That no doubt locked a The irrepressible conflict between "Sis. large sum to be expended for such a pur-

A Story of Three Ladies,

Two ledies in Dover, Me., saw a man lying drunk in the ditch one hot summer day, while his wife sat by his side knitting. She had been walking home with him, and when he succumbed and fell she had coolly taken out her knitting kneedles and gone to work, was to lose no time. One of the ladies anxiously said to the knitter What would become of him if he should die in this condition ?" " I declare," said the wife, as she was toeing off the stocking. " I don't know what his destiny would be in the future, but he seems to be having a good time now.'

Mrs. Breesy (to daughter)-Did you tell young Mr. Waldo, dear, that you would correspond with him on his return to Boston? Miss Breezy-Yes, mamma, in earnest when he asked me if he might not hear from me occasionally that what could.

impatient hearers had cut off that part. it difficult to ser why there should not be a foreigner. "I will come by hy and by and -if all the Presidents elected in the It is denied on authority that the widow. For a moment he stood amazed, and then girl choristers, and wherein lies the object buy," sail a Canadian, and the shopkeeper wild birds, including many aquatic birds, "After you, sir," and the assembled friends United States could be placed in a row they of Henry Ward Beccher is showing signs, he thundered; "Who the — has stolen tion to their wearing surplices any more had an attack of brain fever trying to make tout what he meant.

Steen State of ten, as with a horrible hole in her bow sho rapidly filled with the waters of the English Channel, an English girl stood composed and said to her countrymen about her, "Let us stand side by side and go down together." The spirit of that girl is the spirit that forms the hollow square in the last desperate rally on the bloody field. It is the spirit that makes the loneliest A returned tourist said last evening: "So look up to the flag and fear not in his hard-Why, a rather large flattened tomato-can is new day for all of Britain .- Chicago Inter- ration .- Quaha World.

very kind to me. He sent for me soon choice for that. It is in my safe now. It inside the shoe."

This is the laboratory that Jack built.

This is the sand used in making the This is the sods that, melted with sand, of the latest and strongest of party compounded the glass that lighted the curred on the previous day between Corand says the exercise he gets in going up debate of two hours this evening Mr. Kim- the police, has made a statement of the peare, now the ensign of the Primrose This is the chlorine of yellowish hue, bad Mullicen without washing the peare, now the ensign of the management of the peare, now the ensign of the peare, now the ensign of the peare, now the ensign of the management of the peare, now the ensign of the peare, now the peare peared to the peare, now the peared to the League," an order of Conservatives founded contained in the salt, a molecule new, that bed Mulligan, without warning, fired his $125,000.

This is the science of chemistry, that Friend family for some of their grandteaches of atoms weighing twenty-and. parents' garments. One can hardly imthree, and of sodium metal so light and agine the horror inspired by the answer : free, that united with chlorine of yellowish | " Oh, you can have all the broad-brimmed hue to form common sait, as a polecule | hats, but there are no bonnets left, as we new, that furnished the soda that, melted | took off the silk and used them as footlight |

A Time for Everything. A tipsy Scotchman was making his way | sell's Fami y Magazine.

A bibliopegist is a bibliophile with a special regard for bookbindings. A bliotaph is a book miser. A bibliophole kind. is a bookseller for bibliophiles. A biblio- Elderly maiden-What is that, sir? fearing that the excited father would kill | that fruit is a perfect food, the angle alone | kept from melting on it. If our English was one day dining with the Queen, and Mexican manuscripts, was a bibliotaph, there. and Sam P-pys was a biblioklept. Bibliolatry is the worship of books .- Art in putting his finger to his forehead every seeged the carcass of the clephant Alice, "Your Majesty will also be pleased to learn and purple velvet caps. There is a choir the distinguishing feature of a horse-car An Ottawa despatch save Six wild time his quaster addressed him, in accord. burned in Sunday's fire at the Barnum & that I have taken to sode and whiskey roll of manuscript to a meeting, and in of the same kind in Melbourne, Australia, driver when he is ten minutes behind time the excitement of the occasion allowed the whence the freak was imported to England. on his supper trip and an overloaded unread part of the roll to become unwound Canon Lidden heartily disapproved of it, coal team breaks down in front of him on for the Contral Experimental Family tone your forehead. John but say the Peter knife, four came ferules, a piece of A prisoner in the Franklin (Pa.) jail upon the floor. When he came to the rail." named Joseph Reed, is but 7 years old. He road issue he discovered that some of his An unprejudiced looker on, however, finds . The English language sounds funny to