COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS. A Budget of News and Gossip.—Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Every thing, well Mixed up.

MALLORYTOWN. MONDAY, March 11.—Misses E. and M. Wilson, of Brockville and Shell, spent Sunday with friends in Mallorytown.

Rev. Mr. Hager, of Gananoque, delivered interesting sermons, morning and evening, on Sunday last, to large and appreciative audiences. Miss Lottie Williams, of Rockport, is spending a few days with friends here.

MONDAY, March 11.—The crows have made their appearance, a sure sign that spring is near at hand. Mr. J. F. Chapman has got in his stock of spring goods, and will be happy to wait upon all the customers who may favor him with a visit.

FRIDAY, March 8.—Mr. E. W. Young, our genial grocer, has got in a stock of dry goods. The next thing we will know, he will also invest in a "pander." He is canvassing the young ladies in search of a suitable one.

MONDAY, March 11.—The Rev. J. P. Dunham is home on a visit at his father's. The Rev. Mr. Parent, of Oka Indian fame, preached a very interesting sermon in the Methodist Church on Sunday. He lectures here on the 13th inst.

MR. BURNS, of the firm of Minnes & Burns, Kingston, has retired from the firm and is coming here to keep. Winsor Chapman is home from the West.

MR. T. BERRY has resigned her position as teacher in the Junior department of the school. She intends moving to Gananoque. Mr. J. Berney is daily expected home from Victoria, B. C.

MR. ALBERT BROWN has sold his farm to V. Phillips. Zibe Jackson is moving on to the farm he bought near Lynhurst.

SATURDAY, March 16.—Most farmers have tapped. Not much sugar yet. Our saw mill started last week, but had to shut down for want of water.

MR. W. SMITH has returned from a business trip through the northern counties. Mr. J. Chant has removed to the Watka place, near Leno, and Wm. Barker has taken possession of his farm until lately occupied by Wm. Chant.

MR. THOMAS ATCHESON has had a series of law suits, in which he suffered defeat, causing him some trouble of mind. He has now made another raid on Shosville, but was met by Jimmy and his 32-calibre. He delivered four shots in succession, and drove the raiders away.

MR. A. BALDWIN, our old bachelor of Noisy Hill, went to market the other day with his first load of produce for the season—his own make of butter, for which he received compliments and the highest price.

A protest is lodged against the Dogtown lady who won the prize at the goose picking held here. The deciding contest will be between the said lady and a lady of the centre ward, and the decision will be judge.

MR. J. CAREY, proprietor of the marble works here, was rather surprised the other day when an honest resident of the back country, who had lately purchased a monument from him, drove up before the shop with a heavy load, consisting of a barrel of pickles and one of sauerkraut with an extensive supply of vegetables, and requested him to accept the same as half-payment for the monument.

best thing was some music furnished by William Wilton on the violin, and his brother on the organ. One favorite tune with the audience was "Climbing up the Golden Stairs," and this Willie got considerably bungled up. Praeger, Willis, played the most excellent thing was an address delivered by Rev. Mr. Haylock.

MR. DARRAH has gone home to Storrington for a visit; will return this week. Some of the merchants who had goods delayed at Lyn got discouraged waiting for the train and had them brought in by team on Saturday, a little ahead of the delinquent cars.
