THE REPORTER'S CIRCULATION.

The number of Reporters Circulated last week was 720.

These figures are the total of the number supplied to regular subscribers and the number of copies sold by newsboys in the city about our circulation, and advertisers who wish to verify these figures may inspect our books.

The second and third class examinations open on the 1st of July, Meers, Bart, Elliott, and Parry, of Brockville, high school, will have charge of the examinations here, while Mr. Kennedy will assist Dr. Kinney at Brockville.

On Thursday last Mrs. James Lincoln, a resident of the mountain north of Newboro, attempted suicide by cutting her throat. On Saturday afternoon she was in a very precarious condition, and was not expected to live.

Now is the time to subscribe for THE REPORTER. A new story of thrilling interest, by a popular author, will be commenced in our next. For 40 cents in advance, we will send the paper to new subscribers up to Jan. 1st, 1860.

We have to thank Dr. H. O. Bates, of 527, Halsted St., Chicago, for copies of the daily Times of that city, containing full particulars of the celebrated Dr. Cronin murder case. A synopsis of the trial of the suspects will be found on the third page of this issue.

Well-wishers of the Reporter can aid us very materially by showing the paper to their friends and inform them of our special offer of 40 cents for the balance of the year. Subscribers desiring sample copies mailed to them, their names and address.

A strawberry social will be held at Mr. Baney Loucks' Franklin, on the 23rd inst. Fruit will be served at 7 p.m., after which an evening will be spent in social intercourse. A free-will offering will be taken up in aid of the fund for furnishing the Methodist parsonage at Franklin.

The School Board held a meeting last night, at which Mr. Kennedy M. A., was re-elected as principal of the high school at the same salary as formerly, $1,100. Mr. Cornwall, B. A., was re-engaged at a salary of $800, an increase of $50. The engagement of a third teacher was deferred until a meeting called for next Monday evening.

South Greville Farmers' Institute met at Spencerville on Friday next.

The B. & W. will run a half-mile excursion to Brockville on Dominion Day.

Three hundred boxes of cheese were shipped from Athens station on Saturday last.

Jos. Gallena, Brockville, has been fined $50 and costs for a violation of the Crook's Act.

The Rev. Mr. Potter, of Merrickville, preached in St. Paul's Church on Sunday evening.

Mr. Byron Cadwell, of New Dublin, has just put in a first-class cheese box plant in his saw mill.

What's the matter with our county correspondents? Wake up, ladies and gentlemen, and give us the news.

The Methodist Sunday School indulges in a picnic on Saturday next. For particulars enquire of the small boy.

The band gave an open air concert on Saturday evening. Their playing was much admired by the delighted listeners.

The flower plots in front of the high school and the Methodist church are looking well, and reflect credit upon those who expend time upon them.

The weather has been too much diluted with water to suit the fastidious taste of the potato bug, which is not getting in its best ticks this year.

The new Methodist church at Delta will be dedicated on the 4th of July. The day's proceedings will include a public dinner and public tea.

Cedar Park Hotel, Charleston, is filling up with guests. Mr. Harry Johnston is manager, and is assisted by Mr. Berney—an experienced hotel public.

The B. & W. train going west leaves Brockville at 4:15 p.m., half an hour later than formerly. This change is a great convenience to the travelling public.

After the public sale closed, about 2,000 boxes were sold privately at prices in many cases not so good as those in its best ticks this year.

Mr. G. N. Young's general blacksmithing business at Delta, and will carry it on in such a way as to merit patronage.

A sawmill near Phillipsville, owned by Mr. Chester Haskins, of Phillipsburg and run by Mr. Walter Haskins, was destroyed by fire yesterday.

Loss, about $2,000.

The Directors of the Unionville Fair meet at North's hotel on Friday next, at 1 o'clock. The judges will be appointed and other important business transacted.

Mr. Butler, of the Athens photograph gallery, is turning out some good work. His large sized photograph of the Baptist church would do credit to any studio.

The induction exercises in the Presbyterian Church to-day include a public reception at 8 p.m., to which the public are invited. There will be a good literary and musical programme.

Mr. Wm. Karley has bought out the stock of groceries of Messrs.

Carson and Gibson, and, having added a car of choice new stock, is prepared to supply the public with good goods at low prices.

The annual lawn social in connection with the Addison circuit of the Methodist Church will take place on Wednesday evening next. This is a very popular fixture, and we have no doubt it will be well attended. Both the retiring and incoming pastors will be present.

Summer Goods—I have just received a large lot of summer goods, such as striped flannel coats and vests, seersucker coats and vests, fancy flannel shirts in white, grey, and striped, laced or buttoned, light summer underclothing, and good lines of summer tweeds and fancy trappings, as well as values as can be found. W. B. Edwards, merchant tailor, Brockville.
