ore calm is the stormiest sea. als, it must be so, for the wisest know That man is a fee to man! The love is small that extends to all, Tho' we trust it as we can To have one friend at a long life's end,

Yet there's love in ult, in great and small, in the fiend whom all avoid; You may see its gleam in a demon's dream, And it cannot be destroyed. In the great and least, in man and beast, "Tis the soul, till life shall fail; I'm sure 'tis part of my lady's heart, And it wags my spaniol's tail.

But I sigh again as I may with pain, Away from the throng is best; fondest dreams are of woods and streams Afar in the hostile west. There's a gleam I prize in my horse's eyes, And I like—three dogs at most— aye, one dear face in my heart has place, But it cannot hold a host.

A NOVEL.

' It's a queer feeling," said Mrs. Latimer. "Misdoubt yourself of what?" queried looking back when we've put our hand to | thought of it, as she often did, realizing the | compass nor even understand. "Yes," said Mrs. Latimer, a little dryly. | plight, and the blow it would be to her | trial for her."

become of that blessed Master Charlie but her constancy, and waiting for renewed added, a little below her beauti. "Ay, we have worked hard," said Mrs. | blessings pronounced by the priest, nor the | looking up to the starry sky, wondering in | ation." note after you had done all that you did an adulteress were she to yield herself to her and pitying her despair.

should think twice before they do unjustly | man should own her.

"No," said Mrs. Latimer; but she spoke must eat, poor slaves of matter as we are, together, before God had taken him to would think you were asked to go a receiving class during this period has been ing this $1,000 for his education, went the in the great majority of cases, totally unwith a cough, and a little uneasily ; and let what will betide ! Mary saving, "You'll be wanting your tea, Still holding the paper in her hand, Mrs. | It was the cry of a human heart making | Mrs. Latimer," bustled out of the room, Clanricarde called Estelle to come with itself heard in spite of all the comforting either," said Anthony, as sternly as before. at other times when our industries have numerable waste baskets. In this way he "It'll all come to light some day," said on a mask of sorrow, and the girl saw that stronger than death, and dearer than the land he did not think his habitual selfthe old lady, resuming her eternal knitting. something was amiss. Her mind swept eternal heaven of an unfading joy. " It was a rash thing to do; but the temp- | rapidly round the narrow circle of distant tation was great, and Mary, she's that friends, but the very immensity of her strong headed there's no going counter to | fear excluded the worst for Charlie. Love her. But she's overbold and confident, is deals so gently with suspicion in all its Mary, and doesn't seem to think or fear. forms! When a friend hints at a fault,

I'd like to know the end of it for my part, you do not suppose a crime; when a child and but rarely to that within. She was "Well, no." he laughed, with a goodit would be pretty heavy. But Mary says Were it otherwise, love would be a burden ill, her mother said to Anthony Harford humor as forced as Mrs. Clanricarde's banter there s no chance, and I don't see any great fear myself. Still it's sure to come great fear myself. Still it's sure to come be crushed beneath its weight.

Were it otherwise, love would be a burden and came im and all other inquirers; which, indeed, was bus too great to be borne, and ill as much mentally as way. At all events we have got so far on was known to the Ptolemies and important forms. P.—Well? great fear myself. Still it's sure to come | be crushed beneath its weight. out, if not one day, then another, and I'd "My dear, I have bad news for you," go out of it afore if I had the chance. But | began Mrs. Clanricarde, with great tender-I don't very well see how that can be. I'm ness and sympathy of voice and manner. glad we have that tidy lot saved and put | "What is it, mother?" asked Estelle, away there in the bedtick. No banks for her soft eyes opened wide and dark as me, not if I know it, with their managers | the sunless night. and directors and trash who go off with | "You must be brave, my dear," she the brass and leave the dupes to starve. A returned. "It will be a heavy blow to good bis of stout cloth, well sewed with | you. Poor Charlie!" waxed thread and hid among the feathers | "What is it, mother?" asked Estelle -that's my style, and it's the best, I again, with preternatural calmness. She reckon, out of the lot! And while it's there | seemed as if struck to stone, pale and rigid

the heart out of me; and I said to myself | caused her to shrick for pain.

walked warily and made no mistake.

CHAPTER XII.

THE GRAND COUP.

the heart out of me; and t said to myself then, "Ye bonny little lad, if ever I can do you a good turn I will," and I've stuck to my word even onto this, and I will to the end, that I will!" Here Mary brought in the tea, and Mrs. Latimer's musings came the heart out of me; and t said to myself the pain.

'He is gone, dear! said Mrs. Clanrifeeling as rigidity as if he had been a true feeling as rigidity as if he had been He would not !" This, then, was the annuitant whom | Her mother gave her the paper. Anthony Harford had promised Mrs. Clan-whom Charlie Osborne loved and loved Her mother spoke to her; she did not condition, which the impseumions wife of the part of her native Yorkshire where she that unlucky George—the ill-stared mother were opened wide, her lips were parched, at it. Her large eyes the part of her native Yorkshire where she lishment." "Good," said His Majesty, that unlucky George—the ill-stared mother were opened wide, her lips were parched, attention, and it is only when alarmed by coss is said to be one of marvellons sim was born, hundreds of poultry were killed "I see what you mean, and now I think it of that perverse Estelle—hoped would be as full of evil circumstances as were com as full of evil circumstan patible with life and prophetic of speedy into individual and living creatures, which at this moment filled the sir-"and they death. But he would not go to see her yet, had each its own physiognomy; and then were in a manner engaged—in that hopeless being still under the spell at Mingshouse - they were like the clanging of bells cound-waiting to see how things would turn- ing in her ears-"At Yokohama, of faver, whether he should have to live down that Charles, the only son of the Rev. James | the engagement is only between themselves fever, or finally be enabled to slake it at | Osborne, late Vicar of Kingshouse." It the sometimes too satisfying, too refriger- was a kind of dirge sound, flowing out by her parents. ating fount of matrimony-that sometimes | from that point where the letters turned grave of love, into which, however, love to living creatures on the paper, showing must needs descend. If Mrs. Latimer and to eyes what the bells sounded to her ears. Mary had known that at this present | There was not a tear, not a sob, not a sigh moment their landlord was at Kingshouse, -only this dry, wild-eyed statuesque really now?" asked Anthony, with no Clanricards -- watching, studying Estelle, | the grave of the beloved.

Charlie-while giving his soul as a habi- hear. She put her arm round the stiffened tation for seven devils to possess because | shoulders ; she did not feel. he saw just the nameless and formless | "Estelle! Estelle!" she said; "speak shadow of that love cast athwart his own | to me, dear. Estelle, ma cherie, speak ! ' path-if they had known of all those links | The girl looked at mother at first as if being now forged between them and their | she did not know her; then she shuddered past-them and their future-even stout- and pushed that mother from her with a hearted Mary would have quailed, and the movement of irrepressible horror. vivacious black eyes of the old lady would "Let me go !" she said, hoarsely. "

have paled with fear. But nothing being must be alone. Let me go, mother. known, nothing was foreseen. Anthony | cannot bear it !" remained at Kingshouse; Mrs. Latimer "Kiss me before you go," said Mrs. drew her quarterly allowance; Charlie Clanricarde, who was really frightened. Osborne studied the stars from the streets | "Kiss you!" said Estelle. "No; you ber constancy. of Yokohama; Estelle wrote to him long are his murderess! I will never kiss you letters of constant love and gentle trust ; again !" and Mrs. Clanricarde, taught by experience, For the moment she was in truth and in deed absolutely mad.

Kingshouse." This was the announcement | natural expression, the girl turned from the | could her wish bring back the dead." in the Times which Mrs. Clauricarde room and went upstairs to her own, where first -Mr. Clanricarde having taken the she double-locked the door and shut her. the snow-drops in the vase beside her.

and to appealed to Caleb Stagg's. But "I forgive you, Estelle," she said, trying she was more than doubtful of the results. To speak quietly. "Your wind is upon, his lowly humility and sender self-abnega- forgive." supremely standard that he south distance as his own and could woo her as he would not be would be most as his own and could woo her as he would her whose master had yet to be born. What he set his hand to do, that would be eventually accomplish—the most formidable have you come to terment me?"

assemed to have cled in her more denging of her grist for her beloved. Mrs. Clauricarde such her hand, But her daughter shook off her mother's, as if it had been some neutons thing that pathed her.

"Den't touch me, mother," she said, harshly. "Leave me to myssid. Why have you come to terment me?" he fancied, housewere remoters the thight be, seemed to have died in her-to be

All this Estelle felt rather than formul- will not allow it. So I tell you."

all succeed. How could a man marry a and tender. girl whose love was another's, and who " Mother, if you do not leave me of once ber band, more coldly than with is now published in London with a preface | the very idea was sacrilege; and Anthony a ened notes. "Leave me to myself-that | "She will speil everything." she thought Harford, though welf-willed, was not is the only way in which I can live. You to herself. "Was ever mother so cursed could run away. She had monsy, got in a your mother, ready to receive and comfort to the mother. mysterious manner, and really Charlis's, you," said Mrs. Clanricarde, part revolted, "It is scarcely the weather for the tea," not hers. That did not much matter, part frightened by this outburst, as she said; "and London air is not bracing."

"But maybe our plough is one the Scrip- | mother. But if needs must, she would. | "God sends us all trials," said Mrs. She would do anything rather than marry | Clanricarde, with the tart religiosity of the | persisted the girl. "And why not?" asked Mary. "Not | Anthony Harford, with Charlie at Yoko- cross-tempered. "Estelle has to submit, to do the good you do? What would hama, looking across the seas, trusting in | as we all must. I have to andure you," she for the help he gets from his friend unbe- health to embark and claim her. She would | But her husband did not hear. He was curious, that is, in the girl she used to be; the use of less than a quarter of a cord of thousand a day every day in the year, it great pain across the kidneys with a burn- tion or something else forces young girls, known—Mrs. Latimer, of Thorbergh? And, feel hereaf guilty of a shameful orime great at not hearing, as at times he was common enough, alas! in these later times. wood, reduced in one hour to a few ashes would still occupy nearly three great at not seeing. And then it would take nearly as pronounced by her attendant physician intellectual, to fix all the love of their young heat and burden of the day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | down over the household, and only the | day have our reward | love and promised husband lived. Not all the | down over the household, and only the | down over the household, and | down over the household, | down vows said before the altar, not all the miserable Estelle stood by the window, ened his determin- of spouled fish, four dogs, one box of meat, son paying the money for them, and there kidneys and prolapsus uteri. I advised her money for them, or prove herself had to be made, cost her what it would. She had to be Anthony's wife, we can just make ourselves scarce if things look like Queer street, and our room would be better than our company. But it's a very marked than our company. But it's a time of the second verse of look like Queer street, and our room would be better than our company. But it's a very marked than our company. But it's a time of the second verse of look like Queer street, and our room would be better than our company. But it's a very marked than our company. But it's a very look like Queer street, and our room would white, came daily, neas now! I am so grieved for him, and for you, my dear," said Mrs. Clanricarde, which is it people would take a little of the pains to prevent disease that the poor man, in sheer desperation, gave the high outer wall of the begind to very look with the following are a few extracts:

CHAPTER XIII.

THE LAYING OF THE GROUND, Days passed, and Estelle was still invisible to the world outside Les Saules, mood.

World of February 10th contains an editor of the second verse of the hymn the patience of a workingman on him marriage—who will welcome as her soming immediate left seemed fairly exhausted. Not recognizing the dight out white, came daily, the castle ground. Over this wall, the castle ground. Over this wall, the castle ground. Over this wall, the castle ground in white, came of forly, which the following are a few exhausted. Not recognizing the dight out was a satture.

World of February 10th contains an edit to risk left the hymn the patience of a workingman on him marriage—who will whom the following are a few exhausted. Not recognizing the dight out was a few the hymn the patience of a workingman on him marriage—who will welcome as her soming the following are a few exhausted. Not recognize the high ou saw him and he gave me that kiss, he took and unconsciously gripped it till she nearly anguish of despair Anthony Harford's state was only a shade less pitiable than hers. truthful, let the coat be what it might.

way where there is no money now and very little chance of any hereafterward-where -not known to the world nor sanctioned

"But he is dead now," said Anthony. "Poor dear Charlie! yes, too surely said Lady Elizabeth. "And was he such a wonderful person, own mind she thought it probable that late.

"Oh, you Delight !" he said, with a

as you are, superstitious like the little

"Yes, indeed," she answered. She still | spoke with steadiness, direct and unery out for help. Help for what? She

At last time would be partial ours so far that Retails consected as re-appear in the world. Such love as Authory Early as once woodschip and terrifying to the heart already fall financed hotter and higher when he saw her for the first time after her illness. He would not her illness. He would not as in her state the result of physical allment; and he felt for her in consequence that were passing of the manual would be a curiosity any of physical allment; and he felt tenderness which strong man for his in consequence that were passing to the result of physical allment; and he felt tenderness which strong man for his in consequence that were passing to the result of physical allment; and he felt tenderness which strong man for his in the cold, unfeeling tassellated tenderness which strong man for her in consequence that were passing to the cold, unfeeling tassellated tenderness which strong man for her income discripted in the cold deciration in the cold deciration of the Wanhington. He sawing the confidence in the control of the Wanhington and the tenderness when they lose."

Dr. Mary Walker still retains an frequent in the Congo tender of the Wanhington and the sawing the control of the Wanhington and the tender of the wanhington and

OURRENT TOPTOS

A Liouisiana court has decided that that State any title to goods passes upon the first payment and that after that is made the buyer may do what he pleases with the goods. This has put instalment dealers into a cold aweas.

him made no reply, the only drew away

by a young man in Croyden, Bhaland, desacrilegious. Yet even if he were, and to see and hear you. I as I?" the should find the shoul there was always one door left open-she girl; but I forgive you, and I am always Mrs. Clanricarde," said Anthony, turning disposition would suit each other, and to deigned to project her "double." would come of it." He claimed to have " It is scarcely the weather for the sea,"] conducted a rambling courtable only. The tie between them was so surned and left the room, halting at the intimate, their lives were so thoroughly door to say, "At least promise me one orippied purse," which she might have done had she been careful for the truth.

She did not add, "and too coatly for my door man and left the room, halting at the crippied purse," which she might have done had she been careful for the truth. ber using his money for her own preserva- "If you promise not to open it," said "The air at Thirtt is notoriously fine," She passed the examination all right until tion from an unholy marriage. Bank-notes, Estelle, in the same rough and unnatural said Authony, hastily. "I must be back the doctor's turn came, and he handed there next week. Why not come with me for the adventuress, who is tall and comely. could discover by whom, came two or three her mother left her, and the girl went back | a change, all three of you? I am sure it and belongs to New Zealand, over to the

THE twenty-eight-story building scheme, which was so laughed at when the architect first made it public, is expected to moterialise in Minneapolis during the present year. Financial backing has been secured and an office opened, where plans are exhibited which show the outline of 728 rooms, each of which opens from the inserior court and has a window on the wifery, nursery, education, board and lion stamps. goods and money "-all of which were once | day he would be getting a great prize, and | since.-E. PHILN.

for their city.

be happy, knowing that he is out of pain | "Don't be silly, child," said Ers. Clan from John Bright to his son, who was seems like something that could be acand make enemies in this world. One never if she was thinking at all, she was and sorrow. But oh! he would have been ricarde, with affected banter and real studying tool making in Hartford, which complished. knows when one's sin may not flad one out, thinking all this, but she was feeling so very, very happy had he lived, with my displeasure. "What is there to object to had not before been made public. Speaking and the one as we've trampled on rise up rather than thinking, and quietly eating love, as I with his. Oh, that we might in paying a visit to a beautiful country of the English policy on the tariff, Mr. the rounds of the papers telling how some direct to persons giving testimonials (enher somewhat slender luncheon—as we all have known that love—that dear sweet life house in a superb country place. Young person, esgerly desirous of obtain- closing stamp), and who are of necessity, her into the drawing room. She had put assurances of faith the pitiful sob of love, been under a cloud. We shall probably go obtained 1,000,000 of stamps, and, as the your people go back to slavery." A LOST color has been discovered ! Artists and scientific men have long wondered bunch them would take a very large the ruins of Pompeii. M. Fouque, the most industrious worker could not possibly do this work at you?

the ruins of Pompeii. M. Fouque, the worker could not possibly do this work at you?

the rate of one stamp a minute, but, support and of lime, has now obtained the posing he did do this, it would only be at lights brilliant crystalline "azure" of Pompeii. the rate of sixty an hour, or about 600 a BISHOP TEMPLE, of London, relates that when he was once worshipping in an east is a distinguishing feature, he joined in the singing to the best of his ability. He has a stentorian voice, and the effect of his efforts It was sunny and cosy, being sheltered on At the conclusion of the second verse of two sides by the high outer wall of the on those sitting near him may be imagined.

ricade ne would see to report on her since the world remarks. Individuals, as a bar-iron, as also pieces of brass and copper, boultry yard. Our landlady said that, in know no more than you."

I know no more than you."

Straightforwardness when Anthony asked rule, do not give their physical welfare were successfully welded. The whole procially in the manipulation of copper, are and weigh heavily upon the cottager with lar family !" and he forthwith adminis-

Much has been said and written in recent | certain to be recognized. SPEARING of his recent address at the Awake. times fatal danger which results from | Eighty Club, the Star of London says that | delay in the treatment of kidney diseases. | there is always something intensely drama. | Utilizing a Girl Who Was Willing to be Physicians admit that they cannot con- tic and picturesque about the appearance trol advanced disease in those organs, and of Lord Rosebery. Somehow or other, "No, Mr. Jackson, I cannot be your any stage without the assistance of War- impassive face—surmounted by those ing of another, but I can be a sister so ner's Safe Cure, which is established as the strange eyes-cold and warm, inscrutable you. tained that kidney disease is the real cause dint of courage, coolness, audacity and cepted. Will you be as near a real sister of ill-health in most cases where consump- adaptability. His speech was a delight. It to me as possible ?" tion, beart, brain or nervous disorders are flowed over with fun, sharp hits, adroit and "Yes, George, I shall endeavor to." supposed to exist, and in consequence of dexterous phrases, and everybody giggled committed by our best physicians in treat- etiquette at Eighty Club dinners. Never tive to me as she is to him?" ing such disorders, which are but the has Lord Rosebery made a more success. " With all my heart, George."

posed speed for the electric postal railroad | though-good night, sister." of the future. An experimental line has The next day Miss Maud received been erected at Laurel, twenty miles from | package, and upon opening it discov. of life "-the kidneys, even if they are in solely for mails and light parcels, without is what she saw: one above the car for carrying the current, Jack Fourinhand that his sister was in the attack of green-apple stomach sche, you In the Court of Sessions, Edinburgh, applied by electricity solely. If the experi- I have long needed a sister that would look castor oil for me-I'd rather fight it out against Alexander Hogg, an extensive sugar THE committee of the American Medico. Your loving brother, plaintiff of £1,000 and her legal expenses in Hence the suggestions made to this com. - Sanitary Record. mittee as to the use of wristlet electrodes have their value; and it is possible that this method, with the prisoner fastened in Society of France, M. Guerin, of Grand-"Astronomers tell us that the deviation | villes (Vosges), read a paper on a new "How I wish you were my siebs: I" soid south pole, when the climax occurs, would transported with the greatest case, and Anthony. " Estelle my wife-you my mister occupy the place where the north pole in that after being kept for days and weeks, and then simply thawed out, it retained all was, nor could she control it, seemed to does so speedily, sending rooks, icebergs and, which could be carried out in the paventeen cows and gets breakfast for come up into Lady Ellischesh's eyes and and glaciers flying with fearful velocity ordinary ice machines if done on a sufficiently large scale, and then described the by gam." "Sh must be a very robust experiments made to acceptain the precise woman, Hawbuck," remarked one of his temperature at which the best results snight | hearers. "On the contrary," put in the be expected. The appearance and laste of farmer; "she is pale and delikit-like. traordinary and Minister Planiposantiary Anthony, irritable and sore on his own people of New Mexico have got it into their | thawed, were so exactly those of new milk | what work she couldn't do."-Harper's that in an assemblage of twenty persons Weekly sends that they are living over a vast sub-| every other respect, the frozen sourcepe parried it, despite the remonstrances of traband article beneath the here's pedal ject of hygiaus and wended her way. The soldier boy was still warming his planti-Miss Assaus Bress' "The Quick or the grades on the three-ply rug wisen last would always hate him, if even he took voice that had not a trace of her natural her by force? He could not! To Estelle silver, her rightful melody, upon its rough. Ers. Clauricarde's . " agentino courtship was described of the department bureaus are twins. The doctor inslats that she not only is not now

THE POSTAGE STAMP MYTH.

A Provincial Paper Gives a Youthful Reader Some Sound &dvice. For years past there has been an idea in | same with reference to the $5,000. the minds of many young people that there cancelled postage stamp myth, for such it John L. Wilson. must really be called, has been current among American juveniles for nearly twenty years. In many households throughout the land it is believed in as unquestioningly as the Hindoo devotee believes in Brahma dustrious collectors have been engaged in J. Diamond. WILLIAM CLARKE, discussing in the Politi- the fond endeavor to gather up the neces-Socialism in England, says; "The State inquire the meaning of a million, or to in England at this present moment protigure for a moment how long a time it great deal of distress across the loins and woman who are wed. In London and large vides, for every one needing them, midwould take for one person to collect a millodging, vaccination, medicine, public wor. | "An enterprising youth in search of passed a stone from the bladder, very hard, so many familian attend favorite preachers ship, amusements, burials, and carriage of stamps would think if he got a hundred a and have suffered nothing of any account | elsewhere, and may never hear their

In a trial of the new garbage crematory | twenty-eight years to gain the coveted | ago my wife was confined to the bed for 8 | young Brown. Thus Green still at Jacksonville, Fla., the apparatus, with million. Suppose he could collect one | months the most of the time. She suffered | virtually lingers with us. Magnetic attracfour alligators and five loads of refuse mat- would be very little time left either for eat- to try Warner's Safe Cure, and before she him to be, everything that is unsuitable or Latimer. "And it was a shame that the | iron links forged by the law and recognized | which bright point her darling's soul was | "Your mother consents, and I hold her | ter, including street sweepings, etc., two of | ing or sleepings, etc., two of | ing or sleepi sternness. "If it is disagreeable to you, 7,800 pounds. Jacksonvillians think that may be seen how foolish the idea is that, over a dozen, and is now well and strong, and she leaves her father's house to fix her THE Hartford Courant publishes a letter | recounted to a purchaser. And yet is enormous, and during the recent period of rounds of the business offices, told his depression they have suffered for less than needs and gathered up all the stamps in inwhat an impossibility it is. To sever the | Neverskip? stamps from the envelopes, to count and | Mrs. Widowfair-Hardly.

The Perquisites of an Earl. We had a very pretty little garden at our lodgings by the gate of Warwick end church where a hearty musical service Castle. It was green with holly and other shrubs, and in it the yellow jasmine bloomed all the winter through.

it is doubtful whether they can control it in when one looks at the clean-shaven and wife, as my heart is already in the keeponly known means which will reliably pre- and eloquent, dull and sparkling-one "Oh, 'tie hard to be thus obliged to give inevitably thinks of those weird heroes of you up, Maue, and still your very generous finally asked: Besides, it has been definitely ascer. Balkac that cut their way to fame by sheer offer to be a sister to me cannot go unac. "What kind of a house do you want, Her father pays here, and the won't live

"There is Jack Fourinhand's sister, for such belief many fatal mistakes have been in that subdued fashion which is the instance. Will you be as loving and atten-

THERE hundred miles an hour is the pro- to be worthy-ah, I really must be going, fulness." health can be preserved and disease averted Baltimore, Md. A compromise between that it contained -horrors!-two pair of than by the occasional use of Warner's that it contained norrors | -two pairs of socks and a shirt. A heard his lather use as a basis for bombas. | ace said, "She never deals—she mis-Safe Cure, which will benefit the "engines road carries a ministure train of two cars note slipped out, and upon reading it this tic self-adulation. But the boy of the last deals."—Boston Commercial Bulletin. any attendance. The road has three rails, Dear Sister Mand, -I ascertained from tort, " when you were a boy, and had an cars are built of sheet-iron and are two ing of our agreement I bethought me of treated to Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative | Policeman-Yes, sir; it probably in feet square and twenty-one feet long. these few articles of wearing apparel, which Pellets, sugar-coated, and just as nice as moist, as you've sat in the drinking trough Speed will be regulated and power or brakes are sadly in need of buttons and mending. chocolate caramels; no blue mass and fon may commence your duties at once .-

sex which that unlucky George dared to they knocked—sitting there in a kind of they knocked—sitting they knocked claim. For all the rest his wife came first, and her will ruled where his yielded.

The Clare of the months and with the electric current and decayed condition of the passion. "Neither man or devil shall keep the months and decayed condition of the passion. "Neither man or devil shall keep the most affectionate terms. He addressed to the minds of some that electricity than is yet suspected to passion. "Neither man or devil shall keep the most affectionate terms. He addressed to the minds of some that electricity than is yet suspected to passion. "Neither man or devil shall keep the most affectionate terms. He addressed the most affectionate terms. He addressed to the minds of some that electricity the most affectionate terms. He addressed the most affectionate terms. The most affectionate terms the death, not long the minds of some that electricity the most affectionate terms. The most affectionate terms the death, not long the minds of some that electricity the most affectionate terms. The most affectionate terms the most affectionate terms the death, not long the minds of some that electricity the minds of some the minds of some that electricity the minds of the minds of some that electricity the minds of the minds of some that electricity the minds of t Mrs. Clanricarde read the announcement without the quivering of a hair. She read it, indeed, as if she had expected it, and looked over the feeth and looked over the total the page at her daughter would not been some that electricity and lamented. He addressed her as "Sandie's own dear Ruggis Duggie," and lamented during an absence: "Just to her very lips. "You make me shader." without a kiss for four days!" he saked, with all his usual if she had expected it, and looked over the plaintiff. "without any his oridinary hearing when he had a proposed to hear a manual and her as "Sandie's own dear Ruggis Duggie," and land the minds of some that electricity her had been some and her as "Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie," and land the minds of some that electricity her had been some and her as "Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie," and land the minds of some that electricity her had been some and her as "Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie," and land the minds of some that electricity her had been some and her as "Baddes and her as "Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie," and her trom me ' Baddes and her as "Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie," and her trom me ' Baddes and her as "Sandie's own dear Ruggis Duggie," and her trom me ' Baddes and her as "Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie," and her trom me ' Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie, and her trom me ' Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie, and her trom me ' Baddes own dear Ruggis Duggie, top of the page at her daughter, speculating what softer. He was free from blood-guilti-"It seams almost as if you were forcing | less, and from less to simple friendship." | lighting wires. As most of these people | persistent headache, irregular chills, fetid neither surprised nor shocked herself. her beloved. At last Mrs. Clanricarde, the beloved that a happy mar. It seams almost as it you were toroing the man's seath and fever which resisted treatment. The man's teeth ware but a last Mrs. Clanricarde, the beloved that a happy mar. It seams almost as it you were toroing the man's teeth ware but a last Mrs. Clanricarde, the man's teeth ware but a l riage between them would be impossible. hands with the wires, it shows that in man The man's teeth ware bad, and the doctor He took both her hands. It was his The action was settled by a payment to the at least death is rapid in this manner. sent him to a dentise. He returned cured

> A naturalisad citizen of English birth At a recent meeting of the Manchester a chair, may ultimately prove the most being saked how he liked the birthday of Geological Society, Mr. Thomas Oldham | desirable, as doing away with a complica- | the father of his adopted country, told this "Who can help it who cares for another's read a paper on "TheCauss of Earthquakes, sion of appliances and lending greater story; "The day before the Fourth of July last year, the teacher to whom my boy | your husband?" goes to school explained to her class why lars. The next morning the boy, who was | me." of the earth's axis arrives at its maximum method of preserving milk. He showed born is this country, said to me: 'Dad, every 39,000 years, so that consequently the that when it was frozen, milk could be this is the day we licked you." - True Flag. & Lacking Ingredient, "Talk about wives," said Farmer Haw-

Yankes Boy's Trick on His Father,

with a heart somewhat lightened in that with a place somewhat lightened in that with a Anthor of "Gunn's New and Improved you. I'll see that you sin't. If you are not housely you will not once | end cheese can be prepared from it quite | onld; "I find that in Bright's disease it

Our readers will doubtless call to mind hose to whose room it pertained, to the the offer so widely advertised for the past sattle wrecked veterau. Placing the content years by E. H. Warner & Co, the preprinters of "Scener's Safe Remedies, that tivered a few off head remarks on the sub-lect of hygisus and would her way. The they had ever published a testimonial that have departed, says a London journal was not genuine so far as they knew. This offer had the ring of honesty about Dead," long as object of English ourlosity. | neard from. in this connection it may be it, and as the matter has an especial ingirl whose love was another's, and who girl whose love was another's, and who said frankly she could never love him, and I shall go mad," she cried, in a hearse repagastion. A spacer crossed Authory's love as it appears in the Messes. H. H. Warner rings will hold goed. In fact, elopements as it appears in the Messes. H. H. Warner rings will hold goed. In fact, elopements

KS AN OFFER OF $5,000.00. TES Rochester, N.Y., January 2, 1888.

STRATECIAIR, P.O., Manitoba, April 17th, lives a man somewhere who will give 1888 .- As I have been opred of Bright's $1,000 for 1,000,000 cancelled postage Disease, I know a great many more who stamps. In replying to a youthful corres | could be cared by Warner's Safe Cure if the pondent the Syracuse Herald says : "This | medicine was brought before their notice. - | or best steeds, and it was surprising how HAMILTON (105 Elgin Street), Ont., July 6th, 1888,-I have been troubled with Kidney Disease in its worst form for from three to four years. For six months I press trains, and the telegraph wires could could not attend to my business at all. As or cathe Mahametan in the prophet or Allah. Somewhere there is a person eager and found almost instant relief. Allah. Somewhere there is a person eager and found almost instant relief. I con-and willing to pay $1,000 for a million sider Warner's Safe Cure the best medicine sider Warner's Safe Cure the best medicine known for all diseases of the kidneys.—A.

yet at that rate it would take him nearly | Kinoston, July 28th, 1888 .- Two years | marry in three weeks " that " imposunious

There is no getting away from such testi- repent once, and that for life. So Gretas mony as the above. The offer is genuine. In fact, Mesars. H. H. Warner & Co. have ever in human hearts. " A few years ago a pleasant story went always requested that doubters should write acquainted with the firm.

Porcoverance Pays. Mrs. Plentypop-Well, have you succeeded critically examines the tale it will be seen in getting rid of the attentions of Mr.

Mrs. P.-Did you have him arrested and about the beautiful " azzurrino " found in amount of time. The most industrious fined for malicious persecution, as I advised Mrs. W .- Yes. Mrs. P .- With what result? Mirs. W. - He paid the fine and came im-

> Mrs. P.—What then ?... Mrs. W .- He apologized to James for wearing thick trousers, and said that he would call again.

Mrs. P.-Did he? Mrs. W.-Yes, in ten minutes. I had to see him, of course. Mrs. P.—And you upbraided him for his a very pretty, plump little baby, which on ingentlemanly conduct? Mrs. W .- No. I began to suspect that the poor man really did love me, and love town. Baby Booth is pretty much like is such a rare quality in a man with an in. other babies, and would have attracted exemination, even of persons who are | Electricity is to be put to still another a complaint against the peacocks of an Germany, busied in his own room, heard a Was only a shade less pitiable than hers.

He controlled all outward expression of she nursery, and the pieces of metals. The ends of the pieces of metals. The ends of the pieces of metals to be resided as brought to be r basis, for indeed she could not be aught but that 'an ounce of prevention is worth a the current is shut off, and the heated ends felicity of being an earl's neighbor. Not this noise about?" saked the Emperor.

ound of ours."

are pressed together, the weld is completed. only must one submit to the depredations of his peacocks, but of his foxes upon the son, "and I was obliged to let my brother his few fowls .- F. A. H., in April Wide | tered a punishment which impressed itself on the mind and also on the body of the Crown Prince in a manner highly suggessive of the possibilities of the situation.

She May Find it. She had called upon a real estate man to see if he had a house to suit her, and had gone over the list and found fault with heiress. He's in clover now, I suppose?

"It isn't the house so much as the neigh borhood," she replied. "I want a location where the neighbors will be neighborly. If I want to give a party and want to borrow a piano, sofa, a few chairs, three or four Mr. Deugeace said about Mrs. Klownie?" pictures and some statuary, I want to feel | asked one lady in the group, and then, " Very well, then, sister mine, I shall try that my neighbors will lend me with cheer answering her own question, went on, " He

> "When I Was a Boy !" is an expression almost every lad has trump when she deals !" And then Denoequarter of the nineteenth century may re-whole inside, telegrams, leading articles, and the money market, leaving to his wife the advertisements and the "dead and alive."

Give Bim a Latch-Key.

This was almost the only privilege of his would not eat; would according to the formal of the fo odge. She-Oh, no! The lodge is well Catarrh which they cannot core. It enough. "Well, my late hours then." "I | sold by druggists; 50 cents. A Warm Welcome,

First Heathen-Here comes another ship Second Heathen-Whoop! Missionary Literature's Decline,

Great Publisher (looking over a manusoript) "Your language is not as flowing | gave me $20 for a new spring bonnet. as formerly." Great Author (apologetically) -" I wrote that on a typewriter."

Discipline Maintained. Friend-" Do you live happily with Museular female-" Of course I do. I'd the day was colebrated, giving full partien. like to see him try not to live happily with > Jinks' Mistoliu. power of religion! Have you good what observ, contented disposition similars and their wives always have to similars unless I know all the fact Jinks-Y e-s, but I thought To was be

A Boodler Oversour for the Boodlers, Why not make Col. Dudley Euroy Ex. An Effectual Guarantee.

Patient-I'm not afraid to die, doctor, College, Editor of "Medical Tribune, Doctor (cheerfully)-Don't let that worry Women When Horse Struck,

"Women, when horse struck," says the seems to not as a solvent of albumon; to | New York Press, " become perfect fiends in DR. MARY WALKER still retains an irre- sooths and heal inflammed membranes, betting. They shout when they win, and fashion. The gentisman could go first, Every Testimonial published by us is Bona shou be joined by his bride, and marry her trary to an importial referee we will give riage. In the days of posting the eloping H. H. WARNER & CO. lovers had every advantage. The young gentleman could arrange before hand for We ask the reader's careful attention to relays of horses; the pursuing sire could the following testimonials, as bearing on | not do so, not knowing the date of the the offer, and their nubiased opinion of the preparations for flight. Then it was said that the innkeepers and postboys slways favored the fugisives. If the fathers generally overtook the runaways, is would have tleman did not always secure the freshest often his postboys found a linchpin loose. Again and again was the rattle of the pursuer's coach heard when the knot was securely tied, but not until then. anticipate the lovers and possibly secure delay, if not desention. Also marriages in England have been made so easy that there are Greina Greens as our very doors. Three wacks' notice to a registrar and a quarter of an hour's absence from home will bring Safe Cure, and before taking two bottles I | church is vary | conflicient publicity when Mary or Ethel or Constance is about to in spite of all his faults or even vices or to Green, or what it once signified, lives for-

Queer Marriage Rites in Wisconsin. The Anshe Jacob Tabernacle, the little frame building on Market street where what are known as the true orthodox Jews worship, was crowded this afternoon. The occasion was the marriage of Meyer Banks, of Cresco, Iowa, to Fannie Rosenburg, o this city, according to the ancient Jewish ceremony which prevailed 2,000 years ago in Jerusalem, and which was for the first time celebrated in Milwaukee to-day. One of the peculiarities of the ceremony was that the groom was obliged to express his views of married life. Another was that the bride had to walk around the groom seven times. The attendants and parents . stood about with lighted candles, and the groom and bride were served with wine, the groom afterward tramping the glasses Mrs. W .- I had the footman kick him under his feet, to indicate that joy and pleasure were easily shattered, while only wisdom and righteonuness were everlasting. Milwaukee Journal.

A Salvation Army Baby.

Mrs. Ballington Booth, wife of Commander Booth of the Salvation Army, has pleasant days last month was trundled along the avenue on the West Side uplittle attention had it not been for the curious badges which adorn its small breast and shoulders. "God's Infant," ' Dedicated to Jesus," "One of Christ's Little Ones," "Holy to the Lord," "A Growing Soldier," "The Little Corporal," ' Enlisted for the War, ' are a few of the emblazoned the babe.

Usually they are worked on gold floss on

Alas, how changed ! The rosy chack is pallid as And from the eyes that were so bright the happy Life has no joy for her to-day; grown old before She waits in hopeless suffering for that swift When death shall set her from

From poor, sick woman's misery. But if she knew what wonderful cures Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has effected in worse cases than here she would clutch at the chance of recovering lost health as drowning men catch at straws, and she might be saved.

Gus-I hear George has married an everything. A little out of patience, he Dick-No, he's working like a horse, tryanywhere else.

A Dreadful Popudal. On Commonwealth avenue : " Did you hear that awful thing that said she was the most unfortunate woman at whist; she never held a kromp.' "But," said a listener, " she must hold a

Weary reveller-Blesh me, p'licheman

If you don't want to disgust everybody with your effensive breath, cure your Catarrh upon which it depends. $500 reward is offered by the proprietors of Dr. He-Yon're always growling about the Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Family Hotel Housekeeping.

> Wife-I've found exactly the girl I've been looking for, but, unfortunately, I cam't Hasband-Why not? Wife-Sho's too large for the servants

Sure Signs. Bridges-Shall I lave the hall lamp purnin', ma'sm? Mistress-No. I am pretty sure Mr. Jones won't be home until daylight. He kissed me shree times before he left and

An Unappreciative World. Artist-" I am thinking seriously of presenting one of my paintings to some public institution. Which one would you suggest ? " Candid Friend-" The blind saylum."

Tombstone, A.T., is famous for its app names. Its leading newspaper is called the pltaph, and the aberiff of the county is Colonel Slaughter. He defeated Major Blood by two votes at a recent election. Blinks-Ah, there is no doubling the Captain Cutts was also a candidate, but

Great lawyer-I cannnot manage a case unless I know all the facts. You must tell me truly whether you are guilty or not, Accoused party (scornfully)-D'ye s'pose I'd be consurped fool enough ter wan ser hire a high priced lawyer like you if I was

Explorers usually undergo a good deal of wear and tear in their personal appearance. Stanley, who entered Africa on one side with a head of brown hair, came out on the other with hair almost white. Si Samuel Baker said a while ago that an explorer could not wander around Central Africa very long and continue to look like a white man-

DONE, 16 89.

ignorant of and not foreseeing the blow rather shallow stream, tired of this dumb is always corrow," she said. that was about to fall. No presentiment | strife and mute rebellion, and peremptorily | warned her now, nor had any forsehadowed commanded her to open the door and see favorite action with her. her coming sorrow. The Psychical Society | her and speak to her. And Estelle, overcome | would have nothing of her. She had had by the force of habit, did as she was told, smile. "Are you soo, daughter of the gods no dream of Charlie-pale, tearful, looking | and let her mother enter. at her with eyes full of a mournful farewell Mrs. Clanricarde gave a little cry when people whose brains are no bigger than pig--no vision had passed before her, halting she saw her daughter. From 2 o'clock mies?' for a moment to fill her heart with the | until now, 10, she had changed almost as if | for a moment to fill her heart with the part er mome in the dear accents so well supple, timid grace had gone out of her roows and sounded in her ear-no dog had | face and figure. There was no shyneas in howled in warning-no owl had hooted her eyes, no love upon her lips, no line of ghostly presage. Full of sorrow and pity yielding, of sympashy, of girlish love, of for this illness which had struck down her womaniy softness left in her. She looked beloved, she had also the buoyant belief of like a modern Medusa, turning to stone for youth, and felt sure that he would recover. har own part, and capable of turning to For to love, life is immortality, and the stone all those who looked on her. No tears -I would ask nothing more frost Reaven now. beloved cannot died. At this moment she was not thinking of parted lips were as day and as pathetic as caything very definitely. She was only the Cenci's, but they were less loving. dumbly conscious, as always now, of " My dear child I my Esselle !" cried hirs.

were in her eyes, and note had been. Her but long life to snjoy my superb happiness!"

A French astronomer says the world upthe characteristics of fresh milk. The buck, "I've got one wife in a million.

Bomething she did not know what it paper dealt first with the method of freez.

Bomething she did not know what it paper dealt first with the method of freez. Anthony Harford, and her ever-increasing Clanricards, sincerely shooked and stirred. She felt choking, on if deep waters from one pole toward the other. ies himward. She knew that the "What do you want with me, mother?" | were closing over her hand—as if one must net was drawing daily tighter and closer | asked Estelle, coldly. around her, and that the repelling power "Why have you kept away from me ?" could not answer. Her voice had gone; she had over him—almost like a measured returned the mother. "Am I not always on the product of New Merica have not it into the milk after undergoing the product, and in the milk after undergoing the produc power-would one day be broken through, here to receive your sorrow and feel wish to her dread and danger. She was you in your grief?"

After nome further talk Mr. Hand of the Book of the United States Medical land of the United States Medical land.

After nome forther talk Mr. Hand of the United States Medical land.

The masterful will and hard-mouthed and you are not your. Tou do not resoluteness of Anthony made a man of a know what you say, my look shild, and it vary different moveld from Caleb Stagg in is the mother's part to have marcy and to ion. Anthony would marry the woman | Zetelle stood namoved. All filled feeling stacles counting no more than so many " Now, Estelle, this nonsense must cease," | woman anny love, when those women are strawe in his way. And a woman's love said Mrs. Clanricarde, suddenly severe in even more helpless than usual, more frail ranked with the rest. Whatever moments her turn. "If poor Charlie Caborne has and more dependent. of depression and doubt he might have, died of fever, in that my fault? Why ! "I am giad to see you again, and sorry the central thread remained unbroken- should you turn against me and behave you have not clos," he said, holding her the woman he loved he would have, and yourself like a maniac as you are doing. hand in both of his.

It is asburd, and undutiful as well, and 1. "Thank you; "am better," she answered, arized. Still, she meant to make a good | A strange and ominous glare came into | "You have been very sick, I can see fight of it. And perhaps she would after those beautiful brown eyes, usually so soft | thus," he constanted, with great tenderness.

to the Post-Office, Kingshouse, and their "I wish I had never seen you!" oried way." receipt was given in the Times, under the Mrs. Cianricarde, with true French peevinitials "C. O." When Charlie went to ishness, to unlucky George. "Everything of a woman's postscript—as a rider that London the letters were forwarded to him connected with you turns ill. Here is now included more than the main text.
in due course from the office. When he mademoiselle, your daughter, a stark "That would be delightful!" said Mrs. went abroad, he empowered Estella to staring lunatio, because that absurd young | Clanricarde, eagerly. "I know that change receive them, and to keep the money as a man has died at Yokobama. From such is just what Estelle wants to set her up Mary, sharply. "That you are Mrs. future provision for themselves. She had a father what else can be expected?" done so; and she had sent the acknowledg. That unlucky George smiled fatuously. "Then you will come?" he, added "My word, lass, but you are a stanch | ments to the paper, as she had been instruct. Then his eyes filled up with tears. He | "Will you like that, Miss Clanricarde? "said the old lady, with a little laugh. ed. And now she had close on a hundred loved Estelle with more intrinsic tender- Will you like to come to my place?" he "There is not much good in being slack," pounds, which would help her to the ness, more simplicity of affection, than did added, speaking directly to Estelle. returned the young woman. "What we've maintenance of her integrity if pushed to her mother, and he felt for her in her "No," said Estelle, with a sudden look undertaken to do that we have to stick to, the last resource. It would be a desperate present trial with a faithfulness of of fear in her eyes. "Do not go, mother ! and we have Scripture warrant for not step to take; and she trembled when she sympathy which that mother could not do not let us leave home !"

master never so much as left a five-pound by society, could make her feel other than | placed, sure that he was looking down on | to her promise, ' he said, with sadden | these being double loads, making in all | else in the way of daily duties. Thus it | She continued its use until she has taken | believe. One day the street door is open insistence—whether her mother's or "He, at least, is happy," she said to you make tracks home if you like. But this solves the sewage and garbage problem with great industry, a million stamps and able to attend to all the cares of our own destiny—perhaps to love him always, anthony Harford's. She was Charlie's, herself again and spite of all his faults or even vices—or to "I have taken my change out of him for Anthony Harford's. She was Charlie's, herself again and again for reassurance. you've got to come and see for yourself." it," said Mary, with quiet grimness. "Folk none other's; and during his life no other "I am selfish to be so wretched! I should "Mother I" appealed Estelle.

Harford. For him, indeed, she showed there all your roses, I promise you." such shuddering repugnance that her mother was afraid to press her. The sacrifice of though she paid the supreme forfeit in On this point Mrs. Clanricarde was inexorable. She was emphatically a dining with the residuary legatee, George horror of attention, like one looking into much as was indeed quite necessary. "Yes," said Lady Elizabeth ; "he was a dear fellow. We all liked him." "You, too, Lady Elizabeth ?" "I, too," she said. "But he is dead now," repeated Anthony, little more harshly than even before. the exclusion of the living," he added, Lucly Elizabeth did not answer. In her she loved him living. Once to love would be always to love with herself; and she credited her broken-hearted friend with Anthony, in a certain sense piqued by her pon-response. "I will love her so that abe shall, not remember him, still less entire ted "Good God! have I gone too far ?" Ismen's him. She shall find her happiness thought Mrs. Clanricarde. "Is her brain in my arms," he went on, more as if speaking to himself than to a listeney. "She "As Yokohama, of fever, Charles, the With a strange gesture, and a face that shall be so happy in my love, so well cared only son of Rev. James Osborne, late Vicar of had only her features, but none of her Lady Elizabeth's face became as pale as Farlane, Craigneuk, Dennistonn, Glasgow, more and Washington and elsewhere.

"Yes, she was what is meant by 'in pound of oure."

" And you care for mine?"

hear what she had so long restrained. "Not a word of that. Your sympathy!" the Dower House, no nearer to his great and see a good fight of it, she added, with deadly soors. It had in it adnite, the clouds seem to have lifted. melusion, Anthony Herfood over like o smech whether you are wealthy and wice or so well as from new milk. During all these days of Estelle's would do Miss Clanricarde good in every | Leadon police.

"It will do you good, my dear,' shame and scandal and disgrace of her | "Poor Estelle!" he said. "It is a hard answered her mother, suavely. "It is for your own sake." " If for mine, then I do not wish " Is will do you good," said Anthony. "I do not want any good done to me," she answered, with curious sullenness-

prison !" "You are not very flattering to me commend quite in place at this moment. "I do not wish to flatter you," said Estelle, drawing herself up, and speaking with intense haughtiness. Anthony saw the folly and humiliation of a war of words with a girl in such a physically.

She would see no one—not even Lady
Elizabeth—and certainly not Anthony Harford. For him, indeed, she showed "So far the ground is laid," said Anthony to himself. "All now depends > on myself." Tobe Continued). THE OUNCE OF PREVENTION.

Under the above heading the New York the idea of a regular and stated physical spoiling the whole show."

years concerning the extreme and oftenvent and ours this class of disease.

given to such matters.

symptoms of the disease, whilst they have | ful little speech. allowed the real disease -disease of the kidneys, to escape their nestice notil too There is no safer or surer way by which connection with the action. The Cause of Earthquakes, address we copy the following :

They Are Not Counterpainte.