In March. The avenue! is sweet and fundly, bleas ber

Her charming grace, out uncouthly staring, sibe looks at me! She likes my courtly bearing. A sudden gust ! A grain of dust --ounded mote of matter !

and makes her think I'm rudely winking at her.

A NOVEL. manufacture. CHAPTER VI.

SPREADING THE NET. dected state of quasi-widowhood she had thing worth seeing. aterrupted love. And as Mrs. Clapricarde was only cruel when the "sacra fames" was gnawing too fiercely at her vitals, she let her daughter indulge her somewhat wayperhaps, the mother reasoned, a girl could not be expected to enjoy. Had it but a dinner to a girl who prefers bread | carde to-day." and butter to anything else, and calls "a la Soublee" onion sauco-that was of the lips. "So you persist, do you?" nature of pearls cast before swine; and celings, and to help the Kingshouses when to his evil ways.

care-and she was never negligent of her All she could give him was the rather bald appearance. The result justified the means. | bit of information, "They do not like each She looked superb, and she knew it. She had | other. that indescribable chic, that look of foreign distinction, which no daughter of Albion | the fact and wanted the reason. can imitate. "How handsome you look to-night, Louise!" said that unlucky George, they came," she answered.

seeking to propitiate his tart tempered goddess, as well as sincerely stirred to | "Mrs. Clauricarde is very proud, unwonted admiration. He laid his hand on her white, plump | Lady Elizabeth, reluctantly. arm with a caressing, half-timid touch. all after your conduct," was her cold reply, and guest.

At dinner Mrs. Clanricarde was sented next to Anthony Harford; and on her, as | knot with one blow. her differently from what he had ever felt | house." She was sweet and friendly and gracions as a which from any one else was especially dispended to her.

She was sweet and friendly and gracions as which from any one else was especially dispended to her.

"I am sorry for you, Anthony," said the woman? He fancied that her cheeks "But there is nothing against either the Mrs. Aspline, flushing a violent crimson they met his; that, when he entered the Clanricarde as clean a record?" encied all this; he did not know. The daughters." divination difficult. Authory was no fop, | daughter?" shadowy signs meant more than so many | very dear one.' colms while is inspires, that brings the | was Anthony's next query.

where Lady Elizabeth and Mrs. Clapricarde | nowhere compared to you." correctly after long looking.

warfare as she was, how seldom had her | made gravely and with earnestness.

elice," he said, bluntly. And Mrs. Clanricarde's heart gave a fully charming woman! was as astute as any human being could be, | so such a family." not to have more than the normal "What of them?" he asked, gravely.

"Do you not know?—there is medicated.

"Borne of blasphemy to compare the Clanricardes—blasphemy to compare the Clanricardes—the blasphemy to compare the Clanricardes—the blasphemy to compare the Clanricardes—the blasphemy to compare the Clanricardes.

"Borne of the disease and may be independent of any local leaion, being probably a result of blasphemy to compare the Clanricardes—the blasphemy t her of his engagement; " that's in the wind, regret the dear love's decided eccen. Harford, and the Harford mouth was hard.

the Philistines, that's all," she answered.
"This Mrs. Clanzioards is the best many woman in Elagabouse. She now come and look at my curios, Mr. I have really a spider with files. You are done.

If I clear cut of the more and make new tracks.

Care is the and make new tracks.

Care is the colly reliable remedy for kidney disorders which are only symptoms of kid now come and look at my curios, Mr. Hardens.

If I clear cut of the more and make new tracks.

Care is the colly reliable remedy for kidney disorders which are only symptoms of kid now come and look at my curios, Mr. Hardens.

The House the way into committee to be pretty near disease.

She half my time at Lee Scales, it will be better the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the way into committee to be pretty near the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the way into committee to be pretty near the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the way into committee the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the way into committee the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the way into committee the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the way into committee the colly reliable remedy for kidney disease.

The House the coll is the coll into committee to be a fact of the coll into committee the coll is the coll into committee the coll is the coll into committee the coll is the coll into coll in is like a spider with files. You are done Harlord. I have really a very notable for us all if I belie rooms at the hotel, or, Anthony, if you do not use through | collection."

mother? But if there is one person in the thought to himself.

What was the meaning of all this? What corn of poor, fat, good-natured Cookey's had this quasi-Bostonian trodden on? Where had sleepy, stapid, unpractical little Anne been pinched? What tempest in a teapot had shaken these atoms into antago-down.

Teatly not a very despicates artist; as least, soon a tone as nard and cold as an iron rod, as acid as so much lemon juice. For all her vague dreams, she had not dreamed hereaft in love with anthony. Who had forgotten her existence.

Where had sleepy, stapid, unpractical little Anne been pinched? What tempest in a the servant to beg Miss Clauricarde to come to come down. ism, and what was the solution of had nothing to do with it. As a gent he must keep his promise to this vivacious CHAPTER VII.

The next day Anthony prepared to go to Les Saules, as agreed on. Mrs. Aspline that at the Dower Mouse, which was she proposed that her guest should drive arger and more inclusive. It took in all with her and Anne to see the Fairy Howk, the former guests and some half dozen more, among whom where Mr. and Mrs. Clanricards. Estelle would not go. She had been a two days sharp frost, and the had been asked, of course, but in her self.

"You will come, of course?" she said, night think of her distant and ever-adored | with a flushed face and rather quick voice. "Where is your Howk?" asked Anthony. "In what direction? "Through Kingshouse, and on the Lancaster Road." "Anywhere near Les Saules?"

"Les Saules!" Mrs. Aspline spoke in tone of surprise. "On dear no! What have we to do with Les Saules ?" "Well, I have, if you have not," he re been a dance, she might have insisted; turned. "I am going to see Mrs. Cland-"Oh!" said Mrs. Aspline, orisping he "Persist in keeping an appointment? Mrs. Clanricarde disapproved of waste.

For herself, she went to the Dower "Then you'll repent it," said Mrs. House as a matter of duty; so she said. pline, turning coldly away, as one turns It was only right to cultivate neighborly from a son of perdition finally abandoned they took the trouble of entertaining such | It was all very inexplicable to Anthony, people as the Asplines. She had heard—who had not?—of this new rich men who had suddenly descended as if from the akies on the Asplines—like Job in that shower of gold which neither ancient nor shower of gold which neither ancient nor shower people as the Asplines. She had heard- and he exhausted conjecture in vain. He modern Danaes can regist. As yet she had strict sisters, like that virtuous and astute modern Danaes can result. As yet she had leave a message at the Arms," connot seen him. She was not on visiting terms with the Asplines—she wished now near. He was sorry to offend his hostess, hand, no more than an ordinary knight dared engaged anywhere else." that she had been -Anthony had not shown | but an engagement is an engagement; and at church as a good citizen and sound | Anthony was not the man to allow his weather had been too bad for walking out, woman, and woman no more than man. With the secret determination to fascin. Meanwhile he would go round by the Dower ate this new-comer, whom yet she spoke of House, and see that dear Delight, whose with not so much judicious reserve as presence always brought him the sense of hostility, Mrs. Clanricarde spiritual harmony and mental rest. ressed herself with more than ordinary But Lady Elizabeth could not help him.

> "But why ?" asked Anthony, who knew "I do not know, except that Mrs. Clanri-

"But why?" he asked again. has great ideas of birth and all that," said | Kingshouse just yet, and he could not stay | Complete List of the New Tints "It is a wonder that I have any looks at | Aspline's industrial origin to her friend | certainly would. For what else should he

on every one, his wonderful manner of "Yes, I suppose so," was the answer. reserve and dignity made the sharp The Americanized Englishman laughed. have kept him; nor could her people, nor impression of a new experience. That odd | "Good Heavens!" he said, with that could his present hostess. But that tall darkcombination of the wild West "scout" kind of mirth which has in it more gall haired girl, with her fated charm-ah! with the English gentleman gave him a | than honey. "As if it signifies a red cent | that was another matter. To see her again flavor as of cultivated wild fruit. And he, whether she were a cook or not, if she and often-to get to know her and to prove though seated next to Lady Kingshouse, knows how to behave herself, and bore a her-to win her to himself, and wear her and prematurely white hair dressed a la hole. Also," he added, looking at Lady And yet he could not stay at Hindfleet. Pompadour, amused and interested him. Elizabeth, with eyes as soft as satin, "I Wherefore, making so far a clean breast He did not know, but he half believed, that | should have thought that what Lady | of it, he told Mrs. Asplice what was on his he was in love with Lady Elizabeth. For Elizabeth Inchbold patronized might pass | mind as relating to her and "those people all that, he was not sure, for he felt for muster with all the world besides in Kings- at Lissols," as she called them; and how for any woman in his life before; and he | Lady Elizabeth smiled with the pretty | hospitality while using his time in visiting was not quite able to analyze his own faint embarrassment she so often showed a house which was shut against her, and sensations. Nor did he know her mind. when with Anthony Harford. Blassery, which now she would not visit were it eyes looked both brighter and softer when | conducted herself like a lamb. Has Mrs. | and you will not be the last. I thought room this evening, that inner kind of smile | "Quite," was the answer. "It is only I am sure ! which tells of secret pleasure had come a personal feeling. Perhaps, as mothers, over her face like so much sunlight. He | they are as mutually jealous of their | said Anthony, gravely. "I hope so."

reserve of a modest English girl makes | "Daughters? Has Mrs. Clanricards a man's sansas or mounts like strong wine | flavor of tenderness exquisitely charming. | decent; and so I tell you.' to his brains but with the beauty that "Why did she not come here yesterday?"

increasing wistfulness what she thought of him, and whether she liked him below the surface, and not only just upon it.

Thus the dinner passed.

with sudden illumination. "Why, of course, white sudden illumination. "Why, of themselves!"

to keep out witches, a similar notion prescue to keep out w When the gentlemen came into the added. "You are jealous among your- keep out of danger. You will repent it if white. Many lovely tints are produced having rarely failed to render fruitless the drawing-room, Anthony went straight to selves, and that's a fact ! We know all about these from these. Kellow will be a favorite color evil influence of these enemies of mankind.

were sitting together, discussing Shaks. "I think you do pretty well, however, "I do not suppose there is much harm to peare and the musical glasses with apparent | in that line," was Lady Elizabeth's | know of them," said Anthony, even graver sterest and real flatness-Lady Elizabeth | laughing reply; but Anthony, with | than before. "Well, I don't know what hinking of Anthony Harford with pleasure, emphasis, repeated his assertion, and you call harm," said Mrs. Aspline. "It Mrs. Clanricarde with unrest. As he joined that women were the most joalous them, what was dark to Anthony was clear them, what was dark to Anthony was clear them. To amend the first them wherever they go. No one has ever the Russian maidens still hang round the Gibson (Hamilton).

To amend the French them wherever they go. To amend the Gibson (Hamilton).

To amend the French them wherever they go. To amend the French them where the french them where the french them where the french the french them where the french as daylight to Mrs. Clansicarde, and she let what else would make the running. But I know I would have been corry read in a glance what he had not spelt | Then he arose to leave, and holding enough if any daughter of mine had been Lady Elizabeth's hand just a moment hawked about all over the place, as Mrs. been quoted thousands of times. In many twigs of the ash, the Highland women the Committee of Supply. "She if in love with him," thought longer than necessary, he said, looking at her | Clanricarde has hawked hers !" Estelle's mother : "and I will conquer." again with his satiny eyes, "But you are Anthony's bronzed face became strangely Something stirred her as if it had been above that trash, I am sure! I should as livid, as well as stern. It seemed to suddenly talents been utilized here in this old Sleepy | "The loveliest lady in England" | forced quietness.

"I am sure you will admire my curios," | can be too good! I suppose I ought to say | laugh. "You are old enough to know you that we are all too bad for her." She said own mind, as you say, Anthony, and you "I am coming for you, not for your old | this with the nicest little air of apology and | have seen enough of the world by now to self-accusation. She was really a wonder- | find your own way about. And I dare my throb like a girl's. If this stranger were so "To be too good is not a very general carde and all her kith and kin." asily charmed with her, what would he be | fault," said Anthony, answering her smile. | "It is as well to know all sides," said with Estelle? And what a splendid-looking "For me, I think Lady Elizabeth just per- Anthony, speaking with difficulty. "They greature he was ! really a conquerer among feet." How far had be gone with Lady "She is indeed delightful," returned keep up the proction you."

ligabeth ? [Not very far, she shought. She | Mrs. Classicarde. " It is a pity she belongs | Mrs. Aspline flushed spaint as before; "What of them?" he asked, gravely. iskness of a sour ferment, when he wild asylum. It is that which makes me Anthony Harford was-well, he was a What's in what wind?" he colod.

We not darkened by this terrible scourge, she pages, "I shall be doing the square thing might be an odd she as liked, and one would if I clear cut of this and make new tracks.

Her. The second state of the st She had, however, taken the least out of one's way."

world that I hate, it is Mrs. Clanriconde.

I wish she was dead to Authory looked at her in amazonami.

What queer course women are!" he really not a very despicable artist; at least, took a tone as hard an thought to himself.

In a few minutes the door-handle turned and the door opened. Framed as in a picture—checked by the momentary surprise of finding a stranger where the expected to see only our mother—Authony saw a tall dark-haired girl, with soft brown eyes and a pale flower-like face, dressed in a quaintly fashioned gown of clinging material and indeterminate color—neither blue nor green, but between both; a girl whose beauty was green, but phose charm was cauty was greed, but whose charm was A curious tile warmth spread over reater—that subile, nameless charm which Lady Elizabeth's heart when she heard belongs to the fated and fateful women of the news; and her fair face took the color men's passion and destruction; the charm of her feelings.

which Helen and Cleogadre and Mary As for Authory, had he been there by Stuart had to their corrow, and the sorrow | would no longer have noticed whether the of those who loved tham. Her eyes were fair cheeks flushed or paled, whether the worlds in which the soul was lost. Her soft eyes brightened or were abashed. mile was a net wherein the senses were These sigds were signs to him no more. entangled. Her dark and ourling hair was "What can Harford be staying for at sense of melody and rhythmic harmonies | to see through a milistone. and Anthony caught his breath as at a the whole meaning of his life had suddenly been made clear, as if he had looked into a magic crystal and seen the hidden secrets there and he looked at her, he seemed to live | that we have the frost again we will ask years, and to go through the experience of him to dinner, and we can make a night lifetime. Bomsthing woke up in him | it up aloft." he came suddenly to the possession as of another sense, to the full inheritance of point of querulousness—of quasi grandling his soul. Then the spell shifted, it did not —mingled with what else was care and break, as Estelle, letting the door fall from | consideration, incomprehensible shyness, and felt as if he | and leave a message at the Arms," conhave touched the San Graal had he seen it.

Hindfleet, in his heart, as it were, a bird | day to dinner." blooming, and the dull winter evening changed to an infinite glory of great gladness which yet was akin to tears. CHAPTER VIII.

AT THE KINGSHOUSE ARMS. The position was undoubtedly awkward. Anthony Harford was the guest of Mrs. Aspline, who hated the Clanricardes, and irresistibly attracted by the Clauricardes, who did not visit the Asplines. What and | was to be done? Anthony would not leave at Hindfleet if he intended to improve his She did not like to allude to Mrs. acquaintance with the Clanricardes, as he remain here at all? Even Lady Elizabeth, Because she was once a cook?" said sweet as she was and delightful as he had Anthony, bluntly, outting the Gordian | found her-just on the brink, too, as he had been; just on the brink, looking for her face in the magic fountain-even she could not

was not unwilling to divide himself between | good character before and after ! I should on his heart for all his life, as his flower of the two. The vivacity of this striking have thought that lady-Mrs. Clanricarde love and jewel of his treasury-yes, for looking woman, with her dark bright eyes | -had more sense than to stumble into this | Estelle he must stay and could not go.

had taken a deeper color when he came one or the other ?" he asked again. " My passing into purple. "You are the first upon her suddenly in the lane; that her old friend Mrs. Aspline, I know, always man that manceuvring old cat has caught you had more sease. You are old enough,

"Old enough to know my own mind? "When you say the Clanricardes, you mean Miss," continued Mrs. Aspline. do not suppose you care much for that fool and he was afraid to think that these | "Yes; Estelle; a very pretty girl, and a | of a man who is next thing to a natural, or for Mrs. Clanricarde either, with her pride accidents with which he had really no vital | Lady Elizabeth spoke warmly. She and her floery. At her age dressing as she connection. And how beautiful she looked | dearly loved Estells -and she pitied her as | does to look like a picture! I have no to-night ! Not with the beauty which stirs | much as she loved - which gave a certain | patience with such vanity ! It is not

Anthony was silent. It did not come into the programme of his duty, as he conglory of heaven down to the earth for sweet | "She is not very well," answered Lady | osived it, to defend Mrs. Cianricarde's sustenance and illumination. Anthony Elizabeth. She did not say, "She is broken- millinery; but he thought again, as so eight blue shades, including the new pea- the Continent the tree is in equal repute, thought her again and again the lovelist hearted because her lover has gone away." often before, "What queer cusses women cook, which is a grayish blue. On the and in Norway and Denmark rowan Mr. Gibson. lady he had ever seen, and wondered with "Oh! now I see it all," cried Anthony, are when they come to loggerheads among French color cards there are eight shades branches are usually put over stable doors people better than you do."

flame in her heart. Born for the kind of hearted or mean-spirited," was her answer, hawking any girl about in such a God-for-

Anne bit her lips; but hoon hapt silent, and chawed the bitter oud with decorous where I aholi offand no one, and be in no drawing room at Les Saules, was will be the aguarest to clear out now, and uning to take leave, she stopped him most likely to keep us good friends."

"Very likely," said hirs. Aspline, ouriously lachrymose and indignant at one for the public benefit's, anything in which the public is deeply interested.

It is the onstom of H. H. Warner & " Perhaps you are right," hald Anna. proprietors of the renowned Kidney and Liver Ours, better known as "Warner's Safe Care," to flood the country with medical pamphlets. The writer has taken the liberty to examine one of these marvel-Voxed to see her saother so moved, she took a tone as hard and cold as an iron rod lous little books and findulood for criticism, but, before indulging in it, will give our readers some quotations therefrom, from the highest medical apphorities, which we believe worthy of consideration. Under he head of " No Distinctive Symptoms pparent," we find t First-More adults are carried off in this centry by chronic kidney disease than by my other one malady except consumption. Second - Deaths from such diseases are crossing at the rate of 250 per cent. a Third-Bright a Discaso has no ome of its own, and may long exist with out the knowledge of the patient or prac tioner, as no pain will be felt in the idneys or their vicinity.—Roberts.

Fourth—In the fatal cases—and most like the perfumed tendrils of a dusky vine. | such a place as Kingshouse?" said my lord Her lithe and graceful figure had in it the | when he heard the news, like a man unable in every line and every gesture. She stood | " For society. I dare say his own place there as she might have been the blessed is dull," said my lady, like a woman having a reason always ready. "I should not think the Kingshouse vision seen in the twilight. He felt as if Arms a very lively lookout," he returned "But he has us, and that compensates." "And he seems so much interested i astronomy," said Lady Elizabeth, with In the brief moment while Estelle stood | "So he does," said her father; "and now that had been dormant for all his life, and | "You will freeze yourself to death some

After this he lost count of time. beth, who was anxious he should be asked. Churchman should have done; and the actions to be influenced by any one, man or He could never remember how long he "Why, to whom should he be engaged?" stayed, nor how he tore himself away. He saked her mother in surprise. "Society is of its proprietor holds good. only knew that he found himself at last at | not so numerous here as to ask him every singing. a fountain playing, a garden | "He might be at the Asplines," said her "Or the Clanricardes," said the earl.

"He seemed monstrously taken with Mrs. Clanricarde the other night; and upon my soul she looked uncommonly handsome! I never saw her look better. She might have been one of her own ancestors at the court of the Grand Monarque." (To be Continued).

NEW SHADES.

Seen This Spring. The "Domestic Monthly" for March gives the following list of the principa colors of the season and their description Empire green - Dall yellowish green. Reed-Shade lighter than empire. Dragon-A bluish green.

Esterhazy—A foliage green.

Chambre-Faint tone of green. Printemps-Light lettuce shade. Soutelle-Faint grass green. Lime or linden-The inner lime leaf shade. Garzon-Turf green. Roseau - Grayish reed green. Reseda-Mignor ette. Vert de gris-Dark green. Florentine-Dark bronze green. Snowball-Whitish green.

Willow-Shade of a willow tree leaf.

Nile-Pale green for evening wear. Lincoln and Robin Hood - Positive Yew-A deep green. Chartrense-Yellow green. Water cress-A clear faint green. Ivy-Pistache-Marjolaine. Canard—Ducks wing shade. Vandyke-Is reddish terra cotta. Bois de rose-Rosewood shades. Francillon-Dark old rose. Aurore-Deep pink. Beige rose-Dull fawn red. Sappho-Light resewood shade. Scabicuse-Purplish red. Vernis-Golden red. Etrusque-Brownish red.

Vernose—Deep rich shade of red. Azalea-Evening shades of pink. Burnt rose-Bright ashes of rosse tint. Shell gray-A pinkish gray. Steam-Light shough dull gray Granite-Blue gray. Oxide-Dull silver gray. Columbe-Dove gray. Heron-Whitish gray.

all of which we are quits familiar, and mountain ash growing near a house. On read a first time: during the nummer.

advice to his son, if he wished to avoid Brahmans gather rice, and in Italy rue is matrimony, to "bevare of vidders," has in demand. The Scotch peasantry plack large knowledge and experience of the world, recommended by Apuleius, and later on a sword drawn from its scabbard. The passion of face fight, love of intrigue, desire of conquest, all leaping up in a sudden o inestimable advantage of knowing men every country has its own special plants. fands, or supported in whole or in part by saken old place as this," he said, with with the accurate and intimate It would seem, too, that after a witch was local faxation, the teachers employed are talents been utilized here in this old Sleepy "The loveliest lady in England" forced quietness.

Hollow—this Noah's ark kind of society! was Anthony's unspoken thought, "Then isn't there just!" returned Mrs. with one who was probably a fair were taken to frustrate her baneful influ-But now had come the hour—and the man; repeated two or three times, as Aspline. "First that Mr. Charlie Osborne, representative of his sex. She knows how ence. Thus, in Russia, aspen is laid on a structed in it, and which does not recognize almost incredible, were they not well and Mrs. Clanricards consecrated herself to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to the struggle as fervently as ever a young to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the most hardened bachelor think indultant to give delicious little dinners that make witch's grave, the dead sorceress being then not a penny-piece to bless himself with the make and Mrs. Clanticards consecrated herself to the struggle as fervenity as ever a young squire consecrated himself to the laws of his new knighthood.

"Will you come and see me, Mr. "Will such a wife as that all my stick. That woman there fines to be see the sagglend, is advocated in the most bardened bachelor think indulting about and then that moon-calf up at Redhill younder it she most bardened bachelor think indulting about and then that moon-calf up at Redhill younder it she most backed in use in the most backed in use in the most backed out on the should not touch with the and of a mind as bright as and then that moon-calf up at Redhill younder it she marriage state. She knows in use in the most backed in use in the most backed out on the should not touch with the most backed in use in the most backed in the most backed in use in the most backed in the most backed in use in the most backed in the most backed in use in the mos "I have a few old Jaganese curics that a few old Jagnese curics that a few old Jaganese curics and the set of the few old Jaganese curics that a few old Ja a picture, or the minor chord in a piece of Standard. music that sets the pulses throbbing Having mourned for a man she knows how ele on Bright's disease, says: " Dyspnos | hunt rate,-Huntsville (Ala.) Mercury. (difficult breathing) is frequently met with in the inflammatory and cirrhotic forms of the disease and may be independent of any local leaion, being probably a result of will look with favor on my suit? disease. So much known, it remains to recognize the fact that, to remoily an effect ; the cause must be removed, and is to uni-tersally schooledged that Warms & Safe sity of New York City. Additional proof. The House then want into commistes on

Lady (to drunken beggar)—Are you not ashamed to be g?

D.B.—Yes,ma'am, but I'm fall; when I'm at Chatham.

The first of the 110-ton guns for the be put on the statute books of any civilized to be put on the statute books of any civilized outlier.

Mr. Hardy described the measure as one be put on the statute books of any civilized country.

Sober I'm a barglar.

NEWSPAPER CRITICISM. The following Bills were read a third sentation in the Log asombly to the District of Nip

To protect the beaches and shores of the Province against depredation—Mr. Drury. The Bill to smend the Public Health Act (Mr. Gibson, Hamilton) was read the this Act (Mr. Ross, Middlesex) was read the second time. It empowers Free Library Boards to establish evening classes for the instruction of mechanics, etc.

Mr. Gibson (Hamilton) introduced a Bill to amend the Ontario Insurance Act. Mr Whitney's Bill to amend the Election Act came up for a second reading. cases have hitherto been fatal—the symp. was to amend the present law in the directoms of diseased kidneys will first appear in tion of adding punishment by imprisonextremely different organs of the body as ment to that of the money penalty already inflicted for offences of bribery, intimidastated above.—Thompson.

Fifth—Only when the disease has tion and undue influences. According to reached its final and fatal stages may the his proposition persons found guilty of usual symptoms of albumen and tube casts bribery should be fined $200, as at present, appear in the water, and will great pain and also be liable to a term of six months rack the diseased organs.—Thompson. imprisonment or more. He was very strongly of the opinion that the pecuniary has three stages of development, is a uni-versal disease in England and America.— It also provided that persons receiving bribes should be liable to a term of roposed Bill would do more harm than

Thompson is authority for saying that imprisonment in addition to the existing more adults are carried off in this country | fine. Persons using undue influence at by kidney disease than any other malady elections should also be subject to imprisonexcept consumption. Under Warner's ment. He said that the present fine of Safe Care " article on Consumption, we | $200 for bribery was a mere public farce, find a paragraph claiming to be a quota- and there was a great deal of corruption tion from a publication issued by Bromp-ton Hospital for Consumptives, London, His experience had proved conclusively England, which states that 52 per cent. of that the punishment imposed by the the patients of that institution have un. present law was entitely inadequate to the uspected kidney disorder. Dr. Herman | magnitude of the offence. The present Brehmer, an eminent German authority, law had not decreased bribery and corrupalso says that Consumption is always due tion, and it was within his knowledge that to dismiss Macdonald, but in the circumter the weather, the fact that a shingle roof to deficient nutrition of the lungs, because many men consented to have elections stances they did not think themselves just was omitted from the catalogue was invoided and a new election ordered to save | tifled in so doing. Medical science can no longer dispute the further revelations. The proposed Bill fact that the kidneys are the principal would act more as a deterrent than the blood purifying organs of the human sys. | present law. tem, and if they are diseased and thus fail

Then. Mr. Mowat, in replying, said that to expel the unio soid poison or the waste his difficulty was that he was afraid the certain matters of procedure was passed in shingle roof unpainted originated in its through these two great organs, the "Safe good. The present difficulty was in getting Cure" claim is correct, and the reasoning a conviction, even when the punishment Arthur Water, Light and Power Company will show the folly of such a conclusion There is no doubt but that in too many | was liable to imprisonment as well as a | third time. symptoms, instead of striking at the root more anxious to shield him, and the diffiof the disease, and that under this form of culty of convicting would be augmented. spondence between the authorities of the on a roof. This fact goes without telling, treatment many patients die. treatment many patients die.

Blaking Health for Fashion.

average girl goes in for getting pneumonia; the Dominion law they had imprisonment the sun shines, and she thinks there is no | provided for bribery at Dominion elections, to the doctor's and the apothecary's. A operated as it was intended was that judges few women who will dress this had not seen their way to enforce the law is one of the fashionable fads. You may wholesale bribery. use no end of perfume in the effort to make | The motion for a second reading upon yourself sweet after it, but the scent of the being put to a division was lost. oil-by no means oil of roses-will oling to YEAS.-Messrs. Clark, E. E. (Toronto), Clarke you most persistently, and in addition will (Wellington), Cruess, Fell, Garson, Hess, Hudson, do everything in its power to perfume Rorke, Smith (Frontanac), Stewart, Tooley, everything belonging to you. However, if Whitney, Willoughby, Wylie-19. the fashionable maiden determines that Navs-Messrs Allan, Armstrong, Bishop, Blezard, Chishelm, Dence, Drury, Field, Freethis odor shall be counted smart, be very man, Gibson (Hamilton). certain that before Lent is over she will be | Graham, Harcourt, Hardy, Lyon, McLaughlin declaring it the most delicious, the most | Master, Merio, Mowat, O'Connor, Phelps, Rayof sweetnesses. Systematic scrubbing at (Brant)-30. the Russian bath may, it is possible, Mr. Snider's Bill respecting Municipal remove the oil, but it is very certain that a Fire Insurance was withdrawn. mere hot bath will only seem to make it | Dr. Gilmour's Bill to require the owners for exhibition at a dime museum on the ferred to the special committee on Bill 132.

Bowery .- New York Cor. Chicago Herald. Plants in Witcheraft. Occasionally when the dairy maid churned | Buffrage &ct was withdrawn. for a long time without making butter, blis would stir the cream with a twig of moun- the Government as to when he intended to tain ash, and beat the cow with another, take up the railway resolution. reason herd boys employ an ash twig for not sure. The list describes 14 brown shades, with | driving cattle, and one may often see a from which many innocent persons were was read a first time. Williams Are Wily and Winsome. | believed to suffer in the witchcraft pacied, It is undepiable that widows are the many flowers have been in requisition autocrats of society, and men flock about | among the numerous charms used. Thus, | ways the widow has the advantage of her groundsel, and the German folk wear the younger sisters. She has the benefit of a radish. In early times the ringwort was ment

Tale of the Festive Grasshopper, Having mourned for a man she knows how most effectively to zeourn with one.—New Orleans Picayens.

Tale of the Feetive Graschopper.

When a Kansas editor makes an affidavit that he saw a graschopper light down on the back of a robin and lift him two feet the back of a robin and lift him two feet high, in an effort to carry him off, it is simply one solitary Physician to H. M. the Quasar is the Block of Physics County Health and Phys Bootland, Professor of Practice of Physic | soil of the State. Next year they are going | forward as it was in was a vote of want of better be silent if he can only say to-day in the University of Edinburgh, in an arti- | to tume the grasshopper and use him to confidence. But the motion referred to > Rural Belle-1'm airaid not. He hate "Baronr's Danues has no symptoms of these grounds he much sek the House to

City Lover-Do you think your fath

soond time and referred to a special ittee composed of Messie. Deury, Franci

Whole of Mr. Hardy's Bill, "The Muni- Her Majesty was driving along Thames cipal Amandment Act, 1889." being led along the road by a wom Touched by the gentle strains of his mel Her Majesty's heart went forth in nity llowing is a synopsis of the amou

o defray expenses of legislation ies of the officers of the Government as Civil Service, for the month of January Mr. S. M. Davis, who in July, 1887, was assaulted by Mr. Macdonald, Deputy Clerk of the Crown in Huron, and subseque gained a verdict of $100 damages in a civil lie are aware, no action has been taken by the Attorney-General, and it ought not to be understood that the Attorney-General would condone such an offence. Mr. Mowat said the evidence showed that both parties at the time had been drinkwould not say that the injury from which Davis suffered was caused by the assault, and hence the small amount of damages | it has always seemed singular that in the

ply on the supplementary estimates, which were passed without opposition.

was merely pecuniary. If the defendant was also passed in committee and read the when remembering the frail nature of a instances the medical fraternity doctor for money fine his friends would be all the Mr. Metcalf moved for an order of the paint would be useful on any weather-University of Toronto and the authorities | and in the present style of suburban resi lessen the amount of bribery done, but he of any other university or universities in dences the roof receives its share of paint was satisfied that the view of his hon. Ontario, relating to uniform matriculation along with the rest of the building, thus at friend to increase the punishment of it was examinations and a uniform scale of fees. once combining the useful with the beauti-The time is now at hand when the not one which would be of any good. In He explained that he considered a uniform ful. It is certainly singular that painting matriculation for all the universities in the | of roofs has not always prevailed, and it Province would be of much benefit to the adds much to the finished character of the reason in the world why she should not and there was more bribery at the general cause of higher education in the Province. building to see the roof painted.

Wear her cloth gown without a wrap, thus elections than at the provincial. He Mr. Ross (Middlesex) said the motion Mr. Ross (Middlesex) said the motion showing the pretty curves of her figure. thought that this addition was not one was of much interest to those interested in American women are Parisians in this. It | which would serve its purpose, besides it | the cause of bigher education. The universicannot be denied that a very well fitting was too late in the session to consider a ties had the right by charter to fix their physicians, opinions, even in the same bodice, drapery arranged to look sufficiently bill of such magnitude in all its details.

Bill of such magnitude in all its details.

Some matriculation examinations, and such school, being strangely divergent. Of this, a thing as common matriculation could not however, the public are convinced: It is a

The motion carried. way, who will look their best on harshly at present. More than one judge, House for a return showing the amounts moving the predisposing cause, Dr. Pierce's the street, follow it up by the very sensible however, had stated that in future persons due to the Land Improvement Fund aris- Golden Medical Discovery is a sovereign treatment that they get at home—that is convicted of bribery need not expect to ing from the sales of Grammar School remedy. It purifies bad blood, heats scroto say, they are rubbed either with alcohol escape as easily as on previous occasions. lands in the township of Proton up to the fulous nicers, and, whatever difference of or cod liver oil, and then rest a couple of It was an anomaly that men should be 80th day of October, 1858. Such returns opinion exists as to curing advanced cases hours. It takes a deal of courage, this punished more severely for impersonation, to include all collections up to 1st July, of consumption, it remains that many probeing rubbed with cod liver oil, and yet it a comparatively minor offence, than for 1867. He explained that this was a master nounced "incurable" have been by it of vast importance to his constituency. The motion was carried.

healthful and the most altogether delightful (York), Snidar, Sprague, Waters, Wood taining to well night the age of 1,000 years. come to the surface more and to make one of elevators and hoists to guard against strength then but labor and sorrow; so Although the preferences of men for differ-respecting mortgages and sales of personal property was withdrawn.

Mr. Balfour's Bill to amend the Manhood Mr. Meredith inquired of the Leader of thus breaking the witch's spell. But, to prevent accidents of this kind, it has long sion was that the matter would be taken up sick, may accomplish immense labor with sick and "weaknesses" peculiar to the sex, can be be banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's sick, may accomplish immense labor with sick and "weaknesses" peculiar to the sex, can be be banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's sick, may accomplish immense labor with sick and "weaknesses" peculiar to the sex, can be be banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's sick, may accomplish immense labor with sick and "weaknesses" peculiar to the sex, can be be banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's sick, may accomplish immense labor with sick and the sex of been customary in the northern counties to Wednesday, but he did not wish to state

Mr. Chisholm's Bill to amend the Act

The following Bills ware introduced and To Amend the Ontario Zaparance Act-The Municipal Act Amendment Act of The Ditches and Watercourses Ac Amendment Act of 1889-Mr. Waters. Mr. Ross (Middlesex) introduced a Bill to To counteract the spell of the evil eye, amend the Public School Act The Bill The following Bills were passed through Committee of the Whole: To amond the Public Health Act - Mr. To amend the Free Libraries Act-Mr. Mr. Craig moved the following amend had quoted, and which the Government text-book, and found it was enthind "Bylover them in regard to text-books. It would, no doubt, be a good thing if the Government had this power. He referred the House to the 93rd ueo. B. N. A. Act to show that the Begainess Bebools could not leorders which are only symptoms of kid Mr. French moved some verbal altera-

and is injured for life. So far as the pub-

The House went into Committee of Sup-

Mr. Conmee's Bill respecting the Port | effects of rain or snow. A little thought scarf or a boa thrown around one's throat is, after the wearing of a long winter coat, very attractive, but it can be mentioned to be compersome, a face at the public are convinced; it is a thing as common matriculation could not be accomplished without the consent of all be accomplished without the consent of all parties. Some correspondence had passed between the universities, and no doubt the consumption is in reality

LONGEVITE

Scientific men see no reason why the span of human life may not be extended to | birth to four children on Tuesday. Two a round hundred years from the present of the children are alive and doing well, but limit of seventy to eighty years. From Adam's time to that of Methu- few hours. selah and Noah, men are recorded as at-The Psalmist David, however, says: "The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, yet is their for otherwise they would all fall in love with This wide margin of longevity, together with proper observance of mental, moral it is, undoubtedly, a fact that an appearance and physical laws, leads investigators to believe it is possible that human life might | A woman may be without regular features, be made to increase in length of days to a | yet, if healthy, she will be beautiful to full century, at least. Moderation and regularity in eating, drinking and sleeping are conducive to longovity, and those who observe proper habits make the churn-staff of ash. For the same reason herd boys employ an ash twig for not sure.

Wednesday, but he did not wish to state no apparent injury to themselves and without foreshortening their lives. Hon. H. H. Warner, President of the Rochester, N.Y., Chamber of Commerce, and manufacturer of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, has devoted much time ! and research to this subject of longevity, and has arrived at the satisfactory conclusion that life may be prolonged by rational The Assessment Act Amendment Act of and natural means. Thousands of persons are living to-day-enjoying the blessing of | What's the sense in saying that Catarrh perfect health and vigor-who will testify | cannot be cured when Dr. Sage's Catarrh to the almost magical efficacy of Warner's | Remedy is so sure and positively certain Safe Cure in restoring them to physical | that the proprietors offer $500 reward for a potency and to the normal type of con- case of Catarrh which they cannot cure. stitution, after they had almost given up | A full pint of the medicine is made by dis-

After middle age, many begin to lose in water. Sold by druggists; 50 cents. their wonted vigor of body, and thereupon give way to inertness and useless repining. Yet all such have within reach that which Mr. Winks (reading)-Prof. Davidson both renews youth and contributes to the says that the English language is easier to prolongation of life. Warner's marvellous | acquire than any other language spoken. Sale Cures are in every drug store, and are Mrs. Winks-Of course in is. Even our low regarded as standard apscifics through. | baby is learning it.

out the civilized world. The strong degire to attain old agemeantime retaining the virile powers of | elected a member of the London County body and mind-is necessarily connected | Council for Brixton, is a very remarkable with the respect paid to aged persons, for | County Councillor, with exceptional gifts, people would scarcely desire to be old, both social and magnetic, says the Pall were the aged neglected or regarded with Mall Gazette. Some of the feats of healing mere sufferance.

had contended was a catechises and not a And this is a unflicient reason why one should repudiate any private conversation what he will stand by to morrow, or if he | Address Gao. W. Bhown a co., Com. Marchants Nat. Benk Separate Schools, and he was not prepared may not launch into the general talk the costs, Florida. Recovery to say the Government had any jurisdiction whim and fancy of the moment. Back. whim and fancy of the moment. Racy, entertaining talk is only exposed thought, and no one would hold a man responsible for the thronging thoughts that contradict Probably no one ever actually makes up his mind until he either acts or puts out his conclusion beyond his recall. Why should one be debarred the privilege of pitching his orace ideas into a conversation where hey may have a obones of being precipisted?-Front "4 Little Journey in the World," by Charles Dudley Warner, in Harper's Magazine for April. An Apology After All. Mr. Stern—You acted very impolitely to me loss night at the ball when you were intoxicated. I think you should apologise. Young Blowhard—I will not apologize to " In that so? Well, don't you think you Mr. Louis J. Jannings, M. P., formerly a New York journalist, in engaged in preparing for publication the speeches of Lord Randorph Churchill, which will shortly be found in collected form.

the soll-gate keeper. The toll-gate keeper, whose name was Eusted, received the florin and bowed. The toll-gate keeper then chased up the street after the boggar. The toll-gate keeper then told the beggar all about it. The toll-gate keeper then told the woman leading the beggar. The toll-gate keeper then gave the beggar the two-shilling piece. The toll-gate keeper next received beggar's thanks. The blind accordeon player then went on rushed away to tell the news in the neighourred at Windsor on Friday afternoon.

saw a blind man playing an accorde see lot of the blind bluesowing a copper she pair, as an humble civilian might be done; but by the time the regal equipment of the contribution of t

The Queen their summoned her attendant and handed him a two-shilling pieces tions as to what he should do with it.

The Queen then gave him full imstruc-

The attendant repeated the process with

At the Bridge the Queen stopp

the lot of the blind musician. Re-

Her Majesty then drove on as if nothing Charity is a beautiful thing!

Paint the Shingles.

The Timberman very wisely remarks that shingle and the slight fastening it has. If that it is to nobody's advantage except The reason why the Dominion Act had not end desired would be secured in due time. | scrofula of the lungs, and is liable to attack any whose blood is tainted. For driving Mr. Blyth moved for an order of the out the scrofulous hamors, and thus rebrought back from the brink of the grave to restored health and vigor.

Curability of Consumption.

Four at a Birth. The wife of a collier named Isaac Evan, residing at Owmturch, near Swansea, gave the mother and the other two expired in a Female Beauty. It is a fortunate thing that all men do not have the same taste in female beauty, ent style of form and feature vary greatly, indicative of health is pleasing to all alike. some one and pleasing to all. A sallow complexion, a dull eye, a system debilitated by unnatural discharges, in short, all the ills attendant upon the irregularities

Wife-I dectare I am almost ashamed to go to church with this hat on. It isn't at all the fashion. Husband-Is this Bridget's Sunday out Husband-Why don't you borrow hers ?

solving one fifty-cent package of the powder An Essy Language.

MARGARET LADY SANDHURST, who has been which she has been able to perform at her 3000 more Words and nearly 2000 more litus-in every School and at every Fiscalde.

Sold by all Booksellers. Illustrated Pamphies

