$1—Farmersville Reporter.—$1.
THE REPORTER, now in its 8th year of publication, is the newest, most organ of the rural population of Leeds County. When first started it was only a very small paper, 18 by 22 inches, with a circulation of only three hundred. Since then it has been enlarged, until now it is a 32-column double royal sheet, with a circulation of four thousand copies. Its pages are devoted entirely to reading matter, while the two outside pages are filled with local news and live advertisements.
The Reporter makes a specialty of County news and has a correspondent in nearly every village and hamlet in Leeds.
Besides its large circulation among the farming community, it has introduced a short time ago, in a weekly report of the markets on the Stock and Produce Exchange, Toronto, and all other important cheese markets. These reports are made up by a specially appointed reporter, and can be relied upon as being correct.
The advertisements to be found in the Reporter are those of the most influential and reliable business men of the county. The Reporter advises all advertisements of a quack nature, believing that the more one can be benefited by the legitimate advertisements of live business firms, believing that the more one can be benefited by the live announcements of live business men.
THE REPORTER Job Rooms are complete in all requisites for turning out a first-class quality of work. Our presses are run by steam power, and we can consequently fill all orders quickly and promptly. We refer with pride to the prize lists of the Fairs advertised in this sheet, for samples of our best work. A call from our travelling agent, or a visit to this office will be found to compare favorably with that of the best work of the best printing offices.

THE NEWBORO FALL FAIR.

An Unparalleled Success.—A Magnificent Show.—Entries and Gate Receipts Larger than ever.

[BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

This fair from year to year has increased in popularity. As an evidence of this increase, witness the fact that the receipts for this year exceed by over $100 the receipts of last year.

The entries were some 200 larger, and the exhibits in grain and roots were far superior to those of 1887. Wm. Pennock and J. R. Barker carried off the specials offered by R. H. Preston, M. D., M.P.P., and J. P. Tett, Esq.

In the Hall the show was good, some very fine collections of fancy work being exhibited. For the special offered by Geo. Taylor, M.P., Mrs. J. A. Shaver secured 1st and Mrs. Rufus Brown 2nd.

The show of cattle was larger than last year. Mr. J. D. Knowlton secured 1st on Holstein bull, registered, and Wm. Bass 1st on Ayrshire bull, registered. Mr. Bass exhibited some 18 head and carried off a number of 1st prizes. Mr. W. Carman and Mr. Geo. Legatt were also exhibitors in this class and secured a fair share of prizes.

The sheep pens were well filled, Mr. R. G. Murphy, Elgin, Wesley Cannon, Ed. Kerr, Geo. Leggett, Jno. Pattimore and W. Bass being the principal exhibitors. All took a number of prizes, but it was noticed that Mr. Murphy had red tickets on all he exhibited.

Implements were well exhibited by E. J. Grannon, agent for Frost & Wood and J. Mann.

Mr. J. A. Shaver & Son exhibited some fine carriages and showed some fine specimens of cutters that were being finished for winter trade.

The horse show, as usual, was very large. John Wight secured 1-t on carriage team, S. H. DeWolfe 1st on general purpose mare, A. McCann 1st on carriage horse, and S. K. Bresee 1st on roadster.

Our track is small but the trotting was good. The following is an account of the entries and their positions:—

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, Oct. 8.—Mr. Z. Purvis, of Junetown got first prize on his carriage team at the Lansdowne fair.

Mr. W. Moore, of Caintown, has a large pumpkin of the white variety, which weighs 100 lbs.

A petition is being circulated in Lansdowne in view of bringing the Scott Act before the people for a repeal vote.

Mr. James Tennant, of Caintown, entered his three year old stallion at the Lansdowne fair but as he did not get his horse on the ground till the second day he was ruled out, as that class of animals were exhibited on the first day. Mr. Tennant thinks that a sharp game was played on outsiders in order to keep all prizes within the township in which the fair was held.

O. L. Potter, Cowen & Co. assisted by Mr. Geo. Tennant, are turning out large quantities of cheese boxes, and dry and liquid measures. Their gristing mill is also doing a good custom business. Said firm has purchased a large timber limit on Lake street quite convenient to their mills.

Mr. Tupper the second and Mr. Drury did not put in an appearance at the Lansdowne fair, but Mr. T. Southworth, of the Recorder, and Mr. Geo. Taylor, M. P., were on
