We lean on one another. It matters little what we wear, How high or low, our station; We're all alike—the slaves of ain And sons of tribulation No matter what may be the coat With which our hearts we cover, Our hearts within are of one shelf

A fool's a fool, the world o's. Whate'er may be his station:
A snob's a snob tho' he may hold
The scaptre of the nation.
And wisdom was ordained to rule, Tho' knaves aside may shove her, That all the human race might live In love with one snother.

A king may need our sympathy, For all his great attendance; For among men there's no such thing The great is mighty England's heir Poor Paddy is his brother! And from the cabin to the throne We lean on one another.

The earth beneath's our common home, The heavess bending o'er us; and wherespever we may turn Steruity's before us. By pride and envy we have been But strangers to each other; But nature meant that we should lean n love on one another

With Adam from the bowers of bliss We all alike were driven; And king and cadger at the last Must square accounts with beaven. We're all in need of sympathy, Tho' pride the fact may smother ; And it's as little's we can doo comfort one another.

SHIRLEY ROSS

A Story of Woman's Faithfulness.

face again to the window, with her eyes she was calm with the calm of despair. heart was beating fast with hope and ex- going to Dumfife with Sir Hugh, it would resistless power. pectation; but Shirley was calm with the avail nothing." been given her just before he and Oswald Oswald?" started, bidding her take courage, for that his hope was strong; but she knew that, ing now, and her breath came fast. though it was strong, it was groundless. How could she help him to bear it? "Ruby," said the sweet low voice, which had always a pathetic little intonation, but which now had such a despairing sadmess in its music, "you have been crying, dear."

and tears in your voice," Shirley said, hall, and was trying with her little hands, " Yes." will make yourself ill; and then "-with a heavy bolts of the hall door.

I am never ill." softly, after a little pause. "Is she very bitter against me, Ruby?" sess," answered Miss Capel pettishly, "But, dear, think how much she must be suffering if, as I fear, she loved Sir Hugh," said Shirley, pitifully finding as capable of feeling love for anyone but her. | to gratify his mania. self as that oak table is."

"If it is any consolation to you, Shirley, the kingdom. to know that she is not either ill or unspiteful and savage."

A long shudder passed through the girl's | bodily discomfort. slender frame, and her eyes met her friend's He was alone at Maxwell; but he had no glance with a pathetic misery in their

have had none from the first." "But, Shirley--"

If I could bear that for him I should be last. The cry was wrung from her like the would have given his life.

felt how she trembled in every limb.

her face on Ruby's breast for a moment, and | his life! For he loved her. when she lifted it again it was pale and haggard, but calm.

still face turned toward the window, with | tempted, and let it sink him to the level of | He had turned to Guy, who stood breathsuch terrible pallor and anguish upon it. a traitor. vet and furs, with a footman in attendance, heart; and Guy was his friend, his tried Hugh's eyes flach. Even now she was Shirley and Ruby rose, and went a step or and trusty friend, to whese conrage be pitiful over her lover, he shought bitterly. two for " ... Lady Capel saw them, and owed the life he enjoyed. His friend-and "No; do not," abe said faintly-" do took Shirley's band and kissed her; but yet he had betrayed him! Guy had saved not blame him, Oswald. He has borne so the words she would have spoken died away his life, and he had taken from him what much, and he has so much to bear. Gny " upon her lips, as she saw the alteration in | was far dearer to him than life. When | -she rose feebly and put her hand upon the girl's face, and she went on with a mist that fatal love that had entered beares his arm—"try to forgive me, dear, and go in her kind eyes. Lady Fairholms had at sight of Shirley Ross's fair feets had come home with Oswald." stood still and glanced at them; but she | b.tween them, all the old friendship and "Forgive you, darling?" he questioned had passed on immediately, without a word gratitude had died out of Hugh Glynn's mournfully, looking down at the pale or a second look at her husband's niece, and heart, killed by his savage jealousy and uplifted face. "I have never blamed you the window; her misery was too great for doubled his passionate resentment. And Guy's eyes flashed. her nunt's cruelty to touch her; but | then Latreille had told him the story of | "I cannot look at her and forget it," he her waist, measured only over her underand ip to suppress the passionate words suggested the idea of her daughter's; and of your work?"

blazed up cheerily. Presently Alice came | soost wished that he had spared her; and remembered Shirley thon, bright, She adds ; out of the oak parlor and crossed the hall yet to leave her to Guy—to let her be his radiant, beautiful in her aweeping "Do you not think that physicians put tury, as the result, among other causes, of the way upstairs, her soft pink cash. wife—no, it was impossible! But that silken robes; he saw her now pale, hagmere draperies sweeping the polished floor as she went her way affectedly and landog-oart which was to bring Oswald and Guy from the station.

"Rnby, you will be cold; go to the fire, dear," Shirley said softly once; but Ruby At last two bright lighte came fleshing olearer and clearer. Shirley rose then, will and calm; but Ruby was trembling so more fortunate than he. Sir Hugh felt in- "How can you speak of forgiveness be-violently that she could hardly stand. Shir- stressvely that that would have been Guy's tween you and me, Shirley?" he asked unlay put her arms around her. "I am afraid all this is too much yon," she said tenderly. "Ruby, how hall I bear it if I have made you ill, too ?"

Shirley !" she added, as the hall door was opened from without, and Captain looking baguard and weary, entered, pausing for a moment and shading his oyes, as if the sudden transition from darkness to light dazzled him; then he shut the door behind him, and the girls neard the dog-cart being taken back to the

overcome by her agitation, sunk down upon the nearest chair and hid her face in her hands, "how cold and tired you look! Come and warm yourself and rest." Oswald had started violently as her soft calm voice fell upon his ear; then he came to her side, with one swift glance at Ruby's drooping figure, and took both her little hands in he. Burning with fever as they had been a short time previously, they were icy cold now, so cold that the young man could not repress an exciamation. " How cold you are !" he ejsculated; and for a moment they stood looking at each other in silence, the young officer's eyes full of unspeakable pity and compassion, the girl's heavy with hopeless misery and " I have no good news for you, dear," said slowly. "I did not expect any, Oswald," was the answer, uttered so brokenly, so pitifully, so despairingly, that the tears rose in Captain Fairholme's eyes. "Thank you for all me to console Ruby," she added.

Captain Fairholme went over to the fire, his eyes dim, and his lips quivering under his dark mustache. Shirley went to Ruby and raised her drooping form and recessi the girl's head upon her breast. "Ruby," she said softly, "try to be brave, dear. You will distress Oswald, and he

She drew her gently over to the fire; and for a few minutes they stood there together, Ruby's head on Shirley's breast and her you. To my desire for vengeance." hand in Oswald's, who was hardly less "Yes." Shirley admitted, turning her | tained any semblance of composure, but your anger for your fiances's infidelity? "They give us no hope," Captain Fair- The words were careless, haughty, mock-

she feared all. Her only thought now was | wearily. "Hush, dear Ruby, don't sob | with one blow of my hand !" for Guy. A few tender lines from him had so! And-and Guy-how does he bear it, Low as the words were spoken, there day that when you came back you would sesses the power of self-repair. In the

is early days as yet, Shirley."

There was a pause. " Where is he, Oswald ?" "He left me at the cross-roads," Oswald | great as my wrongs?" replied. "He wanted a walk, he said. Why, "Nonsense, Shirley! Crying? I don't | Shirley good Heaven, what is the matter? What are you going to do?" "Ah, but there are tears on your face, For Shirley had rushed away down the little break in the calm voice -" what would | "At the cross-roads !" she repeated, lifting her great restless eyes to her consin's "You know it well," Guy said, with a Daniel Lyons, who killed the athlete Quinn not the hair of to-day; the muscle which "You need not be afraid of that, Shirley. | face, with a wild terror in their depths. Don't you perceive where he was going? "Was Alice very angry?" Shirley said | Oh, be quick-for pity's sake, be quick!"

"But, Shirley---"Don't talk of ber, Shirley; it exhausts | wildly. "At the cross-roads! He was go | the wide chimney, fell upon either face. the very small amount of patience I post ing to Maxwell-and they must not oh, Heaven, they must not meet now!" CHAPTER XXIII.

Alone in the library of his splendid room in her aching heart for compassion | home, Sir Hugh Glynn was thinking of the for the girl who had none for her. "You, evil deed he had wrought. He was lying the uttermost, so help me Heaven. who have been so good to me, must feel for | back in a deep, luxurious arm-chair. His "Poor Alicel" echoed Ruby distainfully. | well, had been a bibliomaniac, and he had

Many a volume which would have deis very unlike you to be uncharitable. I little interest for the uninitiated, lined the have been thinking so much of Alice all shelves which surrounded the room on all night' she went on softly. "It was terri- sides, broken into on one by the carved ble toreflect that I had brought suffering | doorway which faced the magnificent black to her also; and, when Delphine said she | marble mantel on the other. Even between was ill, I wished so much to go to her and the two great stained-glass windows, the see if I could do something for her. It is volumes had taken refuge; there was not almost the same trouble for her as for an available space anywhere which had not Guy, you know; but he, being a man, will been utilized, and the room contained as haughtiness. magnificent a collection of books as any in

But the present owner of the collection

present intention of remaining there. As believe, could set me free," Shirley de Stuart's application to the lawyers. Even Shirley would never consent." and the pale lips quivered-"think-all her brother's trust and ruin his reputation, and not sure and safe, while course die of starvation, and very properly, my life to come must be passed with that and his prospects. She was his wife, Sir falsehood itself. You are a villain and a shooting was associated too much with the too. We should have then, on a large man whom I cannot help despising with Hugh knew, married to him by the abom- liar and a traitor !" my whole heart. And I am so young; and | inable law in force in the country in which | am strong too, or such misery as I have poor Shirley had passed three dreary years, Sir Hugh, furiously, as he sprung for found guilty of shooting Lyman S. Weeks, the worthless that would die, and thus the extravagance of the present system of comborne since yesterday would have killed | which had culminated in this crowning | ward. misery-married to him by treschery and Ruby crept closer to her in silence, the baseness and falsehood truly, but his neverthe awful despair in Shirley's voice and on eyes brightened as he thought of her beauty rible embrace of two men goaded to despera have tried to hang themselves, and they circumstances, acquire a perfect knowledge and grace and sweetness, the frown on his But even that I could bear," the girl white forehead deepened as he puffed slowly moment more, and the stain of blood frightfully horrible. He believes in elec- invariably live in accordance with those the value of coal actually wasted through every year to that terrible disease, consumpwhat on in her husky broken voice, " if at his cigar and remembered the look were all; it is the thought of Guy's horror, of loathing, of contempt, which happy; but-" She paused, haif rose, "It she had loved me only a little!" he loves me so dearly. Oh, it is horrible, Ruby. | upon him -hang him !" And the blue eyes | had seized her. Can Heaven be merciful and allow such darkened with savage jealousy and anger. How easily Guy had won that for which he wail of a broken heart. Ruby threw her Why, even for the possession of her, to arms around her, sobbing bitterly; and she | call her his own, to look upon her loveli- of the little trembling hands, and the eyes "Shirley, for Guy's sake compose your. had given his honor. What would be not panting and breathless, both hands pressed "Shirley, for Guy's sake compose yourself. See—they will soon be here you. He nust not see you thus."

had given his honor. What would be prevented by a general against her heart, as if to stop the they rested upon Guy, to have her lips must not see you thus."

In every respect and attested by the testi for Guy's sake! Even in such anguish meet his in requited love, to feel her hand rend it in awain, her face wild and haggard, on the lower respect and attested by the testias here the words were powerful. She hid steal into his and linger there? His wealth, shaded by her loosened hair, and fains little

"Yes," she said, faintly, "for Guy's which, even in his own eyes, seemed hide quietly and put Shirley gently into a chair, help was paid by the piece, and he had to be supposed that his brain would reach "My brave Shirley!" Ruby responded with all the passion of his nature; and intenderly, and for fully half-an-hour the stead of letting this love lift him to a "Has she not suffered enough yet?" said times. The swiftness of one young woman | would still be a large excess of persons who, girls sat in the fire-lit hall, Ruby's eyes higher life, he had yielded to the subtle Oswald gravely. "Sould you not have especially troubled him greatly. She would not have especially troubled him greatly. She would not have watching anxiously and sorrowfully the temptation with which he had been spared her this?"

her voice was perfectly unmoved the next passion. Many a time he had felt that he -not for a moment; but, when I look at minute when she asked why the hall was could have hilled Guy Stuart when he had you, my poor pet, how onn I forgive him?" seen him with Shirley, and the very re-Without a word. Shirley went back to pression he had been forced to exercise had haughtily, "you are speaking to my wife."

trinmph, the bitterest thought in Sir Hugh of remores as his eyes rested upon her. Stnart would have acted very differently. continued, "I want you to go away, dear, but they can hardly be dengerous. If Shirley had loved him—Ragh—Guy and not to come back again. It will be would never have lifted his finger, if by so best. By and bye—not at first, I know— Mr. Thomas Soldon, was elected Mayor doing he could have won her love; he would but after a time, perhaps—I think, I hope, of ingersoll yesterday, to fill the vacancy into view in the darkness without, and the have buried it in his own heart and gone I pray that you may forget me and be very sound of rapidly approaching wheels grew away without one word to trouble her happy. But first will you—can you forpecce or to pain the friend who had been give me?" friend rankled cruelly. Sir Eugh Glynn loved Shirley, but mixture of passion and admiration for her beauty and pride piqued by her indifference. Guy's love - the man who hated him felt it keenly--Guys love was a nobler love than room door opened quietly, and the man be had wronged entered and diosed it atvor in "Oswald," Shirley said, as she went a restless perambulations to and fro, and few steps toward him, while Ruby, quite for fully a minute the two men faced each other in utter silence the betrayed and the betrayer—the man so cruelly wronged and he who had so cruelly wronged him. In a breathless heavy silence, grim and me-nacing, they looked at each other, Sir Hugh so handsome and stately for all the suffering which his face showed signs of still Guy rale, worn, haggard, with a terrible something reckless in its misery; then Bir Hugh threw back his head with a proud gesture of defiance and said calmly-This is an unexpected pleasure. After the courtesies we exchanged yesterday, I could hardly have foreseen this visit." "Perhaps not "-Guy's voice, hoarse and changed and menacing, fell upon the stillness heavily and alowly-"nevertheless I | was unutterably pathetic, "my head ached am here, as you see." Charmed to have the honor," Sir Hugh said carelessly; and Guy's eyes lightene with a passionate gleam of fury. "Take care!" he said between his set teeth. "I am in no mood for exchanging Sir Hugh, involuntarily obeying the move- the proposition that there is no physiologiyour goodness to-to us. Come and help civilities; neither am I in a mood to bear Then to what am I to attribute the honor you are paying me?" Sir Hugh asked Traitor he was, but not a coward, although just now the sting of his conscience told him that he richly deserved the veneyes, almost black in their concentrate anger and scorn. "To what?" Guy repeated. "I will tel "For vengeance! I do not understand moved. Shirley was the only one who re- your. Is it on me that you would wreak

Ruby sat down beside her in the fire- holme said then, huskily. "They think ing in their intonation; but they died upon any vengeance be too great for such wrongs in a work of my own, entitled "A Treatise | America and tore a great aperture in her light, still holding her hands in hers, and that any court would ratify the marriage. his lip as Guy rested his hand upon his as his and hers? there was silence between them. Ruby's Even if you could give a good reason for shoulders, swaying him to and fro with a " Take care," he said, " or I will force calmness of despair-she hoped nothing, "I knew it would be so," said Shirley the words back through your jibing lips to their first resting-place, "won't "The animal body differs from any in-

was a flerce, suppressed passion in their look as you look now. I saw your face all steam engine, for instance, the fuel which Oswald?"

Was a flerce, suppressed passion in their look as you look now. I saw your face all steam engine, for instance, the fuel which when it is very near to the vessel. The low breathed utterance which made Sir night—all night. Did you sleep, Guy? It serves for the production of steam, and English payal officers are lond in the control of the low breathed utterance which made Sir night—all night. Hugh Glynn quail for a moment; but his seems to me as if I never should sleep subsequently for the creation of force, can ng now, and her breath came fast.

Hugh Glynn quail for a moment; but his seems to me as if I never should sleep subsequently for the creation of force, can blue eyes, flashing with a steel-like glitter, again—my head turns so, and my eyes do nothing towards the repair of the parts balls with a terrible force, as thick as hall met Guy's unflinchingly. "It is not vengeance, but justice," Major | not, that I was his wife? I knew they by day, by constant attrition and other Stuart said, in the same low tones -" jus | would say so. His wife - oh, great | causes, the engine becomes less perfect and tice only. Would any vengeance be as | Heaven!"

"Ah! You have been to Edinburgh?" " Yes." " And you have seen the lawyers you wished to consult ?"

terrogated calmly, although the pitiless hand still kept its iron grip of his shoulder. | men in the Tombs convicted of murderneed not repeat it."

"Oswald, don't you see?" she cried flames of the great log-fire, as it roared up | S. Weeks. Stuart said hoarsely. "You took your die-by hanging, or by electricity,?" Each measures well. She is your wife, poor un one says that if he really must surrender counterbalance each other life continues. | ing for some time, were found to have depredations. happy girl; but for your treachery to me, his life he would choose electricity. your friend, your baseness to her, a poor | Danny Lyons paled just a little at this | to the waste that neither would be in exchild who trusted you, you shall answer to direct query. "That's a straight question, cess, there is no physiological reason why When finally it commenced to move "a dishes so clean after his ghostly visits. uncle, from whom he had inherited Max. Hugh answered calmly. " A one armed few," the very few, unfortunate devils in with our present knowledge, possible, and thing was wrong, and he found to his horror man will be powerless indeed against such this place or anywhere around here who is consequently decomposition eventually be. that he was tearing up the track as he "Bhe is greatly to be pitied indeed! She is not spared his wealth, which had been great, strength as yours. I have wronged you, best able to answer such a question. Well, comes predominant and death from old age went. The rails were so tightly frozen to you say ; then take your revenge."

you betrayed me."

Guy went on. "And yet, if you were gen- aiveness of capital punishment?"

"It is impossible, She is my wife," soon as this troublesome business was said Sir Hugh, briefly. "Bendes, she her the provisions of the Bill that a condemned murdered by his enemies, to be blown up Young men may continue to buy three "I have no hope, Ruby," she said. "I settled, he would take his wife to the south self was willing. She knew her mother's by dynamite and, above all, to be killed in Catherine Mermets or a cluster of lilies of by dynamite and, above all, to be killed in Catherine Mermets or a cluster of lilies of by dynamite and, above all, to be killed in the self was willing. She knew the Scottish marriage laws; borr when the sentence is to be executed. and then they would travel for a time. He and, my dear fellow, what you ask is simply The Hungarian, Adolph Reich, who has There is no chance, Ruby. Nothing, I had no doubt as to the result of Major an impossibility. Even were it not so, been convicted of killing his wife, said he health would make man more moral or any of this London wrinkle, they will be just as

CHAPTER XXIV.

The two men fell apart at the first touch ness, and know that she was his wife, he of both turned upon the girl, who stood, inarticulate cries of terror escaping from somehow perpetrated upon the community life would add very greatly to man's He loved her. That was his one excuse the pale, parted lips. Captain Fairholme, at large if a woman were allowed to earn average longevity? To be sure, with infor the treachery he had committed, and who had paused at the door, went forward shove a stipulated sum each week. As his creased length of life it might reasonably qualy vile. He loved her madly, wildly, and her head fell back against it in utter keep tally in the main with current prices, such an advanced stage of development as plant will endure a scalding heat that is Presently a carriage dashed up to the She was Guy's betrothed, Guy's one ewe- forced to place upon himself; but, before She gave him a samilar individuals are at the present lows have often been rendered luxuriantly door; but it was only Lady Fairholme and lamb in all the world, for he had neither he could answer, Shirley looked up quickly her liparand went on working. By Saturday.

course in his place, and the thought of that steadily. "There can be none over needed, superiority in the man who had been his my poor child !" " I did not think you would be angry like confidence in her voice. " But, Guy, if you wish it, I will tall you why I went." There is no need, my dearest," he mawered gently, taking both her little hands in his; while Sir Hugh looked on, angry and jealous and furious, yet powerone to interfere. "I trust you."

"Thank you, Guy. And and you will "We were very happy," she whispered ble, some of it adverse and some of brokenly, a smile pitiful to see curving the humorous. I do not see why there shoul stiff livid lips. "It is something to have been any comment of this last-name

"We were very happy, Shirley," he more in earnest in my life than when ex-answered hoarsely, looking down with dim pressing the thoughts in question. They eyes at the ghastly face and the great bazel | were necessarily fragmentary in character eyes glittering with a bright feverish and, of course, lacked that fulness of deta "And last night I was thinking," she went stances been favorable to elaboration on in the same pitiful trusting manner," that I am advised now, however, that a few you might by-and-by have tired of such a more words from me upon the subject foolish girl, and that it was better- I | would be acceptable, incamuch as it apcould not think very clearly, Guy," she pears that certain of my observations, as added, resting her head against his arm, well as the whole drift of the article, have with a little gesture of weariness which | been by some of my critics greatly misun-

so-it aches so now." Sir Hugh made a quick movement toward her, but Oswald Fairholme put his hand upon his arm.

ment, drew back and turned away. and gently forced him to the window, where puted, and I have been referred to a little philanthropists. She thinks that many geance which looked out of the furious gray | Guy's shoulder, and was looking up into | book in question, but I have since read it | More than $20,000 a Year Apiece? could not trust himself to look upon her | gree similar to those I have adduced.

> "Guy," the sweet low voice went on, while | twenty years before Mr. Kirk's brochure | useless craft. the restless eyes wandered from his face | made its appearance, I used the following | round the room and came back again words : you speak to me, dear? I thought all organic machine in the fact that it roswill not close. They told you, did they which have become worn out by use. Day

(To be continued.) ELECTRICITY VS. S'ANGING. Three Men Convicted of Murder Expres a Preference for the Former Mode

Exacution The New York Sun says there are tw

"There was no need to go." Major to the question, "How would you prefer to preserved, the identity has been lost.

sure," he said, "but it's fair; it's all right life, if protected against accidents, should heavy humping sound on the roof of the And he answered, with a smack; "Licked "That I am in your power I knew," Sir to ask that, for I suppose I'm one of the not continue indefinitely. But this is not, car led the engineer to suspect that some. 'em.' I'm for electricity. That seems to me to resulta." (Page 92.) "Only a traitor would shelter himself be the safest for the sheriff and the least It has been alleged that if a man were started the spikes were drawn and the rails French and Spanish ships, he thought of mentary remorse, he resumed his old

Lyons said he would object, however, to sea, to be run over in Broadway, to be flowers wrapped in white paper will do. for 50 cents. had seen five men hanged for murder and less aggressive than he is at present. clared, in the same hopeless, despairing if the matter were brought before the law. | " How can you persist in that lie?" | two men shot as spies in the revolution of Besides, if through the possibility of not of sash ribbon and a $10 vase thrown in. manner. "I think that, even if he wished, courts, the decision must have been in his Major Stuart said, with bitter contempt. | '48. He knows what death by the guillo- doing by living as he ought to live, man-Sir Hugh could not undo the marriage he favor. Shirley could not make tine is like, and his preference, he said, kind should increase in number to such an contrived so basely. But, oh, Ruby "-and visit to Dumfife with him; for, even if it me believe her false. Do you think the would be the electrical mode. The guillohere the frozen calm of her face broke up | would have saved her, she would not betray | anguish of vesterday does not contradict | time be thought too bloody; hanging was capacity of the earth, the surplus would of Three Hundred Tons of Smoke Hanging > idea of war. said he had pondered on the subject a great balance would be continually tending bustion. Here is a summary of a late So read the headlines of many a news Guy met him with squal fury. One deal and had concluded that electricity toward a proper adjustment. care to know the day or the hour of the liquors to excess through many years dop. Add to this £2,000,000 for injury to execution of the sentence.

Trinmph of Grit. Lormal pay .- Boston Advertiser. A Question of Cornets.

A correspondent of Le Figure puts this

" Suppose a woman has a good figure ; timeters (about twenty eight mohes) around. which in her indignation she was about to temptation had come into his way through | Almost involuntarily Sir Engh turned Waen this same woman puts on her corsets, tions. At the present day, corsets, even Glynn's mind was that in his place Guy " Guy," the sweet broken-hearted voice very tight ones, may be uncomfortable, > camed by the resignation of Mayor French bachelor advertised for a wife A typographical error changed his age from 37 to 87, but it made no difference, for he received 250 applications from ladies rang-ing from the age of 16 to 60, and all promising love and devotion to the rest of his

CAN A MAN LIVE POREVER?

Hammond Again Discusses This Topic - No Philosophical Reason Barring Accidents, why Life Should not be Indefinitely Pr. longed. In a recent paper in which this subject To forget! ab, Shirley, is that possi-? While I have life, I must remember, should die. The article has attracted a great deal of criticism, some of it favorable, some of it adverse and some of

been happy together—even for a few hours, quality. The matter in all its relations is certainly a serious one, and I was never In the first place, it has been said that my idea is not original. So far as the assertion of the possibility of not dying is concerned, I have made no claim to origin-" Have some pity," he said huskily; and | ality. But I do claim that in enunciating cal reason for man dying priority is mine. | ington that in her opinion" the neglected Oswald put his hand through his arm Even this claim, however, has been dis- rich" should receive more attention from he threw himself moodily into a chair, his book by Ryland C. Kirk, entitled the people of wealth are fast going to perdieyes fixed on the group by the fire, while | " Possibility of Not Dying," and published | tion, with no one to arrest their descent Oswald hid his face with his hand to shut by Mesers. Putnams in 1883, for the origi- and give them a helping hand. How would out the despairing faces which haunted | nal basis of my statement and argument, | it do to form an Association for the Moral | him. Shirley had rested her head against | When I wrote my paper I had not seen the | Guidance of Those Whose Incomes are > eventually must be put in order by the workman. In the animal body, however, the material which serves for the production of force is the body itself, and the substances which are taken as food are assimilated according to their character by those organs and parts which require

" The body is, therefore, undergoing continual change. The hair of yesterday is guilty of the murder of his wife. In muscle after as before its action; old ma-There was a moment's silence. They Brooklyn Jail there is John Greenwald, terial has been removed and new has been water freezing in the boiler of an engine the weight and form, the chemical consti. velling coal into the firebox, and now and tum " the ghost " is invaluable. He still with designs, singularly quaint and origi-These men have talked freely in answer tution and histological character have been other paper reports a still more surprising possesses the abnormal appetite, but regu-

"So long as these two actions exactly driving wheels of a locomotive, after stand. have saved the pantry from any further and play of that title. The deacon was

"Hush, dear!" Shirley said, gently. "It lighted a connoisseur, but which possessed behind his injuries." said Major Stuart, cruel to the prisoner. You might say never to die the time would come when would come when behind his injuries." removing his hand nevertheless. "Can what difference does it make to a man how the earth would be insufficient by reason of be informed that only a few hundred feet bequeathed her to the nation. The Rev. on deny the wrong? I trusted you and be dies, as long as he has got to die some his great numbers for his sustenance, and of the track were thus destroyed before the Horatia, how at some set time. Well, I tell you, it that then death from starvation would re difficulty was discovered and remedied. No reproach could have been more bitter, does make a heap of difference. Half the sult. As a mathematical proposition, this IT is quite the fashion on the other side It is now sold, apparently upon authority, simple as the words were. Bir Hugh's eyes fear would come from the horrible ideas is doubtless true, but practically it would of the ocean to send gifts of rare flowers no that Hornite was not the child of Lady fell under the others glance, and he half that are connected with hanging and the be found to be of very little importance, longer in boxes or baskets, as has been the Hamilton. Her mother, it is mysteriously turned away; theb, conquering his mo. chances of some slip in the execution." for the earth is capable of supporting, if all custom, but arranged in some rare speci-"But do you think that the knowledge the arable land were properly cultivated, a men vase, ceramic or silver, as the occasion | Nelson's descendants now living are conthat death was to come by electricity would population many million times larger than warrants. Not only are the floral offerings fident they have royal blood in their veins, "That the wrong is irreparable i know," take away much of the horror and repul- that which it now contains. Moreover, my treated to this valuable conveyance, but but of what nationality the family archives Billious Attacks, and all argument related solely to physiological the receptacle is also adorned with wide say nothing. erous - Such a marriage cannot be bind " Of course I do. A man site down in a reasons for the perpetuity of life, and, of ribbons, jauntily tied. One of the gifts happy, you may safely believe me when I cared but little for it at any time. Had he ing! It is not binding in the sight of chair, the current is turned on. That ends course, therefore, to factors operating with sent to the Princess of Wales on cay so," Roby answered. "She is only wanted money, it would not have cost him Heaven! Glynn, think how I must suffer, him. He's dead. But by hanging he may in the human body. Even if man their silver wedding was a lovely vase of a pang to sacrifice the books over which not for myself, but for her, when I stoop to not die for five minutes, perhaps swenty. I thoroughly understood the laws of pure white orchids, surmounted by an Ruby dear said the sweet tones, in his uncle had spent so much time and entreat you to set her free. Give her back to Then we are accustemed to sitting down in his being, and were wise enough arch from which was suspended a cluster ing. If allowed to continue tumors form, reproof; and impulsive Ruby put her lips trouble and so much gold. But now he me. She does not love you," Major Stuart chairs, so that there is nothing ugly in to live in accordance with this of the largest and most perfect black grapes, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming the system is universal, not a gland or tissue to Shirley's cheek and gave a quick, loving never gave them a thought. There was a continued, hoarsely and brokenly. "And doing that even though a man may know knowledge, death would by no means be tied with silver cord, with some orange very sore. Swayne's Continued, hoarsely and brokenly. "And doing that even though a man may know knowledge, death would by no means be tied with silver cord, with some orange very sore. Swayne's Continued, hoarsely and brokenly. heavy frown upon his brow, partly of disshe was all I had. Hugh, for the sake of the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and Cheurical Laboratory of World's Dispensary

will eventually give him a hobnail even if he does not die sooner of he found this rather hard to manage at | to increase his mental capacity, but there persist in running financially shead of ledge, would not experience any increase and allowed to stand about its collar, will

day night next, despite the cut down, she | Eternity is long. It may be millions of | means. The heat is presumably too much | Lady Capel returning from a drive. As riches, nor title, nor position, nor beauty and put out one little hand with deprecating from a drive. As riches, nor title, nor position, nor beauty and put out one little hand with deprecating from a drive. As riches, nor title, nor position, nor beauty and put out one little hand with deprecating from a drive. As riches, nor title, nor position, nor beauty and put out one little hand with deprecating from a drive. As with a name which is known throughout they entered the hall, stately in their vel-Another week went by, when he cut her tain perfect knowledge of the laws of life, layers of the tree, immediately under the the medical world. "I have a practice down still more. The damsel still proved but that such perfection is attainable I onter bark. The London florists recom- worth $40,000 a year." "Women ?" "Year down still more. The damsel still proved but that such perfection is attainable I mend hot water, up to 145° F., as a you've guessed it first time. They pay $10 week or more the Quality conscience grew article, the life of a generation has been remedy when plants are sickly owing to the every time they come into my office. When "scared" and asked her what she meant. perceptibly lengthened. There is no rea. " scared and assed her what she meant. perception lengthened. There is no real roots, acting as a poison. The usual resort and Dr. H—— laughed long and loud. "It means," said the girl, "that you may son to doubt that the ratio of increase will is to the troublesome job of reporting. This is quackery—git-edged, genteel quack-keep on and I'll keep on till you have a go on from year to year. Our sanitary When this is not necessary for any other ery—to keep suffering women paying corpse on your hands in this workroom, for I'm grit and you can't conquer me!" The most and you can't conquer me!" The most ended there, and the girl was allowed day, until now they are, in some respects, absolutely perfect. The list of preventable sently come through tinged with brown. Prescription cures the peculiar weaknesses diseases is already a long one, and if we do After this thorough washing, if the plants and diseases of women. It does not lie to not avail ourselves of the information we possess in regard to them it is simply because we are hampered by ignorant and a fine calls in a three-gailon pot which parsimonious and corrupt legislators and showed signs of ill-health. On examina New York is that of "Dolby & Seven other officials. Our practice is therefore far behind our ability in the matter Ruby's face flushed angrily, and she bit her poor Marian Ross's betrayal, which had said bitterly. "Look! Are you not proud garment, without straining, is seventy cen. of preserving the health and thus of adding to the length of man life. It is venient, the plant being in flower, hot Guy's faith in him and Shirlay's, and thus his eyes upon her, as she stood helf sup- lacing as much as possible, what will be not unreasonable to suppose The hall was lighted now, the full glare he had betrayed it, thus he had requited. | ported by her cousin, and his thoughts went the smallest size to which she can reduce | year will find us where we are now or that of gas replacing the ruddy firelight; and the rese from his seat and moved up and back to the night of the her vaist and keep it so, without danger, from where we shall be next year. If, creased six years within the last balf cenas she went her way affectedly and languidly; and still Ruby and Shirley kept she loved Guy!

their vigil at the window watching for the she was a she went her way affectedly and lanbut with all her brightness feded forever.

The contrast smote him with a keen page of the wearing of corests for several general such pestilences as the "plague," the she was page of the wearing of corests for several general such pestilences as the "plague," the "black death," the "sweating sickness" and others equally malignant, why should it not be lengthened at least six years; every subsequent half century, so that at the end of five hundred years the life of a

> This is how an Australian paper de-scribed the "fashionable walk in England": "Two or three short hobbling steps and radden joly."

WILLIAM A. HAMMOND,

CURRENT TOPICS.

The Duke of Sparta, who is to marry the second and favorite daughter of the Prince of Walse, the Princess Victoria, is said to be a tall, fresh-complutioned young man with pleasing manners and "an innecessor expression." The Princips Victoria, wh promise of developing into as handsome a woman as her mother.

Tue new Maxim gun, rest and all, weight By it an expert can fire three thousand doors, but his ghostship disdained any of Dudley Blake, an officer in the English rifle bells in eight minutes. The color those mere mortal methods of entering, army and a member of a rich and fifty pounds and is fired from the shoulder. who did the firing at the first test a few and came with persistent regularity. days ago had never tried it before, yet he It was a mystery that none of the house-discharged three thousand shots in twelve hold could fathom. armed with this terrible weapon would be respectable sort, with (as we supposed) no almost impregnable to an advancing army akeleton in the closet. Our hired girl had a Parisian wine dealer: 1. Married a | was not the dog, for we had none; nor the O. He was successful in his ventures, and 3. Divorced. 4. Married an ex-priest. 5. for her every day. Who, then, was the ness life. About thirteen years ago the She eloped. 6. Divorced. 7. Married a ghost with the abnormal appetite? mayor's son, the officiating magistrate being her second husband, who showed no | ing in the pantry, and we instituted a night | to be divided among her relatives. The hortation to the happy couple. FRANCES E. N. HARPER has been telling the intellectual women gathered at Wash-

his face with restless shining eyes, while | very thoroughly, and, while I can heartily | The case of the steamship Great Eastern her fingers, with a strange uncertain move- congratulate the author on his production, presents a good specimen of bad luck. Men ment, strayed over his rough ulster. Major I have been unable to find any reasons for were killed at her launch and she made her Stuart had put his arm round her, but he | the eternal life of man in the slightest de- | builder bankrupt; she had an explosion on her first trip from London, on the south face, and he had turned away his head, But even if Mr. Kirk had based his little coast, by which men were killed. Then while under his heavy monstache his lips | book upon the proposition which forms the her captain was drowned before she went were set sternly and tightly, and in his foundation of my arguments, he still a regular voyage. She then was nearly brain the question repeated itself-Could would not be its original propounder. For wrecked off the Irish coast, got aground in on Hygiene," etc., and published in 1863, hull, and now she is to be broken up as a

DR. GATLING has made important improvements in his machine gun within the as he relieved Hannah. boat from a ship's deck, or upon a launch, two weeks," said Hannah." stones in a hail storm. A vessel's deck is swept by this great force, and assaults upon harbor defences, by scaling parties, can be overcome at once by a few of these guns properly placed in the fort. It is not a cannon, but a gun throwing onnce bullets in showers. Its force is fatal for a mile, and for this class of projectiles it is the | see now how easy it was, after once being | most formidable arm ever invented. It is secreted in the cellar, to use that.

RAILBOADING in Montana in the winter occurrence. It says in substance that the lar meals, with much "piecing" between, life were drawn the materials for the story the drive-wheels that when the engine

"You are an angel, Shirley," she said, warmly. "Tell me, dear," she added, gently, "do you feel hopeful?"

she was all I had. High, for the sake of our old friendship, for the sake—yes, I will stoop to plead it—of the service I rendered to lessen his dered you once long ago, renounce your gently, "do you feel hopeful?"

she was all I had. High, for the sake of our old friendship, for the sake—yes, I it is worked by lightning—for with all his dark grapes, with their lovely bloom, against in many cases removes the tumors. It is when the idea of walking up a gallows the dear will stoop to plead it—of the service I rendered to lessen his dered you once long ago, renounce your on claim upon her! Give Shirley her free and all the other business, is horrible and com!"

—to be drowned by floods, to be buried by can stand this sort of thing, perhaps for a prietors, Philadelphia. Swaysz's Ointment can be obtained of druggists. Sent by mail

well contented as if they had a few yards

LONDON'S SMOKE CLOUD. Over the World's Capital. The investigations of a society formed in | thoughtlessness of visitors and caretakers | voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the scale, the principle of the " anreival of the London to abate the smoke nuisance afford n this way." "By heaven, this is unbearable!" cried John Greenwald, the Brooklyn burglar fittest" brought into action. It would be a rather startling idea of the wonderful command of the law, he says he would not knows also that indulgence in alcoholic £2,500,000 is yearly thrown away in Lon- have tried this wonderful remedy. property from the smoke-laden atmoslately from one of our neighboring factory for murdering his wife, and yet he con- conditions." Nearly all this waste and works.

Bot Water for Plants,

It is a fortunate gircumstance that a heated to the boiling point poured copiously over the stem of an enfeebled peach tree, others. At last he made a special cut down in the size or quality of their brains, and in her prices, and told her why he did it. who would consequently be as great fools.

The first dividend of 334 per cent. Will be paid by the liquidators of the Central Bank on the 23rd inst. tion the outer portion of the filling was | Sona," found mouldy, it being in large part fresh horse manure. As repotting was inconwater was freely used; it killed the mould, and the plant began to revive and was soon | body, for while I am continually falling in Between Two Young Morried Women.

"You think, then, that your husband no nger loves you as formerly?" "Alas! I am sure of it."

Florence will be a hot bed of royalty of your birio? Miss A .- Indeed, I would part month. The King and Queen of do so wish pleasure; but the fact is, I was Warfemburg and the Queen of Servia are already there; the Queen of Italy will go mind, so I am sorry I cannot oblige you. Good day, sir.—Boston Budget. renevation would not be less than a hundred years? There would then be some Queen Victoria of England, and the Emperor and Empress of Brazil are expersons on the earth at least 800 years old, and what are 500 years in the life of the

THE PANTRY GROST,

And What a Godsend He Proved to a Country Family. (Mrs. M. L. Rayne in the Detroit Pres Press.) It not only "took the cake," but every-thing else it could lay its hands on in the way of cooked danties. Occasionally pork and cabbage went, but pies disappeared

as clean as when new.

ninutes the first time. A thin line of men We were a family of adults of the staid, THE New York Sun thus recounts the been with us for years and had no family matrimonial experiences of the daughter of to support and no followers to feed. It established a millinery house at Mansfield singer. 2. He ran off with an actress. | cat, for she had her own private dishes set | after some years retired from active busi Hannah declared she heard chains clank- widow followed him, leaving a large cetate ill feeling and joined in the subsequent watch, but without avail. Sometimes, infestivities, after delivering a touching exdeed, toothsome dainties were eaten in the and the heirs mentioned in the will are daytime, when for a moment Hannah was | Mary and Bridget Feeney, twin sisters absent or engaged elsewhere. "Set a trap for him," suggested mother. or assigns, originally of Adgerton, county "Try Paris green," said father. "I can- Longford, Ireland. Margaret Feeney is the not shoot him on sight, as he is not to be seen, but we might make his food disagree | and a Mrs. Reilly, of Matawan, N.J., is the

"There's no trap as would hold a sure," commented Hannah. "Did you ever hear of a ghost with The next day an almond cake was swept away, and not a vestige left. "I think I'll call in the police," said father angrily. "It's something human, and we are bound to find it." The next morning we heard a she triumph from Hannah.

Come quick, if ye plaze, or he'll be gettin We all rushed in haste to the scene of action. Sure enough, Hannah was holding him in a grasp of iron.

"The ghost! The ghost! I've got him

"A boy!" we shouted in chorus. "Where did you find him?" asked father past two years. It is now a terrible arm. "In the cellar, sure, where he's been It can be pointed down upon a torpedo | hidin' an' livin' en the fat of the land these

"C-a-r-s," mumbled the boy. " Whom do you belong to ?"

" Where did you come from ?" " N' York." " But how did you get into the pantry?" " Trap door.' Sure enough ! There was a disused trap door which led to the cellar. We could all

reported that an English syndicate desires | Well, the ghost was laid, but here was o purchase Dr. Gatling's patents and this dreadful boy on our hands. We went into council and decided as a whole that a boy so ready and willing to sorr, is downstairs with his bill." Husband sudden, irrepressible burst of pain. " I and Adolph Reich, who has been found extends the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on under difficult believed in the same time seems to be carried on the same time seems to ties. Not long ago the story was told of others, and concluded to give him a chance. It was the best investment we ever made. were standing on the rug now, and the red whose life is demanded for shooting Lyman deposited to an equal extent; and though while the fireman was steadily sho. As farm-boy, house-boy and general facto-

> If it were possible so to adjust the repair become so solidly frozen to the rails that Once mother referred to his past. She the engine could not at first be started, asked him how he managed to leave the Nelson's Daughter. Just before Nelson died aboard the Victory, after making matchwood of the allied controversy respecting Horatia's mother.

ITCHING PILES. stinging; most at night; worse by scratch-can be obtained of druggists. Sent by mail

In the Sick Room. Writing on the care of sick people a professional nurse says: "First let us caution those who enter a sick room against sitting down familiarly on the bedside. Oftimes overy movement made by the sitter is a dagger thrust to the invalid. Neither should they over rest their hand upon any purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are portion of the bedstead for support. Agirl weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing who has inflammatory rheumatism told in the ears, deafness, backing or coughing t

Shocking Accident.

report of the Smoke Abatement Institute : paper column, and we peruse with palpitamoment more and they would have been at was the best way and that it ought to be It is scarcely possible, however, that all "The weight of the smoke cloud over the ting interest the details of the catastrophe hot tears gathering thickly in her eyes at theless. Yet, even while Hugh Glynn's each other's throat or struggling in the ter. adopted. He has talked with men who mankind would, under the mankind carbon and 250 tons of hydro-carbon and of human lives involved. Yet thousands tion, who seek vengeance at any cost—one have told him that their experiences were of the laws of life and at the same time carbonic oxide gases. From actual tests of men and women are falling victims guiltiness might have been on the soul of tricity because it is sudden and painless. laws. There would be ignorant and obstiguittness might have been on the sound of the continuous the continuous of the conti burst open and Shirley threw herself be. the present day knows coal in London, that being the percentage malady incurable. Now, there could be no tween them, sale, breathless, panting, her must be the lot of any one sufficiently perfectly well that if he walks the streets of heat that escapes up chimney without greater mistake. No earthly power, of head uncovered, as she had come from unlucky to get his life in danger. Green of New York in a March night clothed in warming anybody. This waste also causes course, can restore a lung that is entirely mappy: ont shall said, half aloud, with a sudden yearning in Fairholme Court, her hair disheveled by waste also causes and without an overcoat he waste also causes course, can restore a lung that is entirely wasted, but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical back upon her seat again, all her frame back upon her seat again, all her frame shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless of such a dozen or more examples o shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless sleepiness and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in a convulsive agony of tearless and of Lys, ood in the law shaken in t

There are more than one hundred women even if he does not die sooner of phere, and there is shown a total of £4,500, practising medicine in Chicago, and several cerebral hemorrhage or some other 000 which London annually loses because of them are well known throughout the We heard a rather illustrative story disease of his nervous system, or be hanged of the failure to burn coal under proper country as the authors of standard medical

> Strictly True mony of thousands that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a sure and painless cure for corns. The claim that it is just as good made by those endeavoring to palm off mitations for the genuine only proves the | fair trial to experience astounding results and operiority of "Putnam's." Use only a permanent cure." Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure, safe, painless.

-The first dividend of 384 per cent. will

Genteel Quacks. " Yes, it pays, said a big, fat physician

We Never Did Either.

One of the most unique firm names in

The late Miss Alcott used to say : " think I have a man's soul in a woman's love with pretty girls I have never seen the man I could love the least bit."—Washing-A perfect specific-Dr. Sage's Catarrh

"What proof! Why, my dear friend, when he kisses me now he doesn't even disturb my face powder."—Paris Gauleis.

Census Taker—Let me see! You were the feature design to feature feature design to Mms. Tussand has added to her Joshua Jones, who spent most of his time looking at the crowde pass a New York hotel window, and who wasn't known to be rich, leaves $7,000,000 by his will.

ACTINDANCE FOR THE HEI

The Remance of an Reglish Officer and Pretty Irish Girl. In the townships of Kinointon and Bal-lou, county Longford, Ireland, lived two others named Sheridan. They were poor for their beauty, but the Sheridans, o sway like an untimely feast. The gifest Ballou, were conceded on all sides to be the not only ate the food, but was very particu-handsomest women in the county. Nellie, lar to wash the dishes, which were found the eldest daughter, was the typical rosythe eldest daughter, was the typical rosy-cheeked Irish lass, and through her goodprominent family. He resigned from the army and taking Nellie with him to Scot-land, married her in spite of the remonstrances of his family, who discounsed Being wealthy in his own right Robert came to America with his young wife and Margaret Feeney, Nora Feeney, their heirs widow of James Fitzsimmons, of Adgerton Nora Feeney mentioned. Mrs. Fitzsimmons has a son on the police force of this city. Bridget Feeney is Mrs. Lawrence The other heirs are Mrs. Ellen Silar, of

anch | Corcoran, of South Orange, N.J. Trenton, N. J., and Mrs. James Nally, of Millham, a suburb of Trenton. At the time of the death of the testatrix the estate was valued at £148,000, and it is said that by interest accumulated and judicious investments it has increased in value nearly fourfold. The Ohio portion of the estate has been similarly developed, it is said. All of the heirs are poor but worthy people. Mrs. Cercoran is the wife of a day laborer and goes out to work every day herself. Mrs. Silar is the wife of a flag man on the Pennsylvania Railroad. As soon as the relationships are established the estate will be divided .- New York

Afflicted.

Georgie comes down to breakfast with a well? Tell mamma what the matter is." Georgie, full of influenza, replies : " No, I don't feel well. Bofe of my eyes is leakin',

and one of my noses don't go."-Harper's

The Boot on Tother Foot, Husband (to wife)-" I've been out half the day trying to collect money, and I'm mad enough to break the furniture. It beats all how some men will put off and put off. A man who owes money and won't pay it isn't fit to associate-" Servant (opening the door)-"The butcher,

-" Tell him to call again." One of the treasures prized by Robert Louis Stevenson is an old cabinet carved hanged at Edinburgh on January 1st, 1788. ierce's 108SANELITTLE Urgative LIVER Ollets PILLS.

BEWARE OF FMITATIONS. ALWAYS

ASK FOR DE. PIERCE'S PELLETS, OR

LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS. Being entirely vegetable, they opor occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. As laxative, alterative, or purgative, satisfaction.

ach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently Symptoms -- Moisture; intense itching and | Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it SYMPTOMS OF CATARRY.-Dull heavy headache, obstruction of the passal passages, discharges falling from the bead into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, clear the throat, expectoration of offensive me she suffered untold agonies through matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the there is a sensation of disziness, wit mental depression, a backing cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting haif of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties,

Dr. Sage's Catarrh hemedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head,"

Coryga, and Catarrhai Headache.

sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents. "Untold Agony from Catarrh." if Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago suffered untold agony from chronic passi my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage Catarrb Remedy, in three months, I was a well

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting." THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer rom entarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh. ELI ROBBINS, Rungen P. O., Columbia Co. Pa., says: "My describer had entarth when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that if belped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and bearty."

THE BEST for the Family, the School, or the Profes-sional or Public Library, is a copy of the latest issue of Webster's Unabridge

Besides many other valuable features, it contains A Dictionary 118,000 Words, 3000 Engrav A Gazetteer of the World ocating and describing 25,000 Places, of nearly 10,000 Noted Persons, 2000 more Words and nearly 2000 more Illustra-

Sold by all Booksellers. Pamphlet free. G. & C. MERRIAM & CO., Pub're, Springfield, Mass. DONE 18 18 10. SPECULATION IN STOCKS

S. W. POLLARD, Stock Broker, St Broadway, H. Y. City